Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not Applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not Applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Section 78.138 of the Nevada Revised Statutes (the "Nevada Corporate Law") provides that, unless the articles of incorporation provide for a greater liability, the directors and officers of a Nevada corporation are not individually liable to the corporate or its stockholders or creditors for any damages as a result of any act or failure to act in his capacity as a director or officer unless it is proven that (i) his action or failure to act constituted a breach of his fiduciary duties as a director or officer and (ii) his breach of those duties involved intentional misconduct, fraud or a knowing violation of law.

Section 78.7502 of the Nevada Corporate Law empowers a corporation to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he is not liable for damages under Section 78.138 of the Nevada Corporate Law or if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceedings, had no reasonable cause to believe the indemnified party's conduct was unlawful.

Section 78.7502 of the Nevada Corporate Law empowers a corporation to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses, including amounts paid in settlement and attorneys' fees actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he is not liable for damages under Section 78.138 of the Nevada Corporate Law or if he acted in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation. However, the corporation may not indemnify any such person for any claim, issue or matter as to which such person has been adjudged to be liable to the corporation or for amounts paid in settlement to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought or other court determines that the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity.

Section 78.7502 of the Nevada Corporate Law further provides that to the extent a director, officer, employee or agent of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any action, suit or proceeding or in the defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, the corporation shall indemnify such person against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection such action, suit or proceeding.

Section 78.751 of the Nevada Corporate Law provides that any discretionary indemnification under Section 78.7502 of the Nevada Corporate Law may be made by a corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the indemnified person is proper in the circumstances. Such determination must be made (i) by the stockholders; (ii) by the board of directors of the corporation by majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the action, suit or proceeding (iii) by written opinion of independent legal counsel if a majority vote of a quorum of such disinterested directors so orders or (iv) by written opinion of independent legal counsel if a quorum of such disinterested directors cannot be obtained.

Section 78.751 of the Nevada Corporate Law further provides that a corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws or an agreement made by the corporation may require the corporation to pay the expenses of officers and directors incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding as they are incurred and in advance of the final disposition of such civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding upon receipt by the corporation of an undertaking by or on behalf of the officer or director to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined by a court that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation.

Indemnification and advancement of expenses authorized in or ordered by a court pursuant to Section 78.751 of the Nevada Corporate Law does not exclude any other rights to which the indemnified party may be entitled under the articles of incorporation or any by-law, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, for either an action in his official capacity or in another capacity while holding his office. However, indemnification and the advancement of expenses may not be made to or on behalf of any director or officer of the corporation if a final adjudication establishes that his or her acts or omissions involved intentional misconduct, fraud or a knowing violation of the law and was material to the cause of action, unless ordered by a court pursuant to Section 78.7502 of Nevada Corporate Law.

Section 78.752 of the Nevada Corporate Law empowers a corporation to purchase and maintain insurance or make other financial arrangements on behalf of a any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise for any liability asserted against such person and liabilities and expenses incurred by such person in his as a director, officer, employee or agent, or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not the corporation has the authority to indemnify such person against such liability and expenses.

Our certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide that we shall indemnify any person to the maximum extent that a corporation may indemnify persons under the Nevada Corporate Law and shall advance expenses to such persons in advance of final resolutions upon receipt of the necessary undertaking regarding repayment of expenses to the extent the person is not entitled to indemnity. Our certificate of incorporation and bylaws permit us to obtain director and officer liability insurance. However, we have not obtained insurance that covers either the corporation against the indemnity obligations under our certificate of incorporation or bylaws or that covers our directors or officers for any liability that may arise from serving in the capacity of a director or officer.

The indemnity provisions in our certificate of incorporation and bylaws may be sufficiently broad to require that we indemnify our officers and directors for liabilities arising under the Securities Act.

Item 9. Undertakings.

We hereby undertake:

- (a)(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

- (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

- (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective Registration Statement; and
- (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the Registration Statement is on Form S-8 and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference to the Registration Statement.

- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
- (b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to the directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to 17 CFR 229.512(h)(1)-(2), or otherwise, the registration has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit, or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by final adjudication of such issue.
