Hollysys Automation Technologies Announces a US $33.63 Million Contract Win in High-Speed Rail and the Filing of Annual Report on Form 20-F

On Dec 22, 2010, Hollysys Automation Technologies announced it has won a contract to supply its ground-based high-speed rail signaling system to Beijing-Shijiazhuang-Wuhan high-speed rail line valued at approximately US$ 33.63 million or RMB 223.78 million.

In addition, the Company filed its Annual Report on Form 20-F with the Securities and Exchange Commission on December 22, 2010 for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2010 (the “Annual Report”), which can be accessed at both SEC website: www.sec.gov and the Company website: www.hollysys.com. As disclosed in the Annual Report, the Company re-organized its domestic corporate structure in February 2010 to gain increased government grants and contract opportunities, and enhance its corporate image. This re-organization resulted in a one-time $4.45 million tax expense charge on its income statement for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2010, pursuant to the newly issued tax notice (“Circular 2010-04”) issued by the State Administration of Taxation on July 26, 2010. The fully disclosed composition of this tax expense and re-organization details can be found under Item 5 – Operating and Financial Review and Prospects in the Annual Report.

The Company's press release regarding the foregoing matters is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.
