ITEM 8.01. OTHER EVENTS

On November 22, 2006, the United States Department of Justice (the "DOJ") filed a Notice with the United States District Court for the District of Columbia (the "District Court") in the matter captioned Michigan Gambling Opposition v. the United States Department of the Interior (the "Gun Lake Litigation") stating that in light of the hearing on, among other things, the parties' cross-motions for summary judgment scheduled for November 29, 2006, the Department of the Interior does not intend to take the land at issue into trust prior to March 5, 2007. Previously, on October 27, 2006, the DOJ had filed a Notice with the District Court in the Gun Lake Litigation stating that the Department of the Interior planned to take the land at issue into trust on January 5, 2007 if the plaintiffs did not seek injunctive relief or failed to persuade the District Court to issue any relief precluding the Department of the Interior from doing so. No assurances can be provided as to the outcome of this litigation. The timing and feasibility of the project are dependent upon the receipt of the necessary governmental and regulatory approvals. We plan to continue contributing significant financial support to this project, even though there can be no assurances when or if the necessary approvals will be obtained.

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, the Registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned hereunto duly authorized.
