Significant Accounting Effects

Fixed Assets (Property, Plant and Equipment (PPE) – Valuation

The Company valued its fixed assets at their historical costs in all countries, except for Venezuela, where the historical cost was the cost as of the acquisition date, restated pursuant to the rate of inflation (because such country is considered a hyperinflationary economy).

Intangible Assets – Valuation

The Company valued its intangible assets at their historical costs.

With regards to IAS (International Accounting Standard) 38 “Intangible Assets”, the Company identified certain intangible assets that do not meet the requirements to be considered as such under IFRS, mainly launching costs for new products. As such, costs are recognized in our results at the moment they are incurred in.

Differed Income Tax – Calculation

The adjustments under IFRS recognized by the Company affected the calculation of the differed income tax, in terms of the provisions of IAS 12, “Income Tax”.

Presentation of Financial Statements – Changes in the Presentation of Financial Statements

In terms of IAS 1 “Presentation of Financial Statements”, the operating income line is not required under IFRS; nevertheless, we will continue to include this line for the benefit of the reader, as a non-GAAP item.

Other Expenses and Other Products - Recognition as Operating Expenses

Several accounting items that were not included in the results of operations will be reclassified as part of the results of operations under IFRS. These accounting items will include employee profit sharing (participación de los trabajadores en las utilidades or PTU), restructuring costs, fixed assets sales/retirement and the equity method in operative investments.

Employment Termination – Cancellation of the Liabilities for Indemnifications

Under IFRS, the costs related to employment termination will be recognized in the results as of the moment that an agreement has been reached to terminate the employment with the employee. In terms of the foregoing, as of the transition date, the Company has canceled its liabilities for indemnifications.

Inflation – Determination of Hyperinflationary Economies

In terms of NIF B-10 “Recognition of Inflation”, the inflationary effects of the financial information must be recognized when the economy is considered to be inflationary, i.e., when accumulated inflation for the three previous years is equal to or greater than 26%. Furthermore, pursuant to IAS 29, an economy is hyperinflationary when accumulated inflation for the three previous years is close to or exceeds 100% (among other economic indicators). The Company has eliminated the inflationary effects that were previously registered in Mexico for the years 1998 through 2007. For foreign subsidiaries, the accumulated inflation, as of the acquisition date was eliminated (except for Venezuela, which is considered to be a hyperinflationary economy), as of the date when the Company started consolidating them.

Presentation of information under Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP)

As a result of the process for adopting IFRS, annual financial information will not be presented under Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP).
