PROPOSAL NO. 4

PROPOSAL TO APPROVE THE GRANT OF AN ANNUAL PERFORMANCE BONUS
FOR THE YEAR 2012 TO OUR CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, MR. RUSSELL ELLWANGER

Mr. Russell Ellwanger was appointed as our CEO on May 1, 2005. In addition to a base salary and equity based compensation as previously approved by our shareholders, Mr. Ellwanger is also entitled to receive annual performance based compensation based on an annual performance bonus matrix, which was most recently approved by our shareholders in 2011.

For 2012, the Compensation Committee and Board of Directors approved and recommend to the shareholders to approve to pay Mr. Ellwanger a bonus based on the same matrix, which was previously approved by the shareholders in 2011 with respect to Mr. Ellwanger's 2011 bonus payment, , and calculated as follows:

$[0.7*(A)(annual\ base\ salary) + 0.3(B)*(annual\ base\ salary)] * 1.5$, where:

A = Annual Company performance based score ("Corporate MBO score") calculated after the end of the year based on various parameters that the Board of Directors approved in May 2012 for 2012, and which can range from 0 to 1.5.

B = Score to be determined by the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company, which can range from 0.5 to 1.5.

The above is subject to the proviso that the total performance-based bonus will not exceed 225% of Mr. Ellwanger's base salary.

Mr. Ellwanger's 2012 base salary is $600,000. The actual annual Company performance based score calculated for 2012 based on the parameters for calculating Company performance with respect to the Company plan for 2012 which were approved by the Board of Directors in May 2012, was 0.903 (the "A" component). This score results in the non-discretionary portion of the performance bonus for Mr. Ellwanger, based on measureable criteria, totaling $568,890.

The Chairman of the Board of Directors proposed and recommended to award a score of 1.1 for “B” component of Mr. Ellwanger’s performance bonus matrix as set forth above. The Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors have approved the discretionary portion of the annual performance bonus for Mr. Ellwanger in the amount of $297,000, which is based on the “B” component score of 1.1 described above.

Pursuant to a recent amendment to the Companies Law (“Amendment 20”), the terms of office and compensation of the chief executive officer of publicly traded Israeli Companies require the approvals of each of the Compensation Committee of the Company (the “Compensation Committee”), the Board of Directors, and the shareholders of the Company, in such order.

Following the enactment of Amendment 20, the compensation committees of Israeli publicly traded companies must be comprised of at least three members, which include all of the external directors of a company. The external directors must also constitute a majority of the members of the compensation committee, with one of the external directors serving as the chairman of the compensation committee. The chairman of the board of directors, any director employed by or otherwise providing services to the company, and a controlling shareholder or any relative of a controlling shareholder, may not serve as a member of the compensation committee. The Board of Directors appointed Ilan Flato, Alex Kornhauser and Dana Gross to the Compensation Committee, and Ilan Flato acts as the chairperson of the Compensation Committee.

Under Amendment 20, a board of directors of an Israeli publicly traded company, following the advisement of the Compensation Committee, is required to establish a compensation policy, to be approved by the shareholders of the company, and pursuant to which the terms of office and compensation of the company's officer holders will be decided.

Under Section 267B(a) and Parts A and B of Annex 1A of the Companies Law, which were legislated as part of Amendment 20, a company’s compensation policy shall be determined based on, and take into account, the following parameters (hereinafter: “Compensation Parameters”):

- a. advancement of the goals of the Company, its working plan and its long term policy;
- b. the creation of proper incentives for the office holders while taking into consideration, inter alia, the Company’s risk management policies;
- c. the Company’s size and nature of its operations;
- d. the contributions of the relevant office holders in achieving the goals of the Company and profit in the long term in light of their positions;
- e. the education, skills, professional experience, and achievements of the relevant office holders;
- f. the role of the office holders, areas of their responsibilities and previous agreements with them;
- g. the correlation of the proposed compensation with the compensation of other employees of the Company, and the effect of such differences in compensation on the employment relations in the company; and
- h. the long term performance of the office holder.

Until such time that a company adopts a compensation policy, compensation of officers must be approved in accordance with transition rules set forth in Amendment 20 which apply to the approval of officer compensation prior to the adoption and approval of a compensation policy by a company. Our Compensation Committee and Board of Directors are aiming to prepare and approve a compensation policy applicable to all officers of the Company, and to bring such policy for approval of the shareholders by September 2013 as required under Amendment 20. Until such time, management seeks approval for its CEO's compensation in accordance with the transition rules set forth under Amendment 20, as applicable.

In accordance with the transition rules set forth under Amendment 20, the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors reviewed the annual performance bonus matrix for the year 2012 for Mr. Ellwanger as set forth above and the Chairman of the Board's proposal to grant a 1.1 score for the discretionary component for the year 2012 to Mr. Ellwanger, all while taking into account the Compensation Parameters, as set forth above. The Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors are of the view that the activities of Mr. Ellwanger as Chief Executive Officer bring value to the Company and contribute greatly to the Company. In taking into account such Compensation Parameters, the annual performance bonus matrix and the proposed discretionary component to Mr. Ellwanger, the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors each determined that such proposal is reasonable and appropriate, consistent with past practice of the Company with regards to the annual performance bonus matrix for the chief executive officer and the discretionary component of Mr. Ellwanger's annual bonus determined by the Chairman of the Board, and with compensation paid to the chief executive officers of similar companies to ours, and is in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders, in light of Mr. Ellwanger's important role in the Company, his qualifications and experience, and Mr. Ellwanger's paramount contribution to the Company's growth and direction over the previous years. Prior to the date of the Notice of Meeting, Mr. Ellwanger, who previously served as a director of our Company, resigned his service as a member of the board of directors. Our Compensation Committee and Board of Directors intend to reconvene prior to the date of the Meeting in order to ratify Mr. Ellwanger's annual performance bonus for 2012.

The shareholders of the Company will be requested to adopt the following resolution at the Meeting:

“RESOLVED to approve an annual performance bonus for the year 2012 for our chief executive officer in the amount of $865,890 (which includes a discretionary component of $297,000).”

The approval of the above Proposal 4 requires the affirmative vote of shareholders present in person or by proxy and holding Ordinary Shares amounting in the aggregate to at least a majority of the votes actually cast with respect to such proposal. Furthermore, under the Israeli Companies Law, the approval of such proposal requires that either: (i) said majority include at least half of the voting power of the non-controlling and non-interested shareholders who are present in person or by proxy and who vote on such proposal; or (ii) the total votes cast in opposition to the proposal by the non-controlling and non-interested shareholders does not exceed 2% of all the voting power in the Company.

Each shareholder voting at the Meeting or prior thereto by means of the accompanying proxy card is requested to notify us if he, she or it has a Personal Interest in connection with this Proposal 4 as a condition for his or her vote to be counted with respect to this Proposal 4. If any shareholder casting a vote in connection hereto does not notify us if he, she or it has a Personal Interest with respect to this Proposal 4, his, her or its vote with respect to this Proposal 4 will be disqualified. For this purpose, “Personal Interest” is defined as: (1) a shareholder's personal interest in the approval of an act or a transaction of the Company, including (i) the personal interest of his or her relative (which includes for these purposes any members of his/her (or his/her spouse's) immediate family or the spouses of any such members of his or her (or his/her spouse's) immediate family); and (ii) a personal interest of a body corporate in which a shareholder or any of his/her aforementioned relatives serves as a director or the chief executive officer, owns at least 5% of its issued share capital or its voting rights or has the right to appoint a director or chief executive officer, but (2) excluding a personal interest arising solely from the fact of holding shares in the Company or in a body corporate.

According to the Companies Law, Proposal 4 may nonetheless be approved by the Company despite shareholder rejection, provided that the Compensation Committee and thereafter the Board of Directors determined that Proposal 4 is not prejudicial to the welfare of the Company and decided to reapprove Proposal 4, based on detailed reasoning, and after having re-examined the proposal and taken the shareholder rejection into consideration.

The Board of Directors recommends that the shareholders vote "FOR" the approval of an annual performance bonus for the year 2012 for our chief executive officer as set forth above.

The shareholders of the Company will be requested to adopt the following resolution at the Meeting:

"RESOLVED to increase the Company's authorized share capital to 150 million Ordinary Shares, NIS 15.00 per Ordinary Share, and to amend the Company's Articles of Association to reflect such increase."

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of the Company represented at the Meeting in person or by proxy and voting thereon is necessary for approval of the increase in the Company's authorized share capital.

The Board of Directors recommends that the shareholders vote "FOR" the increase of the Company's authorized share capital to 150 million Ordinary Shares.
