In order to maintain listing of our Common Stock on AMEX, we must submit a plan by December 6, 2006, advising AMEX of the Company's plan to achieve compliance with the continued listing standards referenced in the AMEX letter of November 6, 2006. The plan must provide for the Company to be back in compliance within an 18 month period.

The Listings Qualifications Department of AMEX will evaluate our plan and determine whether we have made a reasonable demonstration in the plan of an ability to regain compliance with the continued listing standards within 18 months. If AMEX accepts our plan, we may be able to continue our listing during the plan period, during which time we will be subject to periodic review to determine if we are making progress consistent with the consistent with the plan. If AMEX does not accept our plan, we do not submit a plan, we fail to make progress consistent with our plan, or if we are not in compliance by the end of the 18 month period, AMEX may initiate delisting proceedings with respect to our Common Stock. We may appeal any AMEX staff determination to initiate delisting proceedings with respect to our Common Stock.

We presently intend to submit such a plan for AMEX to review by December 6, 2006. Our Common Stock continues to trade on AMEX; however, our trading symbol will remain the same but will have an indicator .BC added as an extension to signify our noncompliance with the continued listing standards. Within five days of the November 6, 2006 letter from AMEX, the Company will be included in a list on the AMEX website of issuers that do not comply with the listing standards.
