Safe Harbor Statement

Certain statements in this press release are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements include statements regarding Check Point's preliminary results for the third quarter ended September 30, 2005 and Check Point's beliefs regarding the benefits of the proposed acquisition of Sourcefire. Because such statements deal with future events, they are subject to various risks and uncertainties and actual results could differ materially from Check Point's current expectations. Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to: the risk that Check Point's actual results may be different from the preliminary results as a result of final determination of revenues, operating expenses and charges, and as a result of the quarterly review by the Company's independent public accountants; the parties' ability to consummate the transaction; the conditions to the completion of the transaction may not be satisfied, or the regulatory approvals required for the transaction may not be obtained on the terms expected or on the anticipated schedule; unanticipated expenses associated with the merger; the possibility that the parties may be unable to achieve all of the benefits of the merger within the expected time-frames or at all and to successfully integrate Sourcefire's operations and technology into those of Check Point; operating costs, customer loss and business disruption (including, without limitation, difficulties in maintaining relationships with employees, customers, clients or suppliers) may be greater than expected following the transaction; the retention of certain key employees at Sourcefire; and the other factors described in Check Point's Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2004 which is on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Check Point assumes no obligation to update the information in this communication, except as otherwise required by law. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements that speak only as of the date hereof.
