In an effort to privatize Korea South-East Power Co., Ltd., one of its non-nuclear generation subsidiaries, on December 10, 2004, Korea Electric Power Corporation (KEPCO) will meet with a couple of potential strategic investor candidates and utility analysts from three financial institutions based in Hong Kong. Topics to be discussed include the plan of selling KEPCO 's generation subsidiaries and the current operation with respect to power pooling.

In addition, KEPCO has entered into an agreement with the authorities of the People 's Democratic Republic of Korea (North Korea) to provide and distribute 15 mega-watt of electricity to 15 South Korean companies that are expected to commence operations in the Gaeseong industrial zone in North Korea.
