PROXY STATEMENT OF PROSPECTUS OF
OCB BANCORP SIERRA BANCORP

PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS
MERGER PROPOSED - YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

The board of directors of OCB Bancorp, which we sometimes refer to as OCB, has agreed to a merger of OCB Bancorp with and into Sierra Bancorp, which we sometimes refer to as Sierra. The details of the merger are set forth in the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger, dated as of April 24, 2017, as amended, between Sierra Bancorp and OCB Bancorp, which we refer to as the merger agreement. Immediately after the merger, OCB Bancorp's bank subsidiary, Ojai Community Bank, will be merged with and into Sierra Bancorp's bank subsidiary, Bank of the Sierra.

If the merger is completed, shareholders of OCB Bancorp will be entitled to receive a specified number of shares of Sierra's common stock, which we refer to as the per share merger consideration, based on a floating exchange ratio specified in the merger agreement. The exchange ratio is based on the volume-weighted average price of Sierra's common stock over the 20 consecutive trading days prior to the fifth business day before the closing date, which we refer to as the Sierra closing price. If the Sierra closing price is between $25.22 and $30.82 per share, then the per share merger consideration will be $14.00 worth of Sierra's common stock for each share of OCB's common stock, subject to possible adjustment as described at the end of this paragraph.

The merger consideration is subject to floor and ceiling prices, as well as related termination rights, as set forth in the section entitled PROPOSAL NO. 1 - THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – “Merger Consideration” beginning on page 33. Based on Sierra's closing price on the Nasdaq Global Select Market of $26.69 per share on April 24, 2017, immediately prior to the first public announcement of the merger, the value of the per share merger consideration payable to holders of OCB's common stock, without any adjustments as described below, would have been $14.00, and based on OCB common shares and options outstanding at that time, the aggregate merger consideration would have been approximately $35.7 million.

The per share merger consideration will be worth more than $14.00 per OCB common share if the Sierra closing price is between $30.82 and $35.03 per share, and will be worth less than $14.00 per OCB common share if the Sierra closing price is between $25.22 and $21.02 per share. If the Sierra closing price is more than $35.03 per share, Sierra will have the right to terminate the merger agreement unless OCB agrees to adjust the exchange ratio such that the value of the per share merger consideration will still be $15.91. Conversely, if the Sierra closing price is less than $21.02 per share, OCB will have the right to terminate the merger agreement unless Sierra agrees to adjust the exchange ratio such that the value of the per share merger consideration will still be $11.67. In that case, at Sierra's option, a portion of the $11.67 value per share may be paid in cash instead of shares of Sierra's common stock. A table showing the per share merger consideration based on different Sierra closing prices appears on page 3 in the section entitled "QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE SPECIAL MEETING AND THE MERGER – Questions and Answers About the Merger Agreement and the Merger." In addition, the per share merger consideration is subject to downward adjustment in the event that (i) OCB's defined transaction expenses exceed $2.6 million and/or (ii) OCB's adjusted shareholders' equity as of the end of the month immediately preceding the closing date is less than $16.6 million.

The exact per share merger consideration will not be known until shortly before the closing of the merger, but will be determined as described above based on the exchange ratio specified in the merger agreement. The exchange ratio would be between 0.45425 and 0.55511 shares of Sierra's common stock for each share of OCB's common stock if the Sierra closing price were between $25.22 and $30.82 per share, and is subject to the limitations and adjustment provisions noted above and more fully detailed in this proxy statement/prospectus and in the merger agreement. See "PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Merger Consideration – Adjustments to the Merger Consideration." A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A. By way of example only, assuming no adjustments to the exchange ratio, if the per share merger consideration were calculated based on the closing price of Sierra's common stock on the Nasdaq Global Select Market on August 7, 2017 (the latest practicable trading date prior to printing this proxy statement/prospectus), of $26.83 per share, the value of the per share merger consideration payable to holders of OCB's common stock would have been $14.00, and based on OCB common shares and options outstanding at that time, the aggregate merger consideration would have been approximately $35.9 million. The actual per share merger consideration will be calculated five business days before the closing of the merger based on the formula in the merger agreement, and may be more or less than in the above example. Sierra's common stock is listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol "BSRR." OCB Bancorp's common stock trades on the OTCQX under the symbol "OJCB." You should obtain current market quotations for Sierra's and OCB's common stock.

We expect the merger to be generally tax free to OCB shareholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except for cash received by OCB shareholders in lieu of fractional Sierra shares, or in the case of cash which may be paid by Sierra for a portion of the merger consideration as noted above, and except for OCB shareholders who exercise their dissenters' rights with respect to the merger.

OCB Bancorp will hold a special meeting of its shareholders at which OCB shareholders will be asked to vote to approve the merger agreement and the merger. We cannot complete the merger unless we obtain the required approval of OCB's shareholders. The merger agreement must be approved by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the shares of OCB's common stock outstanding as of the record date for the special meeting.

We encourage you to read this entire document carefully, including the considerations discussed under "RISK FACTORS" beginning on page 20, and the appendices to this proxy statement/prospectus, which include the merger agreement.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE SPECIAL MEETING AND THE MERGER

This question and answer summary highlights selected information contained in other sections of this proxy statement/prospectus and is intended to answer questions that you, as a shareholder of OCB Bancorp, may have regarding the special meeting and the merger. Sierra Bancorp and OCB Bancorp urge you to carefully read this entire proxy statement/prospectus, including all appendices and all other information incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Questions and Answers about the Special Meeting

Q: Why have you sent me this document?

A: This document is being delivered to you because it is serving as both a proxy statement for OCB Bancorp and a prospectus of Sierra Bancorp. It is a proxy statement because it is being used by the OCB Bancorp board of directors to solicit the proxies of its shareholders in connection with the special meeting of shareholders. It is a prospectus because Sierra Bancorp is offering shares of its common stock in exchange for shares of OCB Bancorp in the merger as described below.

This proxy statement/prospectus contains important information regarding the proposed merger, as well as information about Sierra Bancorp and OCB Bancorp. It also contains important information about what OCB's board of directors and management considered when evaluating this proposed merger. We urge you to read this proxy statement/prospectus carefully, including the merger agreement which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A and is incorporated herein by reference, and the other appendices.

Q: When and where will the special meeting be held?

A: The special meeting will be held at Ojai Community Bank, 402 West Ojai Avenue, Ojai, California 93023, on September 21, 2017, at 5:30 p.m. (local time).

Q: Who is entitled to vote at the special meeting?

A: Shareholders of record as of the close of business on July 31, 2017 will be entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Q: What am I being asked to vote on at the special meeting?

A: OCB Bancorp is holding the special meeting to ask its shareholders to consider and vote to:

· approve the merger agreement and the plan of merger contemplated therein; and · approve any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the merger agreement or for any other legally permissible purpose.

Q: How does the OCB Bancorp board of directors recommend that I vote on each proposal?

A: The OCB Bancorp board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote “FOR” the approval of the following:

· the merger agreement and the merger; and
· the adjournment or postponement of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the merger agreement or for any other legally permissible purpose.

Q: How many votes do I have and how do I vote at the special meeting?

A: You are entitled to one vote for each share that you owned as of the record date for the special meeting. You may vote “FOR,” “AGAINST” or “ABSTAIN” with respect to any of the proposals presented at the special meeting. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, we urge you to vote by proxy to ensure your vote is counted. If you hold your shares in certificate or registered book-entry form, you may still attend the special meeting and vote in person even if you have already voted by proxy.

To vote using the proxy card, simply complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and return it promptly in the envelope provided. If you return your signed proxy card before the special meeting, your shares will be voted as you direct.

You may also vote electronically or by telephone as set forth on the enclosed proxy card.

If you hold your shares in certificate or registered book-entry form and wish to vote in person, simply attend the special meeting and you will be given a ballot when you arrive. If you hold your shares in street name, you will need to obtain a legal proxy from your broker to enable you to vote in person at the meeting.

Q: What if my shares are held in street name by my broker or other nominee?

A: If you hold your shares in “street name” through a broker or other nominee, you should have received a proxy card and voting instructions with these proxy materials from that organization rather than from OCB Bancorp. Your broker or nominee cannot vote your shares unless you provide instructions on how to vote them. To vote your shares, follow the voting instructions your broker or nominee provides when forwarding these proxy materials to you and complete and mail the proxy card to ensure that your vote is counted. Alternatively, you may vote electronically or by telephone as instructed by your broker or nominee. To vote in person at the special meeting, you must obtain a valid proxy from your broker or nominee. If you do not provide voting instructions to your broker, bank or agent, this will have the same effect as a vote “AGAINST” the merger agreement. Your abstention or non-vote will have no effect on the outcome of the proposal to adjourn and reconvene the special meeting. See “THE SPECIAL MEETING – Shares Held in Street Name; Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes” beginning on page 27.

Q: May I revoke or change my vote after I have provided proxy instructions?

A: Yes. If you hold shares in certificate or registered book-entry form, you may revoke or change your proxy at any time before the time your proxy is voted at the special meeting by: (i) filing with OCB Bancorp’s Corporate Secretary an instrument revoking it or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date; (ii) appearing and voting in person at the special meeting or (iii) if you have voted your shares electronically or by telephone, recording a different vote, or by signing and returning a proxy card dated as of a date that is later than your last electronic or telephonic vote. Your attendance alone at the special meeting will not revoke your proxy. If you have instructed a broker or other nominee to vote your shares, you must follow directions received from your broker or other nominee in order to change those instructions.

Q: What happens if I don't vote?

A: If you do not vote by either returning your proxy card, voting electronically or by telephone, or attending the special meeting and voting in person, it will have the same effect as voting your shares "AGAINST" the merger agreement and the merger.

Q: What happens if I sign and return my proxy card without indicating how I wish to vote?

A: If you sign and return your proxy card without indicating how to vote on any particular proposal, your proxy will be voted "FOR" the merger and the adjournment proposal, as recommended by OCB's board of directors.

Questions and Answers about the Merger Agreement and the Merger

Q: What will OCB Bancorp shareholders receive in the merger?

A: Under the terms of the merger agreement, each share of OCB common stock will be entitled to receive a specified number of shares of Sierra's common stock, which we refer to as the per share merger consideration, based on a floating exchange ratio specified in the merger agreement. The exchange ratio is based on the volume-weighted average price of Sierra's common stock over the 20 consecutive trading days prior to the fifth business day before the closing date, which we refer to as the Sierra closing price. Depending on the Sierra closing price, either the value of the per share merger consideration will be fixed and the exchange ratio will be variable or vice versa. Examples of the per share merger consideration assuming various Sierra closing prices are set forth in the following table:

Pricing Category	Sierra Closing Price	Exchange Ratio	Potential Cash Per Share	Value to OCB Shareholders

¹ OCB can prevent the termination by Sierra by agreeing to adjust the exchange ratio to fix the purchase price at $15.91.

Sierra can prevent the termination by OCB by agreeing to fix the purchase price at $11.67 per share either by increasing the exchange ratio or adding cash equivalent (“Potential Cash Per Share”) to the adjustment at Sierra’s election. The figures in the table assume that Sierra would pay cash instead of adjusting the exchange ratio.

In addition, the per share merger consideration is subject to downward adjustment in the event that (i) OCB’s defined transaction expenses exceed $2.6 million and/or (ii) OCB’s adjusted shareholders’ equity as of the end of the month, immediately preceding the closing date is less than $16.6 million. The aggregate merger consideration will be reduced dollar for dollar by the sum of (i) the amount by which such transaction expenses exceed $2.6 million and (ii) the amount by which such adjusted shareholders’ equity is less than $16.6 million. The per share merger consideration would then be adjusted proportionally based on the number of OCB common shares outstanding immediately prior to the closing of the merger. Details concerning the exchange ratios used to calculate these per share merger consideration figures, as well as all applicable adjustments to the merger consideration, are described in detail in “PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Merger Consideration, and – Adjustments to the Merger Consideration” on pages 31 and 32.

Q: Will the value of the per share merger consideration change between the special meeting and the time the merger is completed?

A: Possibly. If the Sierra closing price for the determination period described above is between $25.22 and $30.82 per share, then the per share merger consideration will be $14.00 worth of Sierra’s common stock for each share of OCB common stock, but still subject to possible downward adjustment relating to transaction expenses and OCB’s shareholders’ equity as specified in the merger agreement and as discussed in response to the previous question.

If the Sierra closing price is between $30.82 and $35.03 per share, then the value of the per share merger consideration will be between $14.00 and $15.91; and if the Sierra closing price is between $21.02 and $25.22 per share, then the value of the per share merger consideration will be between $11.67 and $14.00 per share.

However, if the Sierra closing price is more than $35.03 or less than $21.02 per share, then Sierra (at the high end) or OCB (at the low end) will have the right to terminate the merger agreement unless the other party agrees to adjust the exchange ratio such that the value of the per share merger consideration will still be $15.91 or $11.67, depending on which party has the termination rights. In the low end case, at Sierra's option, a portion of the $11.67 value per share may be paid in cash instead of shares of Sierra common stock.

Q: Will the shares of Sierra common stock received by OCB Bancorp shareholders in the merger be listed on Nasdaq upon the completion of the merger?

A: Yes. The shares of Sierra common stock to be issued in connection with the merger have been registered under the Securities Act, and will be listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol "BSRR."

Q: What will holders of outstanding stock options and restricted stock awards receive in the merger?

A: Holders of outstanding stock options under the OCB Bancorp 2013 Omnibus Incentive Plan shall be entitled to exercise such options in connection with the merger, and any unvested stock options shall accelerate and become fully exercisable for a designated period of time prior to the closing date. Any option holder electing to exercise outstanding stock options will receive the same merger consideration as any other OCB shareholder. Holders of in-the-money OCB stock options who do not exercise their options and instead execute option cancellation agreements will receive a cash payment equal to (a)(i) the Sierra closing price multiplied by (ii) the per share merger consideration minus (b) the exercise price per share with respect to the OCB stock option in question. All shares subject to unvested restricted stock and deferred share awards shall become fully vested (and, in the case of deferred share awards, such shares will be issued), provided the merger is completed. Holders of such shares will receive the same merger consideration as any other OCB Bancorp shareholder.

Q: Will I receive any fractional shares of Sierra's common stock as part of the merger consideration?

A: No. Sierra Bancorp will not issue fractional shares in the merger. As a result, the total number of shares of Sierra's common stock that you will receive in the merger will be rounded down to the nearest whole number. You will receive a cash payment for the value of any remaining fraction of a share of Sierra's common stock that you would otherwise have been entitled to receive.

Q: Do OCB Bancorp shareholders have dissenters' rights with respect to approval of the merger agreement?

A: Yes. Holders of OCB's common stock have dissenters' rights in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 13 of the CGCL. In order to exercise dissenters' rights, a shareholder does not need to affirmatively vote against the merger agreement, but instead need only not vote in favor of the merger agreement. However, a shareholder choosing to exercise his or her dissenters' rights must also comply with the provisions of Chapter 13 of the CGCL. A copy of the applicable sections of Chapter 13 of the CGCL is included with this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix B. Please also read the section entitled "PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Dissenters' Rights of OCB Bancorp Shareholders" beginning on page 47.

Q: Why has the OCB Bancorp board of directors approved the merger?

A: The board of directors of OCB Bancorp has considered a number of available strategic options and in the board's opinion, none of these options, including remaining independent, is likely to create value for OCB Bancorp shareholders greater than that created by the proposed transaction with Sierra Bancorp. Please read the section entitled "PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – OCB Bancorp's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of OCB's Board of Directors" beginning on page 35.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: Sierra and OCB are working to complete the merger in the fourth quarter of 2017. However, the merger is subject to various federal and state regulatory approvals and other conditions, including approval by the shareholders of OCB Bancorp. Due to possible factors outside our control, it is possible that the merger will be completed at a later time, or not at all. There may be a substantial amount of time between the special meeting and the completion of the merger.

Q: What happens if I sell my shares after the record date for the special meeting, but before the special meeting?

A: If you transfer your shares after the record date for the special meeting but before the date of the special meeting, you will retain your right to vote at the special meeting. However, you will not have the right to receive any shares of Sierra's common stock in exchange for your former shares of OCB's common stock if and when the merger is completed. In order to receive shares of Sierra's common stock in the merger, you must hold your OCB's common stock through the completion of the merger.

Q: Should I send in my certificates now?

A: No. Please do not send in your stock certificates at this time. If the merger is completed, you will be sent instructions regarding the surrender of your stock certificates.

Q: What should I do now?

A: After reading this proxy statement/prospectus, you should vote on the proposals. Simply indicate on your proxy card how you want to vote, then sign and mail your proxy card in the enclosed return envelope in time to be represented at the special meeting. You may also vote electronically or by telephone by following the instructions on your proxy card.

As soon as reasonably practicable after the close of the merger, the exchange agent for the merger will mail to each holder of record of an OCB Bancorp stock certificate a letter of transmittal and instructions for use in surrendering your stock certificates, or making alternative exchange arrangements in the case of registered book-entry shares, in exchange for the merger consideration. If you hold your shares in “street name” with a broker or other custodian, your broker will send you appropriate information at that time. If you are an OCB Bancorp shareholder and own your shares in certificate form, you should immediately locate and make sure you have possession of the certificates evidencing your OCB’s common stock as you will need to surrender them in order to receive the merger consideration. If your certificate(s) for OCB’s common stock is/are lost, stolen, or destroyed, you are urged to immediately notify Computershare at (800) 522-6645 so that a “stop transfer” instruction can be placed on your shares of OCB Bancorp stock underlying your lost certificate(s) to prevent transfer of ownership to another person. Computershare will send you the forms to permit the issuance of a replacement certificate(s).

Q: When can I sell the shares of Sierra’s common stock that I receive in the merger?

A: You may sell the shares of Sierra’s common stock you receive in the merger without restriction unless you are considered an “affiliate” of Sierra Bancorp. See “PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Resale of Sierra Bancorp common stock” on page 49.

Q: Who can help answer my other questions?

Edgar Filing: SIERRA BANCORP - Form 424B3

A: If you have more questions about the merger or the special meeting, or if you need additional copies of this document or the enclosed proxy card, you may direct your questions to David Brubaker, President, OCB Bancorp, 402 West Ojai Avenue, Suite 102, Ojai, California 93023; (805) 646-9909 or (805) 633-2444 - Direct Line.

SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information from this proxy statement/prospectus. Because this is a summary, it does not contain all of the information that may be important to you. You should carefully read this entire document and the other documents we refer to in this proxy statement/prospectus before you decide how to vote. These references will give you a more complete description of the merger agreement and the merger and the other matters to be considered at the special meeting. We have included page references in this summary to direct you to more complete descriptions of the topics provided elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Parties to the Merger Agreement (See pages 64 to 70)

Sierra Bancorp is a California corporation headquartered in Porterville, California, and is a registered bank holding company under federal banking laws. Founded in 1978, Bank of the Sierra is the largest independent bank headquartered in the South San Joaquin Valley, currently with 34 full service branch offices and approval to open one other branch. At June 30, 2017, Sierra had total assets of $2.078 billion, total deposits of $1.792 billion and total shareholders' equity of $216.1 million.

Sierra's principal executive offices are located at 86 North Main Street, Porterville, California 93257, telephone: (559) 782-4900. Its website address is www.sierrabancorp.com.

OCB Bancorp is a California corporation headquartered in Ojai, California, and is a registered bank holding company under federal banking laws. Special Meeting of Shareholders (See pages 25 to 30)

OCB will hold a special meeting of shareholders at Ojai Community Bank, 402 West Ojai Avenue, Ojai, California 93023, on September 21, 2017, at 5:30 p.m. (local time). The OCB Bancorp board of directors has set the close of business on July 31, 2017, as the record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting. On that date, there were 2,266,148 shares of OCB's common stock outstanding.

At the special meeting, holders of OCB's common stock will be asked to consider and vote on the following proposals:

- a proposal to approve the merger agreement and the merger of OCB Bancorp with and into Sierra Bancorp with Sierra Bancorp surviving the merger; and of the merger of Ojai Community Bank with and into Bank of the Sierra, with Bank of the Sierra surviving the merger and continuing the commercial bank operations of the combined bank under its California charter and as the wholly-owned bank subsidiary of Sierra Bancorp; as more fully described in this proxy statement/prospectus;
- a proposal to approve any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the merger agreement or for any other legally permissible purpose.

The Merger Agreement (See pages 50 to 60)

The merger agreement is the legal document that contains the terms that govern the merger process, including the issuance of the merger consideration as a result of the merger. Please read the entire merger agreement which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A.

The Merger (See pages 31 to 50)

Under the terms of the merger agreement: (a) Sierra Bancorp will acquire OCB Bancorp by merging OCB with and into Sierra, with Sierra surviving the merger; (b) immediately after, Ojai Community Bank will be merged with and into Bank of the Sierra, and Bank of the Sierra will continue the commercial bank operations of the combined banks under its California charter and as the wholly-owned bank subsidiary of Sierra; and (c) Sierra will issue shares of its common stock and cash in lieu of fractional share interests to OCB shareholders pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. A copy of the merger agreement between Sierra Bancorp and OCB Bancorp is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A.

Consideration to be Paid to the Holders of OCB's common stock (See pages 31 and 32)

Under the terms of the merger agreement, each share of OCB's common stock will be entitled to receive a specified number of shares of Sierra's common stock, which we refer to as the per share merger consideration, based on a floating exchange ratio specified in the merger agreement. The exchange ratio is based on the volume-weighted average price of Sierra's common stock over the 20 consecutive trading days prior to the fifth business day before the closing date, which we refer to as the Sierra closing price. Depending on the Sierra closing price, either the value of the per share merger consideration will be fixed and the exchange ratio will be variable or vice versa, resulting in the following per share merger consideration. If the Sierra closing price is between $25.22 and $30.82 per share, then the per share merger consideration will be $14.00 worth of Sierra's common stock for each share of OCB common stock, subject to possible adjustment as described in the next paragraph. If the Sierra closing price is between $30.82 and $35.03 per share, then the value of the per share merger consideration will be between $14.00 and $15.91; and if the Sierra closing price is between $21.02 and $25.22 per share, then the value of the per share merger consideration will be between $11.67 and $14.00. However, if the Sierra closing price is more than $35.03 per share, Sierra will have the right to terminate the merger agreement unless OCB agrees to adjust the exchange ratio as necessary to achieve merger consideration of $15.91. Conversely, if the Sierra closing price is less than $21.02 per share, OCB will have the right to terminate the merger agreement unless Sierra agrees to adjust the exchange ratio or add cash as necessary to achieve per share merger consideration of $11.67. U.S. holders may recognize taxable gain with respect to their receipt of cash in that event. See "PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger" beginning at page 66. Details concerning the exchange ratios used to calculate these per share merger consideration figures, as well as all applicable adjustments to the merger consideration, are described in detail in "PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Merger Consideration, and – Adjustments to the Merger Consideration" on pages 31 and 32.

The value of the per share merger consideration is subject to downward adjustment in the event that (i) OCB's defined transaction expenses exceed $2.6 million and/or (ii) OCB's adjusted shareholders' equity as of the end of the month immediately preceding the closing date is less than $16.6 million. As of June 30, 2017, OCB Bancorp's adjusted shareholders' equity was approximately $17.7 million. Adjusted shareholders' equity for this purpose is defined as total shareholders' equity calculated in accordance with GAAP, but excluding: all changes in accumulated other comprehensive income or loss from the amount of adjusted shareholder's equity shown in the December 31, 2016, financial reports of OCB Bancorp; the accrual or payment of company transaction expenses; any purchase accounting adjustments to the assets and liabilities of OCB Bancorp; and without giving effect to the conversion of any convertible debt issued by OCB Bancorp. Defined transaction expenses are described in detail in "PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Adjustments to the Merger Consideration" on page 32.

The precise value of the per share merger consideration will not be known until shortly before the closing of the merger.

United States Federal Income Tax Consequences (Page 61)

Sierra Bancorp and OCB Bancorp intend that the merger will qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which we will refer to as the Internal Revenue Code. Based on the qualification of the merger as a “reorganization” under the Internal Revenue Code, U.S. holders (as defined in the section entitled “PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger” beginning at page 61) of OCB’s common stock generally will not recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes upon the exchange of their shares of OCB common stock for Sierra common stock. U.S. holders will recognize gain or loss attributable to cash received in lieu of a fractional share of OCB’s common stock, or in the case of cash which may be paid by Sierra for a portion of the merger consideration in the event the Sierra closing price is less than $21.02 per share as described in the previous section, as will U.S. holders who dissent and receive cash for their OCB shares. For a description of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger, see “PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger” beginning at page 61. OCB Bancorp shareholders are strongly urged to consult with their tax advisors concerning the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to them, as well as the effects of state and local, foreign and other tax laws.

Conditions that Must Be Satisfied Prior to Closing the Merger (See pages 56 and 57)

In addition to obtaining the necessary approval of the shareholders of OCB Bancorp, the parties’ obligations to close the merger depend on other conditions being met prior to the completion of the merger, including but not limited to:

All required regulatory approvals and consents must be obtained, including a waiver from the Federal Reserve and approvals from the FDIC and the CDBO, and no materially burdensome regulatory conditions may be imposed on Sierra Bancorp or Bank of the Sierra;

There must be no law or order by a court or regulatory authority that would prohibit, restrict or make illegal the merger;

The number of shares of OCB’s common stock for which dissenters’ rights of OCB Bancorp have been properly asserted shall not be more than 10% of OCB’s total issued and outstanding shares;

As of the later of (x) five business days before the anticipated closing date and (y) the date immediately following the date of OCB shareholder approval, OCB Bancorp’s allowance for loan losses, determined in accordance with GAAP, shall be not less than the greater of (x) 1.25% of gross loans or (y) $2,600,000;

Sierra Bancorp must have received an opinion dated as of the date of the closing of the merger, from its special tax counsel, Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP, to the effect that the merger will qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code;

All holders of OCB Bancorp stock options shall have agreed that their options, to the extent not otherwise exercised, will terminate at the effective time of the merger; and

The shares issued to holders of OCB Bancorp common stock shall have been approved for listing on the Nasdaq Global Select Market.

Regulatory Approvals Must Be Obtained Before the Merger Will Be Completed (See page 48)

Sierra has agreed to use its best efforts to obtain all regulatory approvals required to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including a waiver from the Federal Reserve Board, which we refer to as the Federal Reserve; and approvals from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, which we refer to as the FDIC; and from the California Department of Business Oversight, which we refer to as the DBO. Sierra Bancorp and Bank of the Sierra have filed the requisite applications or requests to obtain the required regulatory approvals or waivers. In obtaining the required regulatory approvals or waivers, neither entity is required to agree to any condition that (i) requires Sierra Bancorp or Bank of the Sierra to pay any amounts (other than customary filing fees), or divest any banking office, line of business or operations, or (ii) imposes any condition, requirement or restriction upon Sierra Bancorp or Bank of the Sierra, that individually or in the aggregate would reasonably be expected to impose a materially burdensome condition on Sierra Bancorp or Bank of the Sierra, as applicable, or otherwise would materially alter the economics of the merger for Sierra Bancorp. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, Bank of the Sierra had received the required regulatory approval of the merger from the FDIC and Sierra had received a waiver from FRB, but the application for approval by the DBO was still pending. While we do not know of any reason that we would not be able to obtain the approval of the DBO, we cannot be certain when or if we will obtain it. The approval or waiver by our regulators does not constitute an endorsement of the merger or a determination that the terms of the merger are fair to OCB shareholders.

Approval of a Majority of All Shares of OCB Bancorp Stock Entitled to Vote at the Special Meeting is Required for the Merger to be Consummated (See page 47)

The affirmative vote of at least a majority of the shares of OCB's common stock outstanding as of the record date for the special meeting is required to approve the merger agreement and the merger. Each share of OCB Bancorp stock outstanding on the record date for the special meeting will be entitled to one vote for each share held. As of July 31, 2017, which is the record date for the special meeting, there were 2,266,148 shares (including 14,412 shares of unvested restricted stock) of OCB's common stock outstanding. Therefore, at least 1,133,075 shares of OCB's common stock must be affirmatively voted in favor of the merger agreement in order for OCB Bancorp shareholders to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated therein. Abstentions, failures to vote and broker non-votes will have the same effect as votes "AGAINST" approval of the merger agreement. As of the record date, OCB Bancorp's directors and executive officers owned approximately 534,199 voting shares (not including vested option shares), or approximately 23.6%, of OCB Bancorp's outstanding shares of common stock and have committed to vote these shares "FOR" the approval of the merger agreement and merger.

Recommendation of OCB Bancorp's Board of Directors (See page 35)

On April 24, 2017, OCB Bancorp's directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and the merger. Moreover, the directors believe that the merger agreement's terms are fair and in the best interests of OCB Bancorp's shareholders. Accordingly, they unanimously recommend a vote "FOR" the proposal to approve the principal terms of the merger agreement and the merger. The conclusions of OCB Bancorp's board of directors regarding the merger agreement are based upon a number of factors which are discussed more fully under the section entitled "PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – OCB Bancorp's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of OCB's Board of Directors" beginning on page 35.

Directors and Executive Officers of OCB Bancorp Have Entered into Voting Agreements (See page 43).

As of the record date, OCB Bancorp's directors and executive officers owned approximately 534,199 voting shares (not including vested option shares), or approximately 23.6%, of OCB Bancorp's outstanding shares of common stock. OCB Bancorp's directors and executive officers have entered into separate written agreements in which they have agreed, among other things, to vote their shares "FOR" the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated therein. A copy of the form of voting agreement separately executed by each of the OCB Bancorp directors is attached as Exhibit A and a copy of the form of voting agreement separately executed by each of the executive officers is attached as Exhibit B to the merger agreement which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus Appendix A and is incorporated herein by reference.

Opinion of OCB Bancorp's Financial Advisor (See page 37)

In deciding to approve the merger, OCB Bancorp's board of directors considered, among other things, the opinion of FIG Partners, LLC, OCB Bancorp's financial advisor, regarding the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to be received by OCB Bancorp's shareholders as a result of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated therein. The written opinion of FIG Partners, LLC, which we refer to as FIG Partners, is attached as Appendix C. You should read it carefully to understand the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations of the review undertaken by FIG Partners in providing its opinion. FIG Partners' written opinion is addressed to OCB Bancorp's board of directors and does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of OCB's common stock should vote with respect to the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated therein.

OCB Bancorp Directors and Executive Officers may have interests in the merger that differ from interests of OCB Bancorp Shareholders (See page 44)

OCB Bancorp's directors and executive officers may have economic interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, their interests as OCB Bancorp shareholders. The OCB Bancorp board of directors considered these interests in its decision to adopt and approve the merger agreement and to recommend approval of the merger agreement and the merger to OCB Bancorp shareholders. Some of the interests of OCB Bancorp's directors and executive officers include:

David Brubaker, President and Chief Executive Officer; Susan Lagos, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer; and Michael Orman, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer; have each executed employment agreements with Ojai Community Bank pursuant to which upon consummation of the merger, they will be entitled to receive payments upon termination. Mr. Brubaker's payments will equal to 18 months of his salary, and Ms. Lagos' and Mr. Orman's payments will equal 12 months of their salaries. These change in control severance payments would be $405,000, $143,325, and $187,450 for Mr. Brubaker, Ms. Lagos and Mr. Orman, respectively. At the close of the merger all of these employment agreements with Ojai Community Bank will be terminated upon payment of such amounts.

Mr. Orman will be retained by Bank of the Sierra following the merger to assist Bank of the Sierra in developing its presence in the market presently served by Ojai Community Bank; and Ms. Lagos will be retained by Bank of the Sierra in a branch operations position.

OCB Bancorp has previously granted stock options to certain executive officers and directors under its 2013 Omnibus Incentive Plan. Under the terms of the merger agreement and the plan, all such options will become 100% vested and fully exercisable for a designated period of time prior to and contingent upon the closing of the merger. Any option holder electing to exercise outstanding stock options prior to the merger will receive the same merger consideration as any other OCB Bancorp shareholder. Holders of in-the-money OCB stock options who do not exercise their options and instead execute option cancellation agreements will receive specified cash payments. For a breakdown of OCB Bancorp options held by each OCB Bancorp director and executive officer and the cash consideration each will receive in connection with the merger, please see "PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Interests of Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger – Stock Options" on page 45.

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Sierra has agreed to maintain and preserve the indemnification rights of OCB Bancorp directors and officers after the completion of the merger and has also agreed to allow OCB Bancorp to purchase "tail coverage," for a period of six years, in order to continue providing liability insurance to the officers and directors of OCB Bancorp, subject to certain cost limits. See "PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Interests of Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger – Protection of Directors, Officers and Employees" on page 45.

Five directors of OCB, namely, directors Brubaker, Melton, Russell, Schmidt, and Wachtell, are the holders of certain subordinated capital notes totaling $3 million, 20% of which is convertible into shares of OCB's common stock at the option of the holder. Sierra will assume the unpaid principal amount of all portions of the notes that are not converted into shares of OCB's common stock prior to the close of the merger, and will repay such amount in full immediately following the merger. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, all five directors have indicated their intention to convert their convertible 20% into stock prior to the close of the merger. However, pursuant to the merger agreement, such note holders have the right instead to execute subordinated note holder agreements in the form attached as Appendix E to the merger agreement, and to receive a specified amount of cash in lieu of each share of OCB's common stock that would otherwise have been issuable upon conversion of such debt into shares of OCB's common stock. See "PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Interests of Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger – Conversion or Repayment of Affiliate Indebtedness" on page 46.

Closing the Merger (See page 60)

If shareholder approval is received as planned, and if the conditions to the merger have either been met or waived, we anticipate that the merger will close in the fourth quarter of 2017. However, we cannot assure you whether or when the merger will actually close.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (See page 58)

The obligations of the parties to consummate the merger are subject to certain closing conditions, some of which may not be waived by a party, including but not limited to the receipt of all required shareholder and regulatory approvals and other governmental consents, and some conditions which may be waived by a party in its discretion. The failure of a condition to the closing of the merger, to the extent not waived, may result in a termination of the merger agreement and the merger.

In addition, the parties can mutually agree to terminate or extend the merger agreement. Either party can terminate the merger agreement in the event of a material breach or the occurrence of certain other events.

OCB has agreed to pay a termination fee of $1,500,000, and to reimburse certain transaction expenses incurred by Sierra, to Sierra if OCB breaches its covenants relating to alternative acquisition proposals or OCB consummates an alternative acquisition proposal within 12 months following a termination of the merger agreement due to the failure of OCB's shareholders to approve the merger agreement following any action taken by OCB's board constituting a change of its recommendation.

Accounting Treatment (See page 46)

Sierra Bancorp will account for the merger using the acquisition method of accounting. Under this method of accounting, the assets and liabilities of OCB Bancorp and Ojai Community Bank acquired are recorded at their respective fair value as of the completion of the merger, and are added to those of Sierra Bancorp and Bank of the Sierra.

Sierra Bancorp's and Bank of the Sierra's Management and Operations After the Merger (See page 43)

The directors and executive officers of Sierra Bancorp and Bank of the Sierra immediately prior to the merger will continue to be the directors and executive officers Sierra Bancorp and Bank of the Sierra, respectively, after the merger.

Differences in Your Rights as a Shareholder of OCB Bancorp (See page 72)

As an OCB Bancorp shareholder, your rights are currently governed by OCB's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws and by the CGCL. If you do not exercise your dissenters' rights, the shares of OCB's common stock you hold at the closing of the merger will be converted into a specified number of shares of Sierra's common stock, and your rights as a Sierra Bancorp shareholder will be thereafter governed by Sierra's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws and by the CGCL. The rights of Sierra Bancorp shareholders differ from those of OCB Bancorp shareholders in certain respects. Most of these differences will result from the provisions in Sierra's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws that differ from those of OCB.

OCB Bancorp Dissenters' Rights (See page 47)

Shares of OCB's common stock may qualify as "dissenting shares" under Chapter 13 of the CGCL and holders of shares of OCB's common stock may perfect their dissenters' rights by doing the following:

- not vote "FOR" the merger agreement and the merger;
- make a timely written demand upon OCB Bancorp for purchase in cash of his or her shares at their fair market value as of April 24, 2017 which demand includes: (i) the number and class of the shares held of record by him or her that he or she demands upon OCB Bancorp, and (ii) what he or she claims to be the fair market value of his or her shares as of April 24, 2017, the day of, and immediately prior to, the first public announcement of the merger;
- have his or her demand received by OCB Bancorp within 30 days after the date on which the notice of the approval by the outstanding shares is mailed to the shareholder;
- submit certificates representing his or her shares for endorsement, or written notice of the number of shares which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase, in the case of uncertificated shares, in accordance with Section 1302 of the CGCL; and
- comply with such other procedures as are required by the CGCL.

If dissenters' rights are properly perfected, such dissenter has the right to receive cash in the amount equal to the fair market value, as determined by OCB Bancorp, or, if required, by a court of law, of their shares of OCB's common stock as of the day of, and immediately prior to, the first public announcement of the merger, excluding any change in such value as a consequence of the proposed merger.

If dissenters' rights are perfected and exercised with respect to more than ten percent (10%) of OCB Bancorp's common stock outstanding, then Sierra has the option to terminate the merger agreement. The text of the applicable sections of Chapter 13 of the CGCL governing dissenters' rights is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix B. We urge you to carefully read the procedures set forth in Appendix B, as failure to comply with these procedures will result in the loss of dissenters' rights under the CGCL.

SIERRA BANCORP SELECTED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL DATA

The following table presents selected historical financial information concerning Sierra Bancorp and its consolidated subsidiary, Bank of the Sierra, for each of the years in the five-year period ended December 31, 2016, and for the six-month periods ended June 30, 2017 and 2016. The following table shows the closing per share price of Sierra's common stock and OCB's common stock as reported on the Nasdaq Global Select Market and the OTCQX, respectively, on April 24, 2017, immediately prior to the first public announcement of the merger, and on August 7, 2017, the latest practicable trading date before the printing of this proxy statement/prospectus. The equivalent value per share is calculated by applying a complex formula set for in the merger agreement which is described elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus. Pursuant to this formula, if the relevant closing price of Sierra's common stock is between $25.22 and $30.82 per share, then the equivalent OCB Bancorp price per share will be $14.00, subject to adjustment as described in the merger agreement and elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus.

These comparisons may not provide meaningful information to OCB Bancorp shareholders in determining whether to approve the merger agreement and the merger. OCB Bancorp shareholders are urged to obtain current market quotations for Sierra's common stock and OCB's common stock and to carefully review the other information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. Dividends

Sierra Bancorp

Sierra Bancorp paid cash dividends totaling $3.867 million, or $0.28 per share in the first half of 2017; $6.506 million, or $0.48 per share for the year in 2016; and $5.663 million, or $0.42 per share in 2015. These dividend payments represented 40% of earnings for the first half of 2017, as compared to 37% of annual net earnings for 2016 and 31% for 2015. Sierra's general dividend policy is to pay cash dividends within the range of typical peer payout ratios, provided that such payments do not adversely affect Sierra's financial condition and are not overly restrictive to its growth capacity. However, in the past when many of its peers elected to suspend dividend payments, Sierra's board determined that it should continue to pay a certain level of dividends as long as Sierra's core operating performance was adequate and policy or regulatory restrictions did not preclude such payments, without regard to peer payout ratios. While Sierra has paid a consistent level of quarterly dividends in the past few years, no assurance can be given that its financial performance in any given year will justify the continued payment of a certain level of cash dividend, or any cash dividend at all.

As a bank holding company that currently has no significant assets other than its equity interest in Bank of the Sierra, Sierra Bancorp's ability to declare dividends depends upon cash on hand as supplemented by dividends from Bank of the Sierra. Bank of the Sierra's dividend practices in turn depend upon its earnings, financial position, regulatory standing, the ability to meet current and anticipated regulatory capital requirements, and other factors deemed relevant by its Board of Directors. The authority of Bank of the Sierra's board of directors to declare cash dividends is also subject to statutory restrictions. Under California banking law, a California state-chartered bank may declare dividends in an amount not exceeding the lesser of its retained earnings or its net income for the last three years (reduced by dividends paid during such period) or, with the prior approval of the California Commissioner of Business Oversight, in an amount not exceeding the greatest of (i) the retained earnings of the bank, (ii) the net income of the bank for its last fiscal year, or (iii) the net income of the bank for its current fiscal year.

Sierra Bancorp's ability to pay dividends is also limited by state law. California law allows a California corporation to pay dividends if the company's retained earnings equal at least the amount of the proposed dividend. If a California corporation does not have sufficient retained earnings available for the proposed dividend, it may still pay a dividend to its shareholders if immediately after the dividend the value of the company's assets would equal or exceed the sum of its total liabilities. In addition, during any period in which Sierra has deferred payment of interest otherwise due and payable on its subordinated debt securities, it may not pay any dividends or make any distributions with respect to its capital stock. See "Item 7, Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Capital Resources" in Sierra Bancorp's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016 which is incorporated herein by reference.

OCB Bancorp

To date, OCB Bancorp has paid no cash dividends and has no specific plans to pay cash dividends in the immediate future. OCB Bancorp paid one 5% stock dividend declared in May 2014. Any decision to pay cash dividends will be made by the board of directors in its discretion based on a number of factors including OCB's earnings and financial condition.

As a bank holding company that currently has no significant assets other than its equity interest in Ojai Community Bank, OCB Bancorp's ability to declare dividends depends upon cash on hand as supplemented by dividends from Ojai Community Bank. Ojai Community Bank's dividend practices in turn depend upon its earnings, financial position, regulatory standing, ability to meet current and anticipated regulatory capital requirements, and other factors deemed relevant by its board of directors. Bank regulatory authorities also have the ability to restrict or prohibit the payment of dividends if they find that such payments would be unsafe or unsound. The authority of Ojai Community Bank's board of directors to declare cash dividends is also subject to statutory restrictions. Under California banking law, a California state-chartered bank may declare dividends in an amount not exceeding the lesser of its retained earnings or its net income for the last three years (reduced by dividends paid during such period) or, with the prior approval of the California Commissioner of Business Oversight, in an amount not exceeding the greatest of (i) the retained earnings of the bank, (ii) the net income of the bank for its last fiscal year, or (iii) the net income of the bank for its current fiscal year.

OCB Bancorp's ability to pay dividends is also limited by state law. California law allows a California corporation to pay dividends if OCB's retained earnings equal at least the amount of the proposed dividend. If a California corporation does not have sufficient retained earnings available for the proposed dividend, it may still pay a dividend to its shareholders if immediately after the dividend the value of the company's assets would equal or exceed the sum of its total liabilities. In addition, OCB may not pay any dividends or make any distributions with respect to its capital stock without the approval of First National Bank of Southern California, the holder of its term loan, and the ABP Capital II, LLC, the holder of its revolving line of credit.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information included in this proxy statement/prospectus and the matters addressed in “A WARNING ABOUT FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS” beginning on page 24, you should carefully consider the matters described below in determining whether to approve the merger agreement. If the merger is consummated, Bank of the Sierra and Ojai Community Bank will operate as a combined bank and as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sierra Bancorp in a market environment that cannot be predicted and that involves significant risks, many of which will be beyond the combined company’s control.

Risks Relating to the Merger

Because the market price of Sierra common stock will fluctuate, OCB shareholders cannot be certain of the market value of the merger consideration they will receive.

If the merger is completed, each share of OCB common stock will be entitled to receive a specified number of shares of Sierra’s common stock, which we refer to as the per share merger consideration, based on a floating exchange ratio specified in the merger agreement. The exchange ratio is based on the volume-weighted average price of Sierra’s common stock over the 20 consecutive trading days prior to the fifth business day before the closing date, which we refer to as the Sierra closing price. Depending on the Sierra closing price, either the value of the per share merger consideration will be fixed and the exchange ratio will be variable or vice versa. If the Sierra closing price is between $25.22 and $30.82, then the value of the per share merger consideration will be $14.00, subject to adjustment as described below. If it is outside these parameters, however, the value of the per share merger consideration will be either more or less than that amount. The price of Sierra’s common stock has fluctuated and decreased since the signing of the merger agreement and will continue to fluctuate until the close of the merger and until OCB shareholders receive their merger consideration. In addition, the value of the per share merger consideration is subject to downward adjustment in the event OCB’s transaction expenses or adjusted shareholders’ equity, both as defined in the merger agreement, are above or below specified thresholds, as applicable. As a result, it is not currently possible to determine the precise value of the per share merger consideration shareholders will receive.

The fairness opinion obtained by OCB Bancorp from its financial advisors will not reflect changes in the value of Sierra’s common stock or OCB’s common stock between the signing of the merger agreement and completion of the merger.

On April 24, 2017, OCB Bancorp’s financial advisors, FIG Partners, presented its opinion to the OCB Bancorp board of directors as to the fairness of the merger consideration to the shareholders of OCB Bancorp from a financial point of view. As of April 24, 2017, in the opinion of FIG Partners, the merger consideration was fair to the shareholders of OCB Bancorp from a financial point of view. The merger agreement does not require that OCB Bancorp obtain an updated fairness opinion as a condition to the completion of the merger, and OCB Bancorp does not intend to request that its opinion be updated.

As such, the fairness opinion does not reflect any changes that may occur or may have already occurred after April 24, 2017 to the operations and prospects of Sierra or OCB, general market and economic conditions and other factors that may be beyond the control of Sierra and OCB, and on which the respective original fairness opinion was based. As a result, the current value of the common stock of Sierra and OCB may not be reflected in the fairness opinion. The opinion does not speak as of the time the merger will be completed or as of any date other than the date set forth in the fairness opinion. Because OCB does not currently intend to request an updated fairness opinion, the fairness opinion will not address the fairness of the merger consideration or the merger consideration, from a financial point of view, at the time the merger is completed. As a result, OCB's board of directors will not have the benefit of an updated fairness opinion in making its recommendations to shareholders. For a description of the fairness opinion OCB received from FIG Partners, see “– Opinion of OCB Bancorp's Financial Advisor” beginning on page 37. For a description of the other factors considered by OCB's board of directors in determining whether to approve the merger, see “PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – OCB Bancorp's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of OCB's Board of Directors” beginning on page 35. The full text of FIG Partners' fairness opinion is attached as Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus.

OCB Bancorp shareholders will experience a significant reduction in percentage ownership and voting power of their shares as a result of the merger.

When you receive shares of Sierra's common stock in exchange for your OCB Bancorp shares, you will experience a substantial reduction in your percentage ownership interest and effective voting power after the merger in Sierra Bancorp compared to your ownership interest and voting power in OCB Bancorp prior to the merger. If the merger is consummated, it is currently estimated that former OCB shareholders will own approximately 10% of Sierra Bancorp's outstanding shares.

OCB Bancorp will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the merger is pending that could adversely affect its business.

Uncertainty about the effect of the merger on employees and customers may have an adverse effect on OCB Bancorp and consequently, if the merger occurs, on Sierra Bancorp. These uncertainties may impair OCB's ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the merger is completed, and could cause customers and others that deal with OCB to seek to change existing business relationships with OCB, which could negatively affect its results of operations. Retention of certain employees may be challenging while the merger is pending, as certain employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles with Sierra. If key employees depart, Sierra's business following the merger could be harmed and/or OCB's business would be harmed if the merger is not completed and OCB then continues as an independent bank holding company. In addition, the merger agreement restricts OCB from making certain acquisitions and loans and taking other specified actions until the merger occurs without Sierra's consent. These restrictions may prevent OCB from pursuing attractive business opportunities that may arise prior to the completion of the merger. See the section entitled "THE MERGER AGREEMENT—Conduct of OCB Bancorp's Businesses Until Completion of the Merger" beginning on page 51 of this proxy statement/prospectus for a description of the restrictive covenants to which OCB is subject.

The merger is subject to certain closing conditions that, if not satisfied or waived, will result in the merger not being completed, which may cause the prices of Sierra's common stock and OCB's common stock to decline.

Consummation of the merger is subject to customary conditions to closing in addition to the receipt of the required regulatory approvals and approval of OCB's shareholders of the merger agreement. If any condition to the merger is not satisfied or waived, to the extent permitted by law, the merger will not be completed. In addition, Sierra and OCB may terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances even if the merger agreement is approved by OCB's shareholders, including if the merger has not been completed on or before January 31, 2018 unless extended by the parties or if OCB's allowance for loan losses does not meet certain threshold requirements. If the merger is not completed, the respective trading prices of Sierra's common stock and OCB's common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market and OCTQX, respectively, may decline to the extent that the current prices reflect a market assumption that the merger will be completed. In addition, neither company would realize any of the expected benefits of having completed the merger. For more information on closing conditions to the merger agreement, see “PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Conditions to Sierra Bancorp’s Obligations Under the Merger Agreement” beginning on page 56.

Failure to complete the merger could negatively impact OCB Bancorp’s business, financial condition, results of operations and/or stock price.

If the merger agreement is terminated and the merger is not completed, OCB’s ongoing businesses may be adversely affected. For example:

- OCB’s expenses incurred in connection with the merger, such as legal and accounting fees, must be paid even if the merger is not completed, and such expenses may not be recovered from Sierra;
- OCB may be required to pay a termination fee of $1,500,000 to Sierra, and to reimburse certain transaction expenses paid by Sierra, if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances;
- While OCB’s management is focused on completing the merger, OCB could fail to pursue other beneficial opportunities;

Pursuant to the merger agreement, OCB is subject to certain restrictions on the conduct of its business prior to completing the merger, which restrictions could adversely affect its ability to realize certain of its respective business strategies;

OCB may experience negative reactions to the termination of the merger from customers, depositors, investors, vendors and others; and

The market price of OCB's common stock may decline to the extent that the current market price reflects a market assumption that the merger will be completed.

In addition, any delay in the consummation of the merger, or any uncertainty about the consummation of the merger, may adversely affect OCB's future business, growth, revenue and results of operations. Further, if the merger agreement is terminated and OCB's board of directors seeks another merger or business combination, shareholders cannot be certain that OCB will be able to find a party willing to pay the equivalent or greater consideration than that which Sierra has agreed to pay in the merger.

The merger agreement contains provisions that could discourage or make it difficult for a third party to acquire OCB Bancorp prior to completion of the merger.

The merger agreement contains provisions that make it difficult for OCB Bancorp to entertain a third-party proposal for an acquisition of OCB. These provisions include the general prohibition on OCB's soliciting, initiating, encouraging or participating in discussions or negotiations regarding any acquisition proposal with any person or entity. The members of OCB's board of directors and certain executive officers have agreed to vote their shares of OCB's common stock in favor of the merger proposal and the adjournment proposal and against any alternative transaction. In addition, OCB may be required to pay Sierra a termination fee of $1,500,000, and to reimburse certain transaction expenses paid by Sierra, if the merger agreement is terminated in specified circumstances. See "PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – The Merger Agreement – Termination; Effect of Termination" beginning on page 58. These provisions could discourage an otherwise interested third party from trying to acquire OCB, even one that might be willing to offer greater value to OCB's shareholders than Sierra has offered in the merger. Furthermore, even if a third party elects to propose an acquisition, the termination fee could result in that third party's offer being of lower value to OCB's shareholders than such third party might have otherwise offered.

Certain officers and directors of OCB Bancorp may have interests that are different from, or in addition to, interests of OCB Bancorp's shareholders generally.

Certain of OCB Bancorp's officers and directors have conflicts of interest in the merger that may influence them to support or approve the merger without regard to the interests of other OCB shareholders. As more fully described in "PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Interests of Directors and Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 44, these interests include:

Change in control severance payments totaling $405,000, $143,325 and $187,450, respectively, to OCB's President and Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Brubaker; its Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, Ms. Lagos; and its Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, Mr. Orman, respectively.

Continued employment for Mr. Orman following the merger to assist Bank of the Sierra in developing its presence in the market presently served by Ojai Community Bank; and continued employment for Ms. Lagos in a branch operations position.

Outstanding stock options covering 25,584, 19,507 and 20,328 shares, held by Mr. Brubaker, Ms. Lagos and Mr. Orman, respectively; for which they will receive cash payments in the merger if not exercised in the amounts of $165,017, $170,686 and $152,867, respectively.

Outstanding restricted stock and deferred shares covering 28,652, 1,593 and 11,667 shares, held by Mr. Brubaker, Ms. Lagos and Mr. Orman, respectively, will become vested and issued prior to the closing date.

Continued indemnification and insurance coverage for OCB's current and past officers and directors.

Conversion or repayment of indebtedness by five directors of OCB who currently hold certain subordinated capital notes totaling $3 million, 20% of which is convertible into shares of OCB's common stock at the holder's option of the holder, for which note holders at their option may receive cash in lieu of shares of OCB's common stock otherwise issuable upon conversion of such debt. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, all five directors have indicated their intention to convert their convertible 20% into stock prior to the close of the merger.

You should consider these interests in conjunction with the recommendation of OCB's board of directors with respect to approval of the merger.

We may fail to realize all of the anticipated benefits of the merger if the combined company does not achieve certain cost savings and other benefits or if Bank of the Sierra and Ojai Community Bank do not successfully integrate.

Sierra Bancorp's belief that the cost savings and revenue enhancements are achievable is a forward-looking statement that is inherently uncertain. The combined company's actual cost savings and revenue enhancements, if any, cannot be quantified at this time. Actual cost savings and revenue enhancements will depend on future expense levels and operating levels, the timing of certain events and general industry, regulatory and business conditions. Many of these events will be beyond the control of the combined company.

Further, if Sierra is unable to successfully integrate the businesses of Bank of the Sierra and Ojai Community Bank, operating results may suffer. Bank of the Sierra and Ojai Community Bank have operated and, until completion of the merger, will continue to operate independently of one another. It is possible that the integration process could result in the loss of key employees, disruption of their ongoing businesses, or inconsistencies in standards, controls, policies or procedures. These could negatively affect both Bank of the Sierra's and Ojai Community Bank's ability to maintain relationships with customers and employees, or achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger. As with any completed merger of financial institutions, there may also be disruptions that cause customers, both deposit and loan, to take their business to competitors.

Sierra Bancorp and OCB Bancorp will incur significant transaction and merger-related integration costs in connection with the merger, and these costs may not be offset by the anticipated benefits of the merger.

Sierra Bancorp and OCB Bancorp expect to incur significant costs associated with completing the merger and integrating the operations of Bank of the Sierra and Ojai Community Bank. Sierra and OCB are in the process of assessing the impact of these costs. Although Sierra and OCB believe that the elimination of duplicate costs and the realization of other efficiencies related to the integration of the businesses will offset incremental transition and merger-related costs over time, this net benefit may not be achieved in the near term, or at all.

In connection with the announcement of the merger agreement, a lawsuit has been filed and is pending, seeking, among other things, to enjoin the merger, and an adverse judgment in this lawsuit may prevent the merger from becoming effective within the expected time frame (if at all).

On July 7, 2017, a purported shareholder of OCB filed a class action lawsuit in the United States District Court, Central District of California, captioned Paul Parshall v. OCB Bancorp. The complaint names as defendants OCB, the current members of the board of directors of OCB, and Sierra. The complaint is brought on behalf of a putative class of shareholders of OCB common stock and seeks a declaration that it is properly maintainable as a class action. The complaint alleges that the individual defendants, OCB and Sierra violated the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission thereunder in connection with disclosure contained in or omitted from the original registration statement filed on June 14, 2017 with the SEC concerning the merger. The complaint also alleges that the OCB directors caused OCB to be acquired by Sierra for inadequate consideration and agreed to deal protection measures that unreasonably restricted competing offers for OCB. See PROPOSAL NO. 1 - THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – The Merger Agreement – Agreements of OCB Bancorp Relating to Alternative Acquisition Proposals” beginning on page 54. The OCB Board of Directors believes that the deal protection measures in the merger agreement, including termination fees, are standard for bank merger transactions. The complaint seeks declaratory and injunctive relief to prevent the completion of the merger, compensatory damages in conjunction with the merger if it should be completed and costs including plaintiffs’ attorney’s fees and expert fees. OCB and Sierra believe that all claims asserted in the complaint are without merit. At this time it is not possible to predict the outcome of the proceeding or its impact on OCB, Sierra or the merger. If the plaintiffs are successful in enjoining the completion of the merger, the merger may not become effective within its expected time frame (or at all).

Risks Relating to Bank of the Sierra, to the Business of Banking in General, and to Sierra Bancorp’s Common Stock

For a discussion of risks relating to Bank of the Sierra and to the business of banking in general, as well as risks relating to Sierra Bancorp’s common stock, please see Item IA – Risk Factors in Sierra Bancorp’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016 as filed with the SEC which is incorporated herein by reference. See “WHERE YOU CAN FIND MORE INFORMATION” beginning on page 77 for instructions on how to obtain the information that has been incorporated by reference.

A WARNING ABOUT FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements contained in this proxy statement/prospectus or in documents incorporated by reference, including, without limitation, statements containing the words “believes,” “anticipates,” “intends,” “expects,” and words of similar import, constitute “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act and Section 21E of the Exchange Act. These forward-looking statements, including among others those found in “QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE SPECIAL MEETING AND THE MERGER,” “SUMMARY,” and “PROPOSAL NO. 1 - THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER” involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of the combined companies to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements.

In addition to factors previously disclosed in Sierra Bancorp’s reports filed with the SEC and those identified elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus (including the section entitled “RISK FACTORS” beginning on page 21), the following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from forward-looking statements or historical performance:

- The ability of Bank of the Sierra to successfully integrate Ojai Community Bank, or achieve expected beneficial synergies and/or operating efficiencies;
- Customer acceptance of Bank of the Sierra’s and Ojai Community Bank’s products and services and efforts by competitor institutions to lure away such customers;
- Increased competitive pressures generally;
- Possible business disruption following the merger or difficulty retaining key managers and employees;
- Changes in customer borrowing, repayment, investment and deposit practices;
- Changes in market factors that may affect the value of traded instruments in “mark-to-market” portfolios;
- Potential volatility and deterioration in the credit and financial markets or adverse changes in general economic conditions leading to increased loan losses;
- The potential impact on our net interest margin and funding sources from interest rate fluctuations;
- Greater than expected noninterest expenses including potential increases in deposit insurance premiums;
- Fluctuations in the demand for loans, the number of unsold homes, land and other properties and fluctuations in real estate values in our market areas;
- Secondary market conditions for loans and our ability to sell loans in the secondary market;
- The use of estimates in determining fair value of certain of our assets, which estimates may prove to be incorrect and result in significant declines in valuation;
- Possible acquisitions of other financial institutions and/or expansion into new market areas;
- The availability of capital;
- The failure or security breach of computer systems on which we depend;
- Unanticipated regulatory or legal proceedings; and
- Our ability to manage the risks involved in the foregoing.

Given these uncertainties, you are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements. Sierra Bancorp and OCB Bancorp disclaim any obligation to update any such factors or to publicly announce the results of any revisions to any of the forward-looking statements contained in this proxy statement/prospectus to reflect future events or developments, except as required by law.

The votes required for each proposal are as follows:

Approval of the merger agreement and the merger. The affirmative vote of at least a majority of the shares of OCB's common stock is required to approve this proposal.

Adjournment. The affirmative vote of at least a majority of the shares of OCB's common stock represented and voting at the special meeting is required to approve this proposal.

As of the record date, OCB's directors and executive officers owned 534,199 voting shares (not including vested option shares), representing approximately 23.6% of OCB's issued and outstanding shares of common stock. Pursuant to voting agreements more fully described under the section "PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Director and Executive Officer Voting, Non-Solicitation and Non-Competition Agreements" beginning on page 43, each of OCB's directors and executive officers has agreed to vote his or her shares of OCB's common stock "FOR" approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated therein and the merger. A copy of the form of voting agreement separately executed by each of OCB's directors is attached as Exhibit A and a copy of the form of voting agreement separately executed by each of OCB's executive officers is attached as Exhibit B to the merger agreement which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A and is incorporated herein by reference.

Voting of Proxies

Submitting Proxies

Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, we urge you to complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and to return it promptly in the envelope provided. Returning the proxy card will not affect your right to attend the special meeting and vote. You may also vote electronically or by telephone. Instructions for all voting can be found on the proxy card included with this proxy statement/prospectus.

If you properly fill in your proxy card and send it to us in time to vote electronically or by telephone, your “proxy” (the individual named on your proxy card) will vote your shares as you have directed. If you sign the proxy card but do not make specific choices, your proxy will vote your shares as recommended by OCB’s board of directors as follows:

• “FOR” the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated therein.

“FOR” the approval of any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the merger agreement or for any other legally permissible purpose.

If any other matter is presented, your proxy will vote in accordance with the recommendation of OCB’s board of directors. At the time this proxy statement/prospectus went to press, we knew of no matters which needed to be acted on at the special meeting, other than those discussed in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Voting Electronically or by Telephone

In addition to voting in person or by proxy at the special meeting, OCB's shareholders also have the option to vote electronically or by telephone. Instructions to vote electronically or by telephone can be found on the proxy card included with this proxy statement/prospectus. The electronic and telephonic voting procedures are designed to authenticate a shareholder's identity and to allow shareholders to vote their shares and confirm that their voting instructions have been properly recorded.

Revoking Proxies

OCB shareholders who hold their shares in certificate or registered book-entry form may revoke their proxies at any time before the time their proxies are voted at the special meeting by: (i) filing with the Corporate Secretary of OCB Bancorp, an instrument revoking it or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date; (ii) appearing and voting in person at the special meeting or (iii) if an OCB shareholder has voted such OCB shareholder's shares electronically or by telephone, recording a different vote, or by signing and returning a proxy card dated as of a date that is later than such OCB shareholder's last Internet or telephone vote. Subject to such revocation, shares represented by a properly executed proxy received in time for the special meeting will be voted by the proxy holder thereof in accordance with the instructions on the proxy. If no instruction is specified with respect to a matter to be acted upon, the shares represented by the proxy will be voted in favor of the proposals listed on the proxy. If any other business is properly presented at the meeting, the proxy will be voted in accordance with the recommendations of OCB's board of directors.

Written notices of proxy revocations must be sent so that they will be received before the taking of the vote at the special meeting as follows:

OCB Bancorp

402 West Ojai Avenue

Suite 102

Ojai, California 93023

Attention: Corporate Secretary

If you have instructed a broker or other nominee to vote your shares, you must follow directions received from your broker or other nominee in order to change those instructions.

Shares Held in Street Name; Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

If you hold your shares of OCB's common stock in "street name" (that is, through a broker or other nominee), you must vote your shares through your broker. You should receive a form from your broker asking how you want to vote your shares. Follow the instructions on that form to give voting instructions to your broker. Under the rules that govern brokers who are voting with respect to shares held in street name, brokers have the discretion to vote such shares on routine, but not on non-routine matters. At the special meeting, none of the matters is a routine matter. Therefore, if you fail to instruct your broker or nominee as to how to vote your shares of OCB's common stock, your broker or nominee may not vote your shares "for" any of the proposals set forth in this proxy statement-prospectus, including the approval of the merger agreement and the merger, without your specific direction. A "broker non-vote" occurs when your broker does not vote on a particular proposal because the broker does not receive instructions from the beneficial owner and does not have discretionary authority. It is VERY IMPORTANT that you return the instructions to your broker or nominee. Therefore if you wish to be represented you must vote by completing and sending in or otherwise transmitting the information which is sent to you by your broker or nominee.

A broker non-vote with respect to the merger proposal will have the same effect as a vote "against" this proposal. A broker non-vote with respect to the adjournment proposal will have no effect on the vote with respect to such proposal. An abstention occurs when an OCB shareholder attends the special meeting either in person or by proxy, but abstains from voting. For the merger proposal, an abstention or failure to vote will have the same effect as a vote cast "against" this proposal. For the adjournment proposal, abstentions will have no effect on this proposal.

Dissenters' Rights

Holders of OCB's common stock will have dissenters' rights with respect to the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the merger. In order to perfect dissenters' rights, a shareholder of OCB must do the following:

- not vote "FOR" the merger agreement and the merger;
- make a timely written demand upon OCB Bancorp for purchase in cash of his or her shares at their fair market value as of April 24, 2017, the day of, and immediately prior to, the first public announcement of the merger, excluding any change in such value as a consequence of the proposed merger, which demand includes:
 - the number and class of the shares held of record by him or her that he or she demands upon OCB Bancorp, and what he or she claims to be the fair market value of his or her shares as of April 24, 2017, the day of, and
 - immediately prior to, the first public announcement of the merger, excluding any change in such value as a consequence of the proposed merger;
- have his or her demand received by OCB Bancorp within 30 days after the date on which the notice of the approval by the outstanding shares is mailed to the shareholder;
- submit certificates representing his or her shares for endorsement, or written notice of the number of shares which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase, in the case of uncertificated shares, in accordance with Section 1302 of the CGCL; and
- comply with such other procedures as are required by the CGCL.

If dissenters' rights are properly perfected, such dissenter has the right to receive cash in the amount equal to the fair market value, as determined by OCB Bancorp, or, if required, by a court of law, of their shares of OCB's common stock as of the day of, and immediately prior to, the first public announcement of the merger, excluding any change in such value as a consequence of the proposed merger. Please read the section entitled "PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Dissenters' Rights of OCB Bancorp Shareholders", and Appendix B for additional information.

If dissenters' rights are perfected and exercised with respect to more than ten percent (10%) of OCB's outstanding shares of common stock, then Sierra has the option to terminate the merger agreement. Please see "PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND MERGER – Dissenter's Rights of OCB Bancorp Shareholders."

Other Matters

OCB management is not aware of any other business that will be conducted at the special meeting.

Solicitation of Proxies

OCB's board of directors is soliciting the proxies for the special meeting. OCB will pay for the cost of solicitation of proxies. In addition to solicitation by mail, OCB's directors, officers and employees may also solicit proxies from shareholders by telephone, facsimile, or in person. OCB will not pay any additional compensation to these directors, officers or employees for these activities, but may reimburse them for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses.

If OCB's management deems it advisable, the services of individuals or companies that are not regularly employed by OCB may be used in connection with the solicitation of proxies. Arrangements will also be made with brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to send the proxy materials to beneficial owners. OCB will, upon request, reimburse those brokerage houses and custodians for their reasonable expenses in so doing. OCB does not presently intend to utilize the services of a proxy solicitation firm to assist in the solicitation of proxies for the special meeting, but may decide to do so in the interests of time if circumstances warrant.

Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management

The following table sets forth information as of July 31, 2017, concerning beneficial ownership of OCB's common stock (i) by persons known to OCB to own five percent (5%) or more of such stock; (ii) by each of OCB's directors; (iii) by each of OCB's executive officers; and (iv) by all current directors and executive officers of the OCB as a group. PROPOSAL NO. 1
THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER

This section describes certain aspects of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated therein pursuant to which OCB Bancorp will be merged with and into Sierra Bancorp and OCB's bank subsidiary, Ojai Community Bank will be merged with and into Sierra's bank subsidiary, Bank of the Sierra. Because this is a summary, it does not contain all the information that may be important to you. You should read this entire proxy statement/prospectus, including the appendices. A copy of the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger, dated April 24, 2017, as amended, referred to herein as the merger agreement, is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference herein. The following discussion describes important aspects and the material terms of the merger agreement and the merger. These descriptions are qualified in their entirety by reference to Appendix A.

Structure of the Merger

The merger agreement provides for the merger of OCB Bancorp with and into Sierra Bancorp, with Sierra Bancorp as the surviving entity after the merger. As a result of the merger, OCB Bancorp will cease to exist as a separate entity.

Immediately after the merger, OCB Bancorp's wholly owned bank subsidiary, Ojai Community Bank, will merge with and into Sierra Bancorp's wholly owned bank subsidiary, Bank of the Sierra, with Bank of the Sierra as the surviving entity after the bank merger. As a result of the bank merger, Ojai Community Bank will cease to exist as a separate entity.

The merger agreement is attached as Appendix A to this document. We encourage you to read the merger agreement in its entirety.

Merger Consideration

The merger agreement provides that each share of OCB's common stock will be entitled to receive a specified number of shares of Sierra's common stock, which we refer to as the per share merger consideration, based on a formula or floating exchange ratio specified in the merger agreement. The exchange ratio is based on the volume-weighted average price of Sierra's common stock over the 20 consecutive trading days prior to the fifth business day before the closing date, which we refer to as the Sierra closing price, and is generally $14.00 divided by the Sierra closing price, subject to certain limitations and adjustments. The way the formula works depends largely on the Sierra closing price, so at certain prices the value of the per share merger consideration will be fixed and the exchange ratio will be variable, and at other prices the opposite will be the case.

The formula in the merger agreement will result in the following per share merger consideration, all subject to possible downward adjustment as described immediately following the below bullets:

If the Sierra closing price is between $25.22 and $30.82 per share, then the per share merger consideration will be $14.00 worth of Sierra's common stock for each share of OCB common stock and the exchange ratio will be between 0.45425 and 0.55511.

If the Sierra closing price is between $30.82 and $35.03 per share, then the value of the per share merger consideration will be between $14.00 and $15.91 and the exchange ratio will be fixed at 0.45425.

If the Sierra closing price is between $21.02 and $25.22 per share, then the value of the per share merger consideration will be between $11.67 and $14.00 and the exchange ratio will be fixed at 0.55511.

If the Sierra closing price is more than $35.03 per share, Sierra will have the right to terminate the merger agreement unless OCB agrees to adjust the exchange ratio as necessary to fix the price at $15.91 per share.

If the Sierra closing price is less than $21.02 per share, OCB will have the right to terminate the merger agreement unless Sierra agrees to adjust the exchange ratio or add cash as necessary to fix the price at $11.67 per share. U.S. holders may recognize taxable gain with respect to their receipt of cash in that event. See “Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger”.

The per share merger consideration is subject to reduction if and to the extent that OCB Bancorp’s adjusted shareholders’ equity is less than $16.6 million or certain expenses of the merger exceed $2.6 million. For a definition of the term “adjusted shareholders’ equity” and a description of such expenses, see “– Adjustments to the Merger Consideration” immediately below.

Holders of in-the-money OCB stock options who do not exercise their options and instead execute option cancellation agreements will receive a cash payment equal to (a)(i) the Sierra closing price multiplied by (ii) the per share merger consideration minus (b) the exercise price per share with respect to the corresponding OCB stock option. Any option holder electing to exercise outstanding stock options will receive the same merger consideration as any other OCB Bancorp shareholder. Neither event will impact the per share merger consideration payable to other shareholders.

Because the per share merger consideration calculation utilizes a formula based on the volume weighted average trading price of Sierra’s common stock for a period of time shortly before the close of the merger, the precise value of the per share merger consideration will not be known until that time. By way of example only, assuming no adjustments to the exchange ratio, if the per share merger consideration were calculated based on the closing price for shares of Sierra’s common stock on the Nasdaq Global Select Market on August 7, 2017 (the latest practicable trading date prior to printing this proxy statement/prospectus), of $26.83 per share, each share of OCB Bancorp common stock would have been converted into 0.52180 shares of Sierra’s common stock with a market value of $14.00 per share. The actual per share merger consideration will be calculated five business days before the closing of the merger based on the formula in the merger agreement, and the resulting per share merger consideration may be more or less than in the above example.

Adjustments to the Merger Consideration

The per share merger consideration will be reduced in the event that (i) OCB’s defined transaction expenses exceed $2.6 million and/or (ii) OCB’s adjusted shareholders’ equity as of the end of the month immediately preceding the closing date is less than $16.6 million. Adjusted shareholders’ equity for this purpose is defined as total shareholders’ equity calculated in accordance with GAAP, but excluding: all changes in accumulated other comprehensive income or loss from the amount of adjusted shareholder’s equity shown in the December 31, 2016, financial reports of OCB Bancorp; the accrual or payment of company transaction expenses; any purchase accounting adjustments to the assets and liabilities of OCB Bancorp; and without giving effect to the conversion of any convertible debt issued by OCB Bancorp. Expenses of the transaction that will be calculated for purposes of determining adjusted shareholders’ equity include: all severance or change of control payments under any OCB employment agreement; OCB Bancorp’s costs of attorneys, accountants and investment bankers, or other financial advisors, accountants, audit or other professional service providers in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; premiums for the purchase of directors' and officers' tail coverage; and contract termination fees payable to vendors.

The aggregate merger consideration will be reduced dollar for dollar by the sum of (i) the amount by which OCB's transaction expenses as defined above exceed $2.6 million and (ii) the amount by which OCB's adjusted shareholders' equity as defined above is less than $16.6 million. The per share merger consideration would then be adjusted proportionally based on the number of OCB common shares outstanding immediately prior to the closing of the merger.

Background of the Merger

OCB Bancorp, based in Ojai, California, was formed in 2013 as the holding company for Ojai Community Bank, which has conducted general banking operations to serve individuals and small-to medium-sized businesses since 2005. In serving individuals, small businesses and mid-market corporations, Ojai Community Bank has historically focused on a community-based approach to banking.

Following the completion of the Ojai Community Bank initial offering in 2005 and the “Great Recession” that commenced in 2008, the board of directors continually evaluated the banking marketplace, business strategy, opportunities and challenges, long term business sustainability, preparations for changes in business cycles and geopolitical changes as part the economic cycle, and the historical acquisition prices being paid for financial institutions of OCB Bancorp’s and Ojai Community Bank’s size, as part of the board’s process of identifying ways to enhance shareholder value. The board of directors was concerned about the rapid changes occurring in the banking industry in Southern California, and Ventura and Santa Barbara Counties in particular. To effectively compete with other more efficient financial institutions, Ojai Community Bank’s board of directors and management knew that they had to continue to increase Ojai Community Bank’s core deposit base as well as its loan portfolio, and needed to continue to improve its efficiency. Although the board of directors believed OCB Bancorp and Ojai Community Bank were in a position to accomplish this, the board of directors also decided that OCB Bancorp and Ojai Community Bank should be receptive to offers that could maximize shareholder value.

After the presidential election in 2016, OCB’s board reevaluated its strategic objectives. On November 17, 2016, the board, with the assistance of a representative of an investment banking firm, discussed the future of community banking including the regulatory environment, interest rate expectations, global influences, shareholder interests, internal strategic initiatives, changing delivery systems in banking, and the changing demographics of the bank’s service area.

At the December 15, 2016 board meeting, the board continued to discuss its strategic alternatives with the representative of another investment banking firm, including the possibilities of raising additional capital from local and non-local sources for the purpose of acquiring another financial institution, continuing with its current growth strategy or being acquired to assist in OCB’s community driven growth strategy along the central coast of California. The board then requested that the representative from the investment banking firm survey the market to determine the level of possible nonbinding interest and price considerations in a merger to accomplish OCB’s community driven goals.

On January 13, 2017, representatives of FIG Partners met with Kevin McPhaill, president and chief executive officer, and James Holly, vice chairman of Sierra Bancorp, at a banking conference and discussed briefly Sierra’s potential interest in acquiring OCB.

On January 18, 2017, FIG Partners presented an analysis and discussed a comparison of the internal future projections of OCB for the next five years with an opportunity to accept an offer at $13.00 per share. The board discussed the ramifications of potential transactions at that level as a strategy that would be in the best interests of shareholders, given the board’s assessment of future performance and market conditions.

At the January 19, 2017 board meeting, the board again discussed strategic options with a representative from another investment banking firm to gain additional perspective as to opportunities in the market place for capital, acquisition and business growth. The board's conclusions were similar to previous discussions and the board then requested market feedback through FIG Partners concerning potential transactions to better assess its options.

On January 20, 2017, OCB formally retained FIG Partners as a financial advisor and executed a nondisclosure agreement to begin the process of exploring strategic transactions. After further discussion, OCB's board of directors recognized the advantages of a potential business combination with Sierra. At the same time, OCB's board of directors recognized the opportunity to participate with a larger independent financial institution in its local markets. At the direction of the board of directors, FIG Partners, with the assistance of chief executive officer Dave Brubaker and chairman George Melton, and OCB counsel, then conducted several discussions with Sierra. Subsequently, on February 24, 2017, Sierra executed an engagement letter with Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, A Stifel Company, to act as its financial advisor in connection with the OCB Bancorp transaction. We will refer to Sierra's financial advisor as "KBW."

On January 31, 2017, representatives of OCB met with representatives of Sierra to discuss the strategic plans of both organizations and evaluate a possible strategic transaction between the two companies. In addition, viewpoints were shared on community banking, regulatory expectations, shareholder returns, dividends, future geographic strategic objectives, comparison of culture within each organization, potential business combinations, timing and the merger process, and ultimately the degree of interest in continuing conversations. At this meeting and subsequent meetings and discussions prior to the execution of the merger agreement, post-transaction employment by Sierra or Bank of Sierra for the senior executive officers of OCB and Ojai Community Bank was not discussed or offered by Sierra. At no time were directorships in Sierra or Bank of the Sierra offered to the OCB and/or Ojai Community Bank officers or directors.

On February 6, 2017, Sierra and OCB executed a confidentiality agreement in order to facilitate preliminary due diligence by Sierra. A similar letter was signed by the parties on March 17, 2017, to facilitate reverse due diligence by OCB.

Sierra Bancorp first presented to OCB its initial indication of interest to acquire OCB on February 16, 2017, which was based upon an exchange of Sierra's common stock at an assigned value of $13.25 per share for each OCB Bancorp share. The offer was also conditioned on OCB having total shareholders' equity at closing of not less than $16.6 million without giving effect to purchase accounting adjustments to asset and liability values and certain transaction expenses. A second closing condition was that OCB's allowance for loan losses be equal to the greater of $2.6 million or 1.25% of outstanding loans. A representative of FIG Partners, counsel for OCB, and the board of directors and management of OCB discussed the indication of interest and its implications, and a counter offer was discussed.

On February 21, 2017, OCB presented a counter offer to Sierra that was based upon OCB shareholders receiving a fixed price of $14.00 per share in Sierra stock plus cash for the intrinsic value of any outstanding OCB stock options not exercised before the closing. The number of shares of Sierra's common stock to be issued in the transaction would be based upon the volume weighted average price over the 20 consecutive trading days prior to the fifth business day before closing of the transaction. Thus the amount of shares to be issued would not be known for Sierra until shortly before the closing of the merger. The counter offer also provided for minimum severance provisions for OCB employees, no time limitation on indemnification for certain acts taken by OCB directors prior to closing, and a fiduciary out if OCB should receive a superior unsolicited offer in return for the payment of a $500,000 break-up fee to Sierra, as well as other terms and conditions.

After the conclusion of multiple exchanges of information, Sierra presented a revised offer on February 22, 2017, that was based upon an exchange of stock with an assigned value per share of $14.00 for each OCB Bancorp share, with unexercised OCB options to be cashed out for their intrinsic value. The number of shares of Sierra's common stock to be issued in the transaction would be based upon the volume weighted average price over the 20 consecutive trading days prior to the fifth business day before closing. Sierra introduced a collar to manage the risk of how many shares it would issue outside a 10% pricing band. If the average Sierra price was above $30.82 the exchange ratio would be 0.45425 and if the average Sierra price was below $25.22 the exchange ratio would be 0.55511. In between $25.22 and $30.82, the exchange ratio would be based on $14.00 divided by the average Sierra price. The February 22, 2017 offer also contained a time limitation on indemnification, a break-up fee of $1.75 million should the OCB Bancorp board exercise its fiduciary out, and other terms and conditions.

On February 23, 2017, OCB presented a second counter offer to Sierra that accepted the pricing and the exchange ratio adjustments set forth in the February 22, 2017 offer of Sierra, but proposed that OCB have a right to terminate the transaction if Sierra's average trading price used to calculate the exchange ratio was 10% less than $25.22, and Sierra to have a right to terminate the transaction if such average price of Sierra common stock was 10% more than $30.82. The February 23, 2014 letter also proposed no time limitation on indemnification, a reduced break-up fee $1.1 million, and other terms and conditions.

On February 24, 2017, Sierra presented a final revised offer to OCB based upon the pricing and price protection provisions set forth in Sierra's February 22, 2017 offer and confirmed in OCB's February 23, 2017 counter offer. However, the offer proposed an alternative to the termination rights previously proposed by OCB. Under the alternative provision, Sierra would have the right to terminate the transaction if the average price of Sierra's stock used to calculate the exchange ratio was above $33.62 and such stock price had increased by more than 115% of the change in the Nasdaq Bank Index. OCB would have the right to terminate if the average Sierra price used to calculate the exchange ratio was below $22.42 and the average price of Sierra's stock had declined by more than 85% of the change in the Nasdaq Bank Index. The revised offer from Sierra also contained, among other things, a severance package for OCB employees not covered by an existing severance package; no time limitation on indemnification; a six year limitation on director and officer extended coverage insurance; certain limitations on transaction expenses; a break-up fee of $1.5 million if OCB were to terminate the transaction to take another offer; a 45-day exclusivity period in which to complete due diligence and execute a definitive merger agreement; and closing shareholders' equity of OCB Bancorp required by Sierra, without including any purchase accounting adjustments or transaction expenses, of at least $16.6 million. The OCB allowance for loan losses requirement was also reduced to the greater of $2.6 million or 1.25% of gross loans outstanding. On February 24, 2017, OCB and its representatives reviewed and executed the revised indication of interest received from Sierra.

The period of the negotiations concerning the merger agreement continued from February 24 through April 20, 2017. Both OCB and Sierra conducted due diligence and negotiated and exchanged multiple drafts of the proposed merger agreement and ancillary documents. The first draft of the merger agreement was delivered to counsel to OCB by counsel to Sierra on March 14, 2017. The changes to the merger agreement and related documents, the strategic alternatives for OCB, the competitive banking environment in California, the prospects for OCB if it remained independent, and many other items as discussed in detail in “OCB Bancorp’s Reasons for the Merger” contained elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus were all thoroughly reviewed with the board of directors.

At the April 20, 2017 OCB board meeting, FIG Partners presented its analysis of the merger and its opinion that the consideration to be received in the merger was fair to OCB’s shareholders from a financial point of view, and that FIG Partners would issue the fairness opinion on the date of execution of the merger agreement. Counsel for OCB also reviewed with the board of directors the various representations, warranties, covenants, forbearances, conditions and termination provisions of the merger agreement. OCB’s board of directors deliberated at length concerning the terms and conditions of a transaction with Sierra. There were changes in the terms of the merger throughout the discussions between the parties and their representatives concerning the merger agreement that were on balance viewed by OCB and its representatives as favorable to OCB that required substantial discussions between OCB’s board of directors, committees, its financial advisor and counsel, and discussions between certain representatives of OCB with certain representatives of Sierra.

The most significant changes to the transaction terms were modifications to the termination rights which eliminated the rate of change in Sierra’s stock price as compared to the Nasdaq Bank Index as a second trigger for a party to exercise its termination right, so that the termination right would be triggered solely by the Sierra share price falling below $21.02, in the case of OCB’s termination right, or above $35.03, in the case of Sierra Bancorp’s termination right. Should OCB exercise its termination right, Sierra would have the right to elect to proceed to close the transaction by increasing the number of shares of Sierra’s stock to be issued or paying cash to bring the value of the transaction to the value that would have been received by OCB shareholders had Sierra’s stock had a value for transaction purposes of $21.02. Conversely, should Sierra elect to exercise its termination right, OCB could elect to proceed to closing by reducing the number of shares of Sierra Bancorp to be received to the value that would have been received had the Sierra shares had a value for transaction purposes of $35.03 per share.

On April 20, 2017, after discussing the merger agreement and many other items, the OCB board unanimously approved the final version of the merger agreement.

On April 20, 2017, the Sierra board, after deliberation, unanimously approved the merger agreement and transaction as constituted at that time, and authorized management to negotiate any final changes to the terms of the merger agreement without further board approval. KBW and Sierra legal counsel reviewed the final terms of the merger agreement with the Sierra board at that time.

The merger agreement was signed on April 24, 2017 and the transaction was announced in a joint press release after the stock market closed on April 24, 2017.

OCB Bancorp's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of OCB's Board of Directors

General

OCB's board of directors believes that the terms of the merger agreement are advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, OCB Bancorp and its shareholders. Accordingly, OCB's board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement and recommends that OCB's shareholders vote "FOR" approval of the merger agreement and the merger.

In the course of reaching its determination, OCB's board of directors consulted with legal counsel with respect to their legal duties and the terms of the merger agreement. The board also consulted with their financial advisor with respect to the financial aspects of the transaction and the fairness of the merger consideration from a financial point of view.

The following discussion of the information and factors considered by OCB's board is not intended to be exhaustive, but does include the material factors considered in reaching its determination that the merger is advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, OCB Bancorp and its shareholders. OCB's board considered the following:

- information concerning the financial performance, financial condition, branch network, and business operations of Bank of the Sierra/Sierra Bancorp;
- the OCB board of directors' knowledge and review, based in part on presentations by its financial advisor and OCB's management, of: (i) the business, operations, financial condition and earnings of Sierra Bancorp on a historical and prospective basis and of the combined company on a pro forma basis; and (ii) the potential for increased earnings for OCB's shareholders as shareholders of the combined company;
- the anticipated positive effect of the merger on OCB's existing shareholders, personnel, customers and communities;
- the anticipated premium to current market price for OCB's common stock based on the exchange ratio and the recent closing prices for Sierra's common stock;
- the anticipated positive effect on earnings for both OCB's shareholders and Sierra's shareholders as a result of the merger;
- the strategic options available to OCB and the board's assessment that none of these options, including remaining independent, is likely to present an opportunity to create value for OCB's shareholders that is greater than that created by the proposed merger with Sierra;
- the OCB board of directors' review of the historical market prices of OCB's common stock compared to the value of Sierra's common stock to be received by OCB's shareholders for each share of OCB's common stock owned by them;
- the terms of the merger agreement, which provide the board with an ability to respond to, and to accept, an unsolicited offer that is determined by the board to be superior to the merger, if necessary, to comply with the board's fiduciary duties to OCB's shareholders under applicable law;
- the board's knowledge and belief that OCB provides Sierra with expanded geographic markets, which strategically fit into Sierra's growth and expansion plans;
- the financial presentation of FIG Partners, OCB's independent financial advisor, and the opinion of FIG Partners that as of the date of such opinion, the merger consideration was fair from a financial point of view to the holders of OCB's common stock (see "—Opinion of OCB Bancorp's Financial Advisor");
- the closing conditions in the merger agreement and the likelihood that the merger would be approved by the requisite regulatory authorities;
 - the fact that the receipt of Sierra's common stock is expected to be tax-free to OCB's shareholders;
 - the expanded liquidity of Sierra's common stock compared to the liquidity of OCB's common stock;
- Sierra's ability to pay the merger consideration without needing to condition the merger on obtaining additional sources of financing; and
- the financial presentation of FIG Partners that the current operating environment favors larger banks and banks with a clear growth strategy.

In addition to taking into account the foregoing factors, OCB's board also considered the following potentially negative factors in reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement:

- the possibility that OCB would be substantially more profitable than expected or that another acquiror would be willing to pay a higher price sometime in the future;

· the significant break-up fee of $1,500,000 in relation to the size of the transaction;

- the possible effect of the public announcement of the transaction on the continuing commitment of OCB's management, employees and customers pending the consummation of the merger;
- the possibility that Sierra would be unable to effectively integrate the two companies or that Sierra would not be able to realize the cost savings that it has projected;
- the interests of directors and executive officers of OCB that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of OCB's shareholders generally;
- whether OCB's board of directors considered all strategic alternatives;
- the value of remaining independent due to the diminished number of banks that could be available for sale;
- the breadth and scope of OCB's due diligence of Sierra;
- the possible effects on OCB should the parties fail to complete the merger; and
- the costs of the transaction including the cost of terminating certain vendor contracts.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by OCB's board includes the primary material factors that the board considered. In view of the variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the merger, the board did not find it practicable to, and did not, quantify or otherwise assign relative or specific weight or values to any of these factors, although individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The board considered all of the factors as a whole and considered the factors in their totality to be favorable to, and to support the decision to approve, the merger agreement and the merger and to recommend their approval to OCB's shareholders.

Board Approval

At various meetings in January through April 2017, including the meeting on April 20, 2017, OCB's board deliberated at length concerning the terms and conditions of a transaction with Sierra Bancorp. There were substantial changes in the terms of the merger as compared to the terms originally proposed that required substantial discussions between OCB's board of directors, its financial advisor and counsel. The amendments to the merger agreement and related documents, the strategic alternatives for OCB, the competitive banking environment in California, and the prospects for OCB if it remained independent, were all thoroughly reviewed with the board of directors. At the April 20, 2017 meeting, FIG Partners also presented its analysis of the merger and its opinion that the consideration to be received in the merger was fair to OCB's shareholders from a financial point of view. Thereafter, OCB's board unanimously approved and authorized the execution of the merger agreement.

For reasons set forth above, OCB Bancorp's board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement as being in the best interest of OCB Bancorp and its shareholders, and recommends that OCB's shareholders vote "FOR" the approval of the merger agreement and the merger.

Opinion of OCB Bancorp's Financial Advisor

General

FIG Partners has delivered to the board of directors of OCB its opinion that, based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth in its written opinion dated April 24, 2017, the per share merger consideration to be paid by Sierra is fair to the shareholders of OCB from a financial perspective as of such date. In requesting FIG Partners' investment banking advice and in rendering its opinion as to the fairness of the per share merger consideration to be received, no limitations were imposed by OCB upon FIG Partners with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed by it in rendering its opinion. The full text of the opinion of FIG Partners, dated April 24, 2017, which describes the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached hereto as Appendix C. OCB shareholders should read this opinion in its entirety.

FIG Partners is a nationally recognized investment banking firm and, as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in the valuation of financial institutions in connection with mergers and acquisitions, private placements and valuations for other corporate purposes. As a specialist in securities of financial institutions, FIG Partners has experience in, and knowledge of, banks, thrifts and bank and thrift holding companies. OCB's board of directors selected FIG Partners to act as its financial advisor in connection with the merger on the basis of the firm's reputation and expertise in transactions such as the Merger.

FIG Partners' opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the per share merger consideration to be received by OCB's shareholders, and, as such, does not constitute a recommendation to any OCB shareholder as to how the shareholder should vote at the OCB shareholders' meeting. The summary of the opinion of FIG Partners set forth in this proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

The following is a summary of the analyses performed by FIG Partners in connection with its opinion as to the fairness of the per share merger consideration. Certain analyses were demonstrated in a presentation to the board of directors of OCB by FIG Partners. The summary set forth below does not purport to be a complete description of either the analyses performed or all the factors considered and deemed relevant by FIG Partners in rendering its opinion or the entirety of the presentation delivered by FIG Partners to the board of directors of OCB, but rather it summarizes the material analyses performed and presented by FIG Partners in forming its conclusions as to the fairness of the per share merger consideration from a financial perspective.

The preparation of a fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analyses and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. In arriving at its opinion, FIG Partners did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis and factor considered by it, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. FIG Partners may have given various analyses more or less weight than other analyses. Accordingly, FIG Partners believes that its analyses and the following summary must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, without considering all factors, could create an incomplete view of the process underlying the analyses set forth in its report to the board of directors of OCB and in rendering its fairness opinion.

In performing its analyses, FIG Partners made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of OCB or Sierra. The analyses performed by FIG Partners are not necessarily indicative of actual values or actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Such analyses were prepared solely as part of FIG Partners' analysis of the fairness of the per share merger consideration, from a financial point of view, to OCB shareholders. The analyses do not purport to be an appraisal or to reflect the prices at which a company might actually be sold or the prices at which any securities may trade at the present time or at any time in the future. FIG Partners' opinion does not address the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other business combination in which OCB might engage. In addition, as described above, FIG Partners' opinion to the board of directors of OCB was one of many factors taken into consideration by the board of directors of OCB in making its determination to approve the merger agreement.

During the course of its engagement, and as a basis for arriving at its opinion, FIG Partners reviewed and analyzed numerous materials bearing upon the financial and operating conditions of OCB and Sierra and materials and agreements prepared in connection with the Merger. As part of its review and analysis, FIG Partners, among other things:

·reviewed the merger agreement;

·familiarized itself with the financial condition, business, operations, assets, earnings, prospects and senior management's views as to the future of the financial performance of OCB and Sierra;

·reviewed certain historical publicly available business and financial information concerning OCB including, among other things, quarterly and annual reports filed by OCB and Ojai Community Bank with the Federal Reserve and the FDIC;

·reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information concerning Sierra and Bank of the Sierra, including its Annual Reports, Forms 10-Q and 10-K and Proxy Statements filed with the SEC, consensus earnings estimates, and call reports filed with the FDIC and FRY-9C filed with the Federal Reserve since 2014;

·discussed internal financial and operating data concerning OCB and publicly available information as filed with the SEC concerning Sierra as well as analyzed pro forma regulatory capital levels generated by FIG Partners;

·discussed financial estimates and information prepared by management of OCB through 2019, and assumed an annual growth rate of 12% on earnings from 2020 through 2021;

held discussions with members of the senior managements of OCB and Sierra for the purpose of reviewing the future prospects of OCB and Sierra, including qualitative financial estimates related to their respective businesses, earnings, assets, and liabilities and credit quality;

reviewed the terms of recent merger and acquisition transactions, to the extent publicly available, involving banks and thrifts and bank and thrift holding companies that we considered and deemed relevant;

reviewed trading activity in Sierra common stock over the last twelve months relative to price and volume;

reviewed and compared Sierra's financial performance and current valuation metrics relative to other publicly traded banks which were deemed similar to Sierra; and performed such other analyses and considered such other factors as we have deemed relevant and appropriate.

FIG Partners also took into account its experience in other transactions, as well as its knowledge of the commercial banking industry and its general experience in securities valuations.

In rendering its opinion, FIG Partners assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the publicly and non-publicly available financial and other information furnished to FIG Partners by OCB and Sierra and relied upon the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the parties contained in the merger agreement. FIG Partners also assumed that the financial forecasts discussed with FIG Partners by OCB and consensus earnings estimates for Sierra were reasonably prepared and reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of senior management of OCB and Sierra as to the future financial performance of OCB and Sierra. FIG Partners has not made any independent evaluation or appraisal of any properties, assets or liabilities of OCB or Sierra.

Contribution Analysis

FIG Partners prepared a contribution analysis demonstrating percentage contributions of: total assets; total loans; total deposits; tangible common equity; and last twelve month net income as of December 31, 2016, as well as projected net income for 2017 and 2018 for both OCB and Sierra to the combined company on a pro forma basis, and compared such contribution results to the per share and total merger consideration to be received by OCB shareholders. Projected net income for OCB was provided to FIG Partners through discussions with OCB management, and Sierra projections were based on consensus estimates.

Comparable Transaction Analysis

FIG Partners reviewed two selected groups of comparable transactions. The first group examined transactions announced between September 30, 2016 and April 18, 2017 that involved target banks headquartered in the U.S. with total assets between $200 million and $400 million, nonperforming assets to total assets ratio of less than 3.0% and last twelve month (“LTM”) return on average assets greater than 0.0% (the “Comparable Transactions - National”). The group was limited to targets that were either bank or thrift holding companies, commercial banks, or savings banks/thrifts, and transactions in which pricing was disclosed. This group consisted of the following fourteen transactions:

FIG Partners calculated the medians and averages of the following relevant transaction ratios in the Comparable Transactions – National and the Comparable Transactions - California: the percentage of the deal value to the acquired company’s tangible book value, LTM earnings, total assets, premium to tangible book value to core deposits, and the premium to market price one day prior to announcement. FIG Partners compared these multiples with the corresponding multiples for the merger, valuing the total merger consideration that would be received pursuant to the merger agreement as of April 18, 2017 at approximately $34.274 million, or $14.00 per OCB common share. In calculating the multiples for the merger, FIG Partners used OCB’s financial data as of December 31, 2016. The results of this analysis are as follows:

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis - OCB

FIG Partners estimated the present value of a share of OCB's common stock based on OCB's estimated future earnings stream beginning for 2017 through 2021. Derived from discussions with OCB management relative to future earnings potential, as well as FIG Partners' current view of industry trends and the current interest rate and competitive environment, net income for the years ending 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020 and 2021 is estimated at $1.608 million, $2.268 million, $2.769 million, $3.101 million, and $3.473 million, respectively. On a per share basis estimated earnings for 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020, 2021 is $0.72, $1.01, $1.24, $1.39, and $1.55 respectively. The present value of these earnings was calculated based on a range of discount rates of 14.0%, 15.0%, and 16.0%, respectively. In order to derive the terminal value of OCB's earnings stream beyond 2016, FIG Partners performed two separate analyses using: 1) a terminal multiple in 2021 at 13.0-17.0 times estimated earnings; and 2) a terminal multiple in 2021 at 1.2-1.6 times estimated tangible book value. Estimated tangible book value for the years ending 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020, and 2021 is estimated at $16.915 million, $19.183 million, $21.952 million, $25.053 million, and $28.526 million, respectively. On a per share basis estimated tangible book value for 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020, and 2021 is $7.56, $8.57, $9.81, $11.19 and $12.74. The present value of these terminal amounts was then calculated based on the range of discount rates. These rates and values were chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding the required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of OCB's common stock. The two analyses and the underlying assumptions yielded a range of value for OCB's common stock of approximately (a) $11.14 per share to $15.62 per share based on earnings; and (b) $8.45 per share to $12.07 per share based on tangible book, compared to the merger consideration of $14.00 per share.

As illustrated in the following tables the analysis indicates an imputed per share value based on multiples of earnings and multiples of tangible book value.

The following table describes a discount rate calculation for OCB Bancorp prepared by FIG Partners. In its normal course of business, FIG Partners employs the Duff & Phelps handbook in determining an appropriate discount rate in which the discount rate is equal to a normalized 20-yr. treasury yield plus the equity risk premium plus a company specific premium.

Franchise Value Analysis

FIG Partners used a franchise value analysis to estimate the value of OCB Bancorp's common stock based on the composition of its balance sheet at December 31, 2016. The franchise value analysis involves calculating the net asset value of the company and adding a core deposit premium to the net asset value to determine the overall value of the company. FIG Partners made certain adjustments to tangible common equity to calculate OCB Bancorp's net asset value. FIG Partners identified $71 thousand of net potential fair-market value adjustments (net of 41% taxes). FIG Partners also assessed an additional mark to bring the Tier 1 common regulatory ratio to 8%, this represents the extra capital commitment a buyer would make to bring the capital level to 8%. The deposit premium was calculated by assigning a premium to each deposit account type based on the perceived value of each type of deposit to a potential acquirer.

FIG Partners selected premiums of 0% for certificates of deposit, 4% for savings and money market accounts, 6% for NOW accounts, and 8% for non-interest bearing deposits. The overall deposit premium for OCB Bancorp was 5.16%, or $10.8 million. FIG Partners noted that deposit premiums paid in bank merger transactions vary, therefore FIG Partners selected a range of deposit premiums from 4% to 7%. The franchise value analysis suggested an overall range of value of $9.34 to $12.14 per share for OCB Bancorp common stock. The value suggested by a 5.16% deposit premium was $10.43 per share.

Pro Forma Merger Analysis

FIG Partners analyzed certain potential pro forma effects of the merger, based on the following assumptions: (i) the merger closes in the second calendar quarter of 2017, and; (ii) each share of the outstanding OCB common stock is converted into the number of shares of Sierra stock equal to the Exchange Ratio. FIG Partners also incorporated the following assumptions based on discussion with the respective senior managements of OCB and Sierra: (a) internal financial projections for OCB for the years ending December 31, 2017 through December 31, 2021 and current analyst consensus estimates for Sierra of $1.47 and $1.59 per share in 2017 and 2018, respectively, and assuming 8% earnings growth for 2019, 2020, and 2021, based upon FIG Partners estimates and discussion with respective senior managements; (b) purchase accounting adjustments consisting of (i) 1.3% credit mark on loans, (ii) 1.0% core deposit intangible; (c) 35% estimated annual cost savings, annual cost saves fully implemented in 2018; (d) estimated, pre-tax, one-time transaction costs of $4.4 million; and (e) an annual pre-tax opportunity cost of cash of 2.0%. The analysis indicated that the merger could be accretive to OCB's estimated earnings per share in 2017 and accretive to estimated tangible book value per share at close. In connection with this analysis, FIG Partners considered and discussed with the board of directors and senior management of OCB how the analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including the impact of final purchase accounting adjustments determined at the closing of the transaction, and noted that the actual results achieved by the combined company may vary from projected results and the variations may be material.

In June 2015, FIG Partners received $106.3 thousand in connection with FIG's role as placement agent for OCB's senior notes. There have been no other services performed by FIG or fees received except in connection with the proposed merger. FIG Partners will receive a fee from OCB for performing its financial advisory services in connection with the merger and rendering its written opinion to the board of directors of OCB as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the per share merger consideration to be paid to OCB's shareholders by Sierra; a portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the merger ("the success fee"). FIG partners has received $50,000 for completion of its fairness analysis and issuance of its fairness opinion to OCB, which will be credited against the success fee of 1.5% of the aggregate merger consideration (not including any subordinated debt consideration), which will be due to FIG in the event the merger is consummated. Based on Sierra's closing price of $26.83 per share on August 7, 2017, FIG Partners would receive total fees of approximately $501.0 thousand for all services performed in the merger and in rendering its opinion. OCB has agreed to reimburse FIG for reasonable out of pocket expenses incurred as a result of FIG's engagement up to $20 thousand. Further, OCB has agreed to indemnify FIG Partners against any claims or liabilities arising out of FIG Partners' engagement by OCB. FIG Partners has not previously provided services to Sierra.

Based upon the foregoing analyses and other investigations and assumptions set forth in its opinion, as well as all other factors considered and deemed relevant, without giving specific weightings to any one factor or comparison, FIG Partners determined that, as of April 24, 2017, the per share merger consideration was fair, from a financial perspective, to the OCB common shareholders.

Board of Directors, Management and Operations After the Merger

At the effective time of the merger, OCB will merge with and into Sierra. As a result, OCB will cease to exist as a separate entity, and all of its assets, liabilities and operations will be held and managed by Sierra as the surviving entity in the merger. OCB's directors will cease to hold board positions at the effective time of the merger. Sierra's board of directors and principal executive officers will not change as result of the merger.

At the effective time of the bank merger, Ojai Community Bank will merge with and into Bank of the Sierra. As a result, Ojai Community Bank will cease to exist as a separate bank, and all of its assets, liabilities and operations will be held and managed by Bank of the Sierra as the surviving bank. Pursuant to Section 4888 of the California Financial Code, at the close of the bank merger, all banking offices of Ojai Community Bank will become branch banking offices of Bank of the Sierra, and all safe deposit, deposit and loan customers of Ojai Community Bank will, by operation of law, become customers of Bank of the Sierra. Ojai Community Bank's directors will cease to hold board positions at the effective time of the bank merger. Bank of the Sierra's board of directors and principal executive officers will not change as result of the bank merger.

Director and Executive Officer Voting, Non-Solicitation and Non-Competition Agreements

In connection with entering into the merger agreement, Sierra Bancorp entered into a voting, non-competition and non-solicitation agreement with each of the current directors of OCB Bancorp, except for David Brubaker, which we refer to collectively as the director voting agreements. Also in connection with the merger agreement, Sierra entered into a voting and non-solicitation agreement with David Brubaker, Suzanne Lagos and Michael Orman, each of whom is an executive officer of OCB Bancorp, which we refer to collectively as the officer voting agreements and, collectively with the director voting agreements, the voting agreements. The following summary of the voting agreements is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the form of director and officer agreements attached as Exhibits A and B, respectively, to the merger agreement which is appended to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A.

Pursuant to the voting agreements, each shareholder party to a voting agreement agreed to vote his or her shares of OCB's common stock:

- in favor of approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby;

- in favor of any other matter that is required to facilitate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

· in favor of any proposal to adjourn or postpone any shareholder meeting to a later date if there are not sufficient votes for approval of the merger agreement on the date on which such shareholder meeting is held;

· in favor of any action in furtherance of any of the foregoing;

· against any action or agreement that would impair Sierra's ability to complete the merger;

· against any action or agreement that would impair OCB's ability of complete the merger; and · against any action or agreement that would otherwise be inconsistent with, prevent, impede or delay of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

The voting agreements provide that each shareholder party to a voting agreement will not, unless certain exceptions are met, other than pursuant to the merger, directly or indirectly:

· sell, transfer, assign, tender in any tender or exchange offer, pledge, encumber, hypothecate or similarly dispose of (including by gift), either voluntarily or involuntarily, enter into any swap or other arrangements that transfers to another, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of such shareholder's shares of OCB's common stock; or

· enter into any contract or other arrangement or understanding providing for any action described in the preceding bullet, including the right to vote any of such shareholder's shares of OCB's common stock.

In addition, the director voting agreements provide that the director shall not, for a period of 24 months after the effective time of the merger:

· solicit the banking business of any OCB customer;

· (A) acquire, charter, operate or enter into any management agreement, (B) serve as an officer, director, employee, agent, promoter, or consultant, or (C) establish or operate a branch or other office with respect to any financial institution located in Tulare, Los Angeles, Kern, Fresno, Bakersfield, San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara or Ventura counties; or hire, recruit or discuss employment with any person who was an OCB employee in the 12 months prior to the closing of the merger.

The director voting agreements do not require any director to divest any passive interest in a covered financial institution, refrain from becoming a shareholder of no more than 4.9% of any covered financial institution or resign from any board position held as of the date of merger agreement.

Interests of Directors and Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of OCB's board of directors that you vote to approve the merger agreement, you should be aware that some of OCB's executive officers and directors have financial interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, those of OCB's shareholders generally. The members of OCB's board of directors were aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the merger agreement and the merger, and in recommending to the shareholders that the merger agreement be approved. These interests are detailed below.

Share Ownership

OCB's directors and all of its executive officers, who collectively owned approximately 23.6% of OCB's outstanding shares as of the record date (not including vested option shares), have entered into voting agreements pursuant to which, among other things, they have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger. All of OCB's directors and executive officers, whether or not they vote their shares in favor of the merger, will receive the same merger consideration as all other OCB shareholders. No directors of OCB own shares of Sierra Bancorp stock.

For information on stock options held by OCB's executive officers and directors, see "— Stock Options" below in this section.

Retention Incentives

OCB anticipates that some of its officers and employees at the effective time will be retained as officers and employees of Bank of the Sierra, and as such will be entitled to participate in all employee benefits and benefit programs of Bank of the Sierra on the same basis as similarly situated employees of Bank of the Sierra. The only executive officers of OCB and Ojai Community Bank with whom Bank of the Sierra has discussed continued employment are Michael Orman, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer; and Susan Lagos, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. Mr. Orman was first approached by Mike Olague, Executive Vice President and Chief Banking Officer, and Kevin McPhaill, President and Chief Executive Officer of Bank of the Sierra, approximately two weeks after the public announcement of the merger on April 24, 2017. Mr. Orman will be retained by Bank of the Sierra following the merger to assist Bank of the Sierra in developing its presence in the market presently served by Ojai Community Bank. Ms. Lagos was first approached by Mr. Olague approximately 30 days after the public announcement of the merger. Ms. Lagos will be retained by Bank of the Sierra in a branch operations position.

The merger agreement provides that full-time employees of OCB and Ojai Community Bank who are not retained by Bank of the Sierra following the close of the merger will be entitled to certain severance benefits to be paid by Bank of the Sierra, unless such employee has an employment agreement or other agreement or arrangement otherwise providing for severance payments.

Change in Control Payments

Because the merger will constitute a “change in control” of Ojai Community Bank, certain executive officers of Ojai Community Bank will be entitled to change in control payments under the terms of their employment agreements upon termination at the close of the merger. Specifically, David Brubaker, President and Chief Executive Officer; Susan Lagos, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer; and Michael Orman, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer; have each executed employment agreements with Ojai Community Bank pursuant to which upon consummation of the merger, they will be entitled to receive payments upon termination. Mr. Brubaker’s payments will equal to 18 months of his salary, and Ms. Lagos’ and Mr. Orman’s payments will equal 12 months of their salaries. The change in control severance payments would be $405,000, $143,325 and $187,450 for Mr. Brubaker, Ms. Lagos and Mr. Orman, respectively. At the close of the merger all of these employment agreements with Ojai Community Bank will be terminated upon payment of such severance amounts.

Protection of Directors, Officers and Employees Against Claims

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Sierra has agreed to maintain and preserve the indemnification rights of OCB Bancorp and Ojai Community Bank directors and officers after the completion of the merger as provided in OCB Bancorp's and Ojai Community Bank's articles of incorporation and bylaws as in effect as of the date of the merger agreement. Sierra has also agreed to allow OCB to purchase "tail coverage" for a period of six years in order to continue providing liability insurance, including directors' and officers' liability insurance, to the officers and directors of OCB Bancorp and Ojai Community Bank equivalent to the coverage in effect just before the close of the merger.

Stock Options

OCB has previously granted stock options to certain executive officers and directors under its 2013 Omnibus Stock Incentive Plan. Under the terms of the merger agreement and the option plan, all such options will become 100% vested and fully exercisable for a designated period of time prior to and contingent upon the closing of the merger. Any option holder electing to exercise outstanding stock options prior to the merger will receive the same merger consideration as any other OCB shareholder. Holders of in-the-money stock options who choose to execute cancellation agreements instead of exercising their stock options will be entitled to receive an amount in cash without interest equal to (a)(i) the Sierra closing price multiplied by (ii) the per share merger consideration; minus (b) the exercise price per share with respect to the OCB stock option in question.

The following table sets forth information concerning outstanding stock options held by each OCB director and executive officer holding OCB stock options, including the amount of cash that such individual would receive in the merger for his or her options, if not exercised:

Name	Position	Stock Options	Exercise Price	Cash Consideration for Stock Options

Restricted Stock and Deferred Shares

Restricted stock and deferred shares covering 28,652, 1,593 and 11,667 shares, held by Mr. Brubaker, Ms. Lagos and Mr. Orman, respectively, will become vested and issued prior to the closing date.

Conversion or Repayment of Affiliate Indebtedness

Five directors of OCB, namely, directors Brubaker, Melton, Russell, Schmidt, and Wachtell, lent an aggregate of $3 million to OCB in August and September 2016, which loans are evidenced by certain convertible subordinated capital notes. Twenty percent of the principal of the notes is convertible into shares of the common stock of OCB at the option of the holders of the notes. Pursuant to the merger agreement, Sierra and OCB have agreed that Sierra will assume the unpaid principal amount of all portions of the notes that are not converted into shares of OCB's common stock at least 10 business days prior to the close of the merger, and will repay such amount in full immediately following the merger. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, all five directors have indicated their intention to convert their convertible 20% into stock prior to the close of the merger. However, pursuant to the merger agreement, such note holders have the right instead to execute subordinated note holder agreements in the form attached as Appendix E to the merger agreement, and to receive a specified amount of cash in lieu of each share of OCB's common stock that would otherwise have been issuable upon conversion of such debt into shares of OCB's common stock.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger

Sierra will account for the merger using the acquisition method of accounting for financial reporting purposes, which follows accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Under this method, Sierra will recognize OCB's assets acquired and liabilities assumed based upon their estimated fair values as of the date Sierra obtains control of OCB, which is expected to be upon completion of the merger. Deferred tax assets and liabilities will be established for the difference between the tax basis of the assets and liabilities and their basis under the acquisition method. The excess, if any, of the total purchase consideration over the net assets acquired will be recognized as goodwill and periodically evaluated for impairment. Sierra's financial statements issued after completion of the merger will reflect these values, but historical data are not restated retroactively to reflect the combined historical financial position or results of operations of Sierra and OCB.

Shareholder Approval

The affirmative vote of at least a majority of the shares of OCB's common stock outstanding as of the record date for the special meeting is required to approve the merger agreement and the merger. Each holder of shares of OCB's common stock outstanding on the record date for the special meeting will be entitled to one vote for each share held. As of July 31, 2017, the record date for the special meeting, there were 2,266,148 shares of OCB's common stock outstanding. Therefore, at least 1,133,075 shares of OCB's common stock must be affirmatively voted in favor of the merger agreement in order for OCB's shareholders to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated therein. Abstentions, failures to vote and broker non-votes will have the same effect as votes against approval of the merger agreement.

Dissenters' Rights of OCB Bancorp Shareholders

The holders of OCB's common stock will be given the opportunity to exercise dissenters' rights in accordance with certain procedures specified in Chapter 13 of the CGCL. Please note that the description below does not purport to be a complete statement of the law relating to dissenters' rights and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Sections 1300, 1301, 1302, 1303 and 1304 of the CGCL, which sections are attached hereto as Appendix B and incorporated herein by reference.

Holders of OCB's common stock who do not vote in favor of the merger may demand, in accordance with Chapter 13 of the CGCL, that OCB acquire their shares for cash at their fair market value as of the day of, and immediately prior to, the first public announcement of the merger, excluding any change in such value as a consequence of the proposed merger.

If dissenters' rights are perfected and exercised with respect to more than ten percent (10%) of OCB's outstanding shares as of the record date, then Sierra has the option to terminate the merger agreement. Please see "PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Conditions to Sierra Bancorp's Obligations Under the Merger Agreement" beginning on page 56.

Submit a Written Demand

In order to exercise dissenters' rights, an OCB shareholder must not vote in favor of the merger agreement and must make a written demand that OCB purchase his or her shares in cash for the fair market value and have the demand received by OCB within 30 days after the date on which the notice of the approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated therein is mailed to the shareholder. The written demand must state the number of shares held of record by such OCB shareholder for which demand for purchase for cash is being made and must contain a statement of the amount which such OCB shareholder claims to be the fair market value of the shares as of the day of, and immediately prior to, the first public announcement of the merger, excluding any change in such value as a consequence of the proposed merger. That statement will constitute an offer by the OCB shareholder to sell his or her shares to OCB at that price. Once submitted, an OCB shareholder may not withdraw such demand unless OCB consents thereto.

Surrender Stock Certificates

Thereafter, in order to perfect dissenters' rights, an OCB shareholder must also deliver his or her share certificate(s); or written notice of the number of shares which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase, in the case of uncertificated shares; for receipt by OCB within 30 days after the date on which notice of the approval of the merger was mailed. OCB will stamp or endorse the certificate(s) with a statement that the shares are dissenting shares and return the certificate(s) to such OCB shareholder.

Any demands, notices, certificates or other documents delivered to OCB in connection with the exercise of dissenters' rights should be sent to Sierra Bancorp, Attention: Diane L. Renois, 86 Main Street, Porterville, CA 93257, telephone: (559) 782-4900.

Determination of Value of OCB Bancorp Common Stock

The purchase price for the shares of OCB's common stock that dissent from the merger agreement will be the fair market value for such shares as of the day of, and immediately prior to, the first public announcement of the merger, excluding any change in such value as a consequence of the proposed merger. OCB's board of directors has determined that the fair market value of a share of OCB's common stock as of April 24, 2017 and immediately prior to the first public announcement of the merger was $8.74. If there is a disagreement between the shareholder and OCB Bancorp regarding the proposed purchase price or if OCB denies that such shares constitute dissenting shares, the shareholder and OCB each have the right, for six (6) months following the date on which notice of the approval of the merger was mailed, to file a lawsuit in the Superior Court of the County of Ventura to have the fair market value determined by a court or to determine whether such shares are dissenting shares or both, as the case may be.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger

Sierra and OCB have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to obtain all regulatory approvals required to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. These approvals include a waiver from the Federal Reserve and approvals from the DBO and the FDIC. All necessary applications or requests to obtain the required regulatory approvals or waivers were filed in May 2017.

In reviewing the applications or waiver requests, those regulatory agencies take into consideration, among other things, competition, the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the companies, and the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. Federal law prohibits these federal regulatory agencies from approving or allowing a merger if the merger would result in undue concentration of resources or decreased or unfair competition, unless the anti-competitive effects of the merger are clearly outweighed by the benefits to the public. The approval of the merger and the merger agreement by the applicable regulatory agencies will reflect only their respective view that the transactions do not contravene applicable competitive standards imposed by law and is consistent with regulatory policies relating to safety and soundness. These regulatory agencies express no opinion as to the financial consideration paid to OCB's shareholders, nor do these regulatory agencies express any opinion as to the adequacy of the terms of the merger agreement and the merger.

The federal banking agencies have the authority to deny the application for approval of the merger if they conclude that the combined organization would have an inadequate capital structure, taking into account, among other factors, the level of problem assets, the nature of the business and operations and plans for expansion. Furthermore, these agencies must also evaluate the records of Bank of the Sierra and Ojai Community Bank in meeting the credit needs of their respective communities, including low- and moderate-income neighborhoods, consistent with safe and sound operation under the federal Community Reinvestment Act of 1977 ("CRA"). Bank of the Sierra and Ojai Community Bank both received a "satisfactory" performance rating in their most recent CRA evaluations.

Similarly, the DBO has the authority to deny the application for approval of a merger if it finds any of the following: (i) the merger will result in a monopoly or is in furtherance of a conspiracy to monopolize the banking business in California; (ii) the merger will substantially lessen competition or otherwise restrain trade or the anticompetitive effects of the merger outweigh the benefits of the merger in meeting the convenience and needs of the communities to be served by the surviving bank; (iii) the shareholders' equity of the surviving bank will not be adequate or the financial condition of the surviving bank will be unsatisfactory; (iv) the directors and management of the surviving bank will be unsatisfactory; (v) the surviving bank cannot provide the DBO with a reasonable promise of successful operation or that the surviving bank will be operated in a safe and sound manner in compliance with all applicable laws; or (vi) the merger is not fair, just or equitable to the respective parties.

As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, Bank of the Sierra had received the required regulatory approval of the merger from the FDIC and Sierra had received approval of the waiver request from FRB, but the application for approval by the DBO was still pending. While we do not know of any reason that we would not be able to obtain the approval of the DBO, we cannot be certain when or if we will obtain it.

The approvals by our regulators do not constitute endorsements of the merger. Neither Sierra nor OCB is aware of any other regulatory approvals that would be required for completion of the merger except as described above. Should any other approvals be required, it is presently contemplated that such approvals would be sought. There can be no assurance, however, that any other approvals, if required, will be obtained.

Any transaction approved by the FDIC under the Bank Merger Act may not be completed until 30 days after the FDIC's approval, during which time the U.S. Department of Justice may challenge such transaction on antitrust grounds. With the approval of the FDIC and the U.S. Department of Justice, the waiting period may be reduced to 15 days. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the applicable waiting period has expired. The parties' obligation to complete the merger is conditioned upon the receipt of all required regulatory approvals.

Nasdaq Listing

Sierra Bancorp has agreed in the merger agreement to use its commercially reasonable efforts to list the shares to be issued in the merger on the Nasdaq Global Select Market prior to the effective time of the merger.

Resale of Sierra Bancorp Common Stock

Sierra Bancorp has registered its common stock to be issued in the merger with the SEC under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. No restrictions on the sale or other transfer of Sierra's common stock issued in the merger will be imposed solely as a result of the merger, except for restrictions on the transfer of Sierra's common stock issued to any OCB shareholder who may become an "affiliate" of Sierra Bancorp for purposes of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. The term "affiliate" is defined in Rule 144 under the Securities Act and generally includes executive officers, directors and shareholders beneficially owning 10% or more of Sierra's outstanding common stock.

Exchange of Certificates

Surrender of Shares

No later than five business days after the effective time, Computershare will mail each shareholder of record at the effective time, a customary transmittal letter and instructions with respect to the delivery by OCB shareholders to the exchange agent of their OCB share certificates in exchange for the merger consideration or making alternative exchange arrangements in the case of registered book-entry shares. As of the effective time, there will be no further transfers on the stock transfer books of OCB of any shares of OCB's common stock. If certificates representing shares of OCB's common stock are presented to Sierra for any reason after the completion of the merger, they will be cancelled and exchanged for the merger consideration into which the shares of OCB's common stock represented by those certificates shall have been converted.

All shares of Sierra's common stock issued to OCB shareholders in the merger will be deemed issued as of the effective time of the merger, but until OCB stock certificates or equivalent are surrendered for exchange, a shareholder will not receive any dividends or other distributions that may be declared after the effective time with respect to the shares of Sierra common stock into which the OCB shares may have been converted. Such dividends or other distributions will accrue, however, and when the OCB certificates are surrendered or equivalent exchange arrangements made, Sierra will pay any such unpaid dividends or other distributions, as well as any cash into which any of the shares may have been converted, without interest.

The Exchange Agent

The parties have agreed that Sierra shall designate Computershare, or another person reasonably acceptable to OCB, to act as exchange agent in the merger with respect to the payment of the merger consideration to OCB shareholders.

At any time following the six-month anniversary of the effective time, Sierra will be entitled to require the exchange agent to deliver to it any portion of the merger consideration not disbursed to shareholders of OCB's common stock, and thereafter such holders shall be entitled to look only to Sierra (subject to abandoned property, escheat or other similar laws) as general creditors with respect to the merger consideration payable upon due surrender of their OCB common stock, without interest. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither Sierra nor the exchange agent will be liable to any OCB shareholder for merger consideration delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates

If your certificate for shares of OCB's common stock has been lost, stolen or destroyed, please contact OCB's transfer agent, Computershare at 800-522-6645 for a replacement certificate.

After the merger, if any certificate for OCB's common stock has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the exchange agent or Sierra, as applicable, will issue the merger consideration to the holder of such certificate upon the making of an affidavit of such fact by such holder, provided that the exchange agent, in its reasonable discretion and as a condition to such payment, may require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate to deliver a customary indemnity agreement or provide a bond in a customary amount.

Rights of Holders of OCB Bancorp Stock Certificates Until Surrender

If a dividend or other distribution on Sierra's common stock is declared by Sierra Bancorp with a record date after the effective time of the merger, you will not receive that dividend or distribution until you surrender your OCB Bancorp stock certificate(s) or make alternative exchange arrangements in the case of registered book-entry shares. If your stock certificates are lost or destroyed, you must submit documentation to the exchange agent that is acceptable to Sierra Bancorp and to the exchange agent of your ownership of OCB stock. Any dividends or distributions withheld from you ultimately will be remitted to you when you deliver your OCB stock certificate(s) (or substitute documentation if your certificates are lost or destroyed), but they will be remitted to you without interest and less any taxes that may have been imposed.

Otherwise, notwithstanding the time of surrender of their certificates representing OCB stock, or of making alternative exchange arrangements as applicable, OCB shareholders who receive stock consideration in the merger will be deemed shareholders of Sierra for all purposes from the effective time of the merger.

Litigation Affecting the Merger

On July 7, 2017, a purported shareholder of OCB filed a class action lawsuit in the United States District Court, Central District of California, captioned Paul Parshall v. OCB Bancorp. The complaint names as defendants OCB, the current members of the board of directors of OCB, and Sierra. The complaint is brought on behalf of a putative class of shareholders of OCB common stock and seeks a declaration that it is properly maintainable as a class action. The complaint alleges that the individual defendants, OCB and Sierra violated the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission thereunder in connection with disclosure contained in or omitted from the original registration statement filed on June 14, 2017 with the SEC concerning the merger. The complaint also alleges that the OCB directors caused OCB to be acquired by Sierra for inadequate consideration and agreed to deal protection measures that unreasonably restricted competing offers for OCB. See PROPOSAL NO. 1 - THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – The Merger Agreement – Agreements of OCB Bancorp Relating to Alternative Acquisition Proposals” beginning on page 54. The OCB Board of Directors believes that the deal protection measures in the merger agreement, including termination fees, are standard for bank merger transactions. The complaint seeks declaratory and injunctive relief to prevent the completion of the merger, compensatory damages in conjunction with the merger if it should be completed and costs including plaintiffs’ attorney's fees and expert fees. OCB and Sierra believe that all claims asserted in the complaint are without merit.

Agreements of OCB Bancorp Relating to Alternative Acquisition Proposals

OCB Bancorp has agreed not to, directly or indirectly: (i) initiate, solicit, or knowingly encourage (including by way of providing nonpublic information) the making of an acquisition proposal (as hereinafter defined); (ii) engage in any discussions or negotiations with or provide any nonpublic information to any person concerning an acquisition proposal, or knowingly facilitate any effort or attempt to make or implement an acquisition proposal; (iii) approve, endorse or recommend (including by resolution or otherwise of OCB's board), or propose to approve, endorse or recommend, or execute or enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, memorandum of understanding, term sheet, merger agreement, asset purchase, share exchange agreement, option agreement or other similar agreement (whether binding or not) related to any acquisition proposal (other than an acceptable confidentiality agreement); or (iv) propose or agree to do any of the foregoing.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, an “acquisition proposal” means any inquiry, proposal or offer with respect to any transaction contemplating a merger, reorganization, share exchange, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving OCB or any purchase or sale of 10% or more of its consolidated assets taken as a whole, or any purchase or sale of, or tender or exchange offer for, its voting securities, that, if consummated, would result in any entity (or the shareholders of such entity) beneficially owning securities representing 10% or more of the total voting power of OCB (or of the surviving parent entity in such transaction).

OCB may, prior to obtaining shareholder approval of the merger agreement and the merger, engage in discussions or negotiations with, and provide confidential information to, a person who has submitted an unsolicited, bona fide written acquisition proposal only if OCB’s board determines, after consultation with outside counsel and its financial advisors that the acquisition proposal is likely to lead to a “superior proposal.” In such case, OCB must enter into a confidentiality agreement that is at least as restrictive as the one entered into with Sierra in connection with the merger and provide Sierra with prior notice before engaging in such discussions or negotiations, or providing such confidential information, and thereafter must keep Sierra informed on a current basis of the status of such discussions and negotiations. OCB must notify Sierra promptly (but in no event later than one business day) upon receiving any acquisition proposal, inquiry or request for information, including the identity of the third party and the material terms and conditions of any expressions of interest, offers, proposals, request or inquiries.

OCB's board is not permitted to withdraw, modify, amend or qualify its recommendation in a manner adverse to Sierra; adopt a resolution to that effect; publicly announce its intention to do so; approve, endorse or recommend any acquisition proposal with respect to OCB; or cause, authorize or permit OCB to enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement-in-principle, merger agreement, asset purchase or share exchange agreement, acquisition agreement or other similar agreement relating to any acquisition proposal except a confidentiality agreement that is at least as restrictive as that entered into with Sierra or a definitive agreement providing for a superior proposal; or publicly propose or announce an intention to do so.

Notwithstanding the agreements set forth in the preceding paragraph, the OCB's board may, prior to receiving shareholder approval of the merger agreement and the merger proposal, change its recommendation that the shareholders approve the merger agreement and merger proposal if it determines in good faith and after consulting with its outside attorneys and financial advisor, that it would be a breach of its fiduciary duties if it were not to do so, which we refer to as a "change in recommendation."

Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, OCB's board may not make a change in recommendation (and may not terminate the merger agreement in the case of a "superior proposal"), unless: (A) an unsolicited, bona fide written offer to effect an acquisition proposal is made to OCB; (B) the unsolicited, bona fide, written offer was not obtained or made in violation of OCB's non-solicitation obligations; (C) OCB has complied in all material respects with its obligations to notify Sierra regarding any acquisition proposal; (D) OCB notifies Sierra at least three business days in advance of any intended board meeting at which the board of directors intends to consider and determine whether to make a change in recommendation, including the date and time, reasons and material terms and conditions of the acquisition proposal being considered, and the identity of the person making the competing offer; (E) OCB permits Sierra the opportunity to engage in good faith negotiations to amend the merger agreement in order to match the competing proposal; (F) after such negotiations, OCB's board nevertheless concludes that the alternative proposal is a superior proposal and that the failure to make a change in recommendation would constitute a breach of its fiduciary duties to its shareholders under applicable law, and (G) OCB thereafter enters into a definitive agreement for the superior proposal and concurrently terminates the merger agreement and pays Sierra a termination fee of $1,500,000 and reimburses certain transaction expenses incurred by Sierra.

A "superior proposal" is defined in the merger agreement to mean an unsolicited, bona fide written acquisition proposal for 100% of OCB's common stock, which OCB's board concludes in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel or its financial advisor, taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of such acquisition proposal and the person making such acquisition proposal (including any break-up fees, expense reimbursement provisions and conditions to consummation), (i) is more favorable to OCB's shareholders, from a financial point of view, than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and (ii) in the case of any acquisition proposal contemplating cash consideration, is not subject to any financing contingencies, and (iii) is reasonably likely to receive all required governmental approvals on a timely basis and otherwise reasonably capable of being completed on the terms proposed without unreasonable delay in relation to what is customary for a transaction of the nature so proposed.

use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the shares of Sierra's common stock issuable in connection with the merger to be authorized for listing on the Nasdaq Global Select Market as of the effective time of the merger.

not enter into any agreement with any person that (i) would restrict Bank of the Sierra's and/or Sierra Bancorp's ability to comply with any of the terms of the merger agreement, (ii) relates to any acquisition proposal that would materially impair Bank of the Sierra's and/or Sierra Bancorp's ability to consummate the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, or (iii) relates to any acquisition proposal, unless such acquisition proposal requires the completion of the merger and payment of the merger consideration to OCB's shareholders as provided in the merger agreement prior to completion of any other acquisition proposal respecting Sierra.

Additional Agreements of the Parties

Sierra has agreed to assume OCB's senior note and to repay the note immediately following the close of the merger, and OCB has agreed to obtain the consent of the note holder to such assignment prior to the close. Termination; Effect of Termination

The obligations of the parties to consummate the merger are subject to certain closing conditions, some of which may not be waived by a party, including but not limited to the receipt of all required shareholder and regulatory approvals and other governmental consents, and some conditions which may be waived by a party in its discretion. The failure of a condition to the closing of the merger, to the extent not waived, may result in a termination of the merger agreement and the merger. For a more detailed discussion of the conditions to the closing of the merger, please see "PROPOSAL NO. 1 – THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER – Conditions to Both Parties' Obligations Under the Merger Agreement," "- Conditions to Sierra Bancorp's Obligations Under the Merger Agreement," and "- Conditions to OCB Bancorp's Obligations Under the Merger Agreement."

Further, the merger agreement permits the parties to terminate the merger agreement and abandon the merger: (i) by mutual agreement in writing; (ii) if a governmental entity has denied approval of the merger or the bank merger and such denial has become final and nonappealable, or takes final and nonappealable action to enjoin, restrain or prohibit the merger or the bank merger; or (iii) if the merger is not consummated by January 31, 2018, which date may be extended one or more times, but not to a date any later than February 28, 2018, by notice from either party to the other on or before January 31, 2018 (or the date to which the agreement has been then been most recently extended), if the only condition to the closing that has not been satisfied or is not capable of being satisfied as of the date such notice is delivered is receipt of any required regulatory approval and the satisfaction of such condition remains reasonably possible, as determined by the parties in good faith.

Either party may terminate the merger agreement if any regulator requests the withdrawal of any application or any application is approved with commitments, conditions or understandings, contained in an approval letter or otherwise, which imposes a materially burdensome condition, on Sierra Bancorp or Bank of the Sierra, otherwise materially alter the economics of the merger for Sierra Bancorp.

Either party may also terminate the merger agreement if the other party breaches any of the covenants or agreements or any of the representations or warranties set forth in the merger agreement that individually or in the aggregate would result in a material adverse effect on that party, or if such breach continued through the closing date and would cause the failure of a fundamental closing condition that has not been (or cannot by its nature be) cured within 30 days following written notice thereof to the breaching party.

Sierra may terminate the merger agreement and merger if OCB does not receive the required shareholder vote and one or more OCB directors or officers that is a party to an OCB voting agreement shall have voted their shares against approval of the merger or the merger agreement, or if OCB fails to hold its shareholders' meeting before October 31, 2017, unless the delay is due to regulatory action or inaction. Sierra Bancorp may also terminate the merger agreement if a material adverse effect shall have occurred with respect to OCB.

Sierra, upon written notice to OCB, may also terminate the merger agreement if (i) OCB's board effects a change in recommendation or fails to recommend approval of the merger agreement and the merger; (ii) OCB enters into a definitive agreement providing for a superior proposal, (iii) if OCB's board of directors fails to unanimously and unqualifiedly reaffirm its recommendation that shareholders approve the merger agreement and merger within two (2) business days (or such longer period of time that OCB's board determines in good faith is reasonably necessary to comply with its fiduciary duties) of a written request by Sierra Bancorp to do so following the date any acquisition proposal or any material change thereto is first publicly announced, published or sent to OCB's shareholders, and OCB fails to issue a press release that reaffirms, unanimously and without qualification, the recommendation of OCB's board to consummate the merger with Sierra; (iv) a tender offer or exchange offer (whether or not conditional) relating to shares of OCB's capital stock shall have been commenced and OCB's board (or any committee thereof) fails to affirmatively recommend against such tender offer or exchange offer within 10 business days after the commencement of such tender offer or exchange offer; or (v) OCB intentionally breaches its non-solicitation obligations.

OCB may terminate the merger agreement if it enters into a definitive agreement providing for a superior proposal prior to the receipt of shareholder approval of the merger agreement and merger provided it is not in breach of the merger agreement.

OCB may also terminate the agreement if Sierra enters into an agreement for an alternative acquisition that (i) would restrict Bank of the Sierra and/or Sierra Bancorp's ability to comply with any of the terms of the merger agreement, (ii) relates to any acquisition proposal that would materially impair Bank of the Sierra's and/or Sierra Bancorp's ability to consummate the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, or (iii) relates to any acquisition proposal, unless such acquisition proposal requires the completion of the merger and payment of the merger consideration to OCB's shareholders as provided in the merger agreement prior to completion of any other acquisition proposal respecting Sierra. OCB may also terminate the merger agreement if a material adverse effect shall have occurred with respect to Sierra.

Sierra may terminate the agreement if the Sierra closing price for the determination period is greater than $35.03; provided, however, that if Sierra elects to exercise such termination right, OCB will have the option to reinstate the merger by accepting a new exchange ratio, rounded to five decimal places, equal to the quotient of (A) 15.91 divided by (B) the Sierra closing price, subject to any adjustments set forth in the merger agreement.

OCB may terminate the agreement if the Sierra closing price for the determination period is less than $21.02; provided, however, that if OCB elects to exercise such termination right, Sierra will have the option to reinstate the merger by increasing the exchange ratio then in effect by the difference, rounded to five decimal places, between (A) the quotient of (1) 11.67 divided by (2) the Sierra closing price minus (B) the exchange ratio in effect immediately preceding such increase. In connection with such increase, if Sierra chooses to increase the per share merger consideration, which it may elect to do in its sole discretion under those circumstances, Sierra may substitute cash for all or a portion of such increase; provided, however, if Sierra (i) enters into a definitive written agreement on or before the closing date relating to a merger, consolidation, or any other business combination transaction pursuant to which the shareholders of Sierra immediately prior to such transaction shall not directly or indirectly own 51% or more of the capital stock of the surviving entity immediately after such transaction or (ii) publicly announces on or before the closing date that there is a tender offer or other unsolicited attempt to directly or indirectly acquire 51% of the capital stock of Sierra, or to engage in a transaction described in (i) above, then Sierra shall not have the right to reinstate the merger.

OCB has agreed to pay a termination fee of $1,500,000 to, and to reimburse certain transaction expenses incurred by, Sierra if: (i) OCB terminates the merger agreement in order to enter into a definitive agreement providing for a superior proposal; (ii) Sierra terminates the merger agreement due to no OCB recommendation; or (iii) any person has made an acquisition proposal, which proposal has been publicly announced, disclosed or proposed and not withdrawn, and (a) thereafter the merger agreement is terminated (i) by either party because OCB's shareholders have not approved the merger agreement and merger; or (ii) by Sierra pursuant to the termination provision for breach provision and (b) within 12 months after such termination of the merger agreement, OCB consummates an acquisition proposal or any definitive agreement with respect to an acquisition proposal is entered into (provided that an "acquisition proposal" for this purpose is the acquisition of 50%, rather than 10%, of the total voting power of the surviving entity).

Amendment, Extension and Waiver

At any time prior to the effective time of the merger (whether before or after approval thereof by OCB's shareholders), the boards of directors of the parties may: (i) amend the merger agreement, (ii) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of any other party thereto, (iii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement or in any document delivered pursuant thereto, or (iv) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained in the merger agreement; provided, however, that no amendment shall be made without the approval of the shareholders of the parties, if such approval is required by law.

Employee Benefits

On or after the closing date, any compensation or benefit plan of OCB may be terminated, modified or merged into the compensation and benefit plans of Sierra, as determined by Sierra in its sole discretion, subject to compliance with applicable law so long as any such action does not reduce any benefits already accrued thereunder. At the request of Sierra, OCB will take all action necessary to terminate all other compensation or benefit plans identified by Sierra. Termination of any such plans is subject to compliance with applicable law, and will not reduce any benefits already accrued thereunder. OCB will accrue any and all obligations with respect to the termination of such plans before the effective time of the merger. OCB employees who are employed by Bank of the Sierra after the effective time or who are offered and who accept employment with Bank of the Sierra shall be eligible to participate in Bank of the Sierra' employee benefit plans in which, and to the same extent as, similarly situated employees of Bank of the Sierra participate. Former OCB employees' service with OCB shall be treated as service with Bank of the Sierra for purposes of determining eligibility to participate, vesting and benefits.

Expenses

Except as specifically set forth in the merger agreement, all expenses incurred by Sierra and OCB in connection with or related to the authorization, preparation and execution of the merger agreement, the solicitation of shareholder approvals and all other matters related to the closing of the transactions contemplated therein, will be borne solely and entirely by the party which incurred such expense.

Closing; Effective Time of the Merger

The closing of the merger will occur not later than the 10th calendar day following the latest to occur of: (i) the receipt of all regulatory approvals required to complete the merger; (ii) the receipt of all shareholder approvals, (iii) the satisfaction or waiver of all closing conditions, or (iv) the passing of any applicable waiting periods; or at such other date or time upon which the parties hereto will mutually agree. The merger will be effected by the filing of an Agreement of Merger in the form attached as Exhibit C-1 to the merger agreement with the California Secretary of State on the day of the closing in accordance with Section 1200 of the CGCL. The “effective time” of the merger will be the date and time upon which the Agreement of Merger is filed with the California Secretary of State.

The parties are working to complete the merger in the fourth quarter of 2017. However, no assurances can be provided as to whether or when the merger will actually close.

MATERIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

General

The following discussion describes the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders of OCB common stock who exchange shares of OCB common stock for shares of Sierra common stock pursuant to the merger. For purposes of this discussion, a “U.S. holder” is a beneficial owner of OCB common stock that for U.S. federal income tax purposes is:

- a citizen or individual resident of the United States;

- a corporation, or an entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state or political subdivision thereof;

- a trust that (1) is subject to (A) the primary supervision of a court within the United States and (B) the authority of one or more United States persons to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury Regulations to be treated as a United States person; or

- an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on its income regardless of its source.

If a partnership (including for this purpose any entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) holds OCB common stock, the tax treatment of a partner generally will depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. An OCB shareholder which is a partnership should consult its tax advisor concerning the tax consequences of the merger. OCB shareholders that are not U.S. holders may have different tax consequences than those described below, and are urged to consult their tax advisors about the tax treatment of the merger to them under U.S. and non-U.S. laws.

This discussion addresses only those OCB shareholders that hold their OCB common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code, and does not address all the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to particular OCB shareholders in light of their individual circumstances or to OCB shareholders that are subject to special rules, such as:

- financial institutions;

- pass-through entities or investors in pass-through entities;
- insurance companies;
- tax-exempt organizations;
- dealers in securities;
- traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting;
- persons owning 5% or more of OCB common stock or that are affiliates of OCB;
- persons that hold OCB common stock as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale or conversion transaction;
- certain expatriates or persons that have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar; and
- shareholders who acquired their shares of OCB common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation or through a tax-qualified retirement plan.

In addition, the discussion does not address any alternative minimum tax or any state, local or foreign tax consequences of the merger, nor does it address any tax consequences arising under the 3.8% unearned income Medicare contribution tax.

The following discussion is based on the Internal Revenue Code, its legislative history, existing and proposed regulations thereunder, and published rulings and decisions, all as currently in effect as of the date hereof, and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Any such change could affect the continuing validity of this discussion.

Sierra's obligation to complete the merger is conditioned upon the receipt of an opinion from Sierra's special tax counsel, Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP, that for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the merger will qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Sierra does not currently intend to waive this opinion condition to its obligation to complete the merger.

The following discussion, subject to the limitations and qualifications described herein, constitutes the opinion of Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP as to the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger applicable to a U.S. holder of OCB common stock that exchanges OCB common stock in the merger, to the extent such discussion sets forth statements of U.S. federal income tax law or legal conclusions with respect thereto. The opinion of counsel does not address any state, local or foreign tax consequences of the merger. It is based on certain assumptions and representations as to factual matters by Sierra and OCB, and cannot be relied upon if any of the assumptions or representations are inaccurate as of the date hereof or the effective time of the merger. In addition, the opinion is based on current law and cannot be relied upon if current law changes with retroactive effect. The opinion of counsel is not binding upon the Internal Revenue Service or the courts, and there is no assurance that the Internal Revenue Service or a court will not take a contrary position. Neither Sierra nor OCB has requested, and neither Sierra nor OCB intends to request, any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger.

OCB shareholders are urged to consult their tax advisors as to the particular U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to them, as well as any tax consequences arising under any state, local and non-U.S. tax laws or any other U.S. federal tax laws.

Assuming that the merger is completed according to the terms of the merger agreement without waiver or modification of any provision thereof, based on and subject to the foregoing, the merger will qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Based on the qualification of the merger as a "reorganization" under the Internal Revenue Code, the following material U.S. federal income tax consequences will result to a U.S. holder upon the exchange of its OCB common stock in the merger:

Ignoring any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of OCB common stock (which is discussed below), a U.S. holder receiving only shares of Sierra common stock in the merger will not recognize gain or loss in the merger.

Such U.S. holder generally will have an aggregate tax basis in the shares of Sierra common stock received by the U.S. holder with respect to each identifiable block of shares of OCB common stock (generally, OCB common stock acquired at the same cost in a single transaction) exchanged by the U.S. holder in the merger (including any fractional share of Sierra common stock deemed received and redeemed for cash, as discussed below) equal to the U.S. holder's aggregate tax basis in the shares of OCB common stock in such block.

The holding period of the shares of Sierra common stock received by such U.S. holder with respect to each identifiable block of shares of OCB common stock exchanged in the merger (including any fractional share of Sierra common stock deemed received and redeemed for cash, as discussed below) will include the holding period of the shares of OCB common stock in such block.

Cash received by a U.S. holder in lieu of a fractional share of OCB common stock in the merger will be treated as if such fractional share had been issued and then redeemed by Sierra. Subject to the discussion regarding possible dividend treatment, a U.S. holder generally will recognize capital gain or loss with respect to cash received in lieu of a fractional share, measured by the difference, if any, between the amount of cash received and the tax basis in such fractional share (determined as described above). Any gain or loss recognized generally will be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, the shares of OCB common stock in the block of shares of OCB common stock exchanged in the merger were held for more than one year. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations. If the U.S. holder's receipt of cash has the effect of a distribution of a dividend under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, such gain will be treated as dividend income rather than capital gain. The Internal Revenue Service has indicated in rulings that any reduction in the interest of a shareholder that owns a small number of shares in a publicly and widely held corporation and that exercises no control over corporate affairs would result in capital gain as opposed to dividend treatment. Because the possibility of dividend treatment depends primarily upon a U.S. holder's particular circumstances, including the application of constructive ownership rules, U.S. holders should consult their tax advisors regarding this possibility.

If the per share merger consideration is fixed at $11.67 and Sierra elects to pay a portion of the per share merger consideration in cash instead of shares of Sierra common stock, then a U.S. holder generally will recognize capital gain (but not loss) in an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of cash received with respect to each identifiable block of shares of OCB common stock exchanged in the merger, ignoring any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of OCB common stock, and (ii) the excess, if any, of (a) the sum of the amount of such cash and the fair market value of the shares of Sierra common stock received with respect to such block, over (b) the U.S. holder's tax basis in the shares of OCB common stock in such block. The U.S. holder's capital gain will be long-term capital gain if, as of the effective date of the merger, the shares of OCB common stock in such block were held for more than one year. If the U.S. holder's receipt of cash has the effect of a distribution of a dividend (discussed above), such gain will instead be treated as dividend income rather than capital gain. The U.S. holder's tax basis in the shares of Sierra common stock received with respect to such block (discussed above) will be reduced by the amount of such cash and increased by the amount of any gain recognized by the U.S. holder with respect to the receipt of such cash (including any portion of the gain that is treated as a dividend).

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting

U.S. holders may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding on any cash payments they receive in the merger in lieu of fractional shares of OCB common stock. Payments will not be subject to backup withholding if the U.S. holder (i) is a corporation or comes within certain other exempt categories and, when required, demonstrates this fact or (ii) provides Sierra or the exchange agent, as appropriate, with a properly completed Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 (or its successor form) certifying that the U.S. holder is a U.S. person, the taxpayer identification number provided is correct and the U.S. holder is not subject to backup withholding. The taxpayer identification number of an individual is his or her Social Security number. Any amounts withheld from payments to a U.S. holder under the backup withholding rules are not additional tax and will be allowed as a refund or credit against the U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished by the U.S. holder to the Internal Revenue Service.

The discussion of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences set forth above is intended to provide only a general summary, and is not intended to be a complete analysis or description of all potential U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. Moreover, the discussion set forth above does not address tax consequences that may vary with, or are dependent on, individual circumstances. In addition, the discussion set forth above does not address any non-income tax or any foreign, state or local tax consequences of the merger and does not address the tax consequences of any transaction other than the merger.

In addition to our stand-alone offices Bank of the Sierra has specialized lending units which include a real estate industries center, an agricultural credit center, and an SBA lending unit.

Bank of the Sierra's chief products and services are related to the business of lending money and accepting deposits. Services Offered

Lending

Ojai Community Bank offers a range of commercial and personal loans to individuals and businesses within its immediate market area. Commercial loans include both secured and unsecured loans for working capital (including inventory and receivables), real estate acquisition and development, and purchase of machinery and equipment. Ojai Community Bank also offers qualified and non-conventional 1-4 unit mortgage loans, brokering 30 year qualified loans to investors, and retaining variable interest rate mortgage loans. Ojai Community Bank also offers loans guaranteed in part by the Small Business Administration. Ojai Community Bank also makes various types of real estate loans. Ojai Community Bank's types of lending are discussed below.

Ojai Community Bank is subject to a variety of regulatory lending limits. While different limits apply in certain circumstances based on the loan type or the borrower's relationship with Ojai Community Bank, it is generally subject to a loan to one borrower limit of 15% of its total capital in the case of loans that are not guaranteed by an agency of the U.S. Government, or are secured by either marketable securities or other permissible types of collateral, such as certificates of deposit. As of June 30, 2017, the unsecured legal lending limit was $4.2 million, which satisfies the credit needs of a significant portion of Ojai Community Bank's markets. The secured legal lending limit is $6.9 million, which includes loans that are secured by readily marketable collateral. Ojai Community Bank has established relationships with correspondent banks to participate in loans when the requested loan amount exceeds its legal lending limit.

Commercial Loans: Ojai Community Bank offers a variety of commercial loan products that are customized to fit the needs of the individual business or professional client. Ojai Community Bank is an active commercial lender in the greater Ventura and Santa Barbara Counties area. Ojai Community Bank's areas of emphasis include, but are not limited to, loans to professional services, manufacturers, retailers, wholesalers and business service companies. Ojai Community Bank also provides a wide range of business loans, including lines of credit for working capital and operational purposes, as well as term loans for the acquisition of equipment and other purposes. Collateral for these loans generally includes accounts receivable, inventory, equipment and real estate. Additionally, when appropriate, Ojai Community Bank requires personal guarantees to help assure payment. Terms of commercial business loans generally range from one to five years. A significant portion of Ojai Community Bank's commercial business loans have floating interest rates or re-price within one year. Ojai Community Bank also makes commercial real estate loans, which are generally secured by the underlying real estate and improvements.

Real Estate Loans: Ojai Community Bank makes 1-4 unit residential qualified 30-year mortgage loans, and non-conventional variable rate real estate mortgage loans. Ojai Community Bank does finance construction, refinance and improvement of commercial real estate. Commercial real estate lending is secured by first or second mortgages on commercial properties that are typically owner occupied in Ojai Community Bank's primary market area.

Small Business Administration Loans: Ojai Community Bank markets Small Business Administration, or SBA loans for qualifying businesses to meet their working capital and real estate needs. Depending on Ojai Community Bank's needs and the pricing offered for SBA loans, the portion of the loan that is guaranteed by the SBA may either be sold in the secondary market or retained in Ojai Community Bank's loan portfolio.

Loan Participations: When loans exceed Ojai Community Bank's lending limit, Ojai Community Bank, as the lead bank, will sell a portion of the loan in order to remain within its lending limit. Ojai Community Bank also sells loan participations to reduce risk and manage credit concentrations in particular businesses and industries. Banks with which Ojai Community Bank participates are generally located in California.

Reciprocally, Ojai Community Bank may purchase portions of loans originated by other banks as a means of increasing Ojai Community Bank's fee and interest income. Participating with other banks allows Ojai Community Bank to earn additional revenue without the additional overhead associated with originating a loan and to diversify Ojai Community Bank's loan products across a wider geographic, demographic and industry range.

Ojai Community Bank has not engaged in any material research activities relating to the development of new services or the improvement of existing bank services.

There has been no significant change in the types of services offered by Ojai Community Bank since its inception, except in connection with new types of accounts allowed by statute or regulation in recent years. Ojai Community Bank has no present plans regarding "a new line of business" requiring the investment of a material amount of total assets. Most of Ojai Community Bank's business originates from within Ventura and Santa Barbara Counties, including the communities comprising Ojai, Santa Paula, Ventura, Santa Barbara, Oxnard and Camarillo, plus the unincorporated areas contiguous to these cities. There is no emphasis on foreign sources and application of funds. Ojai Community Bank's business, based upon performance to date, does not appear to be seasonal. Except as described above, a material portion of Ojai Community Bank's loans is not concentrated within a single industry or group of related industries, nor is Ojai Community Bank dependent upon a single customer or group of related customers for a material portion of its deposits. Management of Ojai Community Bank is unaware of any material effect upon Ojai Community Bank's capital expenditures, earnings or competitive position as a result of federal, state or local environmental regulation.

Ojai Community Bank holds no patents, licenses (other than licenses obtained from bank regulatory authorities), franchises or concessions.

Deposit and Other Banking Services

Ojai Community Bank offers deposit products that are typically available in most banks including checking accounts, NOW accounts, money market and savings accounts, and time certificates of deposit. The transaction accounts and time deposits are tailored to Ojai Community Bank's primary market area at rates competitive to those offered in the area. All deposit accounts are insured by the FDIC up to the maximum amount allowed by law (generally $250,000 per depositor, subject to aggregation rules). Ojai Community Bank solicits accounts from individuals, businesses, associations and organizations. Other services include cashier's checks, direct deposit of payroll checks, and automatic drafts.

Online Banking: Ojai Community Bank is committed to technology and e-commerce in its broadest terms and as it directly applies to financial service providers. To best serve Ojai Community Bank's clients' needs, Ojai Community Bank offers complete banking service online. Although Ojai Community Bank's clients are always able to discuss specific banking needs with a knowledgeable service representative available in its office, Ojai Community Bank offers its clients the option to conduct banking activities from its secure web site - www.ojaicommunitybank.com. Ojai Community Bank's web site is designed to be user-friendly, simple and to expedite client transactions. From Ojai Community Bank's web site, its clients are able to access their accounts, loan information and complete many common transactions including data download, transfer funds, reorder checks, view images of the front and back of cancelled checks, view deposits, view their account statements, change addresses and issue stop payment requests, all at their convenience seven-days-a-week, 24-hours-a-day. Ojai Community Bank also provides businesses with the ability to receive cancelled check images and statements online for storage and retrieval.

Ojai Community Bank is sensitive to the privacy and security concerns of its clients, especially where internet banking is concerned. Accordingly, Ojai Community Bank has put in place various procedures designed to maintain appropriate security levels. The vendors who support Ojai Community Bank's internet banking platform work with Ojai Community Bank to enhance the security of these services. Ojai Community Bank's responsibility to its clients is to select appropriate hardware and software in the context of the right vendor relationships to provide the best assurance to its clients that, subject to applicable law, Ojai Community Bank can protect their privacy and finances.

Outsource Operational Function: Ojai Community Bank has entered into agreements with third parties that provide a variety of specialized services and technologies to us. In each of these relationships, Ojai Community Bank benefits from the service provider's expertise and economies of scale while retaining the flexibility to take advantage of changes in available technology without impacting client service. Among others, Ojai Community Bank has entered into agreements for data processing services, electronic funds transfer processing services, merchant bankcard processing, issuance of credit cards and loan documentation. Ojai Community Bank believes that outsourcing some of its operational functions allows it to better focus on providing the best service to its clients.

OCB Bancorp processes its data and check items under a non-cancelable agreement expiring in 2019. The agreement calls for monthly payments of approximately $30,000. The monthly payment will increase as Ojai Community Bank's volume of transactions increases. The agreement contains a termination clause whereby Ojai Community Bank would be liable to the service bureau for a payment of 65% of the average monthly billings over the previous six months for the number of months remaining on the contract. Ojai Community Bank would also be liable for any deconversion charges from its current service provider.

Remote Deposit Solution: Ojai Community Bank remains focused on providing technology today that is well ahead of its competitors. This product allows clients to make deposits to their accounts from their desk top. Using web-based software, Ojai Community Bank's clients have the ability to make deposits whenever it is convenient for them, without leaving their workplace.

Marketing Focus

Ojai Community Bank relies principally upon direct personal contact by officers, directors, employees, and shareholders; and specialized services such as courier pick-up and delivery of non-cash banking items. Ojai Community Bank emphasizes to its clients the advantages of dealing with a locally owned and community oriented institution that is more responsive.

Service Area

Ojai Community Bank's current market is Ventura and Santa Barbara counties and surrounding areas in Southern California.

Ojai Community Bank attracts the majority of its loan and deposit business from the residents and numerous small to medium-sized businesses, professional firms, dentists and service entities located in Southern California. Ojai Community Bank does not have direct dealings with any foreign sources and has no known risks in any international business.

Competition

Banking and financial services business in California generally, and in Ojai Community Bank's service area specifically, is highly competitive. The increasingly competitive environment is a result primarily of changes in regulation, changes in technology and product delivery systems, and the accelerating pace of consolidation among financial services providers.

OCB Bancorp's business is concentrated in their service area that originates from within Ventura and Santa Barbara Counties, including the communities comprising Ojai, Santa Paula, Ventura and Santa Barbara. In order to compete with other financial institutions in its service area, Ojai Community Bank relies principally upon direct personal contact by officers, directors, employees, and shareholders; and specialized services such as courier pick-up and delivery of non-cash banking items. Ojai Community Bank emphasizes to its customers the advantages of dealing with a locally owned and community oriented institution. Ojai Community Bank also seeks to provide special services and programs for individuals in its primary service area who are employed in the professional and business fields, such as loans for equipment, furniture, and tools of the trade or expansion of practices or businesses. Larger banks may have a competitive advantage because of higher lending limits and major advertising and marketing campaigns. Larger banks also perform services, such as trust services, international banking, discount brokerage and insurance services that Ojai Community Bank is not authorized or prepared to offer currently but Ojai Community Bank has made arrangements with its correspondent banks and with other third parties to provide such services for its customers if needed.

Increasing levels of competition in banking and financial services businesses may reduce market share or cause the prices charged for services to fall. Results may differ in future periods depending on the nature or level of competition. The increasingly competitive environment is a result primarily of changes in regulation, changes in technology and product delivery systems, and the accelerating pace of consolidation among financial services providers.

In addition, Ojai Community Bank has an experienced lending and marketing officer base. Ojai Community Bank's strategic plan anticipated the retention of highly experienced sales officers with known loan and deposit clients that desire to continue to be serviced by experienced officers.

Ojai Community Bank has approximately $229.4 million on deposit from 8,012 clients as of June 30, 2017. A significant portion of these amounts consists of demand deposits that may fluctuate significantly during the upcoming year. Ojai Community Bank seeks to avoid undue concentrations to a single client or industry. Some of Ojai Community Bank's commercial and real estate loans are to some extent dependent on the real estate market.

Commercial banks compete with savings banks, credit unions, other financial institutions, securities brokerage firms, and other entities for funds. For instance, yields on corporate and government debt securities and other commercial paper affect the ability of commercial banks to attract and hold deposits. Commercial banks also compete for loans with savings banks, credit unions, consumer finance companies, mortgage companies and other lending institutions.

Employees

As of June 30, 2017, Ojai Community Bank had 47 full time equivalent employees. None of these employees are covered by a collective bargaining agreement. Ojai Community Bank considers relations with its employees to be good.

DESCRIPTION OF SIERRA BANCORP COMMON STOCK

General

The authorized capital stock of Sierra Bancorp consists of 24,000,000 shares of common stock, no par value, and 10,000,000 shares of serial preferred stock, no par value. As of July 31, 2017, there were 13,838,149 shares of common stock, and no shares of preferred stock, issued and outstanding. As of that same date there were options outstanding to purchase an aggregate of 494,520 shares of Sierra's common stock under its 2007 Stock Incentive Plan; and 850,000 shares available for grant under its 2017 Stock Incentive Plan. Sierra's preferred stock may be divided into such number of series as Sierra's board of directors may determine. Sierra's board of directors is authorized to determine and alter the rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions granted to and imposed upon any wholly unissued series of Sierra's preferred stock, and to fix the number of shares of any series of Sierra's preferred stock and the designation of any such series of Sierra's preferred stock. Sierra's board of directors, within the limits and restrictions stated in any resolution or resolutions of Sierra's board of directors originally fixing the number of shares constituting any series, may increase or decrease (but not below the number of shares of such series then outstanding) the number of shares of any series subsequent to the issue of shares of that series.

Voting Rights

All voting rights are vested in the holders of Sierra's common stock. Each shareholder is entitled to one vote per share on any issue requiring a vote at any meeting, and will be entitled to participate in any liquidation, dissolution, or winding up on the basis of his or her pro rata share holdings. Shareholders are not entitled to cumulative voting in the election of directors.

Dividends

After the preferential dividends upon all other classes and series of stock entitled thereto shall have been paid or declared and set apart for payment and after Sierra shall have complied with all requirements, if any, with respect to the setting aside of sums as a sinking fund or for a redemption account on any class of stock, then the holders of Sierra's common stock are entitled to such dividends as may be declared by Sierra's board of directors out of funds legally available therefore under the laws of the State of California. For more information on Sierra's dividend policy and historical dividend practices, as well as legal restrictions on the payment of dividends by Sierra Bancorp, see "COMPARATIVE MARKET PRICE DATA AND DIVIDEND INFORMATION – Dividends" above.

Miscellaneous

Sierra's common stock has no conversion or redemption rights or sinking fund provisions applicable to it. The common stock does not have preemptive rights; therefore, future shares of common stock may be offered to the investing public or to existing shareholders, in the discretion of Sierra's board of directors, and existing shareholders will not have the right to maintain their current percentage ownership in our common stock. In addition, the shares of common stock:

- are not deposit accounts and are subject to investment risk;
- are not insured or guaranteed by the FDIC or any other government agency; and
- are not guaranteed by Sierra Bancorp or Bank of the Sierra.

COMPARISON OF THE RIGHTS OF COMMON STOCK SHAREHOLDERS OF SIERRA BANCORP AND OCB BANCORP

Assuming the merger becomes effective, the shareholders of OCB Bancorp will receive shares of Sierra’s common stock in exchange for their shares of OCB’s common stock and will become shareholders of Sierra Bancorp. The following is a summary of material differences between the rights of holders of Sierra’s common stock and the holders of OCB’s common stock.

The following summary does not purport to be a complete statement of the provisions affecting, and differences between, the rights of holders of Sierra’s common stock and holders of OCB Bancorp common stock. This summary is intended to provide a general overview of the differences in shareholders’ rights under applicable law and the governing corporate instruments of Sierra and OCB, and other known material differences. Sierra and OCB are both California corporations incorporated under the laws of California and the California General Corporation Law, or CGCL, and are therefore both subject to the provisions of the CGCL. However, certain provisions of the CGCL apply only to “listed corporations” such as Sierra, with stock listed on a “national securities exchange” such as the Nasdaq Select Global Market.

We urge you to carefully read this entire proxy statement/prospectus, the relevant provisions of the CGCL and the other documents to which we refer in this proxy statement/prospectus for a more complete understanding of the differences between being a Sierra’s common stock shareholder and an OCB’s common stock shareholder.

Authorized Capital Stock	The authorized capital stock of Sierra Bancorp consists of 24,000,000 shares of common stock, no par value, and 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock, no par value. As of July 31, 2017, there were 13,838,149 shares of common stock, and no shares of preferred stock, issued and outstanding.	The authorized capital stock of OCB Bancorp consists of 100,000,000 shares of common stock, no par value, and 100,000,000 shares of preferred stock, no par value. As of July 31, 2017, there were 2,266,148 shares of common stock (including 14,412 shares of unvested restricted stock) issued and outstanding.
Indemnification and Liability Exculpation of Directors and Officers	Sierra’s articles of incorporation authorize Sierra to provide indemnification of directors and officers in excess of the indemnification provided under the	Same.

CGCL, subject to certain exceptions. Sierra's articles of incorporation also provide for the elimination of director liability for monetary damages to the maximum extent allowed by California law.

Cumulative Voting for Election of Directors Sierra Bancorp shareholders do not have cumulative voting rights with respect to the election of directors.

Shareholders are entitled to cumulate votes with respect to the election of directors at a shareholders' meeting for any candidate or candidates' whose names have been placed in nomination prior to the voting if the shareholder has given notice prior to the voting of the shareholder's intention to cumulate votes. If any shareholder has given such notice, then every shareholder entitled to vote may cumulate such shareholder's votes for candidates in nomination and give one candidate a number of votes equal to the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of votes to which such shareholder's shares are entitled, or distribute the shareholder's votes on the same principle among any or all of the candidates, as the shareholder deems appropriate.

	Sierra Bancorp	OCB Bancorp
Number and Classes of Directors	Sierra’s bylaws provide that the number of directors shall be no less than six and no more than eleven, with the exact number to be fixed by resolution of the board of directors or the shareholders. The current number of directors is ten. Sierra’s board of directors is divided into two classes holding staggered two-year terms of office.	OCB’s bylaws provide that the number of directors shall be no less than seven and nor more than thirteen, with the exact number of directors fixed by resolution of the board of directors or shareholders. The current number of directors is nine. OCB’s board of directors is not divided into any classes holding staggered terms of office, and is elected annually to one-year terms of office.
Removal of Directors	Any or all of the directors may be removed without cause if such removal is approved by a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote; provided, however, that no director may be removed if the votes cast against removal of the director would be sufficient to elect the director if voted cumulatively (without regard to whether shares may otherwise be voted cumulatively) at an election at which the same total number of votes were cast (or, if the action is taken by written consent, all shares entitled to vote were voted) and either the number of directors elected at the most recent annual meeting of shareholders, or if greater, the number of directors for whom removal is being sought, were then being elected.	Same, except that for OCB these provisions apply only through the CGCL and not through the Bylaws as well; and the caveat about whether shares may otherwise be voted cumulatively does not apply since OCB’s shareholders have cumulative voting rights in the election of directors.
Notice of Shareholder Proposals and Director Nominations	In order for a shareholder of Sierra Bancorp to make a proposal for action or nominate a director, notice by such shareholder must be received by Sierra not less than 120 days before the date corresponding to that on which Sierra’s proxy statement was released to the shareholders in connection with the previous year’s annual meeting of shareholders. If the date of the annual meeting is more than 30 days before or after the anniversary date of the previous annual meeting, notice by the shareholder must be received by Sierra not later than the close of business on the tenth day following the day on which notice of the meeting is sent to shareholders.	Notice of intention to make any nominations shall be made to the President of OCB not less than the later of 7 days after mailing of the notice of a meeting of shareholders or 21 days prior to any meeting of shareholders called for the election of directors by complying with specific notice provisions. OCB does not have any specific requirements for the submission of shareholder proposals.

Payment of Dividends	Sierra’s shareholders will be entitled to receive dividends when and as declared by its board of directors, out of funds legally available for the payment of dividends, as provided in the CGCL. The CGCL provides that a corporation may make a distribution to its shareholders if retained earnings immediately prior to the dividend payout is at least equal to the amount of the proposed distribution. For additional information on legal restrictions on the ability to pay dividends if this requirement is not met, as well as concerning Sierra’s dividend policy, see “COMPARATIVE MARKET PRICE DATA AND DIVIDEND INFORMATION – Dividends” above.	Same, but see information concerning OCB rather than Sierra referenced in “Dividends” section.
Dissenters’ Rights	Because Sierra is considered a “listed corporation” under the CGCL, Sierra’s shareholders do not have dissenters’ rights with respect to a business combination or other reorganization requiring their vote unless their shares are subject to transfer restrictions.	OCB’s shareholders generally have dissenters’ rights with respect to a business combination or other reorganization requiring their vote.
Amendment of Articles of Incorporation	Generally the CGCL requires a vote of the majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote to amend the articles of incorporation.	Same.
Amendment of Bylaws	Subject to the right of shareholders to adopt, amend or repeal bylaws, the board of directors may adopt, amend or repeal bylaws other than a bylaw or an amendment thereof changing the authorized number of directors.	Same.
Required Vote for Mergers	The CGCL requires the affirmative vote of the majority of outstanding shares entitled to vote of each class of shares.	Same.

Meetings of Shareholders	Sierra's bylaws provide that an annual meeting of shareholders is to be held on a date and time determined by the board of directors. Special meetings of shareholders may be called at any time by the Chairman of the Board, the President, the board of directors or shareholders holding in the aggregate 10% or more of the outstanding shares entitled to vote.	Same.
Anti-takeover Provisions	The CGCL does not provide for any specific anti-takeover provisions. Sierra's Articles of Incorporation provide for staggered terms of office for members of the board of directors; no cumulative voting in the election of directors; and the requirement that its board of directors consider the potential social and economic effects on our employees, depositors, customers and the communities we serve as well as certain other factors, when evaluating a possible tender offer, merger or other acquisition of Sierra. These provisions make it more difficult for another company to acquire Sierra, which could cause shareholders to lose an opportunity to be paid a premium for their shares in an acquisition transaction and reduce the current and future market price of Sierra's common stock.	The CGCL does not provide for any specific anti-takeover provisions, and OCB's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws do not contain any provisions that make it more difficult for another company to acquire OCB.

PROPOSAL NO. 2
DISCRETIONARY AUTHORITY TO ADJOURN

General

The special meeting may be adjourned to another time or place, if necessary or appropriate to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger proposal.

If, at the special meeting, the number of shares of OCB's common stock present or represented and voting in favor of the merger proposal is insufficient to approve the merger proposal, OCB intends to move to adjourn the special meeting in order to enable OCB's board of directors to solicit additional proxies for approval of the merger agreement. In that event, OCB will ask its shareholders to vote only upon the adjournment proposal, and not the merger proposal.

In this proposal, OCB is asking its shareholders to grant discretionary authority to the person(s) designated as the proxy holder stated in the proxy card to move to adjourn the special meeting if the number of shares voting for approval of the merger proposal is not sufficient to approve that proposal at the meeting. If OCB's shareholders approve the adjournment proposal, OCB could adjourn the special meeting and use the additional time to solicit additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from OCB shareholders who have previously voted.

If the special meeting is adjourned so that OCB's board can solicit additional proxies to approve the merger proposal, OCB is not required to give any notice of the adjourned meeting other than an announcement of the place, date and time provided at the special meeting.

Vote Required

Approval of the adjournment proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of OCB's common stock represented and voting at the special meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the proposal to adjourn the special meeting. Brokers may not vote on the adjournment proposal without specific instructions from the person who beneficially owns the shares.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors of OCB Bancorp

The OCB Bancorp board of directors recommends a vote “FOR” adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the merger proposal.

LEGAL MATTERS

The validity of Sierra Bancorp's common stock to be issued in the merger will be passed upon by King, Holmes, Paterno & Soriano, LLP, Los Angeles, California, legal counsel to Sierra Bancorp.

Certain U.S. federal income tax consequences relating to the merger will also be passed upon for Sierra Bancorp by Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP, 575 Madison Avenue, New York, New York 10022.

At any time following the six (6) month anniversary of the Effective Time, Parent shall be entitled to require the Exchange Agent to deliver to it any remaining portion of the Exchange Fund not distributed to holders of shares of Company Common Stock, together with any interest received with respect thereto and other income resulting from investments by the Exchange Agent as directed by Parent, and holders of Company Common Stock shall be entitled to look only to Parent (subject to abandoned property, escheat or other similar laws) with respect to the Per Share Merger Consideration, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Company Common Stock and any dividends or other distributions with respect to Parent Common Stock payable upon due surrender of Certificates, without any interest thereon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither Parent nor the Exchange Agent shall be liable to any holder of a Certificate for the Per Share Merger Consideration (or dividends or distributions with respect thereto) or cash from the Exchange Fund in each case delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

If Parent so elects, it shall timely give written notice to Company of such election and of the Parent Increase, whereupon no termination shall be deemed to have occurred pursuant to Section 7.1(l)(i) and this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms (except that the Per Share Merger Consideration shall have been so modified).

(iv) If Parent elects to exercise its termination right pursuant to Section 7.1(l)(iii), it shall give written notice to Company within two (2) Business Days after the Determination Date, and such termination will be effective on the third (3rd) Business Day after the giving of such notice (the “Parent Effective Termination Date”); provided that within two (2) Business Days after Company’s receipt of such notice, Company shall have the option to accept Per Share Merger Consideration equal to quotient of (A) 15.91 divided by (B) Parent Determination Price (the “Company Decrease”). If Company so elects, it shall timely give written notice to Parent of such election and of the Company Decrease, whereupon no termination shall be deemed to have occurred pursuant to Section 7.1(l)(iii) and this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms (except that the Per Share Merger Consideration shall have been so modified).

(v) For the purposes of this Section 7.1(l), the following terms have the meanings indicated below:

- (A) “Determination Date” means the later of (a) the date that is five (5) Business Days before the anticipated Closing Date and (b) the date immediately following the date that the Required Company Vote is obtained.

(vii) In the event that (a) Parent shall enter into a definitive written agreement on or before the Effective Date relating to a merger, consolidation or any other business combination transaction pursuant to which the shareholders of Parent immediately before such transaction shall not directly or indirectly own or control fifty-one percent (51%) or more of the capital stock of the surviving entity immediately after such transaction or (b) there is a public announcement on or before the Effective Time of a tender offer or other unsolicited attempt to directly or indirectly acquire fifty-one percent (51%) or more of the capital stock of Parent or to engage in a transaction described in subsection (a) immediately above, then this Section 7.1(l) shall immediately become null and void.

(m) Notice of Termination. In the event a Party elects to effect any termination pursuant to Section 7.1(b) through Section 7.1(l) above, it shall give written notice to the other Party specifying the basis for such termination.

7.2. Effect of Termination.

(a) In the event of termination of this Agreement by Company, Parent as provided in Section 7.1, this Agreement shall, to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Legal Requirements, forthwith become void and of no effect and there shall be no liability or obligation on the part of Parent or Company or their respective officers or directors, except with respect to Sections 4.22(ff), 4.3(d), 5.3(b), 5.7, Article 7 and Article 8, which shall survive such termination, and, except that as otherwise provided herein, no Party shall be relieved or released from any liabilities or damages arising out of its own fraud or willful and material breach of this Agreement. Except as otherwise provided in this Section 7.2, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement, the Merger, and the other transactions contemplated hereby shall be paid by the Party incurring such fees or expenses, whether or not the Merger is consummated.

(b) Company shall pay Parent, by wire transfer of immediately available funds, the sum of One Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($1,500,000.00) plus Parent Transaction Expenses (collectively, the "Company Termination Fee") if this Agreement is terminated as follows:

(i) if Parent shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to clause (i), (ii), (iii), (iv) or (v) of Section 7.1(d), in which case, Company shall pay the Company Termination Fee to Parent within three (3) Business Days of Company's receipt of written notice of such termination; or

(ii) if Company shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(e), then Company shall pay the Company Termination Fee concurrently with such termination; or

A-71

(iii) if (A) any Party shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(c) following Company having taken action that constitutes a breach of Section 5.1(c), or Parent shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(h) following Company having taken action that constitutes a breach of Section 5.1(c), (B) at any time after the date of this Agreement and at or before such termination, Company shall have received an Acquisition Proposal, and Company shall not have terminated this Agreement under Sections 7.1(b), 7.1(c), 7.1(j), or 7.1(l), and (C) within twelve (12) months of the date of such termination of this Agreement, Company executes any definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, any such Acquisition Proposal (provided that for purposes of this clause (iii) only, the term “Acquisition Proposal” shall have the meaning assigned to such term in Section 5.5(a), except that the reference to “20% or more” in the definition of “Acquisition Proposal” shall be deemed to be a reference to “more than 50%”), then Company shall pay Parent the Termination Fee upon the date of such execution or consummation; or

(iv) if any Party entitled to terminate the Agreement under Section 7.1(h) shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(h), in which case, Company shall pay the Company Termination Fee to Parent within three (3) Business Days.

(c) In the event of a material breach by Parent or any of its Subsidiaries or Representatives of any of its or their covenants or agreements contained herein (including failing to take such actions as are required of it or them hereunder to consummate the Merger), Parent acknowledges and agrees that Company would be irreparably harmed, that monetary damages would not provide an adequate remedy, and that Company shall be entitled, without terminating this Agreement, to specifically enforce the terms hereof against Parent. Each Party acknowledges that there is not an adequate remedy at law to compensate Company relating to the non-consummation of the Merger. To this end, Parent, to the extent permitted by law, irrevocably waives any defense it might have based on the adequacy of a remedy at law which might be asserted as a bar to specific performance, injunctive relief or other equitable relief. Parent further agrees that none of Company or any other Person shall be required to obtain, furnish or post any bond or similar instrument in connection with or as a condition to obtaining any remedy referred to in this Section 7.2(c), and Parent irrevocably waives any right it may have to require the obtaining, furnishing, or posting of any such bond or similar instrument.

(d) COMPANY AND PARENT ACKNOWLEDGE THAT THE AGREEMENTS CONTAINED IN SECTIONS 7.2(b) AND 7.2(c) ARE AN INTEGRAL PART OF THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT, AND THAT, WITHOUT THESE AGREEMENTS, NEITHER PARTY WOULD ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT. THE AMOUNTS PAYABLE BY COMPANY PURSUANT TO SECTION 7.2(b) CONSTITUTE LIQUIDATED DAMAGES AND NOT A PENALTY AND SHALL BE THE SOLE MONETARY REMEDY OF PARENT, OR ANY OF ITS SUBSIDIARIES, IN THE EVENT OF TERMINATION OF THIS AGREEMENT BY SUCH PARTY UNDER SUCH APPLICABLE SECTION GIVING RISE TO THE PAYMENT OF SUCH COMPANY TERMINATION FEE. IF COMPANY FAILS TO PAY WHEN DUE ANY AMOUNTS REQUIRED TO BE PAID BY IT PURSUANT TO SECTION 7.2(b) AND IN ORDER TO OBTAIN SUCH PAYMENT, PARENT COMMENCES AN ACTION, SUIT OR PROCEEDING, THEN IN ADDITION TO THE AMOUNT OF SUCH JUDGMENT, THEN COMPANY SHALL PAY TO PARENT AN AMOUNT EQUAL TO THE FEES, COSTS AND EXPENSES (INCLUDING REASONABLE ATTORNEYS’ FEES, COSTS AND EXPENSES) INCURRED BY THEM IN CONNECTION WITH SUCH ACTION, SUIT OR PROCEEDING,

TOGETHER WITH INTEREST ON ALL UNPAID AMOUNTS FROM THE DATE SUCH AMOUNTS WERE REQUIRED TO BE PAID UNDER THIS AGREEMENT AT THE PRIME LENDING RATE PREVAILING AT SUCH TIME, AS PUBLISHED IN THE WALL STREET JOURNAL, PLUS 3%. UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES SHALL COMPANY BE OBLIGATED TO ACTUALLY PAY MORE THAN ONE (1) COMPANY TERMINATION FEE PURSUANT TO SECTION 7.2(b).

8.5. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY DISPUTE WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE EACH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LEGAL REQUIREMENTS, ANY RIGHT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, ARISING OUT OF, OR RELATING TO, THIS AGREEMENT, OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW. 8.8. Entire Agreement: No Third Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement (including the exhibits and schedules to this Agreement and the Confidentiality Agreement) constitute the entire agreement of the Parties and supersede all other prior agreements, understandings, representations and warranties, both written and oral, among the Parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement. No representation, warranty, inducement, promise, understanding or condition not set forth in this Agreement has been relied upon or made by any of the Parties. Except as provided in Section 5.8, this Agreement is not intended to confer upon any Person other than the Parties any rights or remedies hereunder. The representations and warranties in this Agreement are the product of negotiations among the Parties and are for the sole benefit of the Parties. Any breaches in such representations and warranties are subject to waiver by the Parties in accordance with the terms of this Agreement without notice or liability to any other Person. The representations and warranties in this Agreement may represent an allocation among the Parties of risks associated with particular matters regardless of the knowledge of any of the Parties and may have been qualified by certain disclosures not reflected in the text of this Agreement. Accordingly, Persons other than the Parties may not rely upon the representations and warranties in this Agreement as characterizations of actual facts or circumstances as of the date of this Agreement or as of any other date. In no event shall the terms of this Agreement be deemed to (i) establish, amend or modify any employee benefit plan of Company or Parent or any of their respective Subsidiaries or any other benefit plan, program, agreement or arrangement maintained or sponsored by any of them, (ii) alter or limit the ability of Company or Parent, or any of their respective Subsidiaries to amend, modify or terminate any employee benefit plan maintained by any of them, (iii) confer upon any current or former employee, officer, director or consultant, any right to employment or continued employment or continued service with Company or Parent or the Surviving Corporation or any of their Subsidiaries, or constitute or create an employment agreement with or for any individual, or (iv) alter or limit the ability of Company or Parent or the Surviving Corporation or any of their Subsidiaries to make necessary or appropriate changes to their respective businesses in response to changed circumstances, unforeseen events or the like. The disclosure in any correspondingly identified subsection of the disclosure schedules delivered by Company or Parent, as applicable, shall qualify (i) the corresponding subsection of this Agreement and (ii) the other Sections or subsections of this Agreement, to the extent that it is reasonably apparent from a reading of such disclosure that it also qualifies or applies to such other Sections or subsections.

8.9. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void or unenforceable, the remaining provisions, or the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it has been held invalid or unenforceable, will remain in full force and effect and will in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated thereby, so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any Party hereto. Upon such determination, the Parties will negotiate in good faith in an effort to agree upon a suitable and equitable substitute provision to effect the original intent of the Parties.

8.10. Enforcement of the Agreement. The Parties agree that irreparable injury, for which damages, even if available, would not be an adequate remedy, would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms on a timely basis or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the Parties shall be entitled to an injunction or other equitable relief, without the necessity of proving actual monetary loss or posting any bond or other security, to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement in any court identified in Section 8.4(b), this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity.

8.11. Waiver of Conditions. The conditions to each of the Parties' obligations to consummate the Merger are for the sole benefit of such Party and may be waived by such Party in whole or in part to the extent permitted by applicable laws.

8.12. Interpretation. When a reference is made in this Agreement to Sections, Exhibits or Schedules, such reference shall be to a Section of or Exhibit or Schedule to this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. The table of contents and headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. Whenever the words "include," "includes" or "including" are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation." The phrase "made available" or "furnished" in this Agreement means that the information referred to has been made available if requested by the Party to whom such information is to be made available or access has been provided to (and print capabilities enabled on) a virtual data room containing such information. The phrases "herein," "hereof," "hereunder" and words of similar import shall be deemed to refer to this Agreement as a whole, including the Exhibits and Schedules hereto, and not to any particular provision of this Agreement. Whenever the words "as of the date hereof" are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to mean the day and year first above written. Any pronoun shall include the corresponding masculine, feminine and neuter forms. When a reference is made in this Agreement to "stockholder" or "stockholders," such terms shall be interchangeable with "shareholder" or "shareholders" as it relates to the Parties or is applicable under California law. Each Party has been represented and advised by independent counsel of its choice in connection with the execution of this Agreement and has cooperated in the drafting and preparation of this Agreement and the documents delivered in connection herewith. Accordingly, any Applicable Legal Requirement that would require interpretation of this Agreement or any document delivered in connection herewith, including any ambiguous, vague or conflicting term herein or therein, against the drafter should not apply and is expressly waived.

8.13. Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations of the Parties hereunder shall be assigned by either of the Parties (whether by operation of law or otherwise) without the prior written consent of the other Party, and any attempt to make any such assignment without such consent shall, to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Legal Requirements, be null and void. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement shall be binding upon, inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

8.14. Alternative Structure. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, Parent may at any time modify the structure of the acquisition of Company set forth herein, including to provide for a merger of a newly formed subsidiary of Parent with and into Company, followed by the merger of Company with and into Parent as part of an integrated transaction, provided that the consideration to be paid to the holders of Company Common Stock and Company Stock Options is not thereby changed in kind or reduced in amount as a result of such modification and that such modification creates no additional adverse tax consequences for the holders of Company Common Stock or Company Stock Options. EXHIBIT A

VOTING, NON-COMPETITION AND NON-SOLICITATION AGREEMENT

This VOTING, NON-COMPETITION AND NON-SOLICITATION AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is made and entered into as of the 24th day of April, 2017, by and among SIERRA BANCORP, a California corporation and registered bank holding company ("Bancorp"), OCB BANCORP, a California corporation and registered bank holding company ("OCB"), and the undersigned director of OCB ("Director").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, Bancorp and OCB have entered into that certain Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger dated as of April 24, 2017 (the "Merger Agreement"), pursuant to which OCB will merge with and into Bancorp, with Bancorp surviving the merger (the "Merger"), and OJAI COMMUNITY BANK, a California state-chartered bank and wholly-owned subsidiary of OCB ("Target Bank"), thereafter merging with and into Bank of the Sierra, a California state-chartered bank and wholly-owned subsidiary of Bancorp ("BOS"), with BOS surviving such secondary merger. Terms with their initial letter capitalized and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings given them in the Merger Agreement;

WHEREAS, Director understands and acknowledges that Director's execution and delivery of this Agreement is a material inducement to Bancorp and OCB to enter into the Merger Agreement and a condition to the obligation of Bancorp to consummate the transactions contemplated thereby;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and mutual covenants contained herein and intending to be legally bound hereby, Bancorp, OCB, and Director agree as follows:

1. Director Support. Director agrees that for a period of two (2) years from the Effective Time, to use his/her commercially reasonable efforts to support and refrain from (a) disparaging the goodwill of Bancorp and its subsidiaries ("Bancorp Subsidiaries") and OCB and its subsidiaries ("OCB Subsidiaries"), (b) harming their respective customer and client relationships, and (c) disparaging the business or banking reputation of Bancorp or Bancorp Subsidiaries.

2. Director Covenants. Director agrees that for a period of two (2) years from the Effective Time, Director shall not, directly or indirectly, individually or as an employee, partner, officer, director, promoter or shareholder or in any other capacity whatsoever, except in the performance of customary legal, accounting, insurance, or investment or investment management services as performed at the time of execution of the Agreement or of a similar nature:

(i) solicit the banking business of any current customers of OCB or customers who are customers at the Effective Time;

A-80

[Name of Director]

(A) acquire, charter, operate or enter into any franchise or other management agreement with any “Financial Institution,” as defined below, in which Director shall be involved in activities competitive with Bancorp or the Bancorp Subsidiaries, or OCB in each case as in existence as of the date hereof, (B) serve as an officer, director, employee, agent, promoter, or consultant to any Financial Institution (whether in existence or in organization) in connection with activities that are competitive with Bancorp or any Bancorp Subsidiaries, or OCB, in each case as (ii) in existence as of the date hereof, or (C) establish or operate a branch or other office of a Financial Institution, provided that the restrictions in clauses (A) through (C) above shall apply only to any Financial Institution located within Tulare, Los Angeles, Kern, Fresno, Bakersfield, San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, or Ventura Counties in California (“Covered Financial Institution”). For purposes of this Agreement, “Financial Institution” means a “depository institution” as that term is defined in 12 C.F.R. Section 348.2 and any parent or subsidiary thereof.

(b) Director further agrees that Director shall not:

prior to the Effective Time, recruit, hire, assist others in recruiting or hiring, discuss employment with, or refer (i) others concerning employment, any person who is, or within the preceding twelve (12) months was, an employee of OCB; and after the Effective Time and until the second anniversary of the Effective Time, recruit, hire, assist others in recruiting or hiring, any person who is an employee of Bancorp or any Bancorp Subsidiary at the date of the recruitment or hire or who was an employee of OCB within the twelve (12) months immediately preceding to the (ii) date of the recruitment or hire; provided, however, that this prohibition shall not apply to general recruitment, solicitations and/or hires through employment agencies or advertisements that are placed in publications of general circulations or trade journals whether on the Internet or otherwise.

(c) If any court of competent jurisdiction should determine that any term or terms of this covenant are too broad with respect to time, geographic area, lines of commerce or otherwise, such court shall modify and revise any such term or terms so that they comply with applicable law.

(d) Director agrees that (i) this Agreement is entered into in connection with the conveyance to Bancorp of the goodwill of the business of OCB; (ii) Director is receiving valuable consideration in this Agreement and in the Merger pursuant to the Merger Agreement; (iii) the restrictions imposed upon Director by this Agreement are essential and necessary to ensure that Bancorp receives the goodwill of OCB; and (iv) all the restrictions (including particularly the time and geographical limitations) set forth in this Agreement are fair and reasonable.

[Name of Director]

(e) Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement shall require the Director to (i) divest any passive investment in any Covered Financial Institution existing as of the date of this Agreement or the Effective Time, (ii) refrain from becoming a shareholder of no more than 4.9% of any class of equity security or debt security or other ownership interest of any Covered Financial Institution, or (iii) resign from any board position held at any Covered Financial Institution as of the date of this Agreement or Effective Time. In the event that the Director holds a passive investment, becomes a shareholder or serves on a board of a Covered Financial Institution as outlined in this Section 2(e), such Director will still be subject to the duties outlined in Sections 2(a) and 2(b) above.

(f) Director agrees, following the date hereof until this Agreement terminates, not to take any action that would make any representation or warranty of Director contained herein untrue or incorrect or have or would reasonably be expected to have the effect of preventing, impeding or interfering with or adversely affecting the performance by Director of his or her obligations under this Agreement.

(g) Director agrees to permit Bancorp and/or OCB to publish and disclose in any proxy statement or securities filing, Director's identity and ownership of shares of OCB's or Bancorp's capital stock and the nature of Director's commitments, arrangements and understandings under this Agreement.

(h) From time to time, at the request of Bancorp or BOS and without further consideration, Director shall execute and deliver such additional documents and take all such further action as may be reasonably necessary or desirable to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

3. Release.

(a) Director acknowledges that he or she is aware of no existing claim or defense, personal or otherwise, or rights of set off whatsoever against OCB, except as expressly provided herein. For and in consideration of the consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, Director, for himself/herself and on behalf of his/her heirs and assigns (the "Director Releasing Parties"), releases, acquits and forever discharges OCB and its predecessors, successors, assigns, officers, directors, employees, agents and servants, and all persons, natural or corporate, in privity with them or any of them, from any and all known claims or causes of action of any kind whatsoever, at common law, statutory or otherwise, which the Director Releasing Parties, or any of them, has now existing or that may hereafter arise in respect of any and all agreements and obligations incurred on or prior to the date hereof, or in respect of any event occurring or circumstances existing on or prior to the date hereof; provided, however, that OCB shall not be released from any written contractual obligations or accrued benefits of OCB to Director as set forth on Schedule 1 attached hereto or any potential claim for indemnification under OCB's articles of association or bylaws (in each case as in existence on the date hereof) for any matters arising in connection with the Director's service as a director or officer or employee of OCB relating to acts, circumstances, actions or omissions arising on or prior to the date hereof to the extent such claims have not been asserted or are not known to Director.

[Name of Director]

(b) It is expressly understood and agreed that the terms hereof are contractual and not merely recitals, and that the agreements herein contained and the consideration herein transferred is to compromise doubtful and disputed claims, and that no releases made or other consideration given hereby or in connection herewith shall be construed as an admission of liability, all liability being expressly denied by OCB. Director hereby represents and warrants that the consideration hereby acknowledged for entering into this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby is greater than the value of all claims, demands, actions and causes of action herein relinquished, released, renounced, abandoned, acquitted, waived and/or discharged, and that this Agreement is in full settlement, satisfaction and discharge of any and all such claims, demands, actions, and causes of action that Director may have or be entitled to against OCB and its predecessors, assigns, legal representatives, officers, directors, employees, attorneys and agents other than obligations or liabilities to Director in connection with any written contractual obligations or accrued benefits of OCB to Director as set forth on Schedule 1 attached hereto.

4. Termination. Subject to the second sentence of Section 5, this Agreement shall terminate following the end of the noncompete period described in Section 2(a) above, except for liabilities or claims that shall have arisen or accrued on or before such termination.

5. Effective Time. This Agreement shall become effective on the date of execution of this Agreement. If the Merger Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms, then this Agreement shall become null and void as of the date of the termination of the Merger Agreement and shall be of no further force and effect.

6. Specific Performance/Injunctive Relief. Director acknowledges that performance of the terms of this Agreement constitute valuable, special and unique property of Bancorp critical to the business of Bancorp and that any breach of this Agreement by Director will give rise to irreparable injury that is not compensable with money damages. Accordingly, Director agrees that Bancorp shall be entitled to obtain specific performance and/or injunctive relief against the breach or threatened breach of this Agreement by Director. Bancorp and Director hereby acknowledge and agree that Bancorp and OCB will be irreparably damaged if the provisions of this Agreement are not specifically enforced. Director further agrees to waive any requirement for the securing or posting of any bond or other security or the proof of actual damages in connection with such remedies. Such remedies shall not be exclusive and shall be in addition to any other remedy that Bancorp may have at law or in equity.

7. Extension of Term of Restrictive Covenant. If Director violates any restrictive covenant contained in Section 2, and if any action to specifically enforce or enjoin the violation of a restrictive covenant contained in Section 2 is pending in a court of competent jurisdiction, then the term of such restrictive covenant will be extended by adding to it the number of days that Director's violation continues and the number of days during which such court action is pending only if and when the court grants specific performance or injunctive relief to the party seeking such relief; provided, however, that the maximum aggregate number of days which may be added to the term of the restrictive covenant as a result of the foregoing is 365 days. If there are both a violation and a pending court action, then the number of days that each continues will be added to the term of such restrictive covenants, but days on which both continue will be counted only once.

[Name of Director]

8. Voting Agreement. From the date hereof until the earlier of (i) the Effective Time and (ii) the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms (the "Support Period"), Director agrees that at any shareholder meeting of OCB to approve the Merger or any related transaction, or any adjournment or postponement thereof, the Director shall be present (in person or by proxy) and shall vote (or cause to be voted) all of his or her voting shares of capital stock of OCB entitled to vote at such meeting, including all voting shares listed on Attachment A, and all shares of Company Common Stock subsequently acquired by Director, including through the exercise of any stock option or warrant (together, "Owned Shares"): (a) in favor of approval of (1) the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, (2) any other matter that is required to facilitate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and (3) any proposal to adjourn or postpone such meeting to a later date if there are not sufficient votes to approve the Merger Agreement; and (b) against any action or agreement that would impair the ability of Bancorp to complete the Merger, the ability of OCB to complete the Merger, or that would otherwise be inconsistent with, prevent, impede or delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; provided that the foregoing applies solely to Director in his or her capacity as a shareholder and nothing in this Agreement shall prevent Director from discharging his or her fiduciary duties with respect to his or her role on the board of directors of OCB. Director covenants and agrees that, except for this Agreement, he or she (a) has not entered into, and shall not enter during the Support Period any voting agreement or voting trust with respect to the Owned Shares and (b) has not granted, and shall not grant during the Support Period a proxy, consent or power of attorney with respect to the Owned Shares except any proxy to carry out the intent of this Agreement. Attachment A also sets forth information with respect to the options and warrants to purchase Company Common Stock owned by Director.

9. Transfer Restrictions Prior to Merger. The Director will not, during the Support Period, except in respect of the Merger and receiving the Merger Consideration and Option Consideration: (a) sell, transfer, assign, tender in any tender or exchange offer, pledge, encumber, hypothecate or similarly dispose of (by merger, by testamentary disposition, by operation of law or otherwise), either voluntarily or involuntarily, enter into any swap or other arrangements that transfers to another, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of, enter into any contract, option or other arrangement or understanding with respect to the sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, lien, hypothecation or other disposition of (by merger, by testamentary disposition, by operation of law or otherwise) or otherwise convey or dispose of, any of the Owned Shares, or any interest therein, including the right to vote any Owned Shares, as applicable (a "Transfer"), or (b) grant any proxies, or enter into any contract, arrangement or understanding with respect to a Transfer of the Owned Shares, as applicable; provided that, Director may Transfer Owned Shares (i) for estate planning or philanthropic purposes, (ii) by operation of law, by will or pursuant to the laws of descent and distribution, provided that in the case of any action covered by clause (i) or (ii) the transferee shall agree in writing to be bound by the provisions of Sections 8 and 9 of this Agreement.

[Name of Director]

10. Director Representations and Warranties. Director hereby represents and warrants to Bancorp as follows:

(a) Director has full legal right and capacity to execute and deliver this Agreement, to perform Director's obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Director and the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by Director and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by all necessary action on the part of Director and no other actions or proceedings on the part of Director are necessary to authorize this Agreement or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

(c) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by Director does not, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and the compliance with the provisions hereof will not (i) require Director to obtain the consent or approval of, or make any filing with or notification to, any governmental or regulatory authority, domestic or foreign, (ii) require the consent or approval of any other person pursuant to any agreement, obligation or instrument binding on Director or its properties and assets, (iii) conflict with or violate any organizational document or law, rule, regulation, order, judgment or decree applicable to Director or pursuant to which any of its or its affiliates' respective properties or assets are bound or (iv) violate any other agreement to which Director or any of its affiliates is a party including, without limitation, any voting agreement, shareholders agreement, irrevocable proxy or voting trust. The Owned Shares are not, with respect to the voting or transfer thereof, subject to any other agreement, including any voting agreement, shareholders agreement, irrevocable proxy or voting trust.

(d) On the date hereof, the Owned Shares set forth on Attachment A hereto are owned of record or beneficially by Director in the manner reflected thereon, include all of the shares of Company Common Stock owned of record or beneficially by Director, and are free and clear of any proxy or voting restriction, claims, liens, encumbrances and security interests, except (if applicable) as set forth on Attachment A hereto, which encumbrances or other items do not affect in any respect the ability of Director to perform Director's obligations hereunder. As of the date hereof Director has, and at the Company Shareholder Meeting or any other shareholder meeting of OCB in connection with the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, Director (together with any such entity) will have (except as otherwise permitted by this Agreement), sole voting power (to the extent such securities have voting power) and sole dispositive power with respect to all of the Owned Shares, except as otherwise reflected on Attachment A.

(e) Director understands and acknowledges that each of Bancorp and OCB is entering into the Merger Agreement in reliance upon Director's execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement.

[Name of Director]

11. Resignation from OCB Board. Each Director hereby tenders his or her resignation from the Board of Directors of OCB subject to and effective upon the Effective Time.

12. Assignability. This Agreement shall not be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other parties hereto.

13. Parties Bound. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective legal representatives, successors and assigns, except as otherwise expressly provided herein.

14. APPLICABLE LAW CHOICE OF VENUE. THIS AGREEMENT IS BEING EXECUTED AND DELIVERED IN THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, AND THE SUBSTANTIVE LAWS OF CALIFORNIA SHALL GOVERN THE VALIDITY, CONSTRUCTION, AND ENFORCEMENT OF THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES CONSENT TO THE VENUE AND JURISDICTION OF ANY FEDERAL OR STATE COURT SITTING IN THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, IN ANY ACTION BROUGHT TO ENFORCE THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY SUBMIT TO THE JURISDICTION (BOTH SUBJECT MATTER AND PERSONAL) OF ANY SUCH COURT AND IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVE (1) ANY OBJECTION ANY PARTY MIGHT NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE VENUE IN ANY SUCH COURT, AND (2) ANY CLAIM THAT ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING BROUGHT IN ANY SUCH COURT HAS BEEN BROUGHT IN AN INCONVENIENT FORUM.

15. Legal Construction. If any one or more of the provisions contained in this Agreement shall for any reason be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, any provision shall be fully severable, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision hereof, and this Agreement shall be construed and enforced as if such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision had never been contained herein, and the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision or by its severance from this Agreement. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision, there shall be added automatically as a part of this Agreement, a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be valid and enforceable.

16. Notice. Unless otherwise provided herein, any and all notices, requests, instructions and other communications required or permitted to be given under this Agreement after the date hereof by any party hereto to any other party may be delivered personally or by nationally recognized overnight courier service or sent by mail or by facsimile transmission, at the respective addresses or transmission numbers set forth below and shall be effective

VOTING AND NON-SOLICITATION AGREEMENT

This VOTING AND NON-SOLICITATION AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is made and entered into as of the 24th day of April, 2017, by and among SIERRA BANCORP, a California corporation and registered bank holding company ("Bancorp"), OCB BANCORP, a California corporation and registered bank holding company ("OCB"), and the undersigned executive officer of OCB ("Executive Officer").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, Bancorp and OCB have entered into that certain Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger dated as of April 24, 2017 (the "Merger Agreement"), pursuant to which OCB will merge with and into Bancorp, with Bancorp surviving the merger (the "Merger"), and OJAI COMMUNITY BANK, a California state-chartered bank and wholly-owned subsidiary of OCB ("Target Bank"), thereafter merging with and into Bank of the Sierra, a California state-chartered bank and wholly-owned subsidiary of Bancorp ("BOS"), with BOS surviving such secondary merger. Terms with their initial letter capitalized and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings given them in the Merger Agreement;

WHEREAS, Executive Officer understands and acknowledges that Executive Officer's execution and delivery of this Agreement is a material inducement to Bancorp and OCB to enter into the Merger Agreement and a condition to the obligation of Bancorp to consummate the transactions contemplated thereby;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and mutual covenants contained herein and intending to be legally bound hereby, Bancorp, OCB and Executive Officer agree as follows:

1. Executive Officer Support. Executive Officer agrees that for a period of one (1) year following the cessation of his or her service as an officer, consultant, or employee of OCB, BOS, or any other affiliate of Bancorp, to use his/her commercially reasonable efforts to support and refrain from (a) disparaging the goodwill of Bancorp and its subsidiaries (“Bancorp Subsidiaries”) and OCB, (b) harming their respective customer and client relationships, and (c) disparaging the business or banking reputation of Bancorp or Bancorp Subsidiaries.

2. Executive Officer Covenants.

(a) Executive Officer agrees that Executive Officer shall not:

prior to the Effective Time, recruit, hire, assist others in recruiting or hiring, discuss employment with, or refer (i) others concerning employment, any person who is, or within the preceding six (6) months was, an employee of OCB;

A-92

[Name of Executive]

until the first anniversary of the cessation of the service of Executive Officer as an officer, director, consultant or (ii) employee of OCB, BOS or any other affiliate of Bancorp, solicit the banking business of any current customers of OCB or customers who are customers at the Effective Time; and

until the first anniversary of the cessation of the service of Executive Officer as an officer, director, consultant or employee of OCB, BOS or any other affiliate of Bancorp, recruit, hire, assist others in recruiting or hiring, any person who is an employee of Bancorp or any Bancorp Subsidiary at the date of the recruitment or hire or who (iii) was an employee of OCB within the preceding twelve (12) months immediately preceding the date of the recruitment or hire; provided, however, that this prohibition shall not apply to general recruitment, solicitations and/or hires through employment agencies or advertisements that are placed in publications of general circulations or trade journals whether on the Internet or otherwise.

(b) Executive Officer agrees that (i) this Agreement is entered into in connection with the conveyance to Bancorp of the goodwill of the business of OCB; (ii) Executive Officer is receiving valuable consideration in this Agreement and in the Merger pursuant to the Merger Agreement; (iii) the restrictions imposed upon Executive Officer by this Agreement are essential and necessary to ensure that Bancorp receives the goodwill of OCB; and (iv) all the restrictions (including particularly the time and geographical limitations) set forth in this Agreement are fair and reasonable.

(c) Executive Officer agrees, following the date hereof until this Agreement terminates, not to take any action that would make any representation or warranty of Executive Officer contained herein untrue or incorrect or have or would reasonably be expected to have the effect of preventing, impeding or interfering with or adversely affecting the performance by Executive Officer of his or her obligations under this Agreement.

(d) Executive Officer agrees to permit Bancorp and/or OCB to publish and disclose in any proxy statement or securities filing, Executive Officer's identity and ownership of shares of OCB's or Bancorp's capital stock and the nature of Executive Officer's commitments, arrangements and understandings under this Agreement.

(e) From time to time, at the request of Bancorp or BOS and without further consideration, Executive Officer shall execute and deliver such additional documents and take all such further action as may be reasonably necessary or desirable to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

[Name of Executive]

3. Release.

(a) Executive Officer acknowledges that he or she is not aware of any existing claim or defense, personal or otherwise, or rights of set off whatsoever against OCB, except as expressly provided herein. For and in consideration of the consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, Executive Officer, for himself/herself and on behalf of his or her heirs and assigns (the "Executive Officer Releasing Parties"), releases, acquits and forever discharges OCB and its predecessors, successors, assigns, officers, directors, employees, agents and servants, and all persons, natural or corporate, in privity with them or any of them, from any and all known claims or causes of action of any kind whatsoever, at common law, statutory or otherwise, which the Executive Officer Releasing Parties, or any of them, has, now existing or that may hereafter arise in respect of any and all agreements and obligations incurred on or prior to the date hereof, or in respect of any event occurring or circumstances existing on or prior to the date hereof; provided, however, that OCB shall not be released from any written contractual obligations or accrued benefits of OCB to Executive Officer as set forth on Schedule 1 attached hereto or any potential claim for indemnification under OCB's articles of association or bylaws (in each case as in existence on the date hereof) for any matters arising in connection with the Executive Officer's service as an officer or employee of OCB relating to acts, circumstances, actions or omissions arising on or prior to the date hereof to the extent such claims have not been asserted or are not known to Executive Officer.

(b) It is expressly understood and agreed that the terms hereof are contractual and not merely recitals, and that the agreements herein contained and the consideration herein transferred is to compromise doubtful and disputed claims, and that no releases made or other consideration given hereby or in connection herewith shall be construed as an admission of liability, all liability being expressly denied by OCB. Executive Officer hereby represents and warrants that the consideration hereby acknowledged for entering into this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby is greater than the value of all claims, demands, actions and causes of action herein relinquished, released, renounced, abandoned, acquitted, waived and/or discharged, and that this Agreement is in full settlement, satisfaction and discharge of any and all such claims, demands, actions, and causes of action that Executive Officer may have or be entitled to against OCB and its predecessors, assigns, legal representatives, officers, directors, employees, attorneys and agents other than obligations or liabilities to Executive Officer in connection with any written contractual obligations or accrued benefits of OCB to Executive Officer as set forth on Schedule 1 attached hereto.

4. Termination. Subject to the second sentence of Section 5, this Agreement shall terminate following the end of the non-solicitation period described in Section 2(a) above, except for liabilities or claims that shall have arisen or accrued on or before such termination.

5. Effective Time. This Agreement shall become effective on the date of execution of this Agreement. If the Merger Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms, then this Agreement shall become null and void as of the date of the termination of the Merger Agreement and shall be of no further force and effect.

[Name of Executive]

6. Specific Performance/Injunctive Relief. Executive Officer acknowledges that performance of the terms of this Agreement constitute valuable, special and unique property of Bancorp critical to the business of Bancorp and that any breach of this Agreement by Executive Officer will give rise to irreparable injury that is not compensable with money damages. Accordingly, Executive Officer agrees that Bancorp shall be entitled to obtain specific performance and/or injunctive relief against the breach or threatened breach of this Agreement by Executive Officer. Bancorp and Executive Officer hereby acknowledge and agree that Bancorp and OCB will be irreparably damaged if the provisions of this Agreement are not specifically enforced. Executive Officer further agrees to waive any requirement for the securing or posting of any bond or other security or the proof of actual damages in connection with such remedies. Such remedies shall not be exclusive and shall be in addition to any other remedy that Bancorp may have at law or in equity.

7. Extension of Term of Restrictive Covenant. If Executive Officer violates any restrictive covenant contained in Section 2, and if any action to specifically enforce or enjoin the violation of a restrictive covenant contained in Section 2 is pending in a court of competent jurisdiction, then the term of such restrictive covenant will be extended by adding to it the number of days that Executive Officer's violation continues and the number of days during which such court action is pending only if and when the court grants specific performance or injunctive relief to the party seeking such relief; provided, however, that the maximum aggregate number of days which may be added to the term of the restrictive covenant as a result of the foregoing is 365 days. If there are both a violation and a pending court action, then the number of days that each continues will be added to the term of such restrictive covenants, but days on which both continue will be counted only once.

8. Voting Agreement. From the date hereof until the earlier of (i) the Effective Time and (ii) the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms (the "Support Period"), Executive Officer agrees that at any shareholder meeting of OCB to approve the Merger or any related transaction, or any adjournment or postponement thereof, the Executive Officer shall be present (in person or by proxy) and shall vote (or cause to be voted) all of his or her voting shares of capital stock of OCB entitled to vote at such meeting, including all voting shares listed on Attachment A, and all shares of OCB Common Stock and OCB Preferred Stock subsequently acquired by Executive Officer, including through the exercise of any stock option or warrant (together, "Owned Shares"): (a) in favor of approval of (1) the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, (2) any other matter that is required to facilitate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and (3) any proposal to adjourn or postpone such meeting to a later date if there are not sufficient votes to approve the Merger Agreement; and (b) against any action or agreement that would impair the ability of Bancorp to complete the Merger, the ability of OCB to complete the Merger, or that would otherwise be inconsistent with, prevent, impede or delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. Re: Options to Purchase Stock

Ladies/Gentlemen:

Reference is hereby made to that certain Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger ("Merger Agreement") dated April 24, 2017, by and between Sierra Bancorp ("Sierra") and OCB Bancorp ("Company") pursuant to which the Company will be merged with and into Sierra ("Merger") and the separate corporate existence of the Company shall cease. Capitalized terms used herein but not defined shall have their respective meanings set forth in the Merger Agreement.

I previously have been granted options to acquire shares of Company Common Stock, pursuant to one or more stock option agreements (the "Option Agreements") between Company and me, each and every one of which are listed on the attachment to this letter. With respect to the number of shares of Company Common Stock for which I have unexercised options under the Option Agreements to purchase such shares, which number of shares is set forth below my signature (the "Covered Options"), I acknowledge and agree that immediately prior to consummation of the Merger described above (the "Effective Time"), my Covered Options shall be terminated with no further action necessary on my part.

In consideration therefor, I shall receive, in lieu of the Covered Options and each share of Company Common Stock that otherwise would have been issuable upon exercise of the Covered Options, an amount in cash without interest equal to (i)(A) the Per Share Merger Consideration multiplied by (B) the Parent Closing Price minus (ii) the exercise price per share with respect to the Covered Option in question (such amount, the "Option Termination Consideration"). If the Option Termination Consideration determined for any Covered Option is less than zero, such Covered Option shall be cancelled without payment of any Option Termination Consideration. I acknowledge that the Option Termination Consideration to be received by me pursuant to this letter agreement, and the agreement of Sierra and Coast to complete the Merger, are adequate consideration for my agreement to the terms and conditions of this letter agreement, including, without limitation, the cancelation of the Option Agreements and the Covered Options and the release set forth below.

I hereby agree not to exercise any of my Covered Options before the Effective Time. I further agree (a) to accept the Option Termination Consideration for all of my Covered Options in full satisfaction of all my rights under the Covered Options, and (b) that, without limitation, subject to receipt of the Option Termination Consideration for the Covered Options, such Covered Options and the Option Agreements will be cancelled and will terminate at the Effective Time.

I acknowledge that receipt of the Option Termination Consideration is subject to the satisfaction or fulfillment or waiver of the conditions of closing contained in the Merger Agreement, and that the Company may collect in cash (and timely pay) all applicable withholding and payroll taxes with respect to such options and shall comply with all payroll reporting requirements with respect thereto.

Upon receipt of any Option Termination Consideration or the cancellation of my Covered Options, I hereby release Company, Sierra and their respective subsidiaries, boards of directors, agents, attorneys, stockholders, successors and assigns from any and all obligations to me relating to the Covered Options and the Option Agreements. With respect to this release, I expressly waive and relinquish all rights and benefits afforded me by Section 1542 of the Civil Code of California and do so understanding and acknowledging the significance and consequence of such specific waiver of Section 1542. Section 1542 of the Civil Code of California states as follows:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

Thus, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1542, I expressly acknowledge that this release is intended to include in its effect, without limitation, all claims relating to the Covered Options and the Option Agreements that I do not now know or suspect to exist, and that this letter contemplates the extinguishment of any such claim or claims. I further agree to take such additional actions and deliver such additional documents and certificates as may be reasonably requested by Company and/or Sierra to effect the transactions described in this Agreement.

In the event the Merger Agreement is terminated by Company or Sierra in accordance with its terms, this letter agreement shall automatically terminate and none of the parties hereto shall have any further liability or obligation to the other(s) with respect to the subject matter hereof in connection with the Covered Options.

Very truly yours,

Re: Option to Convert a Portion of Subordinated Debt into Stock

Ladies/Gentlemen:

Reference is hereby made to that certain Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger ("Merger Agreement") dated April 24, 2017, by and between Sierra Bancorp ("Sierra") and OCB Bancorp ("Company") pursuant to which the Company will be merged with and into Sierra ("Merger") and the separate corporate existence of the Company shall cease. Capitalized terms used herein but not defined shall have their respective meanings set forth in the Merger Agreement.

I previously have been granted the option to convert a portion of the outstanding principal amount I have lent to Company into shares of Company Common Stock, pursuant to the Subordinated Note Purchase Agreement, dated _____ (the "Subordinated Note Purchase Agreement"), between Company and me. With respect to the number of shares of Company Common Stock for which I have an unexercised option under the Subordinated Note Purchase Agreement to purchase such shares, which number of shares is set forth below my signature (the "Covered Option"), I acknowledge and agree that immediately prior to consummation of the Merger described above (the "Effective Time"), my Covered Option shall be terminated with no further action necessary on my part.

In consideration therefor, I shall receive, in lieu of the Covered Option and each share of Company Common Stock that otherwise would have been issuable upon exercise of the Covered Option, an amount in cash without interest equal to (i)(A) the Per Share Merger Consideration multiplied by (B) the Parent Closing Price minus (ii) the book value per share of Company Common Stock, as determined in accordance with Section 5.21(a) of the Merger Agreement (such amount, the "Option Termination Consideration"); provided that I shall have executed and delivered this Subordinated Note Holder Agreement to Company no later than twenty (20) days prior to the date on which the Company Shareholder Meeting (as defined in the Merger Agreement) is scheduled to take place. If the Option Termination Consideration determined for the Covered Option is less than zero, the Covered Option shall be cancelled without payment of any Option Termination Consideration. I acknowledge that the Option Termination Consideration to be received by me pursuant to this letter agreement, and the agreement of Sierra and Company to complete the Merger, are adequate consideration for my agreement to the terms and conditions of this letter agreement, including, without limitation, the cancelation of the Covered Option and the release set forth below.

I hereby agree not to exercise my Covered Option before the Effective Time. I further agree (a) to accept the Option Termination Consideration for my Covered Option in full satisfaction of all my rights under the Covered Option, and (b) that, without limitation, subject to receipt of the Option Termination Consideration for the Covered Option, such Covered Option will be cancelled and will terminate at the Effective Time.

I acknowledge that receipt of the Option Termination Consideration is subject to the satisfaction or fulfillment or waiver of the conditions of closing contained in the Merger Agreement.

Upon receipt of any Option Termination Consideration or the cancellation of my Covered Option, I hereby release Company, Sierra and their respective subsidiaries, boards of directors, agents, attorneys, stockholders, successors and assigns from any and all obligations to me relating to the Covered Option. With respect to this release, I expressly waive and relinquish all rights and benefits afforded me by Section 1542 of the Civil Code of California and do so understanding and acknowledging the significance and consequence of such specific waiver of Section 1542. Section 1542 of the Civil Code of California states as follows:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

Thus, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1542, I expressly acknowledge that this release is intended to include in its effect, without limitation, all claims relating to the Covered Option that I do not now know or suspect to exist, and that this letter contemplates the extinguishment of any such claim or claims. I further agree to take such additional actions and deliver such additional documents and certificates as may be reasonably requested by Company and/or Sierra to effect the transactions described in this Agreement.

In the event the Merger Agreement is terminated by Company or Sierra in accordance with its terms, this letter agreement shall automatically terminate and none of the parties hereto shall have any further liability or obligation to the other(s) with respect to the subject matter hereof in connection with the Covered Option.

Very truly yours,

Selected sections of Chapter 13 of the California Corporation Code

(Dissenters' Rights)

B-1

Chapter 13 of the California Corporations Code

1300. Right to Require Purchase—“Dissenting Shares” and “Dissenting Shareholders” Defined.

(a) If the approval of the outstanding shares (Section 152) of a corporation is required for a reorganization under subdivisions (a) and (b) or subdivision (e) or (f) of Section 1201, each shareholder of the corporation entitled to vote on the transaction and each shareholder of a subsidiary corporation in a short-form merger may, by complying with this chapter, require the corporation in which the shareholder holds shares to purchase for cash at their fair market value the shares owned by the shareholder which are dissenting shares as defined in subdivision (b). The fair market value shall be determined as of the day of, and immediately prior to, the first announcement of the terms of the proposed reorganization or short-form merger, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in consequence of the proposed reorganization or short-form merger, as adjusted for any stock split, reverse stock split, or share dividend that becomes effective thereafter.

(b) As used in this chapter, “dissenting shares” means shares to which all of the following apply:

(1) That were not, immediately prior to the reorganization or short-form merger, listed on any national securities exchange certified by the Commissioner of Corporations under subdivision (o) of Section 25100, and the notice of meeting of shareholders to act upon the reorganization summarizes this section and Sections 1301, 1302, 1303 and 1304; provided, however, that this provision does not apply to any shares with respect to which there exists any restriction on transfer imposed by the corporation or by any law or regulation; and provided, further, that this provision does not apply to any shares where the holder of those shares is required, by the terms of the reorganization or short-form merger, to accept for the shares anything except: (A) shares of any other corporation, which shares, at the time the reorganization or short-form merger is effective, are listed on any national securities exchange certified by the Commissioner of Corporations under subdivision (o) of Section 25100; (B) cash in lieu of fractional shares described in the foregoing subparagraph (A); or (C) any combination of the shares and cash in lieu of fractional shares described in the foregoing subparagraphs (A) and (B).

(2) That were outstanding on the date for the determination of shareholders entitled to vote on the reorganization and (A) were not voted in favor of the reorganization or, (B) if described in paragraph (1), were voted against the reorganization, or were held of record on the effective date of a short-form merger; provided, however, that subparagraph (A) rather than subparagraph (B) of this paragraph applies in any case where the approval required by Section 1201 is sought by written consent rather than at a meeting.

(3) That the dissenting shareholder has demanded that the corporation purchase at their fair market value, in accordance with Section 1301.

(4) That the dissenting shareholder has submitted for endorsement, in accordance with Section 1302.

(c) As used in this chapter, “dissenting shareholder” means the recordholder of dissenting shares and includes a transferee of record.

1301. Demand for Purchase.

(a) If, in the case of a reorganization, any shareholders of a corporation have a right under Section 1300, subject to compliance with paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (b) thereof, to require the corporation to purchase their shares for cash, that corporation shall mail to each of those shareholders a notice of the approval of the reorganization by its outstanding shares (Section 152) within 10 days after the date of that approval, accompanied by a copy of Sections 1300, 1302, 1303, and 1304 and this section, a statement of the price determined by the corporation to represent the fair market value of the dissenting shares, and a brief description of the procedure to be followed if the shareholder desires to exercise the shareholder’s right under those sections. The statement of price constitutes an offer by the corporation to purchase at the price stated any dissenting shares as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1300, unless they lose their status as dissenting shares under Section 1309.

(b) Any shareholder who has a right to require the corporation to purchase the shareholder's shares for cash under Section 1300, subject to compliance with paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (b) thereof, and who desires the corporation to purchase shares shall make written demand upon the corporation for the purchase of those shares and payment to the shareholder in cash of their fair market value. The demand is not effective for any purpose unless it is received by the corporation or any transfer agent thereof (1) in the case of shares described in subdivision (b) of Section 1300, not later than the date of the shareholders' meeting to vote upon the reorganization, or (2) in any other case, within 30 days after the date on which the notice of the approval by the outstanding shares pursuant to subdivision (a) or the notice pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder.

(c) The demand shall state the number and class of the shares held of record by the shareholder which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase and shall contain a statement of what the shareholder claims to be the fair market value of those shares as determined pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1300. The statement of fair market value constitutes an offer by the shareholder to sell the shares at that price.

1302. Endorsement of Shares.

Within 30 days after the date on which notice of the approval by the outstanding shares or the notice pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder, the shareholder shall submit to the corporation at its principal office or at the office of any transfer agent thereof, (a) if the shares are certificated securities, the shareholder's certificates representing any shares which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase, to be stamped or endorsed with a statement that the shares are dissenting shares or to be exchanged for certificates of appropriate denomination so stamped or endorsed or (b) if the shares are uncertificated securities, written notice of the number of shares which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase. Upon subsequent transfers of the dissenting shares on the books of the corporation, the new certificates, initial transaction statement, and other written statements issued therefor shall bear a like statement, together with the name of the original dissenting holder of the shares.

§ 1303. Payment of agreed price with interest; agreement fixing fair market value; filing; time of payment

(a) If the corporation and the shareholder agree that the shares are dissenting shares and agree upon the price of the shares, the dissenting shareholder is entitled to the agreed price with interest thereon at the legal rate on judgments from the date of the agreement. Any agreements fixing the fair market value of any dissenting shares as between the corporation and the holders thereof shall be filed with the secretary of the corporation.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Section 1306, payment of the fair market value of dissenting shares shall be made within 30 days after the amount thereof has been agreed or within 30 days after any statutory or contractual conditions to the reorganization are satisfied, whichever is later, and in the case of certificated securities, subject to surrender of the certificates therefor, unless provided otherwise by agreement.

1304. Dissenter's Action to Enforce Payment

(a) If the corporation denies that the shares are dissenting shares, or the corporation and the shareholder fail to agree upon the fair market value of the shares, then the shareholder demanding purchase of such shares as dissenting shares or any interested corporation, within six months after the date on which notice of the approval by the outstanding shares (Section 152) or notice pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder, but not thereafter, may file a complaint in the superior court of the proper county praying the court to determine whether the shares are dissenting shares or the fair market value of the dissenting shares or both or may intervene in any action pending on such a complaint.

(b) Two or more dissenting shareholders may join as plaintiffs or be joined as defendants in any such action and two or more such actions may be consolidated.

(c) On the trial of the action, the court shall determine the issues. If the status of the shares as dissenting shares is in issue, the court shall first determine that issue. If the fair market value of the dissenting shares is in issue, the court shall determine, or shall appoint one or more impartial appraisers to determine, the fair market value of the shares.

Ojai, CA 93023

Dear Members of the Board:

You have requested our opinion as investment bankers as to the fairness, from a financial perspective, to the common shareholders (the "Shareholders") of OCB Bancorp Ojai, California (the "Company" or "OJCB") of the proposed consideration to be received by the Company's Shareholders in the proposed merger of the Company with and into Sierra Bancorp ("BSRR" or "Parent") (the "Transaction").

Pursuant to the Agreement, each share of OJCB common stock that is issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into the right to receive $14.00 per share in BSRR common stock, subject to adjustment, based on the 20 trading day volume weighted average closing price five days prior to close (the "Parent Closing Price"), subject to the Parent Closing Price being between $25.22 (the "Lower Collar Price") and $30.82 (the "Upper Collar Price") or an exchange ratio between 0.55511 and 0.45425. Further, if the Parent Closing Price is between $25.22 and $21.02 (the "Company Termination Price") the exchange ratio is fixed at 0.55511 and if the Parent Closing Price is between $30.82 and $35.03 (the "Parent Termination Price") the exchange ratio is fixed at 0.45425. If the Parent Closing Price is above the Parent Termination Price, BSRR can terminate the Transaction, however the Company can elect to accept nominal consideration equal to $15.91 in BSRR common stock; if the Parent Closing Price is below the Company Termination Price, the Company can terminate, however, BSRR can elect to pay total nominal consideration equal to $11.67, as further defined in the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger by and between BSRR and the Company (the "Agreement")("the Per Share Merger Consideration"). In addition, under the terms of the Agreement, unexercised options to purchase OJCB common stock will be exchanged for a cash payment equal to the Per Share Merger Consideration minus the exercise price for the option. Alternatively, option holders have the right to exercise their options prior to close. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Agreement. The terms of the Transaction are set forth more fully in the
