On March 11, 2004, Spectrum Sciences & Software Holdings Corp., a Delaware corporation (the "Registrant"), announced that the award of the new contract for the Operations and Maintenance (O&M) of the Gila Bend Auxiliary Airfield (GBAFAF) and the Barry M. Goldwater Range (BMGR), scheduled to start May 1, 2004, has been delayed. In order to prevent a potential loss of services, the Government has given preliminary notice of its intention to extend the subject contract for up to 6 additional months. In December 2002, the board of directors of the Registrant's subsidiary, Spectrum Sciences and Software, Inc. (the "Subsidiary") was authorized to charge corporate expenses of up to approximately $100,000 per month on the personal American Express account of Robert Genovese ("Genovese"), a principal debt holder of the Registrant, and further, that the Subsidiary would be responsible to Genovese for other expenses incurred by him in connection with management assistance. As of February 27, 2004, the Subsidiary was indebted to Genovese in the amount of $652,653.47 for these expenses. It is understood by both the Subsidiary and Genovese that this debt is due on demand. On March 8, 2004, Genovese submitted an additional $1,601,850 of invoices to the Registrant relating to the Registrant's business. These expenses are being reviewed in substance by the Registrant's chief financial officer. If they are deemed corporate expenses, such will be due to Genovese on demand.

In March 2003, the Subsidiary entered into a one year consulting agreement with Endeavor Capital Group LLC ("Endeavor"), in which the Subsidiary agreed to pay Endeavor $4,000 per month for certain consulting services. As of February 27, 2004, $48,000 was owed to Endeavor for these consulting services. It is understood by both the Subsidiary and Endeavor that this debt is due on demand. Additionally, as of February 27, 2004, Endeavor is owed $161,858.03 under a note issued by the Registrant.

In July 2003, the Subsidiary entered into a debt purchase and consolidation agreement pursuant to which the Subsidiary issued a promissory note to BG Capital Group Ltd. ("BGCap") in the amount of $450,000. This note is currently in default. As of February 27, 2004, Registrant owes BGCap a total of $471,090.71 in principal and interest.

The board of directors has agreed to collateralize the debts owed to Genovese, Endeavor and BGCap with the assets of the Registrant, junior only to those security interests set forth in the Extension and Modification of Loans Agreement by and among Southtrust Bank, Donal R. Myrick, the Subsidiary and the Registrant. To date, no formal security agreements have been entered into by either BGCap, Endeavor or Genovese and the Registrant or the Subsidiary.

The Registrant does not have sufficient capital to pay its debt holders in the event demands are made.

As of March 11, 2004, the board of directors approved and adopted a 2004 Non-Statutory Stock Option Plan (the "Plan") and authorized the Registrant's executive officers to prepare and file a registration statement on a Form S-8 for 10,000,000 common stock shares underlying the options. On March 11, 2004, the Registrant entered into a consulting agreement with Genovese, pursuant to which Genovese will be issued options to acquire 9,000,000 shares of the Registrant's common stock at an exercise price equal to the lesser of $1.65 or the fair market value at the time of exercise. These shares will be issued pursuant to the Plan. The Registrant has engaged Genovese to: (a) bring to the Registrant's attention potential or actual opportunities which meet its business objectives or logical extensions thereof; (b) alert the Registrant to new or emerging high potential forms of production and distribution which could either be acquired or developed internally; (c) comment on the Registrant's corporate development including such factors as position in competitive environment, financial performances vs. competition, strategies, operational viability, etc.; (d) identify respective suitable merger or acquisition candidates for the Registrant, perform appropriate diligence investigations with respect thereto, advise the Registrant with respect to the desirability of pursuing such candidates, and assist the Registrant in any negotiations which may ensue therefrom; and (e) other such planning and development services, all as requested and instructed by the Registrant. Payment for such options shall be made by Genovese either by cash or conversion of outstanding debt held by Genovese, Endeavor or BGCap, or a combination thereof. The exercise rights of Genovese is limited such that, unless Genovese gives written notice 75 days in advance to the Registrant of his intention to exceed the Limitation on Conversion as defined below, with respect to all or a specified amount of the option and the corresponding number of the underlying shares, in no instance is Genovese (singularly, together with any Persons who in the determination of Genovese, together with Genovese, constitute a group as defined in Rule 13d-5 of the Exchange Act) be entitled to exercise the option to the extent such exercise would result in Genovese beneficially owning more than five percent (5%) of the outstanding shares of common stock of the Registrant (the "Limitation on Conversion").
