PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On May 9, 2011, Profile Technologies, Inc. (the “Company”) filed a voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of New York (the “Bankruptcy Court”). The Company continues to operate their business as a “debtor-in-possession” under the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court and in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and orders of the Bankruptcy Court.

The Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2011 could not be filed within the prescribed time period, as the closing of the books and the process of preparing the Company's financial statements has been delayed due to the focus of the Company's limited resources and personnel on the bankruptcy process. The Company therefore does not expect to file its Form 10-K for its year ended June 30, 2011 with the Securities and Exchange Commission within the time period prescribed in Rule 12b-25 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The Company is unable at this time to determine whether or when it may resume filing periodic reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

SEC 1344            Persons who are to respond to the collection of information contained in this form are not required to (03-05)            respond unless the form displays a currently valid OMB control number.

If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes     No

Following the Company’s timely filing of its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2011 and its subsequent filing for voluntary protection under the Bankruptcy Code, the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm resigned and withdrew its review report related to the financial statements in the Company’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2011.

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Due to adverse business conditions and other circumstances resulting in the commencement of the Chapter 11 case on May 9, 2011, there was a significant adverse change in the Company's results of operations for its fiscal year ending June 30, 2011 compared with the Company's results of operations for its prior fiscal year. On July 26, 2011 and September 27, 2011, the Company filed Current Reports on Form 8-K with the Securities and Exchange Commission which included as exhibits copies of the monthly operating reports filed by the Company with the Bankruptcy Court for the periods from May 9, 2011 to May 31, 201, June 1, 2011 to June 31, 2011, July 1, 2011 to July 31, 2011, July 1, 2011 to July 31, 2011 (as amended), and August 1, 2011 to August 31, 2011, respectively. The foregoing monthly operating reports include information regarding the results of operations of the Company during the periods covered by such reports.
