Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 22, 2008, Zoom Technologies, Inc. (the “Company”) and RedMoon, Inc., a provider of wireless networks headquartered in Plano, Texas (“RedMoon”), entered into a Convertible Note Purchase Agreement pursuant to which the Company made an initial investment of $300,000 in 6% convertible notes (the “Notes”) and agreed to purchase an additional $50,000 per month of 6% convertible notes beginning on May 1, 2008 and continuing until the earlier of (i) the Company’s election to exercise the option to purchase all outstanding stock of RedMoon contained in the Option Agreement described below or (ii) the Company’s election to terminate such Option Agreement, up to a maximum total investment of $500,000. The Notes are senior to all long term liabilities of RedMoon and all current liabilities of RedMoon in excess of $11,000 and are secured by certain equipment of RedMoon. The Notes have a term of three years, and, at the Company’s election, may be converted into shares of Series A Preferred Stock of RedMoon. If the Company purchases Notes with a total principal amount of $500,000, such Notes will be convertible into shares of Series A Preferred Stock representing 20% of the fully diluted capitalization of RedMoon. If the Company purchases Notes with a total principal amount of less than $500,000, the number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock issued upon conversion of the Notes will be pro-rated according to the amount of the actual investment.

On the same date, the Company, RedMoon and the holders of RedMoon’s outstanding capital stock entered into an Option Agreement pursuant to which the Company has the right to buy the balance of RedMoon any time prior to the close of business on August 31, 2008, unless the Company elects to terminate the Option Agreement prior to that date, at a price equal to 1,000,000 shares of the Company’s common stock plus up to 4,000,000 additional shares of the Company’s common stock, or cash or a combination of cash and stock of equivalent value, with any issuance of some or all of the 4,000,000 additional shares or share equivalents based on RedMoon’s performance during the five calendar quarters beginning with the quarter ending June 30, 2008.

Finally, on the same date the Company and RedMoon entered into a Security Agreement granting the Company a security interest in certain equipment of RedMoon, and the Company, RedMoon, and certain of RedMoon’s stockholders entered into a Voting Agreement whereby the Company and certain stockholders of RedMoon agreed to elect Frank Manning, Chief Executive Officer of the Company, and Bryan Thompson, Chief Executive Officer of RedMoon, to the Board of Directors of RedMoon.

The foregoing description of the transaction, the Convertible Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes, the Option Agreement, the Security Agreement and the Voting Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of each such agreement, copies of which are filed as exhibits hereto and are incorporated herein by reference.

Item 8.01 Other Events

On January 28, 2008, the Company issued a press release reporting on the transactions with RedMoon described in Item 1.01. See Exhibit 99.1, which is incorporated herein by reference.
