Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Aerosonic Corporation (“Aerosonic”) has entered into three unsecured loan agreements (each, a “Loan Agreement” and together, the “Loan Agreements”) for up to $2,000,000 in principal amount in the aggregate with attached warrants. The $2,000,000 in principal amount of the loans are represented by three separate 14% unsecured subordinated notes (each, a “Subordinated Note” and together, the “Subordinated Notes”) issued to three Aerosonic stockholders (the “Investors”). Each of the Subordinated Notes are payable in full on or before April 10, 2010 (the “Maturity Date”). The terms and conditions of each of the Loan Agreements and each of the Subordinated Notes are substantially similar, as described in more detail below:

- On May 14, 2009, Aerosonic entered into a Loan Agreement by and between Aerosonic and Bruce J. Stone, (“Stone”) pursuant to which, Aerosonic and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, Avionics Specialties, Inc. and OP Technologies, Inc., issued a Subordinated Note of up to $1,000,000 in principal amount, of which $750,000 has been made available to Aerosonic as of May 14, 2009 and $250,000 will be available to Aerosonic no later than July 5, 2009;
- On May 14, 2009, Aerosonic entered into a Loan Agreement by and between Aerosonic and Redmond Family Investments, LLLP, (“Redmond”) pursuant to which, Aerosonic and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, Avionics Specialties, Inc. and OP Technologies, Inc., issued a Subordinated Note of up to $500,000 in principal amount, of which $500,000 has been made available to Aerosonic as of May 14, 2009; and
- On May 14, 2009, Aerosonic entered into a Loan Agreement by and between Aerosonic and Martin L. Schaffel, (“Schaffel”) pursuant to which, Aerosonic and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, Avionics Specialties, Inc. and OP Technologies, Inc., issued a Subordinated Note of up to $500,000 in principal amount, of which $500,000 has been made available to Aerosonic as of May 14, 2009.

Pursuant to the terms of the Loan Agreements, Aerosonic may, at its discretion, draw down upon the Subordinated Notes on a pro rata basis. Upon each cash draw down, Aerosonic will be required to issue common stock and warrants to the Investors in accordance with the terms of the Subordinated Notes, subject to approval by NYSE Amex of Aerosonic’s Additional Listing Application. Up to a maximum of 200,000 shares of Aerosonic common stock in the aggregate may be issued to the Investors in connection with the Subordinated Notes (one tenth (1/10th) of the one (1) share of common stock for each $1.00 in principal amount drawn upon the Subordinated Notes) and do not require separate consideration from the Investors.

Warrants (5-year term from the Maturity Date) to purchase up to 500,000 shares of Aerosonic common stock in the aggregate may also be issued in connection with the Subordinated Notes (warrants to purchase 0.25 shares of common stock for each $1.00 in principal amount drawn upon the Subordinated Notes). The warrants issued to the Investors shall be exercisable at any time during the period after the one-year anniversary of the original issue date and before the expiration date. The exercise price for the warrants is $0.64 (based on the calculation of 50% of the prior 60 trading day average volume weighted selling price of Aerosonic’s common stock as of April 30, 2009), subject to customary anti-dilution adjustments.

The shares of Aerosonic common stock that may be issued in connection with the Subordinated Notes or upon exercise of the warrants will not be registered under the Securities Act of 1933 (the “Securities Act”) and therefore, will be “restricted securities” as that term is defined in Rule 144 under the Securities Act. Accordingly, the restricted securities may not be resold except pursuant to a transaction registered under the Securities Act or exempt from registration under the Securities Act, such as a transaction that complies with Rule 144 under the Securities Act.

The Subordinated Notes provide for an interest rate of 14% and are subordinated to Aerosonic’s existing loans, as set forth in the Subordinated Notes. Interest on the Subordinated Notes will accrue monthly and is due and payable on the first day of each consecutive month until the Maturity Date, at which time the Subordinated Notes will be due and payable in full, including principal, interest and any applicable fees. Aerosonic may prepay the Subordinated Notes in full at any time or in part from time to time without penalty or fees. The Subordinated Notes contain certain events of default, upon which, the entire unpaid principal amount of the Subordinated Notes, together with all amounts owed under the Subordinated Notes, including interest and a default fee of (i) $50,000 under the Stone Subordinated Note; and (ii) $25,000 under each of the Redmond Subordinated Note and Schaffel Subordinated Note, will become immediately due and payable. The Loan Agreements also contain customary representations and warranties, affirmative covenants and negative covenants, including covenants to comply with the affirmative and negative covenants set forth in the Revolving and Term Credit Security Agreement dated February 24, 2004, as amended, among Aerosonic, Avionics Specialties, Inc. and Wachovia Bank N.A.

In the event of a change in control of Aerosonic, or if Aerosonic files for bankruptcy, Aerosonic will immediately file a registration statement with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), on behalf of the Investors, to register the sale of the shares of Aerosonic common stock issued pursuant to the Loan Agreements, including the shares of Aerosonic common stock issued upon exercise of the warrants (the "Investor Shares"). Further, in the event Aerosonic defaults on the Subordinated Notes, as specified in the Subordinated Notes, Aerosonic will immediately file a registration statement with the SEC, on behalf of the Investors, to register the sale of the Investor Shares.

Other than as stockholders of Aerosonic, the Investors do not have any material relationship with Aerosonic and its affiliates. Further, the Investors are not materially related or affiliated with each other.

Copies of the Loan Agreements, Subordinated Notes and Form of Warrant Certificates are attached as Exhibits 10.1 through 10.9 to this Form 8-K. A copy of the press release announcing the Loan Agreements is attached as Exhibit 99.1.
