Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

On November 21, 2006, we filed a Current Report on Form 8-K with the Securities and Exchange Commission reporting that John W. Gibson and David J. Tippeconnic had been elected to our Board of Directors. On December 21, 2006, we filed a first amendment Current Report on Form 8-K/A to report the assignment of Mr. Gibson and Mr. Tippeconnic to class A of our Board and Mr. Tippeconnic's appointment to our Audit Committee and Executive Compensation Committee. This second amendment to our report on Form 8-K is being filed to report Mr. Gibson's Amended and Restated Termination Agreement.

Effective December 21, 2006, Mr. Gibson entered into an Amended and Restated Termination Agreement which contains substantially the same terms and conditions as his previous termination agreement, but which contains a new provision that our company will make gross up payments to him to cover any excise taxes due if any portion of his severance payments constitutes excess parachute payments.

Under the Amended and Restated Termination Agreement with Mr. Gibson, severance payments and benefits are payable if Mr. Gibson's employment is terminated by our company for "just cause" or by him for "good reason" at any time within three years of a change in control of our company. Severance payments and benefits include a lump sum payment equal to a multiple of Mr. Gibson's annual compensation, which includes annual base salary and the greater of his bonus for the last year preceding a change in control or his target bonus for the year in which the change in control occurs. Mr. Gibson would also be entitled to a prorated portion of his targeted short-term incentive compensation and accelerated vesting of retirement and other benefits, as well as continuation of welfare benefits for a certain number of months.
