Edgar Filing: CALLAWAY GOLF CO /CA - Form 8-K

On September 29, 2005, following a comprehensive review of the Company's operations, the Company announced the implementation of several company-wide initiatives that were designed to improve the Company's business processes and reduce costs. Also on September 29, 2005, as part of these initiatives, the Company committed to staff reductions under a plan of termination. The staff reductions will involve the elimination of approximately 500 positions worldwide, including full-time and part-time employees, temporary staffing and open positions. The Company expects that most of the employment terminations under the plan will be completed by December 31, 2005 and that all terminations under the plan will be completed by December 31, 2006.

Employees terminated under the plan of termination will receive termination benefits for a specified period. As a result of the Company's provision of termination benefits, the Company expects to incur charges in the aggregate amount of approximately $11 million, most of which will be recognized during the third and fourth quarters of 2005. The full amount of the $11 million charge for termination benefits is expected to result in future cash expenditures.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.*

On September 29, 2005, Callaway Golf Company issued a press release captioned "Callaway Golf Company Announces Value Enhancement Initiatives; Anticipates Improved Third Quarter Results," announcing, among other things, the Company's implementation of company-wide initiatives to improve business processes and reduce overall expenses and providing an estimate of third quarter financial results. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by this reference.

The Company also announced in its press release that the Company expects to incur charges of approximately $12 million in connection with these company-wide initiatives. This amount includes the $11 million of charges for the termination benefits described in Item 2.05 above.
