Clarification Regarding the Norilsk Irrevocable Undertaking

On January 27, 2005, Harmony announced that it had elected to waive in its entirety the condition of the offer that Harmony receive acceptances from Gold Fields security holders in excess of 50% of the entire issued share capital of Gold Fields. As a consequence, Harmony's offer was declared unconditional as to acceptances on January 27, 2005. Accordingly, Gold Fields security holders who have tendered their Gold Fields shares (including shares represented by American Depositary Shares) into the offer will be entitled to the offer consideration once the remaining conditions to the offer have been satisfied and the offer is declared wholly unconditional. The only remaining conditions to the offer are the receipt of the requisite regulatory approvals, including the grant of merger clearance by South African competition authorities and Harmony's U.S. registration statement being declared effective by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Gold Fields security holders are reminded that Gold Fields shares (including shares represented by American Depositary Shares) that have been validly tendered into the current offer may be withdrawn, pursuant to the procedures described in Harmony's preliminary prospectus and related offer materials, until the offer has been declared wholly unconditional. For the avoidance of doubt, no withdrawal rights apply in respect of Harmony's prior offer, which expired on November 26, 2004.

Edgar Filing: GOLD FIELDS LTD - Form 425

The waiver of the minimum acceptance condition does not affect Norilsk's irrevocable undertaking. However, to avoid any confusion, Harmony and Norilsk have confirmed their intention that, as always envisaged, Norilsk is not obliged to accept the current offer until Harmony has received, in aggregate, sufficient acceptances in the offer that will, together with the Gold Fields shares (including shares represented by American Depositary Shares) acquired by Harmony in the prior offer and Norilsk's 20.03% shareholding, equate to Harmony holding in excess of 50% of the issued share capital of Gold Fields.

We reiterate Norilsk's commitment to the spirit and business logic of our offers to acquire Gold Fields. Our letter to them is merely to record that nothing has changed and to avoid any confusion which market speculation may cause said chief executive Bernard Swanepoel.

As at 5.00 p.m. (New York City time) on January 28, 2005 valid tenders in the current offer had been received in respect of a total of 71,116 Gold Fields shares (including Gold Fields shares represented by American Depositary Shares). Harmony considers this level of acceptances to be consistent with customary market practice where an offer is still awaiting approval from regulatory authorities.
