PROXY STATEMENT
ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
April 26, 2006
GENERAL

The enclosed proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of CSB Bancorp, Inc. (CSB), the principal executive offices of which are located at 91 North Clay Street, Millersburg, Ohio 44654, in connection with the Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the Meeting) of CSB to be held on Wednesday, April 26, 2006, at the Carlisle Inn, Walnut Creek, Ohio, at 7:00 p.m. local time. This proxy statement and the accompanying notice of meeting are first being mailed to shareholders on or about March 24, 2006.

The Meeting has been called for the following purposes: (i) to elect three directors, each for a three-year term and; (ii) to transact any other business that may properly come before the Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

REVOCATION OF PROXIES, DISCRETIONARY AUTHORITY AND CUMULATIVE VOTING

Shares of CSB s common stock, par value $6.25 per share (the Common Shares), can be voted at the Meeting only if the shareholder is represented by proxy or is present in person. Shareholders who execute proxies retain the right to revoke them at any time. Unless so revoked, the shares represented by such proxies will be voted at the Meeting and all adjournments thereof. Proxies may be revoked by written notice to the Secretary of CSB (addressed to: CSB Bancorp, Inc., 91 North Clay Street, Millersburg, Ohio 44654, Attention: Ms. Margaret L. Conn, Secretary) or by the filing of a later dated proxy prior to a vote being taken on a particular proposal at the Meeting. A proxy will not be voted if a shareholder attends the Meeting and votes in person. Proxies solicited by the Board of Directors will be voted in accordance with the directions given therein. Where no instructions are indicated, proxies will be voted for the nominees for directors set forth below or as otherwise described herein in the event cumulative voting for directors is properly requested. The proxy confers discretionary authority on the persons named therein to vote with respect to (i) the election of any person as a director where the nominee is unavailable or unable to serve, (ii) matters incident to the conduct of the Meeting and (iii) any other business that may properly come before the Meeting or any adjournment thereof. At this time, it is not known whether there will be cumulative voting for the election of directors at the Meeting. If any shareholder demands cumulative voting for the election of directors at the Meeting, your proxy will give the individuals named on the proxy full discretion and authority to vote cumulatively, and in their sole discretion to allocate votes among any or all of the nominees for director, unless authority to vote for any or all of the nominees is withheld.

The enclosed proxy is being solicited by CSB and the cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by CSB. In addition to use of the mails, proxies may be solicited personally or by telephone, telegraph or telefax by directors, officers and employees of CSB.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

Shareholders of record as of the close of business on March 1, 2006, (the Record Date), are entitled to (i) notice of the Meeting and (ii) one vote on each matter to be considered at the Meeting for each Common Share held on that date. As of the Record Date, there were 2,567,405 Common Shares issued and outstanding. The presence at the Meeting in person or by proxy of at least a majority of such shares will be required to constitute a quorum at the Meeting. Common Shares held by holders who abstain from voting and all Common Shares held by brokers who do not have the discretionary authority to vote on certain matters will be included in determining the presence of a quorum. Consequently, an abstention or a broker non-vote has the same effect as a vote against a proposal or Director nominees, as each abstention or broker non-vote would be one less vote in favor of a proposal or for a Director nominee. Shareholders will not be entitled to dissenter s rights with respect to any matter to be considered at the Meeting.

The following table sets forth the Common Shares beneficially owned by each person, group or entity owning more than five percent of CSB s outstanding Common Shares as of the Record Date. SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires CSB's officers, directors and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of CSB's equity securities to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Officers, directors and greater than ten percent shareholders are required to furnish CSB with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. During 2005, based solely on CSB's review of the copies of such forms received by it and by statements of officers and directors that they complied with all applicable filing requirements, CSB's officers, directors and greater than ten percent beneficial owners have complied with all filing requirements applicable to them.

PROPOSAL 1:
ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

CSB's Code of Regulations provide that its business shall be managed by a board of directors of not less than three and not more than twenty-five persons. CSB's Regulations divide such directors into three classes, as nearly equal in number as possible, and set their terms at three years. The Board of Directors, pursuant to CSB's Code of Regulations, has established the number of directors at nine.

Assuming that at least a majority of the issued and outstanding Common Shares are present at the Meeting so that a quorum exists, the three nominees for director of CSB receiving the most votes will be elected as directors. Shareholders have the right to vote cumulatively in the election of directors. In order to exercise the right to vote cumulatively, a shareholder must give written notice to the President, a Vice President or the Secretary of CSB not less than forty-eight hours before the time fixed for the meeting, and the shareholder's demand for cumulative voting must be announced at the commencement of the meeting by or on behalf of the shareholder. If cumulative voting is elected, a shareholder may cast as many votes in an election of directors as the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of shares held. The Board of Directors has nominated Messrs. Ronald E. Holtman and Eddie L. Steiner, and Dr. Daniel J. Miller, to serve until the 2009 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, and until their respective successors are elected and qualified. Messrs. Holtman and Steiner, and Dr. Miller, are incumbent directors whose present terms expire at the Meeting.

If it is intended that Common Shares represented by the accompanying form of proxy will be voted for the election of nominees, please so indicate on the proxy card. (If you do not wish your shares to be voted for particular nominees, please so indicate on the proxy card.) If one or more of the nominees should, at the time of the Meeting, be unavailable or unable to serve as a director, the shares represented by the proxies will be voted to elect the remaining nominee and any substitute nominee designated by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors knows of no reason why any of the nominees will be unavailable or unable to serve. At this time, it is not known whether there will be cumulative voting for the election of directors at the Meeting. If any shareholder properly demands cumulative voting for the election of directors at the Meeting, your proxy will give the individuals named on the proxy full discretion and authority to vote cumulatively and in their sole discretion to allocate votes among any or all of the nominees, unless authority to vote for any or all of the nominees is withheld.

The Board of Directors recommends that shareholders vote FOR the election of the nominees.

The following table sets forth information concerning nominees for director of CSB, including their principal occupation or employment during the past five years. Each nominee, if elected, will serve for a term expiring at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders in 2009.

5 Ms. Meiler has served as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of CSB Bancorp since August 9, 2004. Previous positions include Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer of Consumers Bancorp Inc. from 1999 through 2004 and Comptroller of The Citizens Banking Company (nka Sky Bank) and Citizens Bancshares Inc. from 1981 to 1999.

The Board of Directors conducts its business through meetings of the Board and its committees. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors are held on a monthly basis. The Board of Directors held 12 regular, and 1 special meeting during the year ended December 31, 2005. Each incumbent director attended at least 75% of the aggregate of the total meetings of the Board of Directors and the total number of meetings held by all committees of the Board on which directors served in 2005. Due to medical reasons, Mr. Steimel attended 38% of the board meetings in 2005, and 83% of board committee meetings in 2005. Mr. Steimel's absences were excused by the remainder of the board. Directors receive no compensation from CSB. In addition, each director of CSB also serves as a director of The Commercial and Savings Bank, a wholly-owned banking subsidiary of CSB (the Bank), for which outside directors were compensated at a rate of $10,000 annually, plus $500 per Board Meeting attended and $500 per Committee Meeting. During 2005, CSB directors could elect to participate in The Commercial and Savings Bank employee benefit health insurance plan on the same basis as bank employees.. For the year ended December 31, 2005, indirect compensation in the form of employer paid health benefits aggregated $31,003, for all outside directors, with the exception of Mr. Steiner, who did not participate in 2005. Effective December 2005, with the exception of three directors whose coverage has been grandfathered, all directors waived coverage. Mr. Limbert, a former inside Director, received no compensation for director fees in 2005.

CSB has a Nominating Committee, which recommends to the Board the nominees for election as directors. The Nominating Committee currently consists of Messrs. Steimel, Waltman and Baker. The Nominating Committee will consider candidates for nomination as a director, which are recommended by shareholders, directors and other sources. The Nominating Committee met two times in 2005. Under the terms of the Nominating Committee Charter, which is available on the Company's website, the Committee is responsible for developing and implementing a process and guidelines for the selection of individuals for nomination to the Board of Directors and considering incumbent directors for nomination and re-election.

In considering and evaluating potential candidates for positions on the CSB Board of Directors, and consistent with its Charter, the Nominating Committee considers, among other things, the potential candidates' knowledge of the communities in which CSB and the Bank operate; their experience and any special business, financial, or other expertise; their reputation for honesty and integrity; and their ability to provide independent and objective oversight and supervision for matters which may impact CSB and the Bank. The Nominating Committee also considers applicable requirements of the CSB Code of Regulations and requirements of applicable law and regulations with respect to evaluating potential candidates, as well as other matters which the Nominating Committee deems appropriate in light of the specific circumstances and the potential candidate. To that end, the Nominating Committee may conduct its own analysis and may also seek information from a variety of outside sources in order to ascertain whether a potential candidate meets the referenced criteria.

The Nominating Committee utilizes the same standards and criteria in considering and evaluating potential candidates for positions on the CSB Board of Directors who are recommended by CSB shareholders, when appropriate. For the year ended December 31, 2005, a majority of the members of the Nominating Committee are independent, as defined by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., listing standards.

The Compensation Committee develops and recommends executive compensation principles, policies and programs to the CSB Board of Directors. The Compensation Committee currently consists of Messrs. Baker, Steimel and Waltman. The Compensation Committee met 12 times in 2005.

CSB has an Audit Committee, the members of which currently consist of Messrs. Holtman, Robb, and Steiner. All of the members of the Audit Committee are independent directors. Among other things, the Audit Committee is responsible for the engagement of independent auditors, reviewing with the independent auditors the plans and results of the audit, and reviewing the adequacy of internal accounting controls. The Audit Committee met a total of 12 times in 2005. The Board of Directors has determined that Messrs. Robb and Steiner meet the requirements of an audit committee financial expert as defined by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee is responsible for developing and recommending CSB's executive compensation principles, policies and programs to the Board of Directors. The Compensation Committee believes that in representing the Board of Directors, it must act in the best interest of the shareholders as it reviews and determines CSB's executive compensation principles, policies and programs. The Compensation Committee's essential goal is to create a balance by which CSB is able to attract and retain qualified management personnel, while at the same time providing for maximization of CSB's financial performance and safeguarding CSB's assets. In compensating CSB's executive officers, the Committee seeks to achieve the following goals:

1. motivate executive officers to strive for and achieve outstanding corporate performance that provides a direct benefit to shareholders;
2. attract highly-qualified key management personnel; and
3. reward superior performance in reaching corporate objectives with aggressive compensation levels and provide that a significant portion of compensation will be dependent on CSB's annual performance.

Base salaries for executive management in 2005 were determined after review of an analysis of salaries paid for comparable positions and consideration of the competition for executive talent within CSB's industry. The Committee's review included a survey of public filings made by industry peers. CSB's compensation philosophy is to target executive salaries close to the mean of the market rate paid for comparable positions by similarly sized bank holding companies. CSB's senior officers recommend to the Committee an aggregate amount of cash and options to offer as bonuses to employees each fiscal year, based upon the performance of CSB and the Bank during the prior fiscal year, and an allocation of these bonuses among the employees of CSB and the Bank. After consideration of this recommendation, the Committee approves and the Board of Directors ratifies the issuance of bonuses each year. The Committee also considers the recommendations of the chief executive officer for annual salary adjustments and bonus awards for the other executive officers.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The following Audit Committee Report is provided in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the audited consolidated financial statements with management and the Board of Directors of CSB. Management of CSB is responsible for CSB's reporting process, including its system of internal control, and for the preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. CSB's auditors are responsible for auditing those financial statements. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and review these processes.

Snodgrass), CSB's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ended December 31, 2005, the matters required to be discussed by Statement of Accounting Standards 61, as may be modified or supplemented. The Audit Committee also has received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent accountants, as required, and has discussed with S.R. Snodgrass its independence. Based on the forgoing discussions, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in CSB's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005.

INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

On August 26, 2005, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of CSB Bancorp, Inc. engaged S.R. Snodgrass, A.C. (Snodgrass) as the Company's independent public accountants, and notified Clifton Gunderson LLP (Clifton) they had been dismissed as the Company's independent public accountants, effective immediately. The dismissal of Clifton involved a business analysis and decision by CSB, and was not the result of any disagreements between CSB and Clifton. The appointment of Snodgrass and the dismissal of Clifton were approved and effected by the Audit Committee.

Clifton performed audits of the Company's consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003. Clifton's reports did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles.

During the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2004, and from December 31, 2004 through the effective date of Clifton's termination, there have been no disagreements between the Company and Clifton on any matter of accounting principles or practice, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements would have caused Clifton to make reference to the subject matter of such disagreements in connection with its report. None of the reportable events described in Item 304 (a) (1) (v) of Regulation S-K promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, have occurred during the two years ended December 31, 2004, or through the effective date of Clifton's termination.

Snodgrass, certified public accountants, acted as CSB's auditors for the 2005 fiscal year and will act in such capacity for the 2006 fiscal year. During CSB's most recent fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, there were no disagreements with Snodgrass on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure.

A representative of Snodgrass is expected to be present at the Meeting, will have the opportunity to make a statement if he or she desires to do so and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Audit Fees. Fees billed for audit services totaled $93,649 in 2005, and $64,700 in 2004, including fees associated with the annual audit and the reviews of CSB's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q.

Audit-Related Fees. Fees billed for audit-related services totaled $9,200 in 2005, and $7,400 in 2004. Audit-related services related to an audit of CSB's 401(k) Plan.

Tax Fees. Fees billed for tax services, including tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning, totaled $13,725 in 2005, and $16,200 in 2004.

All Other Fees. In 2005, there were no other fees paid to Snodgrass or Clifton.. No other fees were paid to Clifton in 2004.

All services were pre-approved by the Audit Committee.

Audit Committee Procedures for Approval of Services by Independent Accountants

The Audit Committee will annually approve the scope of, and fees payable for, the year-end audit to be performed by CSB's independent accountants for the next fiscal year.

Management may not engage the independent accountants for any services unless they are approved by the Audit Committee in advance of the engagement.

If Management wishes to engage the independent accountants for any services, Management will define and present to the Audit Committee specific projects and categories of service, and fee estimates, for which the advance approval of the Audit Committee is required. The Audit Committee will review these requests and determine whether to pre-approve the engagement of the independent accountants for the specific projects and categories of service.

Management will report to the Audit Committee regarding the actual spending for these projects and services, compared to the approved amounts on a quarterly basis.

The Audit Committee Chairperson will report to the Committee at each regularly scheduled meeting the nature and amount of any non-audit services that he has approved .

The Company entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Limbert on December 5, 2005 (the New Agreement) in replacement of an employment agreement from 2003. While no longer a director or Executive Officer of CSB, information regarding Mr. Limbert is provided pursuant to requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission. In the event that Mr. Limbert's employment was terminated without cause (as defined in the agreement), the agreement entitles him to a severance payment equal to the unpaid amount otherwise due under the agreement plus six months of the base salary in effect on the date of termination and limited continued benefits for a six month period. The agreement also contained a non-compete provision, prohibiting Mr. Limbert from competing for a period of one year following the date of termination of the agreement, as well as a change in control provision which provided Mr. Limbert with certain benefits, including continuation of compensation, stock options, and certain health benefits for a period of three years following a change in control as defined therein and termination of employment within a 90-day period before or after such change in control. Such change in control benefits are subject to being reduced so that no excess parachute payment (as defined in Section 280G(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended; the IRS Code) is received by Mr. Limbert.
