On October 31, 2003, the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York (the "SDNY") approved the global settlement among a number of Wall Street firms, including CSFB LLC, and a coalition of state and federal regulators and self-regulatory organizations (the "Global Settlement"). CSFB LLC, without admitting or denying any alleged violation, consented to the Global Settlement and thereby resolved a SEC complaint filed on April 28, 2003, in the SDNY. In this complaint, the SEC alleged that, from July 1998 to December 2001, CSFB LLC engaged in acts and practices that created or maintained inappropriate influence over research analysts, thereby imposing conflicts of interest on research analysts that CSFB LLC failed to manage in an adequate or appropriate manner. The SEC's complaint also alleged that CSFB LLC engaged in inappropriate "spinning" of "hot" initial public offering allocations in violation of New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") and the NASD rules requiring adherence to high business standards and just and equitable principles of trade, and that CSFB LLC's books and records relating to certain transactions violated the broker-dealer recordkeeping provisions of Section 17(a) of the Exchange Act, NYSE Rules 401, 440 and 476(a)(6) and NASD Rules 2110 and 3110.

- CSFB LLC agreed to pay the following amounts: $75 million as a penalty, $75 million as disgorgement of commissions and other monies for restitution for investors, and $50 million to be used to fund independent research. This $50 million to fund independent research is payable over a five year period.
- CSFB LLC is required, among other things, to: (i) separate its research and investment banking departments and make independent research available to investors, (ii) prohibit its analysts from receiving compensation for investment banking activities and prohibit analysts' involvement in investment banking "pitches" and "roadshows," (iii) contract, for a five-year period, with no fewer than three independent research firms that will make available independent research to CSFB LLC's customers and (iv) make its analysts' historical price targets (among other things) publicly available.
- CSFB LLC is permanently restrained and enjoined from violating Sections 15(e) and 17(a) of the Exchange Act, Exchange Act Rules 15c1-2 and 17a-3, Financial Industry Regulatory Authority Rules 2110, 2210, 3010, and 3110, and NYSE Rules 342, 401, 440, 472, and 476.

Such contribution was funded through a loan made to RECP IV and RECP IV Co-Investors-A, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership ("RECP IV Co-Investors-A"), in the amount of $93,500,000 pursuant to that certain Revolving Credit Agreement dated as of February 4, 2008 by and among RECP IV and RECP IV Co-Investors-A, as borrowers, WestLB AG, New York Branch, as Administrative Agent, and the lenders party thereto. RECP IV and RECP IV Co-Investors-A expect to make calls for capital contributions from their respective partners and to use such capital contributions to repay the loan.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

RECP IV Cite CMBS acquired the Common Shares and Series E Preferred Stock in the ordinary course of its business for general investment purposes.

In accordance with the terms of the securities purchase agreement by and between the Issuer and RECP IV Cite CMBS, dated April 4, 2008 (the "Purchase Agreement"), RECP IV Cite CMBS acquired from the Issuer 3,494,021 shares of Common Stock (the "Common Shares"), 23,375 shares of Series E-1 cumulative convertible redeemable preferred stock (the "Series E-1 Preferred Stock"), 23,375 shares of Series E-2 cumulative convertible redeemable preferred stock (the "Series E-2 Preferred Stock") and 23,375 shares of Series E-3 cumulative convertible redeemable preferred stock (the "Series E-3 Preferred Stock," and together with the Series E-1 Preferred Stock and the Series E-2 Preferred stock, the "Series E Preferred Stock") of the Issuer.

In order to issue the Series E Preferred Stock the Issuer filed articles supplementary for each series of the Series E Preferred Stock (the "Series E Articles Supplementary") with the State of Maryland on April 4, 2008. The Series E Articles Supplementary are incorporated herein by reference and attached hereto as Exhibits 99.2, 99.3 and 99.4.

Pursuant to the Series E Articles Supplementary, each share of Series E Preferred Stock is convertible, at the option of the holder at any time after the issuance of such share, into 133.46146 shares of common stock (equivalent to a conversion price of $7.49 per share of common stock), plus cash in lieu of fractional shares, subject to certain anti-dilution provisions.

In addition, each share of Series E Preferred Stock may at the Issuer's option be converted into shares of Common Stock at the conversion price in effect at the time, upon the occurrence, at any time on or after April 4, 2013, if, for 20 trading days within any period of 30 consecutive trading days ending on the trading day preceding the date on which the Issuer gives notice of mandatory conversion, the closing price of the Common Stock exceeds 140% of the then-applicable Conversion Price of the Series E Preferred Stock.

Pursuant to the Series E Articles Supplementary, the Series E-1 Preferred Stock is redeemable at the option of the holder on or after April 4, 2012 at a redemption price per share equal to the Liquidation Preference (as such term is defined therein) per share, plus all accumulated but unpaid dividends. On or after April 4, 2013 the Series E-2 Preferred Stock is redeemable at the option of the holder at a redemption price per share equal to the Liquidation Preference (as such term is defined therein) per share, plus all accumulated but unpaid dividends. If the holder of such Series E-1 or E-2 Preferred Stock exercises the option to redeem, in each case all shares of such series must be redeemed.

Pursuant to the Series E Articles Supplementary, upon the occurrence of a Change of Control (as such term is defined therein) of the Issuer, each holder has the right to require that Issuer, to the extent it may lawfully do so, purchase for cash all of that holder's shares of Series E Preferred Stock at a specific purchase price dependent on the number of years from which the Change in Control occurred relative to the issue date of the Series E Preferred Stock, plus an amount equal to all declared but unpaid dividends.

Pursuant to the Series E Articles Supplementary, the Issuer may not, at its option, redeem the Series E Preferred Stock before April 4, 2013 unless such redemption is done solely to preserve its status as a REIT. The Issuer may redeem the Series E Preferred Stock after April 4, 2013 in whole or in part for cash at a per share amount equal to the liquidation preference per share, plus an amount equal to all declared but unpaid dividends.

Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement and the Series E Articles Supplementary, the board of directors of the Issuer (the "Board of Directors") increased the size of the Board of Directors from seven directors to eight, and elected Andrew P. Rifkin to the Board of Directors. In connection with the transaction and pursuant to the Series E Articles Supplementary, so long as more than 50.0% of the shares of the issued Series E Preferred Stock in the aggregate, have been continuously owned by RECP IV Cite CMBS, the holders of the Series E Preferred Stock have the right to elect one member of the Board of Directors at any annual or special meeting of the stockholders of the Issuer or by a written consent in lieu of a meeting undertaken by the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Series E Preferred Stock, in the aggregate.

In addition to the foregoing matters, the Reporting Persons intend to review their holdings in the Issuer on a continuing basis. Depending upon, among other things, current and anticipated future trading prices for the Issuer's securities, the financial condition, results of operations and prospects of the Issuer and its businesses, general economic, market and industry conditions, and the Reporting Persons' overall investment portfolio, strategic objectives and financial condition, the Reporting Persons may from time to time consider a number of possible strategies intended to enhance the value of their investment in the Issuer, enhance the value of the Issuer's assets or enhance the value of the Reporting Persons' assets through the involvement of the Issuer, or other extraordinary matters relating to the Issuer, including, among other things: (i) continued ownership of the Issuer's equity currently beneficially owned by the Reporting Persons; (ii) acquiring additional interests in or disposing of some or all of its interests in the Issuer in the open market, in privately negotiated transactions or otherwise; (iii) a sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of the Issuer and/or any of its affiliates; or (iv) proposing or effecting any other transaction or matter that would constitute or result in any of the transactions, matters or effects enumerated in Item 4(a)-(j) of Schedule 13D.

There can be no assurance that the Reporting Persons will pursue any of the matters set forth above. Moreover, there can be no assurance that the Reporting Persons will or will not develop any alternative plan or proposal with respect to any of the foregoing matters or take any particular action or actions with respect to some or all of their holdings in the Issuer, or as to the timing of any such matters should they be so pursued by the Reporting Persons. The Reporting Persons reserve the right, at any time and in each Reporting Person's sole discretion, to take or refrain from taking any of the actions set forth above.
