PART III -- NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As disclosed in the Current Report on Form 8-K filed by the Registrant on November 3, 2005, the Registrant's Audit Committee, on management's recommendation, concluded that the Registrant's financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2003 and December 31, 2004 and the quarters ended March 31, 2005 and June 30, 2005 should no longer be relied upon and should be restated. In connection with the restatement, an independent investigation was undertaken at the direction of the Registrant's Audit Committee. The Registrant announced the completion of this independent investigation in its Current Report on Form 8-K filed on March 6, 2006.

Since that time, the Registrant's management has worked diligently to finalize the restatement and subsequently, on July 24, 2006, the Registrant filed its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended September 30, 2005 and its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, which reports included the restated financial statements. Since the filing of the reports for the 2005 periods, the Registrant's management has turned its attention towards, and has worked diligently to finalize, its financial statements for the quarters ended March 31, 2006, June 30, 2006, and September 30, 2006, together with the implementation of appropriate additional internal controls over financial reporting. Due to the time and effort involved, however, the Registrant has not been able to finalize its financial statements without unreasonable effort or expense, and is not able to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended September 30, 2006 within the prescribed time period. The Company now expects to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended September 30, 2006 in December 2006.

Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed ? If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes [ ] No [X]

The Registrant has not filed its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2006 and June 30, 2006, but expects to file such reports on or before November 30, 2005.

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes [X] No [ ]

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Registrant anticipates that its results of operations for the three months ended September 30, 2006 will reflect a net loss, but that this net loss will be less than the loss for the three months ended September 30, 2005. However, for the nine month period ended September 30, 2006, the Registrant expects a net loss that is greater than the net loss from operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2005. The Registrant is unable to estimate the amount of these net losses because it is still finalizing its financial statements for these periods.
