Part (IV)(3) Anticipated Changes in Results of Operations

The Company expects to report that net losses for the three months ended August 31, 2008 were $273,171 compared to $163,004 for the three months ended August 31, 2007. The increase of $110,167 can be principally attributed to a decrease in internet sales in the United States resulting from changes in the Internet environment and the Company's on -going restructuring of its hosting and web-managing services. Together those factors decreased internet visibility, traffic and conversion rate.
