Share capital

3 Limited voting shares, preference shares and deferred shares

3.1 The limited voting shares shall rank equally in all respects with the ordinary shares, save as otherwise provided in these articles or in the terms of issue of the limited voting shares.

3.1.1 Each limited voting share shall be converted into an ordinary share:

- (i) on the day following the last date on which an amount could become due and payable to a holder of limited voting shares under a deed of covenant; or
- (ii) if an offer is made to ordinary shareholders of the company (or to all such shareholders other than the offeror and/or any body corporate controlled by the offeror and/or any persons acting in concert with the offeror) to acquire the whole or any part of the issued ordinary share capital of the company and the right to cast more than 50 per cent. of the votes which may ordinarily be cast on a poll at a general meeting of the company becomes or is certain to become vested in the offeror and/or such bodies corporate and/or persons aforesaid; in such event the directors shall as soon as reasonably practicable after they become aware that such right has or will become so vested serve a written notice on all holders of limited voting shares stating that such event has occurred. The publication of a scheme of arrangement under the statutes providing for the acquisition by any person of the whole or any part of the ordinary share capital of the company shall be deemed to be the making of an offer for the purposes of this article 3.1.1.

3.1.2 The ordinary shares resulting from conversion shall carry the right to receive all dividends and other distributions declared, made or paid on the ordinary share capital of the company by reference to a record date on or after the date of conversion and shall rank equally in all other respects and form one class with the ordinary share capital of the company then in issue and fully paid.

3.1.3 If while the limited voting shares remain unconverted any offer or invitation (not being an offer or invitation to which the provisions of article 3.1.1 apply) is made or extended to the holders of the ordinary shares to subscribe for or purchase any securities of the company or any other company, the company shall make or extend or, so far as it is able, procure that there is made or extended a like offer or invitation at the same time to each holder of limited voting shares as if such shares had been converted hereunder on the record date for such offer or invitation.

3.1.4 So long as the limited voting shares remain unconverted the following provisions shall apply:

- (i) The company shall not consolidate or subdivide any of the ordinary shares without consolidating or subdividing the limited voting shares in like manner and to a like extent.
- (ii) The company will not create any new class of equity share capital, other than in connection with or pursuant to an employees' share scheme approved by the company in general meeting, provided that the creation of equity share capital which carries as compared with the existing ordinary share capital only restricted voting or no voting rights and no greater rights as regards dividends or capital shall not be deemed to be the creation of a new class of equity share capital. Without prejudice to the right of the company to consolidate or subdivide shares or convert shares into stock or to issue ordinary shares by way of capitalisation of profits or reserves, it will not alter the rights attached to all or any part of its equity share capital or attach any special rights or privileges or restrictions thereto.

(iii) The limited voting shares shall confer upon the holders thereof the right to have sent to them (at the same time as the same are sent to the holders of ordinary shares) a copy of every circular or other document sent out by the company to the holders of ordinary shares.

3.1.5 The directors shall forthwith upon such conversion direct that appropriate entries be made in the register and that written notice of such conversion be sent within 14 days after the date of such conversion to the holders of the limited voting shares.

3.1.6 Forthwith upon receipt by the company from a holder of limited voting shares of a certificate or certificates for such shares held by him on the date of conversion, the company shall deliver to such holder free of charge a new certificate for the ordinary shares to which such holder shall then have become entitled.

3.1.7 If the ordinary shares in issue on the date of conversion are listed on a recognised investment exchange, the company shall forthwith on conversion make application and take such other action as may be required to list the shares so converted on such exchange.

3.2 The preference shares shall confer upon the holders thereof such rights (including rights of redemption in whole or in part) as may be determined by the directors on allotment, but unless the directors shall otherwise determine, fully paid preference shares shall confer identical rights in respect of capital, dividends (save as to the currency of payment thereof and save where and to the extent that any such share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date), voting and otherwise, notwithstanding that they are denominated in different currencies and shall be treated as if they are one single class of shares.

3.3 The deferred shares shall confer upon the holder such rights, and shall be subject to the restrictions, as follows:

3.3.1 notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, a deferred share:

(i) does not entitle its holder to receive any dividend or distribution declared, made or paid or any return of capital (save as provided in article 3.3.1(ii)) and does not entitle its holder to any further or other right of participation in the assets of the company;

(ii) entitles its holder to participate on a return of assets on a winding up of the company, such entitlement to be limited to the repayment of the amount paid up or credited as paid up on such share and shall be paid only after the holders of any and all ordinary shares and limited voting shares then in issue shall have received (a) payment in respect of such amount as is paid up or credited as paid up on those ordinary shares and/or limited voting shares held by them at that time plus (b) the payment in cash or in specie of £10,000,000 on each such ordinary share and/or limited voting share;

(iii) does not entitle its holder to receive a share certificate in respect of his or her shareholding, save as required by law;

(iv) does not entitle its holder to receive notice of, nor attend, speak or vote at, any general meeting of the company; and

(v) shall not be transferable at any time other than with the prior written consent of the directors;

3.3.2 the company shall have the irrevocable authority to authorise and instruct the secretary (or any other person appointed for the purpose by the board) as agent for the holders of deferred shares to surrender the deferred shares to the company for no consideration and to execute on behalf of such holders such documents as are necessary in connection with such surrender without obtaining the sanction of the holder or holders thereof, and pending such surrender to retain the certificates, to the extent issued, for such deferred shares;

- 3.3.3 any request by the company to surrender the deferred shares may be made by the directors depositing at the registered office of the company a notice addressed to such person as the directors shall have nominated on behalf of the holders of the deferred shares;
- 3.3.4 the company shall have the irrevocable authority to appoint a single holder or any other person on behalf of all holders of deferred shares to exercise any vote to which holders of deferred shares may be entitled in any circumstances or for any other matter connected to the deferred shares;
- 3.3.5 the rights attached to the deferred shares shall not be deemed to be varied or abrogated by the creation or issue of any new shares ranking in priority to or pari passu with or subsequent to such shares, any amendment or variation of the rights of any other class of shares of the company, the company reducing its share capital or the surrender, or purchase of any share, whether a deferred share or otherwise; and
- 3.3.6 the company shall have the irrevocable authority to cancel any deferred share without making any payment to the holder and such cancellation shall not be deemed to be a variation or abrogation of the rights attaching to such deferred share.

5 Fractions arising on consolidation or subdivision

- 5.1 Whenever as a result of a consolidation or subdivision of shares any members would become entitled to fractions of a share, the directors may, on behalf of those members, sell the shares representing the fractions for the best price reasonably obtainable to any person (including, subject to the provisions of the act, the company) and distribute the net proceeds of sale in due proportion among those members in the same currency in which the shares were denominated. The directors may authorise some person to transfer the shares to, or in accordance with the directions of, the purchaser. The transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings in reference to the sale.
- 5.2 So far as the statutes allow, the directors may treat shares of a member in certificated form and in uncertificated form as separate holdings in giving effect to subdivisions and/or consolidations and may cause any shares arising on consolidation or subdivision and representing fractional entitlements to be entered in the register as shares in certificated form where this is desirable to facilitate the sale thereof.
- 5.3 Where any member's entitlement to a portion of the proceeds of sale amounts to less than a minimum figure determined by the directors, that member's portion may at the directors' discretion be distributed to an organisation which is a charity for the purposes of the law of England and Wales or Scotland.

7 Reduction of capital

Subject to the provisions of the statutes, the company may by special resolution reduce its share capital or any capital redemption reserve, share premium account or other undistributable reserve in any way.

Shares

8 Shares and special rights

8.1 Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any shares or class of shares for the time being issued, any share in the company may be issued with such preferred, deferred or other special rights (including their being denominated in any currency), or subject to such restrictions, whether as regards dividend, return of capital, voting or otherwise, as the company may from time to time by ordinary resolution determine (or, in the absence of any such determination, as the directors may determine) or as otherwise provided in these articles and, subject to the provisions of the statutes, the company may issue any shares which are, or at the option of the company or the holder are, liable to be redeemed and the directors may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of any such shares.

10 Commissions on issue of shares

The company may exercise the powers of paying commissions conferred by the statutes to the full extent thereby permitted. The company may also on any issue of shares pay such brokerage as may be lawful.

11 Renunciation of allotment

The directors may at any time after the allotment of any share but before any person has been entered in the register as the holder:

- 11.1 recognise a renunciation thereof by the allottee in favour of some other person and accord to any allottee of a share a right to effect such renunciation; and/or
- 11.2 allow the rights represented thereby to be one or more participating securities, in each case upon and subject to such terms and conditions as the directors may think fit to impose.

12 Trust etc. interests not recognised

Except as required by these articles, the statutes or under the order of a court, no person shall be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and the company shall not be bound by or compelled in any way to recognise any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share, or any interest in any fractional part of a share, or (except only as by these articles or by law otherwise provided) any other right in respect of any share, except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the holder.

Share certificates

13 Issue of share certificates

- 13.1 Every person (except a person to whom the company is not required by law to issue a certificate) whose name is entered in the register in respect of shares in certificated form shall upon the issue or transfer to him of such shares be entitled without payment to a certificate therefor:
  - 13.1.1 (in the case of issue) within one month (or such longer period as the terms of issue shall provide) after allotment; or
  - 13.1.2 (in the case of a transfer of fully-paid shares) within 5 business days after lodgment of the transfer; or

- 13.1.3 (in the case of a transfer of partly-paid shares) within 2 months after lodgment of the transfer; or
- 13.1.4 (in the case of the surrender of a share warrant for cancellation) within 2 months of the surrender of the warrant.
- 13.2 A certificate sent to a member under this article 13 or under article 127, is sent at the risk of the member and not the company.

14 Form of share certificate

Every share certificate shall be executed by the company in such manner as the directors may decide (which may include use of the seal or the securities seal (or, in the case of shares on a branch register, an official seal for use in the relevant territory) and/or manual or facsimile signatures by one or more directors) and shall specify the number, denomination and class of shares to which it relates and the amount paid up thereon. No certificate shall be issued representing shares of more than one class.

15 Joint holders

In the case of a share held jointly by several persons in certificated form the company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate therefor and delivery of a certificate to one of the joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all.

16 Replacement of share certificates

- 16.1 Any two or more certificates representing shares of any one class held by any member may at his request be cancelled and a single new certificate for such shares issued instead with such charge as the directors may reasonably determine.
- 16.2 If any member shall surrender for cancellation a share certificate representing shares held by him and request the company to issue instead two or more share certificates representing such shares in such proportions as he may specify, the directors may, if they think fit, comply with such request for such charge as the directors may reasonably determine.
- 16.3 If a share certificate shall be damaged or defaced or alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, a new certificate representing the same shares may be issued to the holder upon request subject to delivery up of the old certificate or (if alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed) compliance with such conditions as to evidence and indemnity and the payment of any exceptional out-of-pocket expenses of the company in connection with the request as the directors may think fit.
- 16.4 In the case of shares held jointly by several persons any such request may be made by any one of the joint holders.

17 Share warrants to bearer

- 17.1 Subject to the provisions of the act, the company may issue share warrants to bearer (each a "warrant") and the directors may accordingly, with respect to any share which is fully paid up and with respect to any one or more such shares as may be specified from time to time in a warrant (in any case in which they shall in their discretion think fit so to do) issue a warrant stating that the bearer of the warrant is entitled to the shares specified therein, and may in any case in which a warrant is so issued provide by coupons or otherwise for payment of the future dividends or other moneys in respect of the shares included in such warrant.

- 17.2 Subject to the provisions of these articles and of the act the bearer of a warrant shall be deemed to be a member of the company, and shall be entitled to the same privileges and advantages as if his name had been included in the register of members as the holder of the shares specified in such warrant. The company shall not recognise joint holders of a warrant.
- 17.3 No person shall, as the bearer of a warrant, be entitled (a) to sign a requisition for calling a meeting, or to give notice of intention to submit a resolution to a meeting, or (b) to attend or vote by himself or by his proxy or exercise any privilege as a member at a meeting, unless he shall, in case (a) before or at the time of lodging such requisition, or giving such notice of intention as aforesaid, or in case (b) four days at least before the day fixed for the meeting, have deposited at such address or one of such addresses (if any) as may have been specified for such purpose, or if no address has been so specified, the transfer office, the warrant in respect of which he claims to act, attend or vote as aforesaid (the place at which the warrant is so deposited being in this article called the “depository”), and unless the warrant shall remain so deposited until after the meeting and any adjournment thereof shall have been held.
- 17.4 There shall be delivered to any person so depositing a warrant a certificate stating his name and address, and describing the shares included in the warrant so deposited, and bearing the date of issue of the certificate, and such certificate shall entitle him or his proxy, duly appointed as hereinafter provided, to attend and vote at any general meeting held within three months from the date of the certificate and prior to delivery up thereof pursuant to article 17.5 in the same way as if he were the registered holder of the shares specified in the certificate.
- 17.5 Upon delivery up of the certificate at the depository, the bearer of the certificate shall be entitled to receive the warrant in respect of which the certificate was given.
- 17.6 The holder of a warrant shall not, save as aforesaid, be entitled to exercise any right as a member unless (if called upon by any director or the secretary so to do) he produces his warrant or the certificate of its deposit, and states his name and address.
- 17.7 The directors may from time to time make such other arrangements as they think fit, in addition to or in place of the arrangements referred to in articles 17.3 and 17.4, for persons entitled to warrants held through a recognised clearing house to exercise the rights of the bearer of the warrant in relation to shareholders’ meetings.
- 17.8 The directors may issue new warrants or coupons in such manner, subject to such conditions and in respect of such number of shares as they think fit from time to time and the directors shall be empowered at any time and from time to time to amend any warrant then in issue so that by virtue of such amendments the number of shares which such warrant from time to time represents is accurately shown therein provided that no new warrant or coupon shall be issued in place of one lost unless the directors are satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that the original has been destroyed.
- 17.9 The shares included in any warrant shall be transferred by the delivery of the warrant without any written transfer and without registration, and to shares so included the provisions hereinbefore contained with reference to the transfer of shares shall not apply.
- 17.10 The delivery to the company or to a duly authorised agent of the company of a coupon shall be a good discharge to the company for the dividend represented thereby.
- 17.11 Upon surrender of his warrant to the company for cancellation, together with all coupons for the future dividends on the shares comprised in the warrant and an application in writing signed by him in such form and authenticated in such manner as the directors shall require requesting to be registered as a member in respect of the shares included in the warrant and stating in such application his name, address and occupation, the bearer of a warrant shall be entitled to have his name entered as a member in respect of the shares included in the warrant, but the company shall in no case be responsible for any loss or damage incurred by any person by reason of the company entering in its register of members, upon surrender of a warrant, the name of any person not the true and lawful owner of the warrant surrendered.

- 17.12 Subject to any legislation from time to time, any notice to the bearer of a warrant or to any other person who holds or is interested in shares in the company in bearer form or any related coupons or talons (if any) shall be sufficiently given if advertised in such newspaper or newspapers as the directors, in their discretion, shall consider appropriate or by such other means as the directors consider appropriate (including, but without limiting the directors' discretion, if warrants are held through a recognised clearing house by arranging for the notice to be given through that recognised clearing house). If notice is given by newspaper advertisement, it shall be deemed given on the day when the advertisement appears and if notice is given through a recognised clearing house it shall be deemed given on the day notice is issued by the recognised clearing system.
- 17.13 The directors may from time to time as they think fit make and vary the terms and conditions upon which warrants may be issued and any matters incidental thereto. Subject to these articles the bearer of a warrant shall be subject to the conditions for the time being in force relating to warrants whether made before or after the issue of such warrant.

Calls on shares

18 Power to make calls

The directors may from time to time make calls upon the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) but subject to the terms of allotment of such shares. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the directors authorising the call was passed and may be made payable by instalments.

19 Liability for calls

Each member shall (subject to being given at least 14 days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment) pay to the company at the time or times and place so specified the amount called on his shares. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof. A call may be wholly or partly revoked or postponed as the directors may determine.

20 Interest on overdue amounts

If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the sum from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at such rate as the directors determine, but the directors shall be at liberty in any case or cases to waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.

21 Other sums due on shares

Any sum (whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium) which by the terms of allotment of a share becomes payable upon allotment or at any fixed date shall for all the purposes of these articles be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of allotment the same becomes payable. In case of non-payment all the relevant provisions of these articles as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

22 Power to differentiate between holders

The directors may on the allotment of shares differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.

23 Payment of calls in advance

The directors may if they think fit receive from any member willing to advance the same all or any part of the moneys (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) uncalled and unpaid upon the shares held by him and such payment in advance of calls shall extinguish pro tanto the liability upon the shares in respect of which it is made. The company may pay interest upon the money so received (until and to the extent that the same would but for such advance become payable) at such rate as the member paying such sum and the directors may agree. No sum so paid up in advance shall entitle the member in respect of such share to participate in any dividend on such amount (until and to the extent that such sum would but for such advance become payable).

Forfeiture and lien

24 Notice on failure to pay a call

24.1 If a member fails to pay in full any call or instalment of a call on or before the due date for payment thereof, the directors may at any time thereafter serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid together with any interest which may have accrued thereon and any expenses incurred by the company by reason of such non-payment.

24.2 The notice shall name a further day (not being less than 7 days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which, and the place where, the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment in accordance therewith the shares on which the call has been made will be liable to be forfeited.

25 Forfeiture for non-compliance

If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before payment of all calls and interest and expenses due in respect thereof has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited share and not actually paid before forfeiture. The directors may accept a surrender of any share liable to be forfeited hereunder.

26 Disposal of forfeited shares

A share so forfeited or surrendered shall become the property of the company and may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of either to the person who was before such forfeiture or surrender the holder thereof or entitled thereto or to any other person upon such terms and in such manner as the directors shall think fit, and at any time before a sale, re-allotment or disposal the forfeiture or surrender may be cancelled on such terms as the directors think fit. The directors may, if necessary, authorise some person to transfer a forfeited or surrendered share to any such other person as aforesaid.

27 Holder to remain liable despite forfeiture

A member whose shares have been forfeited or surrendered shall cease to be a member in respect of the shares (and shall, in the case of shares held in certificated form, surrender to the company for cancellation the certificate for such shares) but shall notwithstanding the forfeiture or surrender remain liable to pay to the company all moneys which at the date of forfeiture or surrender were presently payable by him to the company in respect of the shares with interest thereon at such rate as the directors may determine from the date of forfeiture or surrender until payment. The directors may at their absolute discretion enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture or surrender or for any consideration received on their disposal or waive payment in whole or in part.

28 Lien on partly-paid shares

The company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully-paid share) for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such share, and the directors may waive any lien which has arisen and may resolve that any share shall for some limited period be exempt wholly or partially from the provisions of this article.

29 Sale of shares subject to lien

The company may sell in such manner as the directors think fit any share on which the company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless some sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable nor until the expiration of 14 days after a notice demanding payment of the sum presently payable and giving notice of intention to sell the share in default of payment shall have been given to the relevant member.

30 Proceeds of sale of shares subject to lien

The net proceeds of such sale after payment of the costs of such sale shall be applied in or towards payment or satisfaction of the amount in respect whereof the lien exists so far as the same is then payable and any residue shall, upon surrender (in the case of shares held in certificated form) to the company for cancellation of the certificate for the shares sold and subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares prior to the sale, be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the time of the sale. For the purpose of giving effect to any such sale, the directors may authorise some person to transfer the shares sold to, or in accordance with the directions of, the purchaser.

31 Evidence of forfeiture

A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a director or the secretary and that a share has been duly forfeited or surrendered or sold to satisfy a lien of the company on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. Such declaration shall (subject to the relevant share transfer being made, if the same be required) constitute a good title to the share, and the person to whom the share is sold, re-allotted or disposed of shall not be bound to see to the application of the consideration (if any) nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating to the forfeiture, surrender, sale, re-allotment or disposal of the share.

Variation of rights

32 Manner of variation of rights

32.1 Whenever the share capital of the company is divided into different classes of shares, the special rights attached to any class may, subject to the provisions of the statutes, be varied or abrogated either with the consent in writing of the holders of three-quarters in nominal value of the issued shares of the class or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the shares of the class (but not otherwise) and may be so varied or abrogated either whilst the company is a going concern or during or in contemplation of a winding-up.

The provisions of this article shall apply to the variation or abrogation of the special rights attached to some only of the shares of any class as if each group of shares of the class differently treated formed a separate class the special rights whereof are to be varied.

32.2 To every such separate meeting all the provisions of these articles relating to general meetings and to the proceedings thereat shall apply with such changes as are appropriate, except that the necessary quorum shall be 2 persons at least holding or representing by proxy at least one-third in nominal value of the issued shares of the class (but so that at any adjourned meeting any holder of shares of the class present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum) and that any holder of shares of the class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll and that every such holder shall on a poll have one vote for every share of the class held by him.

33 Matters not constituting variation of rights

The special rights attached to any class of shares having preferential rights shall not unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue thereof be deemed to be varied by:

33.1 the creation or issue of further shares ranking as regards participation in the profits or assets of the company in some or all respects equally therewith or subsequent thereto but in no respect in priority thereto; or 33.2 the purchase or redemption by the company of any of its own shares.

Transfer of shares

34 Form of transfer

34.1 All transfers of shares which are in certificated form may be effected by transfer in writing in any usual or common form or in any other form acceptable to the directors and may be under hand only or in the case of a corporation executed in accordance with the statutes or, as the case may be, the laws of its place of incorporation and its by-laws. The instrument of transfer shall be signed by or on behalf of the transferor and (except in the case of fully-paid shares) by or on behalf of the transferee. The transferor shall remain the holder of the shares concerned until the name of the transferee is entered in the register in respect thereof. All instruments of transfer which are registered may be retained by the company.

34.2 All transfers of shares which are in uncertificated form shall, unless the CREST regulations otherwise provide, be effected by means of a relevant system.

35 Balance certificate

Where some only of the shares comprised in a share certificate are transferred the old certificate shall be cancelled and, to the extent that the balance is to be held in certificated form, a new certificate for the balance of such shares issued instead without charge.

36 Right to refuse registration

36.1 The directors may decline to recognise any instrument of transfer relating to shares in certificated form unless:

36.1.1 it is in respect of only one class of share;

36.1.2 it is lodged (duly stamped if required) at the transfer office accompanied by the relevant share certificate(s); and

36.1.3 when lodged it is accompanied by such other evidence as the directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer (and, if the instrument of transfer is executed by some other person on his behalf, the authority of that person to do so).

In the case of a transfer of shares in certificated form by a recognised clearing house or a nominee of a recognised clearing house or of a recognised investment exchange, the lodgment of share certificates will only be necessary if and to the extent that certificates have been issued in respect of the shares in question.

36.2 The directors may in their absolute discretion refuse to register any transfer of shares (not being fully-paid shares) provided that, where any such shares are admitted to the official list maintained by the UK Listing Authority, such discretion may not be exercised in such a way as to prevent dealings in the shares of that class from taking place on an open and proper basis.

36.3 The directors shall refuse to register the transfer of any share on which the company has a lien. The directors shall also refuse to register the transfer of any limited voting share unless the same:

36.3.1 is transferred under a scheme established or order made by the Charity Commissioners or by the court in the exercise of jurisdiction in relation to charities provided that the transferee shall have charitable objects;

36.3.2 is transferred by a company in the course of winding-up to some other institution or institutions having charitable objects and which shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income and property among its or their members to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the transferor by its memorandum of association;

36.3.3 is transferred by a member of the company to another holder of limited voting shares; or

36.3.4 devolves upon the crown and the doctrine of cy-près is applied at the direction of the crown in respect thereof.

36.4 The directors may also refuse to register an allotment or transfer of shares (whether fully-paid or not) in favour of more than 4 persons jointly.

36.5 If the directors refuse to register an allotment or transfer of shares they shall as soon as practicable and in any event within 2 months after the date on which:

36.5.1 the letter of allotment or instrument of transfer was lodged with the company (in the case of shares held in certificated form); or

36.5.2 the operator-instruction was received by the company (in the case of shares held in uncertificated form), send to the allottee or transferee notice of the refusal giving reasons for the refusal.

37 No fee on registration

No fee will be charged by the company in respect of the registration of any transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any shares or otherwise for making any entry in the register affecting the title to any shares.

38 Deleted 2009

39 Branch register

Subject to and to the extent permitted by the statutes, the company, or the directors on behalf of the company, may cause to be kept in any territory a branch register of members resident in such territory, and the directors may make and vary such regulations as they may think fit respecting the keeping of any such register.

40 Further provisions on shares in uncertificated form

40.1 Subject to the statutes and the rules (as defined in the CREST regulations), and apart from any class of wholly dematerialised security, the directors may determine that any class of shares may be held in uncertificated form and that title to such shares may be transferred by means of a relevant system or that shares of any class should cease to be held and transferred as aforesaid.

40.2 The provisions of these articles shall not apply to shares of any class which are in uncertificated form to the extent that such articles are inconsistent with:

40.2.1 the holding of shares of that class in uncertificated form;

40.2.2 the transfer of title to shares of that class by means of a relevant system; or 40.2.3 any provision of the CREST regulations.

Transmission of shares

41 Persons entitled on death

In case of the death of a member, the survivors or survivor where the deceased was a joint holder, and the executors or administrators of the deceased where he was a sole or only surviving holder, shall be the only persons recognised by the company as having any title to his interest in the shares, but nothing in this article shall release the estate of a deceased member (whether sole or joint) from any liability in respect of any share held by him.

42 Election by persons entitled by transmission

A person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of incapacity of a member may (subject as hereinafter provided) upon supplying to the company such evidence as the directors may reasonably require to show his title to the share either be registered himself as holder of the share upon giving to the company notice to that effect or transfer such share to some other person. All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these articles relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the notice or transfer were a transfer made by the member registered as the holder of any such share.

43 Refusal of registration on transmission

The directors may at any time give notice requiring any person becoming entitled by transmission to a share to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share. If the notice is not complied with within 60 days, and the shares are fully paid up, such person shall be deemed to have elected to be registered himself whereupon he shall be entered in the register accordingly.

44 Rights of persons entitled by transmission

Save as otherwise provided by or in accordance with these articles, a person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the incapacity of a member (upon supplying to the company such evidence as the directors may reasonably require to show his title to the share) shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages as those to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share except that he shall not be entitled in respect thereof (except with the authority of the directors) to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to shareholders' meetings until he shall have been registered as a member in respect of the share.

Untraced shareholders

45 Untraced shareholders

- 45.1 The company shall be entitled to sell at the best price reasonably obtainable at the time of sale the shares of a member if and provided that:
- 45.1.1 during the period of 12 years prior to the date of the publication of the advertisements referred to in article 45.1.2 (or, if published on different dates, the first thereof) at least 3 dividends in respect of the shares have become payable and no dividend in respect of those shares has been claimed;
  - 45.1.2 the company shall on expiry of such period of 12 years have inserted advertisements in both a national newspaper and a newspaper circulating in the area of his registered address within the United Kingdom, or (if he has no such address) of the address, if any, within the United Kingdom supplied by him to the company for the service of documents giving notice of its intention to sell the shares; and
  - 45.1.3 during the period of 3 months following the publication of such advertisements the company shall have received no communication from such member.
- 45.2 To give effect to any such sale the company may appoint any person to transfer those shares, and such transfer shall be as effective as if it had been carried out by the member and the title of the transferee shall not be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating thereto.
- 45.3 The net proceeds of sale shall belong to the company which shall be obliged to account to the former member for an amount equal to such proceeds and shall enter the name of such former member in the books of the company as a creditor for such amount which shall be a debt of the company. Any net proceeds of sale unclaimed after a period of 12 years from the date of sale shall be forfeited and shall revert to the company.
- 45.4 The company may cease to send any cheque, warrant, order or similar financial instrument by post or to employ any other means of payment (including using the facilities of a relevant system) for any dividend, instalment of interest or other amount owing to a member which is normally paid in that manner and also may cease to send or deliver any other documents to such member if:
- 45.4.1 on 2 consecutive occasions cheques, warrants, orders or similar financial instruments shall have been returned undelivered during, or shall have remained uncashed at the end of, the period for which the same are valid, or any other means of payment shall have failed or other documents shall have been returned undelivered within 3 months of their being sent; or on any occasion a cheque, warrant, order or similar financial instrument shall have been returned undelivered during, or shall have remained uncashed at the end of, the period for which the same is valid or any other means of payment shall have failed or other documents shall have been returned undelivered within 3 months of their being sent, and reasonable enquiries shall have failed to establish any new address or account of the member.

The company shall recommence sending cheques, warrants, orders or similar financial instruments or employing such other means in respect of dividends, instalments of interest and other amounts which become due and shall also recommence sending or delivering other documents after the member requests such recommencement in writing.

45.5 The company shall remain liable to a member to account to him for any amounts required to be paid to him but for the provisions of article 45.4. Any amount unclaimed for a period of 12 years from the date on which such amount would have been payable but for article 45.4 shall be forfeited and shall revert to the company.

General meetings

46 Annual general meetings

An annual general meeting shall be held in each period of 6 months beginning with the day following the company's accounting reference date, at such place (being in Edinburgh or at such other place in Scotland as the directors shall appoint), date and time as may be determined by the directors.

47 Convening of general meetings

The directors may whenever they think fit, and shall on requisition in accordance with the statutes, proceed to convene a general meeting.

Notice of general meetings

48 Notice of general meetings

48.1 An annual general meeting shall be called by notice of at least 21 days.

48.2 Any other general meeting shall be called by notice of at least 14 days.

48.3 The period of notice shall in either case be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day on which the meeting is to be held, and shall be given to all members other than such as are not under the provisions of these articles entitled to receive such notices from the company.

48.4 For the purposes of article 48.3 the company may determine that only those persons entered on the register at the close of business on a day determined by the company, such day being no more than 21 days before the day that notice of the meeting is sent, shall be entitled to receive such a notice.

49 Contents of notice of general meetings

49.1 Every notice calling a general meeting shall specify the place, date and time of the meeting.

49.2 There shall appear with reasonable prominence in every such notice a statement that:

49.2.1 a member is entitled to appoint a proxy or proxies to exercise all or any of his rights to attend and to speak and vote; and

49.2.2 a proxy need not be a member of the company.

49.3 The notice shall specify the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting; and if any resolution is to be proposed as a special resolution, the notice shall contain a statement to that effect.

49.4 In the case of an annual general meeting, the notice shall also specify the meeting as such.

49.5 For the purposes of determining which persons are entitled to attend or vote at a meeting, and how many votes such persons may cast, the company may specify in the notice of the meeting a time, not more than 48 hours before the time fixed for the meeting, by which a person must be entered on the register in order to have the right to attend or vote at the meeting.

49.6 If the directors consider that it is impractical, or undesirable, to hold a general meeting on the date or at the time or place stated in the notice of meeting, they may change the place of or postpone the meeting or do both. In such circumstances and if it is practical, the company shall announce the date, time and place of the adjourned meeting by advertisement in at least 2 United Kingdom national newspapers. It shall not be necessary to give notice of the adjourned meeting. The directors shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that a member trying to attend the meeting at the original date, time and place is informed of the new arrangements. If a meeting is adjourned in this way, proxies may be lodged in accordance with the provisions of articles 69 and 70 until 48 hours before the adjourned meeting. The directors may also change the place of or postpone the adjourned meeting, or do both, under this article.

Proceedings at general meetings

50 Chairman

The chairman of the directors, failing whom a deputy chairman, failing whom any director present and willing to act and, if more than one, chosen by the directors present at the meeting, shall preside as chairman at a general meeting. If no director is present within 5 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting and willing to act as chairman, a member may be elected to be the chairman by a resolution of the company passed at the meeting.

51 Security and other arrangements at meetings

51.1 The chairman of a meeting shall be entitled to take any action he considers appropriate for proper and orderly conduct before and during a general meeting.

51.2 The directors shall be entitled to ask persons wanting to attend a general meeting to submit to searches or other security arrangements which the directors think are appropriate. Without limitation, the security arrangements may include the prohibition of any article or item (as determined by the directors) being permitted to be taken into the meeting. The directors may, in their discretion, refuse entry to, or remove from, a general meeting any person who does not submit to those searches or comply with those security arrangements. The directors' powers and discretions under this article are delegated to the chairman of the board, but, if he is not present, to the proposed chairman of the meeting.

52 Meeting in different places

52.1 Subject to the statutes and these articles, every member may attend a general meeting in person or by proxy.

52.2 The directors may make arrangements that they, in their discretion, think appropriate to:

52.2.1 enable attendance at a place where a general meeting (or adjournment) is to be held; or

52.2.2 regulate the number of people attending that meeting (or adjournment); and

52.2.3 ensure the safety of people attending at that place, and may change those arrangements at any time. The arrangements may include (without limitation) the issue of tickets or the use of a random method of selection.

52.3 In the case of a general meeting to which these arrangements apply, the directors may, when specifying the place of the meeting direct that the meeting shall be held at a place identified in the notice at which the chairman of the meeting will attend (the “principal meeting place”); and make arrangements for simultaneous attendance and participation (including by way of video link) at other places by members and proxies entitled to attend the meeting but excluded from it under this article or who want to attend at one of the other places. A member or proxy prevented from attending (or not wishing to attend) at the principal meeting place may attend and participate at another place. In the case of an annual general meeting, the principal meeting place shall be in Edinburgh or at such other place in Scotland as the directors shall appoint.

52.4 The notice of meeting need not give details of any arrangements under this article.

52.5 In these articles (unless the context requires otherwise), the members shall be treated as meeting in the principal meeting place.

52.6 The directors’ powers and discretions under this article are delegated to the chairman at a general meeting.

52.7 The directors shall be entitled to permit such legal and other advisers of the company as they shall think fit to attend and speak at any meeting of the company or any separate meeting of any class of shares in the capital of the company.

53 Quorum

No business other than the appointment of a chairman shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. 3 members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote shall be a quorum for all purposes.

54 Lack of quorum

If within 15 minutes from the time appointed for a general meeting (or such longer interval as the chairman of the meeting may think fit to allow) a quorum is not present, or if during the meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to such day, time and place as may have been specified for the purpose in the notice convening the meeting or (if not so specified) as the chairman of the meeting may determine.

55 Adjournment

55.1 The chairman of a general meeting may adjourn the meeting, before or after it has started, if the chairman considers that:

55.1.1 there is not enough room for the number of members and proxies who want to attend the meeting;

55.1.2 the behaviour of anyone present prevents, or is likely to prevent, the business of the meeting being carried out in an orderly way; or

55.1.3 an adjournment is necessary for any other reason, so that the business of the meeting may be properly carried out.

The chairman may adjourn the meeting for any of these reasons to a date, time and place which the chairman may decide, or indefinitely, without the consent of the meeting to do this.

55.2 Subject to the preceding article, the chairman of any general meeting at which a quorum is present may with the consent of the meeting (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time (or sine die) and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting except business which might lawfully have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

Where a meeting is adjourned sine die, the time and place for the adjourned meeting shall be fixed by the directors.

56 Notice of adjourned meeting

When a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more or sine die, not less than 7 days' notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given by advertisement in 2 United Kingdom national newspapers.

Save as provided in these articles, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

57 Amendments to resolutions

57.1 The chairman may propose amendments to a special resolution if they are amendments to correct an obvious error in the resolution.

57.2 No other amendments may be proposed to a special resolution.

57.3 Amendments to an ordinary resolution which are within the scope of the resolution may be proposed at any time by the chairman but in the case of a member only if written notice of the proposed amendment is delivered to the office at least 3 clear business days (or such lesser period as the chairman in his absolute discretion may determine) before the day fixed for the meeting or adjourned meeting.

57.4 If an amendment shall be proposed to any resolution under consideration but shall in good faith be ruled out of order by the chairman of the meeting, the proceedings on the substantive resolution shall not be invalidated by any error in such ruling.

Polls

58 Demand for poll

58.1 At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before a resolution is put to the vote on a show of hands, or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by:

58.1.1 the chairman of the meeting; or

58.1.2 not less than 5 members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote; or

58.1.3 a member or members present in person or by proxy and representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting; or

58.1.4 a member or members present in person or by proxy and holding shares in the company conferring a right to vote at the meeting being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one-tenth of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right.

58.2 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn, and a demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is so withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made. If a demand for a poll is withdrawn, the chairman of the meeting or other persons entitled to do so may demand a poll.

58.3 Only the chairman of the meeting may demand a poll on a question of adjournment.

58.4 No poll shall be demanded on the election of a chairman of a meeting.

59 Procedure on a poll

A poll shall be taken in such manner (including the use of ballot, electronic voting, voting papers or tickets) as the chairman of the meeting may direct, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The chairman of the meeting may (and if so directed by the meeting shall) appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and may adjourn the meeting to some place, date and time fixed by him for the purpose of declaring the result of the poll.

60 Voting on a poll

On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy and a person entitled to more than one vote need not use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.

61 Timing of poll

61.1 A poll demanded by the chairman on a question of adjournment under article 58.3 shall be taken forthwith.

61.2 A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either immediately or at such subsequent time (not being more than 30 days from the date of the meeting) and place as the chairman may direct. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately.

61.3 The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of the meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded.

Votes of members

62 Votes attaching to shares

Subject to article 49.4 and to any special rights or restrictions as to voting attached by or in accordance with these articles to or the terms of issue of any class of shares, on a show of hands every member who is present in person and every proxy present who has been duly appointed by a member entitled to vote on the resolution shall have one vote and on a poll every member who is present in person or by proxy shall have one vote for every share of which he is the holder provided that the limited voting shares shall entitle the holders thereof to receive notice of and to attend and speak at all general meetings of the company, but shall not entitle the holders to vote, either in person or by proxy, at any general meeting of the company, unless the business of the meeting includes the consideration of a resolution for:

62.1 the approval of any acquisition or disposal by the company or any of its subsidiaries for which by virtue of the significance of the transaction in relation to the business of the company or any subsidiary of the company or, in relation to the group of companies comprising the company and its subsidiaries, such approval is required in accordance with any requirement at that time imposed on the company, or to which the company is then subject, by virtue of securities of the company being listed on a recognised stock exchange or where such approval is sought by the directors due, in whole or in part, to the significance of the transaction in relation to the said business or to the said group.

If the directors in their absolute discretion and without assigning any reason in any case determine that a resolution is proposed in the circumstances mentioned in this article 62.1 in the notice calling the meeting of the company at which such resolution is to be proposed there shall appear with reasonable prominence a statement that a holder of limited voting shares shall be entitled to vote in respect of such shares on such resolution, and the appearance of such statement shall conclusively determine the right of any such holder so to vote thereon;

62.2 the winding-up of the company; or

62.3 any resolution varying, modifying or abrogating any of the rights or privileges attached to the limited voting shares, provided that the holders of limited voting shares shall only be entitled to vote in respect thereof on such of the resolutions included in the business of the meeting as are referred to above.

63 Votes of joint holders

In the case of joint holders of a share, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders, and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register in respect of the share.

64 Deleted [October 2008]

65 Restriction on voting in particular circumstances

65.1 No member shall, unless the directors otherwise determine, be entitled in respect of any share held by him to vote either personally or by proxy at a general meeting or to exercise any other right conferred by membership in relation to general meetings if any call or other sum presently payable by him to the company in respect of that share remains unpaid.

65.2 If any member, or any other person appearing to be interested in shares (within the meaning of Part 22 of the Companies Act 2006) held by such member, has been duly served with a notice under section 793 of the Companies Act 2006 and is in default for a period of 14 days in supplying to the company the information thereby required, then (unless the directors otherwise determine) in respect of:

65.2.1 the shares comprising the shareholding account in the register which comprises or includes the shares in relation to which the default occurred (all or the relevant number as appropriate of such shares being the “default shares”, which expression shall include any further shares which are issued in respect of such shares); and the member shall not (for so long as the default continues) nor shall any transferee to whom any of such shares are transferred (other than pursuant to an approved transfer or pursuant to article 65.3) be entitled to attend or vote either personally or by proxy at a general meeting or to exercise any other right conferred by membership in relation to general meetings.

65.2.2 any other shares held by the member,

65.3 Where the default shares represent 0.25 per cent or more of the issued shares of the class in question (excluding any shares in the company held as treasury shares), the directors may in their absolute discretion by notice (a “direction notice”) to such member direct that:

65.3.1 any dividend or part thereof or other money which would otherwise be payable in respect of the default shares shall be retained by the company and the member shall not be entitled to elect to receive shares instead of dividend; and/or

65.3.2 no transfer of any of the shares held by such member shall be registered unless the transfer is an approved transfer or:

(i) the member is not himself in default as regards supplying the information required; and

(ii) the transfer is of part only of the member’s holding and, when presented for registration, is accompanied by a certificate by the member in a form satisfactory to the directors to the effect that after due and careful enquiry the member is satisfied that none of the shares the subject of the transfer are default shares, provided that, in the case of shares in uncertificated form, the directors may only exercise their discretion not to register a transfer if permitted to do so by the CREST regulations.

Any direction notice may treat shares of a member in certificated and uncertificated form as separate holdings and either apply only to the former or to the latter or make different provision for the former and the latter.

Upon the giving of a direction notice, its terms shall apply accordingly.

65.4 The company shall send to each other person appearing to it to be interested in the shares the subject of any direction notice a copy of the notice, but the failure or omission by the company to do so shall not invalidate such notice.

65.5 Save as herein provided, any direction notice shall have effect in accordance with its terms for so long as the default in respect of which the direction notice was issued continues and shall cease to have effect thereafter upon the directors so determining (such determination to be made within a period of one week of the default being duly remedied with written notice thereof being given forthwith to the member).

65.6 Any direction notice shall cease to have effect in relation to any shares which are transferred by such member by means of an approved transfer or in accordance with article 65.3.2.

65.7 For the purposes of this article:

65.7.1 a person shall be treated as appearing to be interested in any shares if the member holding such shares has been served with a notice under section 793 and either:

- (i) the member has named such person as being so interested; or
- (ii) (after taking into account the response of the member to the notice and any other relevant information) the company knows or believes in good faith that the person in question is or may be so interested; and

65.7.2 a transfer of shares is an “approved transfer” if:

- (i) it is a transfer of shares to an offeror by way or in pursuance of acceptance of a takeover offer (as defined in section 974 of the Companies Act 2006); or
- (ii) the directors are satisfied that the transfer is made pursuant to a bona fide sale of the whole of the beneficial ownership of the shares to a party unconnected with the member or with any person appearing to be interested in such shares including any such sale made through a recognised investment exchange or through a stock exchange outside the United Kingdom on which the company’s shares are normally traded. For the purposes of this article 65.7.2 any associate (as that term is defined in section 435 of the Insolvency Act 1986) shall be included amongst the persons who are connected with the member or any person appearing to be interested in such shares.

65.8 The provisions of this article are in addition and without prejudice to the provisions of the Companies Acts.

66 Voting by guardian

Where a guardian, receiver or other person (by whatever name called) has been appointed by any court claiming jurisdiction to exercise powers with respect to the property or affairs of any member on the ground (however formulated) of mental disorder, the directors may in their absolute discretion, upon or subject to production of such evidence of the appointment as the directors may require, permit such guardian, receiver or other person on behalf of such member to vote in person or by proxy at any general meeting or to exercise any other right conferred by membership in relation to general meetings.

67 Validity and result of vote

67.1 No objection shall be raised as to the admissibility of any vote except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is or may be given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

67.2 Unless a poll is taken, a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minute book, shall be conclusive evidence of that fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded for or against such resolution.

Proxies and corporate representatives

68 Appointment of proxies

68.1 A member is entitled to appoint a proxy or (subject to article 68A) proxies to exercise all or any of his rights to attend and to speak and vote at a meeting of the company.

68.2 A proxy need not be a member of the company.

68A Multiple proxies

A member may appoint more than one proxy in relation to a meeting provided that each proxy is appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by such member.

69 Form of proxy

69.1 An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing in any usual or common form or in any other form which the directors may approve and:

69.1.1 in the case of an individual, shall be signed or otherwise executed in accordance with the provisions of article 69.3 by the appointor or his attorney or authenticated in accordance with article 134; and

69.1.2 in the case of a corporation, shall be executed:

(i) in accordance with the statutes and, as appropriate, its by-laws; or

(ii) in the case of a corporation which is not incorporated in the United Kingdom, in accordance with the laws of the place of its incorporation and its by-laws; or

(iii) on its behalf by an attorney or an officer of the corporation or authenticated in accordance with article 134.

69.2 Any signature on, authentication of or other execution on such instrument need not be witnessed. Where an instrument appointing a proxy is executed or authenticated in accordance with article 134 on behalf of the appointor by an attorney, the letter or power of attorney or a duly certified copy thereof must (failing previous registration with the company) be lodged with the instrument of proxy pursuant to article 70, failing which the instrument may be treated as invalid.

69.3 In addition, the directors may determine that a proxy may be appointed by telephone, fax, electronic means or by means of a website, subject to such terms and conditions relating thereto as they may impose and to the statutes.

70 Deposit of form of proxy

70.1 The appointment of a proxy (together with any supporting documentation required under article 69) must be received at the address or one of the addresses (if any) specified for that purpose in, or by way of note to, or in any document accompanying, the notice convening the meeting (or if no address is so specified, at the transfer office):

70.1.1 in the case of a meeting or adjourned meeting, not less than 48 hours before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates;

70.1.2 in the case of a poll taken following the conclusion of a meeting or adjourned meeting, but not more than 48 hours after the poll was demanded, not less than 48 hours before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the poll was demanded; and 70.1.3 in the case of a poll taken more than 48 hours after it was demanded, not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, and in default shall not be treated as valid.

70.2 The directors may at their discretion determine that, in calculating the periods mentioned in article 70.1, no account shall be taken of the whole of or any part of any day that is not a working day (within the meaning of section 1173 of the Companies Act 2006).

70.3 The instrument shall, unless the contrary is stated thereon, be valid as well for any adjournment of the meeting as for the meeting to which it relates, but shall not be valid for any other meeting. An appointment relating to more than one meeting (including any adjournment thereof) having once been so delivered for the purposes of any meeting shall not require again to be delivered for the purposes of any subsequent meeting to which it relates.

70.4 Up to, but no more than, 2 separate instruments appointing a proxy may be effective in respect of the same holding of shares entered on the register for the purposes of any one meeting of the company or of any class of members thereof, provided that:

70.4.1 each instrument shall state the number of shares comprised in such holding to which the instrument relates; and

70.4.2 the aggregate number of shares comprised in such holding represented by both instruments shall not be greater than the total number of shares comprised in such holding.

70.5 When two or more instruments of proxy are delivered in respect of the same share for use at the same meeting, such matters shall be taken into account for the purposes of determining the intention of the appointor as the chairman of the meeting shall consider to be appropriate, and his decision as to the validity of any such instrument of proxy shall be final and conclusive.

70.6 Without limiting the foregoing, in relation to any shares in uncertificated form the directors may permit a proxy to be appointed by electronic means and/or by means of a website in the form of an uncertificated proxy instruction (that is, a properly authenticated dematerialised instruction, and/or other instruction or notification, sent by means of a relevant system to such participant in that system acting on behalf of the company as the directors may prescribe, in such form and subject to such terms and conditions as may from time to time be prescribed by the directors (subject always to the facilities and requirements of the relevant system)); and may permit any supplement to, or amendment or revocation of, any such uncertificated proxy instruction to be made by a further uncertificated proxy instruction. The directors may in addition prescribe the method of determining the time at which any such instruction or notification is to be treated as received by the company. The directors may treat any such instruction or notification purporting or expressed to be sent on behalf of a holder of a share as sufficient evidence of the authority of the person sending the instruction to send it on behalf of that holder.

71 Rights of proxy

71.1 An instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to include the right to exercise all or any of the rights of his appointor, or (where more than one proxy is appointed) all or any of the rights attached to the shares in respect of which he is appointed the proxy to attend, and to speak and vote, at a meeting of the company.

Edgar Filing: Lloyds Banking Group plc - Form 6-K

71.2 Unless his appointment provides otherwise, a proxy may vote or abstain at his discretion on any resolution put to the vote at a shareholders' meeting.

71.3 Delivery of an instrument of proxy shall not preclude a member from attending and voting at the meeting or poll concerned.

72 Termination of proxy's authority

72.1 Neither the death or insanity of a member who has appointed a proxy, nor the revocation or termination by a member of the appointment of a proxy (or of the authority under which the appointment was made), shall invalidate the proxy or the exercise of any of the rights of the proxy thereunder, unless notice of such death, insanity, revocation or termination shall have been received by the company in accordance with article 72.2.

72.2 Any such notice of death, insanity, revocation or termination must be received at the address or one of the addresses (if any) specified for receipt of proxies in, or by way of note to, or in any document accompanying, the notice convening the meeting to which the appointment of the proxy relates (or if no address is so specified, at the transfer office):

72.2.1 in the case of a meeting or adjourned meeting, not less than one hour before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which the proxy appointment relates;

72.2.2 in the case of a poll taken following the conclusion of a meeting or adjourned meeting, but not more than 48 hours after it was demanded, not less than one hour before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the poll was demanded; or 72.2.3 in the case of a poll taken more than 48 hours after it was demanded, not less than one hour before the time appointed for the taking of the poll.

73 Corporations acting by representatives

Subject to the statutes, any corporation which is a member of the company may by resolution of its directors or other governing body authorise a person or persons to act as its representative or representatives at any general meeting.

Directors

74 Number of directors

Subject as hereinafter provided, the directors shall not be less than 7. The company may by ordinary resolution from time to time vary the minimum number and/or maximum number of directors.

75 Share qualification

A director shall not be required to hold any shares of the company by way of qualification. A director who is not a member of the company shall nevertheless be entitled to attend and speak at general meetings.

76 Directors' fees

The ordinary remuneration of the directors (which shall be deemed to accrue from day to day) shall be determined by ordinary resolution of the company. Such remuneration shall (unless such resolution otherwise provides) be divisible among the directors as they may agree, or, failing agreement, equally, except that any director who shall hold office for part only of the period in respect of which such remuneration is payable shall be entitled only to rank in such division for a proportion of remuneration related to the period during which he has held office.

77 Other remuneration of directors

Any director who holds any executive office (including for this purpose the office of chairman or deputy chairman whether or not such office is held in an executive capacity), or who serves on any committee of the directors, or who otherwise performs services which in the opinion of the directors are outside the scope of the ordinary duties of a director, may be paid such remuneration by way of salary, commission or otherwise or may receive such other benefits as the directors may determine.

78 Directors' expenses, pension and other benefits

78.1 The directors may repay to any director all such reasonable expenses as he may incur in attending and returning from meetings of the directors or of any committee of the directors or general meetings or otherwise in connection with the business of the company.

78.2 The directors shall have power to pay and agree to pay gratuities, pensions or other retirement, superannuation, death or disability benefits to (or to any person in respect of) any director or ex-director, and for the purpose of providing any such gratuities, pensions or other benefits to contribute to any scheme or fund or to pay premiums.

79 Appointment and retirement of directors

79.1 The directors may from time to time appoint any other person to be a director, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional director.

79.2 Any director appointed under this article shall hold office only until the annual general meeting following next after his appointment, when he shall retire but shall be eligible for election as a director at that meeting, and shall act as a director throughout the meeting.

80 Appointment of executive directors

The directors may from time to time appoint one or more of their body to be the holder of any executive office on such terms and for such period as they may (subject to the provisions of the statutes) determine and, without prejudice to the terms of any contract entered into in any particular case, may at any time revoke or vary the terms of any such appointment.

81 Powers of executive directors

The directors may entrust to and confer upon any director holding any executive office any of the powers exercisable by them upon such terms and conditions (including the power to sub-delegate) and with such restrictions as they think fit, and either collaterally with or to the exclusion of their own powers, and may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of such powers.

Appointment and retirement of directors generally

82 Retirement at annual general meetings

Each director shall retire at the annual general meeting held in the third calendar year following the year in which he was elected or last re-elected.

83 Re-election of retiring director

- 83.1 The company at the meeting at which a director retires under any provision of these articles may by ordinary resolution fill the office being vacated by electing thereto the retiring director or some other person eligible for election.
- 83.2 The retirement shall not have effect until the conclusion of the meeting except where a resolution is passed to elect some other person in the place of the retiring director or a resolution for his re-election is put to the meeting and lost. Accordingly a retiring director who is re-elected or deemed to have been re-elected will continue in office without a break.

84 Election of two or more directors

A resolution for the election of two or more persons as directors by a single resolution shall not be moved at any general meeting unless a resolution that it shall be so moved has first been agreed to by the meeting without any vote being given against it, and any resolution moved in contravention of this provision shall be void.

85 Nomination of director for election

- 85.1 No person shall be eligible for election as a director at any general meeting unless he is a director retiring at the meeting pursuant to article 82; or is recommended by the directors for election; or not less than 7 nor more than 42 days (inclusive of the date on which the notice is given) before the date appointed for the meeting there shall have been lodged at the office notice in writing signed or authenticated in accordance with article 134 by some member (other than the person to be proposed) duly qualified to attend and vote at the meeting for which such notice is given of his intention to propose such person for election and also notice in writing signed or authenticated in accordance with article 134 by the person to be proposed of his willingness to be elected.
- 85.2 The company shall be under no duty to give to its members notice of an intention to propose a person as director pursuant to a notice given in accordance with this article.

86 Election or appointment of additional director

The company may by ordinary resolution elect any person eligible for election to be a director, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional director, but the total number of directors shall not thereby exceed the maximum number (if any) fixed by or in accordance with these articles.

87 Vacation of office

The office of a director shall be vacated in any of the following events:

- 87.1 if he shall become prohibited by law from acting as a director;
- 87.2 if he shall resign by writing left at the office or by delivery to the chairman or any deputy chairman or the secretary or if he shall in writing offer to resign and the directors shall resolve to accept such offer;
- 87.3 if he shall have a bankruptcy order made against him or shall compound with his creditors generally or shall apply to the court for an interim order under section 253 of the Insolvency Act 1986 in connection with a voluntary arrangement under that act or any similar order or process under the laws of any relevant jurisdiction;

87.4 if an order shall be made by any court claiming jurisdiction on the ground (however formulated) of mental disorder for his detention or for the appointment of a guardian or for the appointment of a receiver or other person (by whatever name called) to exercise powers with respect to his property or affairs;

87.5 if he shall be absent from meetings of the directors for 6 months without leave and the directors shall resolve that his office be vacated; or 87.6 if a notice in writing is served upon him personally or at the address registered with the company in accordance with the Companies Act 2006 or at his residential address provided to the company, signed by not less than three-quarters of the directors for the time being to the effect that his office as director shall on receipt (or deemed receipt) of such notice be vacated. The signatures need not be on a single document and, for the avoidance of doubt, fax signatures shall be valid for the purposes hereof.

88 Removal of director

The company may, in accordance with and subject to the provisions of the statutes by ordinary resolution of which special notice has been given, remove any director from office (notwithstanding any provision of these articles or of any agreement between the company and such director, but without prejudice to any claim he may have for damages for breach of any such agreement).

Meetings and proceedings of directors

89 Convening of meetings of directors

Subject to the provisions of these articles, the directors may meet together for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their proceedings as they think fit. At any time any director may, and the secretary at the request of a director shall, summon a meeting of the directors. It shall not be necessary to give notice of a meeting of directors to any director for the time being absent from the United Kingdom. A notice calling the meeting of the directors may be given to a director by telephone or by notice in writing (in the case of a written notice, delivered to him in person or sent to him at his last known address, or such other address, if any, as may for the time being be notified by him or on his behalf to the company for that purpose), and each director shall, on appointment, be taken to have agreed to the giving of notices in any such manner. Any director may waive notice of any meeting and any such waiver may be retroactive.

90 Quorum

Subject to article 94, the quorum necessary for the transaction of business of the directors may be fixed from time to time by the directors and unless so fixed at any other number shall be 4. A meeting of the directors at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all powers and discretions for the time being exercisable by the directors.

91 Video conference and telephone meetings

91.1 The directors, and any committee of the directors, may meet by way of a video conference or conference telephone or similar equipment designed to allow everybody to take part in the meeting; or by way of a series of video conferences or telephone calls from the chairman of the meeting. Participation in this way shall be treated as being present at the meeting.

Edgar Filing: Lloyds Banking Group plc - Form 6-K

91.2 A meeting which takes place by a series of video conference calls or telephone calls from the chairman shall be treated as taking place where the chairman is. In other cases, meetings shall be treated as taking place where the largest group of the participants are or, if there is no such group, where the chairman is.

92 Chairman

92.1 The directors may elect from their number a chairman and a deputy chairman (or 2 or more deputy chairmen) and determine the period for which each is to hold office. If no chairman or deputy chairman shall have been appointed or if at any meeting of the directors no chairman or deputy chairman shall be present within 5 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the directors present may choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

92.2 If at any time there is more than one deputy chairman, the right in the absence of the chairman to preside at a meeting of the directors or of the company shall be determined as between the deputy chairmen present (if more than one) by seniority in length of appointment or otherwise as resolved by the directors.

93 Casting vote

Questions arising at any meeting of the directors shall be determined by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes, the chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

94 Number of directors below minimum

The continuing directors may act notwithstanding any vacancies, but if and so long as the number of directors is reduced below the minimum number fixed by or in accordance with these articles the continuing directors or director may act for the purpose of filling such vacancies or of summoning general meetings, but not for any other purpose. If there be no directors or director able or willing to act, then any 2 members may summon a general meeting for the purpose of appointing directors.

95 Directors' written resolutions

95.1 A directors' written resolution is adopted when all the directors entitled to vote on such resolution have:

95.1.1 signed one or more copies of it, or

95.1.2 otherwise indicated their agreement to it in writing.

95.2 A directors' written resolution is not adopted if the number of directors who have signed it is less than the quorum for directors' meetings.

95.3 Once a directors' written resolution has been adopted, it must be treated as if it had been a resolution passed at a directors' meeting in accordance with the articles.

96 Validity of proceedings

All acts done by any meeting of directors, or of any committee or sub-committee of the directors, or by any person acting as a member of any such committee or sub-committee, shall as regards all persons dealing in good faith with the company, notwithstanding that there was some defect in the appointment of any director or any of the persons acting as aforesaid, or that any such persons were disqualified or had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a director or member of the committee or sub-committee and had been entitled to vote.

Directors' interests

97 Authorisation of directors' interests

97.1 For the purposes of section 175 of the Companies Act 2006, the directors shall have the power to authorise any matter which would or might otherwise constitute or give rise to a breach of the duty of a director under that section to avoid a situation in which he has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest<sup>2</sup> that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the company.

97.2 Authorisation of a matter under this article shall be effective only if:

97.2.1 the matter in question shall have been proposed in writing for consideration at a meeting of the directors, in accordance with the board's normal procedures or in such other manner as the directors may determine;

97.2.2 any requirement as to the quorum at the meeting of the directors at which the matter is considered is met without counting the director in question and any other interested director (together the "interested directors"); and

97.2.3 the matter was agreed to without the interested directors voting or would have been agreed to if the votes of the interested directors had not been counted.

97.3 Any authorisation of a matter under this article shall extend to any actual or potential conflict of interest which may reasonably be expected to arise out of the matter so authorised.

97.4 Any authorisation of a matter under this article shall be subject to such conditions or limitations as the directors may determine, whether at the time such authorisation is given or subsequently, and may be terminated by the directors at any time. A director shall comply with any obligations imposed on him by the directors pursuant to any such authorisation.

97.5 A director shall not, save as otherwise agreed by him, be accountable to the company for any benefit which he (or a person connected with him) derives from any matter authorised by the directors under this article and any contract, transaction or arrangement relating thereto shall not be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such benefit.

97A Directors may have interests

97A.1 Subject to compliance with Article 97A.2, a director, notwithstanding his office, may have an interest of the following kind:

97A.1.1 where a director (or a person connected with him) is a director or other officer of, or employed by, or otherwise interested (including by the holding of shares) in any relevant company;

97A.1.2 where a director (or a person connected with him) is a party to, or otherwise interested in, any contract, transaction or arrangement with a relevant company, or in which the company is otherwise interested;

97A.1.3 where the director (or a person connected with him) acts (or any firm of which he is a partner, employee or member acts) in a professional capacity for any relevant company (other than as auditor) whether or not he or it is remunerated therefor;

97A.1.4an interest which cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest;

97A.1.5an interest, or a transaction or arrangement giving rise to an interest, of which the director is not aware;

97A.1.6any matter authorised under article 97.1; or 97A.1.7any other interest authorised by shareholder resolution.

No authorisation under article 97 shall be necessary in respect of any such interest.

97A.2 The director shall declare the nature and extent of any interest permitted under article 97A.1, and not falling within Article 97A.3, at a meeting of the directors or in the manner set out in section 184 or 185 of the Companies Act 2006.

97A.3No declaration of an interest shall be required by a director in relation to an interest:

97A.3.1 falling within articles 97A.1.4, 97A.1.5 or 97A.1.6;

97A.3.2 if, or to the extent that, the other directors are already aware of such interest (and for this purpose the other directors are treated as aware of anything of which they ought reasonably to be aware); or

97A.3.3 if, or to the extent that, it concerns the terms of his service contract (as defined in section 227 of the Companies Act 2006) that have been or are to be considered by a meeting of the directors, or by a committee of directors appointed for the purpose under these articles.

97A.4A director shall not, save as otherwise agreed by him, be accountable to the company for any benefit which he (or a person connected with him) derives from any such contract, transaction or arrangement or from any such office or employment or from any interest in any relevant company or for such remuneration, each as referred to in article 97A.1, and no such contract, transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such interest or benefit.

97A.5For the purposes of this article, “relevant company” shall mean:

97A.5.1 the company;

97A.5.2 a subsidiary undertaking of the company;

97A.5.3 any holding company of the company or a subsidiary undertaking of any such holding company;

97A.5.4 any body corporate promoted by the company; or 97A.5.5 any body corporate in which the company is otherwise interested.

98 Restrictions on quorum and voting

98.1 Save as provided in this article, and whether or not the interest is one which is authorised pursuant to article 97 or permitted under article 97A, a director shall not be entitled to vote on any resolution in respect of any contract, transaction or arrangement, or any other proposal, in which he (or a person connected with him) is interested. Any vote of a director in respect of a matter where he is not entitled to vote shall be disregarded.

98.2 A director shall not be counted in the quorum for a meeting of the directors in relation to any resolution on which he is not entitled to vote.

98.3 Subject to the provisions of the statutes, a director shall be entitled to vote, and be counted in the quorum, in respect of any resolution concerning any contract, transaction or arrangement, or any other proposal:

98.3.1 in which he has an interest of which he is not aware;

98.3.2 in which he has an interest which cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest;

98.3.3 in which he has an interest only by virtue of interests in shares, debentures or other securities of the company, or by reason of any other interest in or through the company;

98.3.4 which involves the giving of any security, guarantee or indemnity to the director or any other person in respect of (i) money lent or obligations incurred by him or by any other person at the request of or for the benefit of the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings; or (ii) a debt or other obligation of the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings for which he himself has assumed responsibility in whole or in part under a guarantee or indemnity or by the giving of security;

98.3.5 concerning an offer of shares or debentures or other securities of or by the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings (i) in which offer he is or may be entitled to participate as a holder of securities; or (ii) in the underwriting or sub-underwriting of which he is to participate;

98.3.6 concerning any other body corporate in which he is interested, directly or indirectly and whether as an officer, shareholder, creditor, employee or otherwise, provided that he (together with persons connected with him) is not the holder of, or beneficially interested in, one per cent or more of the issued equity share capital of any class of such body corporate or of the voting rights available to members of the relevant body corporate;

98.3.7 relating to an arrangement for the benefit of the employees or former employees of the company or any of its subsidiary undertakings which does not award him any privilege or benefit not generally awarded to the employees or former employees to whom such arrangement relates;

98.3.8 concerning the purchase or maintenance by the company of insurance for any liability for the benefit of directors or for the benefit of persons who include directors;

98.3.9 concerning the giving of indemnities in favour of directors;

98.3.10 concerning the funding of expenditure by any director or directors on (i) defending criminal, civil or regulatory proceedings or actions against him or them, (ii) in connection with an application to the court for relief, or (iii) defending him or them in any regulatory investigations;

98.3.11 doing anything to enable any director or directors to avoid incurring expenditure as described in article 98.3.10; and

98.3.12 in respect of which his interest, or the interest of directors generally, has been authorised by ordinary resolution.

98.4 Where proposals are under consideration concerning the appointment (including fixing or varying the terms of appointment) of two or more directors to offices or employments with the company (or any body corporate in which the company is interested), the proposals may be divided and considered in relation to each director separately. In such case, each of the directors concerned (if not debarred from voting under article 98.3.6) shall be entitled to vote, and be counted in the quorum, in respect of each resolution except that concerning his own appointment or the fixing or variation of the terms thereof.

If a question arises at any time as to whether any interest of a director prevents him from voting, or being counted in the quorum, under this article, and such question is not resolved by his voluntarily agreeing to abstain from voting, such question shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting and his ruling in relation to any director other than himself shall be final and conclusive, except in a case where the nature or extent of the interest of such director (so far as is known to him) has not been fairly disclosed. If any such question shall arise in respect of the chairman of the meeting, the question shall be decided by resolution of the directors and the resolution shall be conclusive except in a case where the nature or extent of the interest of the chairman of the meeting (so far as it is known to him) has not been fairly disclosed to the directors.

98A Confidential information

98A.1 Subject to article 98A.2, if a director, otherwise than by virtue of his position as director, receives information in respect of which he owes a duty of confidentiality to a person other than the company, he shall not be required:

98A.1.1 to disclose such information to the company or to the directors, or to any director, officer or employee of the company; or

98A.1.2 otherwise to use or apply such confidential information for the purpose of or in connection with the performance of his duties as a director.

98A.2 Where such duty of confidentiality arises out of a situation in which the director has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the company, article 98A.1 shall apply only if the conflict arises out of a matter which has been authorised under article 97 above or falls within article 97A above.

98A.3 This article is without prejudice to any equitable principle or rule of law which may excuse or release the director from disclosing information, in circumstances where disclosure may otherwise be required under this article.

99 Directors' interests – general

99.1 For the purposes of articles 97 to 99:

99.1.1 an interest of a person who is connected with a director shall be treated as an interest of the director; and

99.1.2 section 252 of the Companies Act 2006 shall determine whether a person is connected with a director.

99.2 Where a director has an interest which can reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest, the director may, and shall if so requested by the directors, take such additional steps as may be necessary or desirable for the purpose of managing such conflict of interest, including compliance with any procedures laid down from time to time by the directors for the purpose of managing conflicts of interest generally and/or any specific procedures approved by the directors for the purpose of or in connection with the situation or matter in question, including without limitation:

99.2.1 absenting himself from any meetings of the directors at which the relevant situation or matter falls to be considered; and

- 99.2.2 not reviewing documents or information made available to the directors generally in relation to such situation or matter and/or arranging for such documents or information to be reviewed by a professional adviser to ascertain the extent to which it might be appropriate for him to have access to such documents or information.

100 Appointment and constitution of committees

- 100.1 The directors may delegate any of their powers or discretions (including without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing all powers and discretions whose exercise involves or may involve the payment of remuneration to or the conferring of any other benefit on all or any of the directors) to committees.
- 100.2 Any such committee shall, unless the directors otherwise resolve, have power to sub-delegate to sub-committees or to any person any of the powers or discretions delegated to it. Any such committee or sub-committee shall consist of one or more directors only. Insofar as any such power or discretion is delegated to a committee or sub-committee, any reference in these articles to the exercise by the directors of the power or discretion so delegated shall be read and construed as if it were a reference to the exercise thereof by such committee or sub-committee.
- 100.3 Any committee or sub-committee so formed shall in the exercise of the powers so delegated conform to any regulations which may from time to time be imposed by the directors.

101 Proceedings of committee meetings

The meetings and proceedings of any such committee or sub-committee consisting of 2 or more persons shall be governed, with such changes as are appropriate, by the provisions of these articles regulating the meetings and proceedings of the directors, so far as the same are not superseded by any regulations made by the directors under article 100.

Powers of directors

102 General powers

The business and affairs of the company shall be managed by the directors, who may exercise all such powers of the company as are not by the statutes or by these articles required to be exercised by the company in general meeting, subject to these articles, to the provisions of the statutes and to such regulations as may be prescribed by special resolution of the company, but no regulation so made by the company shall invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if such regulation had not been made. The general powers given by this article shall not be limited or restricted by any special authority or power given to the directors by any other article.

103 Local boards

The directors may establish any local boards or agencies for managing any of the affairs of the company, either in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, and may appoint any persons to be members of such local boards, or any managers or agents, and may fix their remuneration, and may delegate to any local board, manager or agent any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in the directors, with power to sub-delegate, and may authorise the members of any local boards, or any of them, to fill any vacancies therein, and to act notwithstanding vacancies. Any such appointment or delegation may be made upon such terms and subject to such conditions as the directors may think fit, and the directors may remove any person so appointed, and may annul or vary any such delegation, but no person dealing in good faith and without notice of any such annulment or variation shall be affected thereby.

104 Appointment of attorney

The directors may from time to time and at any time by power of attorney or otherwise appoint any company, firm or person or any fluctuating body of persons, whether nominated directly or indirectly by the directors, to be the attorney or attorneys of the company for such purposes and with such powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the directors under these articles) and for such period and subject to such conditions as they may think fit, and any such appointment may contain such provisions for the protection and convenience of persons dealing with any such attorney as the directors may think fit. The directors may also authorise any such attorney to sub-delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in him.

105 Signature on cheques etc.

All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange, and other negotiable or transferable instruments, and all receipts for moneys paid to the company, shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed, or otherwise executed, as the case may be, in such manner as the directors shall from time to time by resolution determine.

Secretary

106 Secretary

The secretary shall be appointed by the directors on such terms and for such period as they may think fit. Any secretary so appointed may at any time be removed from office by the directors, but without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service between him and the company. If thought fit two or more persons may be appointed as joint secretaries. In the absence of the secretary or during such times as the position is vacant, a person or persons appointed or acting as deputy secretary or assistant secretary may perform all of the duties required under these articles and the statutes.

The seal

107 The seal

107.1 The directors shall provide for the safe custody of the seal and any securities seal. The securities seal shall be used only for sealing securities issued by the company and documents creating or evidencing securities so issued.

107.2 Every instrument to which the seal or the securities seal shall be affixed (other than a certificate for or evidencing shares issued by the company, or debentures or other securities (including options) issued by the company in respect of which the provisions of article 14 shall also apply) shall be signed autographically by:

107.2.1 one director and the secretary; or

107.2.2 one director in the presence of a witness; or

107.2.3 two directors; or

107.2.4 any person or persons authorised by a resolution of the directors or of a committee duly authorised in that behalf in favour of any purchaser or person dealing in good faith with the company, such signatures shall be conclusive evidence of the fact that the seal has been properly affixed.

107.3 Subject to the statutes, the company may dispense with the use of a seal, either generally or in respect of any particular category of document, at the discretion of the directors. Whether or not use of a seal has been so dispensed with, a document signed in accordance with article 107.2 and expressed (in whatever form of words) to be executed by the company as a deed shall have the same effect as if executed under seal. Any document so executed by the company which makes it clear that it is intended to operate as a deed shall have effect upon delivery as a deed.

107.4 The company may exercise the powers conferred by the statutes with regard to having an official seal for use abroad and such powers shall be vested in the directors.

Authentication of documents

108 Authentication of documents

108.1 Any director or the secretary or any person appointed by the directors for the purpose shall have power to authenticate any document affecting the constitution of the company and any resolution passed at a general meeting or at a meeting of the directors or any committee, and any book, record, document or account relating to the business of the company, and to certify copies thereof or extracts therefrom as true copies or extracts. Where any book, record, document or account is elsewhere than at the office, the local manager or other officer of the company having the custody thereof shall be deemed to be a person appointed by the directors as aforesaid.

108.2 A document purporting to be a copy of any such resolution, or an extract from the minutes of any such meeting, which is certified as aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence in favour of all persons dealing with the company upon the faith thereof that such resolution has been duly passed or, as the case may be, that any minute so extracted is a true and accurate record of proceedings at a duly constituted meeting.

Reserves

109 Establishment of reserves

The directors may from time to time set aside out of the profits of the company and carry to reserve such sums as they think proper which, at the discretion of the directors, shall be applicable for any purpose to which the profits of the company may properly be applied, and pending such application may either be employed in the business of the company or be invested. The directors may divide the reserve into such special funds as they think fit and may consolidate into one fund any special funds or any parts of any special funds into which the reserve may have been divided. The directors may also without placing the same to reserve carry forward any profits. In carrying sums to reserve and in applying the same the directors shall comply with the provisions of the statutes.

110 Business bought as from past date

Subject to the provisions of the statutes, where any asset, business or property is bought by the company as from a past date, the profits and losses thereof as from such date may at the discretion of the directors in whole or in part be carried to revenue account and treated for all purposes as profits or losses of the company. Subject as aforesaid, if any shares or securities are purchased cum dividend or interest, such dividend or interest may at the discretion of the directors be treated as revenue, and it shall not be obligatory to capitalise the same or any part thereof.

Dividends

111 Dividends

The company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends but no such dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the directors.

112 Fixed, interim and other dividends

If and so far as in the opinion of the directors the profits of the company justify such payments, the directors:

112.1 may pay the fixed dividends on any class of shares carrying a fixed dividend expressed to be payable on fixed dates on the half-yearly or other dates prescribed for the payment thereof; and

112.2 may also from time to time pay dividends (interim or otherwise) on shares of any class of such amounts and on such dates and in respect of such periods as they think fit.

Provided the directors act in good faith, they shall not incur any liability to the holders of any shares for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment, on any other class of shares having rights ranking after or equally with those shares, of any such fixed, interim or other dividend as aforesaid.

113 Distribution in specie

The company may upon the recommendation of the directors by ordinary resolution direct payment of a dividend in whole or in part by the distribution of specific assets (and in particular of paid-up shares or debentures of any other company) and the directors shall give effect to such resolution. Where any difficulty arises in regard to such distribution, the directors may settle the same as they think expedient and in particular may issue fractional certificates, may fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof, may determine that cash shall be paid to any member upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of members and may vest any assets in trustees.

114 Ranking of shares for dividend

114.1 Unless and to the extent that the rights attached to any shares or the terms of issue thereof otherwise provide, all dividends shall (as regards any shares not fully paid throughout the period in respect of which the dividend is paid) be apportioned and paid pro rata according to the amounts paid on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid. For the purposes of this article no amount paid on a share in advance of calls shall be treated as paid on the share.

114.2 The limited voting shares shall not confer any right upon the holders thereof to participate in any distribution of the profits of the company by way of dividend but for the purposes of article 122 and of any other provision contained in these articles, the limited voting shares shall be deemed to confer rights and interests in the profits equally with the holders of ordinary shares according to the amounts paid up on such limited voting shares and ordinary shares respectively, otherwise than in advance of calls.

115 Manner of payment of dividends and other moneys

115.1 Subject to article 115.2, any dividend or other moneys payable on or in respect of a share shall be paid to the member as at the relevant record date or to such other person as the member may in writing direct. Such dividend or other moneys may be paid:

115.1.1 by cheque, warrant, order or similar financial instrument sent by post to and payable to or to the order of the member;

115.1.2 by inter-bank transfer or other electronic means direct to such account as the member shall in writing (or by means of such other authorisation as the directors may determine) direct;

115.1.3 using the facilities of a relevant system; or 115.1.4 by such other method of payment as the member may agree to.

Every such cheque, warrant or order shall be sent at the risk of the person or persons entitled to the money represented thereby, and payment of a cheque, warrant or order by the banker upon whom it is drawn, and any transfer or payment within article 115.1.2, 115.1.3 or 115.1.4, shall be a good discharge to the company.

115.2 For the purposes of this article 115, where a share is held by joint holders:

115.2.1 in the case of instructions to pay a person other than the joint holders, any such instructions shall require the written signature or other authorisation as the directors may determine of all such joint holders; but

115.2.2 otherwise, all payments shall be made to all such joint holders (any cheque, warrant or order being drawn in favour of all such joint holders and sent to the person first named in the register).

115.3 Subject to the provisions of these articles and to the rights attaching to any shares, any dividend or other moneys payable on or in respect of a share may be paid in such currency or currencies as the directors may determine, using such exchange rate or rates for currency conversions as the directors may select.

116 Joint holders

If two or more persons are registered as joint holders of or entitled jointly to any share, any one of them may give effectual receipts for any dividend or other moneys payable or property distributable on or in respect of the share.

117 No interest on dividends

No dividend or other moneys payable on or in respect of a share shall bear interest as against the company.

118 Retention of dividends

The directors may:

- 118.1 deduct from any dividend or other moneys payable to any member on or in respect of a share all sums of money (if any) presently payable by him to the company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to shares of the company;
- 118.2 deduct from any dividend or other moneys payable to any member on or in respect of a share any taxes charges imposts penalties or statutory or regulatory fines or levies imposed on the company by virtue of that member's status under the securities laws or other laws in any jurisdiction; and
- 118.3 retain the dividends payable upon shares in respect of which any person is under articles 41 to 44 inclusive entitled to become a member, or which any person is under those provisions entitled to transfer, until such person shall become a member in respect of such shares or shall transfer the same.

119 Unclaimed dividends and other moneys

Any dividend or other moneys unclaimed after a period of 12 years from the date on which such dividend was declared or such other moneys became due for payment shall be forfeited and shall revert to the company.

120 Waiver of dividend

The waiver in whole or in part (in excess of 0.1p per share) of any dividend on any share by any document (whether or not executed as a deed) shall be effective only if such document is signed or authenticated in accordance with article 134 by the shareholder or, in the case of joint shareholders, all of them and delivered to the company and if or to the extent that the same is accepted as such or acted upon by the company.

121 Share alternative

- 121.1 Subject as hereinafter provided, the directors may, in writing, offer to ordinary shareholders the right to receive, instead of dividend (or part thereof), an allotment of new ordinary shares credited as fully paid.
- 121.2 The directors shall not make such an offer unless so authorised by an ordinary resolution passed at any general meeting, which authority may extend to dividends declared or paid prior to the fifth following annual general meeting, but no further.
- 121.3 The directors may either offer such rights of election in respect of the next dividend (or part thereof) proposed to be paid; or may offer such rights of election in respect of that dividend and all subsequent dividends, until such time as the election is revoked; or may allow shareholders to make an election in either form.
- 121.4 The basis of allotment on each occasion shall be determined by the directors so that, as nearly as may be considered convenient, the value of the ordinary shares to be allotted instead of any amount of dividend shall equal such amount. For such purpose, the value of an ordinary share shall be the average of the middle market quotations of an ordinary share on the London stock exchange, as derived from the daily official list, on each of the first 5 business days on which the ordinary shares are quoted "ex" the relevant dividend.
- 121.5 If the directors determine to offer such right of election on any occasion, they shall give notice to the ordinary shareholders of such right and shall issue forms of election and shall specify the procedures to be followed in order to exercise such right. There shall be no need to give such notice to a shareholder who has previously made, and has not revoked, an earlier election to receive ordinary shares instead of all future dividends, but the directors shall send him a reminder that he has made such an election, indicating how that election may be revoked in time for the next dividend proposed to be paid.

121.6 On each occasion the dividend (or that part of the dividend in respect of which a right of election has been accorded) shall not be payable on ordinary shares in respect whereof the share election has been duly exercised and has not been revoked (the “elected ordinary shares”), and instead thereof additional shares shall be allotted to the holders of the elected ordinary shares on the basis of allotment determined as aforesaid. For such purpose, the directors shall capitalise, out of such of the sums standing to the credit of reserves (including any share premium account or capital redemption reserve) or profit and loss account as the directors may determine, a sum equal to the aggregate nominal amount of additional ordinary shares to be allotted on that occasion on such basis and shall apply the same in paying up in full the appropriate number of new ordinary shares for allotment and distribution to and amongst the holders of the elected ordinary shares on such basis.

121.7 The additional ordinary shares so allotted on any occasion shall rank equally in all respects with the fully-paid ordinary shares in issue, on the record date for the relevant dividend, save only as regards participation in the relevant dividend.

121.8 Article 122 shall apply with such changes as are appropriate to any capitalisation made pursuant to this article.

121.9 No fraction of an ordinary share shall be allotted. The directors may make such provision as they think fit for any fractional entitlements including, without limitation, provision whereby, in whole or in part:

121.9.1 the benefit thereof accrues to the company; and/or

121.9.2 fractional entitlements are accrued and/or retained, and in either case accumulated, on behalf of any ordinary shareholder.

121.10 The directors may on any occasion determine that rights of election shall not be made available to any ordinary shareholders with registered addresses in any territory where the directors have not been assured to their satisfaction that, in the absence of a registration statement or other special formalities, the circulation of an offer of rights of election would be lawful, or where the directors consider that circulation would be impractical in view of legal, regulatory or practical problems applicable in any such territory, and in such event the provisions aforesaid shall be read and construed subject to such determination.

121.11 In relation to any particular proposed dividend, the directors may in their absolute discretion decide:

121.11.1 that ordinary shareholders shall not be entitled to make any election in respect thereof and that any election previously made shall not extend to such dividend; or

121.11.2 at any time prior to the allotment of the ordinary shares which would otherwise be allotted instead thereof, that all elections to take shares instead of such dividend shall be treated as not applying to that dividend, and if so the dividend shall be paid in cash as if no elections had been made in respect of it.

Capitalisation of profits and reserves

122 Capitalisation of profits and reserves

122.1 The directors may, with the sanction of an ordinary resolution of the company, capitalise any sum standing to the credit of any of the company’s reserve accounts (including any share premium account, capital redemption reserve or other undistributable reserve) or any sum standing to the credit of its profit and loss account.

122.2 Such capitalisation shall be effected by appropriating such sum to the holders of limited voting shares and ordinary shares on the register at the close of business on the date of the resolution (or such other date as may be specified therein or determined as therein provided) in proportion to their then holdings of limited voting shares and ordinary shares (pro rata to the amount paid up thereon) and applying such sum on their behalf:

122.2.1 in paying up in full new limited voting shares and ordinary shares respectively (or, subject to any special rights previously conferred on any shares or class of shares for the time being issued, new shares of any other class) for allotment and distribution credited as fully paid up to and amongst them as bonus shares in the proportion aforesaid;

122.2.2 in or towards paying up amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares held by such holders (otherwise than by application of any sum standing to the credit of share premium account, capital reserve or other undistributable reserve); or 122.2.3 subject as provided in article 122.2.2, partly in one way and partly in another.

122.3 The directors may do all acts and things considered necessary or expedient to give effect to any such capitalisation, with full power to the directors to make such provisions as they think fit for any fractional entitlements which would arise on the basis aforesaid (including provisions whereby fractional entitlements are disregarded or the benefit thereof accrues to the company rather than to the members concerned). The directors may authorise any person to enter on behalf of all the members interested into an agreement with the company providing for any such capitalisation and matters incidental thereto, and any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on all concerned.

Accounts

123 Accounting records

Accounting records sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and otherwise complying with the statutes shall be kept at the office, or at such other place as the directors think fit, and shall always be open to inspection by the officers of the company. Subject as aforesaid, no member of the company or other person shall have any right of inspecting any account or book or document of the company except as conferred by statute or ordered by a court or authorised by the directors.

124 Copies of accounts for members

124.1 Subject as provided in article 124.2 a copy of the company's annual accounts and report which are to be laid before a general meeting of the company (including every document required by law to be comprised therein or attached or annexed thereto) shall not less than 21 days before the date of the meeting be sent to every member of the company and to every other person who is entitled to receive notices of meetings from the company under the provisions of the statutes or of these articles.

124.2 Article 124.1 shall not require a copy of these documents to be sent to:

124.2.1 any member to whom a summary financial statement is sent in accordance with the statutes;

Edgar Filing: Lloyds Banking Group plc - Form 6-K

124.2.2 more than one of joint holders; or 124.2.3 any person of whose address the company is not aware, but any member to whom a copy of these documents has not been sent shall be entitled to receive a copy free of charge on application at the office.
