BARCLAYS BOARDS AND SENIOR MANAGEMENT APPOINTMENTS

Barclays PLC and Barclays Bank PLC announces today the following changes and appointments to their Boards of Directors. Commenting on the announcement Sir Peter Middleton, Chairman, said:

"We have made good progress in implementing our strategy for the future leadership of the Group outlined last October. I am therefore pleased to announce the next stage in Barclays plans for the Boards and Senior Management."

Group Chairman

Matthew W Barrett will now succeed Sir Peter Middleton as Chairman from 1st September 2004, when Sir Peter will retire from the Boards. Mr Barrett will serve full-time until 31st December 2004 and become part-time from 1st January 2005. Sir Peter will complete a number of engagements before leaving the Group on 31st December.

Group Chief Executive

John Varley, currently Group Deputy Chief Executive will become Group Chief Executive from 1st September 2004, succeeding Mr Barrett.

Deputy Chairman

Edgar Filing: BARCLAYS PLC - Form 6-K

Sir Nigel Rudd, Non-Executive Director and Chairman of the Board Remuneration Committee, will succeed Sir Brian Jenkins as Deputy Chairman from 1st September 2004 when Sir Brian will retire from the Boards. Sir Brian will also retire as a Director of the Trustees of Barclays main UK Pension Funds.

Sir Peter said: "I would like to thank Brian for the excellent support that he has given to me in his role as Deputy Chairman. Brian has fulfilled a wide role in the Group. He joined the Board when Barclays acquired Woolwich plc and has given 10 years of combined service to Woolwich and Barclays."

Senior Independent Director

Sir Richard Broadbent, who joined the Boards as a Non-Executive Director last September, is appointed Senior Independent Director from 1st September. Prior to joining Barclays, Sir Richard was Executive Chairman, HM Customs & Excise. He has also served in the past on the Executive Committee of Schroders PLC and as a Non-Executive Director of the Securities Institute.

Vice-Chairman

Chris Lendrum, currently Executive Director and Vice-Chairman, will retire from the Boards on 31st December 2004, following a career spanning 35 years of service to Barclays. After retirement, he will continue to serve Barclays in a non-executive capacity as Chairman of the Asia-Pacific and Africa Governance and Control Committees and as Chairman of the Trustees of the Group's main UK Pension Funds. In the latter role, he succeeds Mr William J Gordon whose combined service to Barclays has spanned 49 years, including distinguished service as a Director of Barclays PLC and Chief Executive of UK Banking Services.

Sir Peter said:

"I welcome this opportunity to pay tribute to Chris Lendrum who has had a long and successful career at Barclays. He has held a variety of Senior Executive positions including Chief Executive, Corporate Banking and Chair, Barclays Africa. In all of them he has excelled. His broad contribution to the work of the Board and to the governance of the business has been highly valued by his colleagues.

"Also, a very heartfelt 'thank you' to Bill Gordon for his extraordinary life-long commitment and service to Barclays. He will be greatly missed."

Non-Executive Director Appointment

Sir Andrew Likierman will be joining the Boards from 1st September and will serve on the Board Audit Committee where he perform the Financial Expert role as laid down by the Combined Code on Corporate Governance. Sir Andrew brings extensive financial experience and expertise to the Boards. Prior to this appointment he was Managing Director, Financial Management, Reporting and Audit and Head of the Government Accountancy Service at HM Treasury. He is Professor of Management Practice of the London Business School and a Non-Executive Director of the Bank of England.

To conclude, Sir Peter commented:

"To have achieved a smooth and orderly transition at both Board and Senior Management levels is immensely satisfying to me and to my fellow Directors. Our shareholders, customers and employees have the comfort of a strong team in place for the future and the assurance of sustained momentum in the business".
