

Item 5.02. Election of Directors; Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Election of Cristiana Falcone Sorrell as a Director. On December 12, 2013, the Board of Directors of Revlon, Inc. (“Revlon” or together with its subsidiaries, the “Company”) elected Ms. Cristiana Falcone Sorrell as a Director of Revlon, effective as of the Board’s next regular meeting, which is expected to be held during the first week of March 2014. With the election of Ms. Falcone Sorrell, Revlon’s Board of Directors will be comprised of fourteen members, nine of whom constitute independent Directors under NYSE and SEC standards.

Ms. Falcone Sorrell is currently Senior Adviser to the Chairman at the World Economic Forum, an independent international organization committed to improving the state of the world by engaging business, political, academic and other leaders of society to shape global, regional and industry agendas. In addition, she serves as Principal Consultant, Office of Outreach and Partnership for the Inter-American Development Bank, the leading source of development financing for Latin America and the Caribbean. Prior to joining the World Economic Forum in 2004, Ms. Falcone Sorrell held positions at the International Labor Organization and Shell.

Ms. Falcone Sorrell is a member of Viacom Inc.’s Board of Directors and its Audit Committee; a member of the Italian National Press Guild; a board member of Internews, a media development not-for-profit organization; and a member of the advisory board of RyTV, an Internet broadcasting platform. She is also a member of the board of advisers for Tufts University’s Friedman School of Nutrition Science and Policy.

Ms. Falcone Sorrell is not a party to any arrangement or understanding that would require disclosure under Item 5.02 of the Current Report on Form 8-K, nor any of the transactions listed in Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.
