(c) On February 26, 2014, Bed Bath & Beyond Inc. (the “Company”) issued a press release announcing the promotion of Eugene A. Castagna to the position of Chief Operating Officer, and Susan E. Lattmann to the positions of Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer and Principal Financial and Accounting Officer. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference into this Item 5.02.

In connection with the promotions, Mr. Castagna and Ms. Lattmann each received a grant of restricted stock under the Company’s 2012 Incentive Compensation Plan, 3,683 shares and 1,473 shares respectively, scheduled to vest in five equal annual installments beginning one year from the date of grant, subject, in general, to each individual remaining in the Company’s employ or service on the specified vesting dates.

(e) On February 26, 2014, the Company agreed with each of Warren Eisenberg, Co-Chairman of the Company and Leonard Feinstein, Co-Chairman of the Company (each, an “Executive”), to amend their respective employment agreements to make certain changes, including the following:

Extension of Term. The term of the employment agreements has been extended for a three-year period until February 25, 2017.

Elimination of Modified Single Trigger and Adoption of Double Trigger. The ability of the Executives to terminate employment following a change in control and receive change in control severance payments and benefits has been eliminated. The Executives may receive such payments and benefits in the event of the Executives’ termination of employment without cause or constructive termination without cause, in each case, upon or within the two year period following a change in control. Certain changes were made to the employment agreements in connection with this change, including that portions of the definition of “constructive termination without cause” were modified to apply during the senior status period, as defined in the employment agreements.

The foregoing summary of the amendments to the employment agreements does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the amendments, which are attached as Exhibit 10.1 and 10.2 incorporated herein by reference.
