The matters discussed in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q contain certain forward-looking statements. For this purpose, any statements contained in this report that are not statements of historical fact may be deemed to be forward-looking statements. Without limiting the foregoing, words such as may, expect, believe, anticipate, estimate, or continue, the negative or other variations thereof, or comparable terminology, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These statements by their nature involve substantial risks and uncertainties, and actual results may differ materially depending on a variety of factors, including continued market demand for the types of products and services produced and sold by us, change in worldwide economic and political conditions and associated impact on interest and foreign exchange rates, the level of sales by original equipment manufacturers of vehicles for which we supply parts, the successful integration of companies acquired by us, changes in consumer debt levels and other risks detailed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 and other filings we make with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These forward looking statements are made only as of the date hereof.

Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements (Unaudited)

Three Months Ended March 31, 2006

Note A Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited, condensed and consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for interim financial reporting, and with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Rule 10-01 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, the financial statements for interim reporting do not include all of the information and notes or disclosures required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included and such adjustments are of a normal recurring nature. Results for interim periods should not be considered indicative of results for a full year. The December 31, 2005 consolidated balance sheet was derived from audited financial statements, but does not include all disclosures required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. For further information, refer to the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the period ended December 31, 2005 as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 15, 2006.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements as of March 31, 2006 and for the year ended December 31, 2005 include Noble International, Ltd. (the Company) and its subsidiaries. The Company's operating subsidiaries are organized into a single reporting segment operating in the automotive supply business.

FASB Interpretation No. 47, Accounting for Conditional Asset Retirement Obligations, (FIN 47) clarifies that the term conditional asset retirement obligation as used in Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 143, Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations, (SFAS 143) refers to a legal obligation to perform an asset retirement activity in which the timing and method of settlement are conditional on a future event that may or may not be within the control of the entity. The Company has considered the provisions of both FIN 47 and SFAS 143 and has determined that there are no material conditional asset retirement obligations. Accordingly, at March 31, 2006 no liabilities for such items have been recorded in the Company's financial statements.

Basic earnings per share are computed by dividing net earnings by the weighted-average common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted earnings per share reflect the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue common stock were exercised and converted into common stock or resulted in the issuance of common stock that then shared in the net earnings of the entity. For the three month period ending March 31, 2006, the earnings per share impact of considering the dilution resulting from the Company's convertible subordinated notes as if they were converted is anti-dilutive. As a result, only the dilutive impact of the Company's outstanding stock options are included in the diluted earnings per share calculation. The following table reconciles the numerator and denominator to calculate basic and diluted earnings per share for the three month periods ended March 31, 2005 and 2006 (in thousands, except share and per share amounts).

Table of ContentsNoble International, Ltd. and Subsidiaries*Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements (Unaudited)*Three Months Ended March 31, 2006*Note E Share-Based Payments

Effective January 1, 2006, the Company commenced accounting for share-based payment arrangements in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standard (SFAS) No. 123(R), Share-Based Payments, using the modified prospective application transition method. Accordingly, the financial statements of prior interim periods do not reflect any restated amounts. Under SFAS No. 123(R), the fair value of share-based payment arrangements are recognized in the financial statements as period expenses, generally over the vesting period.

The Company recognized compensation expense, net of tax, of $0.2 million in the first quarter of 2006. An income tax benefit of $0.2 million was recognized from share-based compensation arrangements in the first quarter of 2006.

For periods prior to January 1, 2006, as permitted under SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, the Company accounted for its share-based payment arrangements under Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and related interpretations. Under SFAS No. 123, companies could either recognize the fair value of share-based payment arrangements as period expenses or disclose the pro forma impact in the notes to the financial statements. The Company elected to disclose the pro forma impact in the notes to the financial statements. Accordingly, no compensation cost has been recognized under SFAS No. 123 for the periods prior to January 1, 2006 for awards under the Stock Option Plan, although the Company has recognized compensation expense for awards under the Stock Incentive Plan since these awards were considered compensatory. Had compensation cost been recognized for awards under the Stock Option Plan based upon fair value, the Company's net earnings and earnings per share for the first quarter of 2005 would have been as follows (in thousands, except per share data):

	Three Months Ended March 31, 2005

Table of ContentsNoble International, Ltd. and Subsidiaries*Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements (Unaudited)*Three Months Ended March 31, 2006*Note E Share-Based Payments (Continued)*Stock Appreciation Rights Plan (SAR Plan)

The Board of Directors approved and adopted the SAR Plan effective as of March 1, 2006. The purpose of the SAR Plan is to provide incentive for business performance, to reward contributions towards goals consistent with the Company's business strategy and to enable the Company to attract and retain highly qualified, motivated and experienced employees. The SAR Plan provides for the grant of cash awards based upon the increase in the value of the Company's common stock from the date of grant through the date of exercise. 750,000 Stock Appreciation Rights (SARs) are authorized under the SAR Plan.

In the first quarter of 2006, the Company agreed to grant 250,000 SARs under the SAR Plan. The weighted-average fair value of these SARs is estimated to be $5.17 per SAR at March 31, 2006, using the Hull-White Enhanced SFAS No. 123(R) Model using weighted-average assumptions as follows:

Risk-free rate	4.8%
Dividend yield	1.6%
Estimated volatility	36.0%
Expected term (years)	5.1
Exercise price	$ 16.06

The estimated volatility is based upon historical volatility. The expected term is based upon a four-year graded vesting period and the assumption that SARs will be exercised when the Company's stock price is at a 20% premium to the exercise price. The fair value of the SARs granted in the first quarter of 2006 will be amortized to compensation expense on a straight-line basis over the four year vesting period. The SARs expire ten years after the expiration of each graded vesting period. Compensation expense of $0.02 million and a related liability was recognized in the balance sheet in the first quarter of 2006 for the fair value of SARs outstanding. Additional compensation expense of $1.28 million will be recognized over the remaining vesting period of approximately four years.

Stock Incentive Plan

In 2001, the Board of Directors adopted, and stockholders approved, the Stock Incentive Plan. The purpose of the Stock Incentive Plan is to advance the interests of the Company and its subsidiaries, to attract and retain persons of ability to perform services for the Company and its subsidiaries by providing an incentive to such individuals through equity participation in the Company and by rewarding such individuals who contribute to the achievement by the Company of its economic objectives. The Stock Incentive Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, which has the authority, subject to certain limitations, to make grants and modify the Stock Incentive Plan. The Stock Incentive Plan allows for the issuance of up to 600,000 shares of the Company's common stock. As of March 31, 2006, 503,449 shares are eligible to be granted under the Stock Incentive Plan.

In 2005, 2,825 shares of common stock were issued and the Company recorded $0.06 million in compensation expense under the Stock Incentive Plan. In the first quarter of 2006, 16,620 shares were issued and the Company recorded $0.2 million in compensation expense. The shares issued in the first quarter of 2006 were granted fully vested but hold a two-year trading restriction. At the date of grant, the per share fair-value of shares issued in the first quarter of 2006 was estimated to be $11.28, incorporating this two-year trading restriction.

Table of ContentsNoble International, Ltd. and Subsidiaries*Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements (Unaudited)*Three Months Ended March 31, 2006*Note E Share-based Payments (Continued)*Stock Option Plan

In 1997, the Company adopted the Stock Option Plan, which provides for the grant of non-qualified stock options to employees, officers, directors, consultants and independent contractors, as well as for the grant to employees of qualified stock options. The Stock Option Plan has a ten-year term and 1,050,000 shares of the Company's common stock have been reserved for issuance. As of December 31, 2005, there were no options eligible for grant under the Stock Option Plan although options may be eligible for grant in the future if outstanding options are forfeited prior to the termination of the Stock Option Plan in 2007. The Stock Option Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, which has the authority, subject to certain limitations, to grant options and to establish the terms and conditions for vesting and exercise thereof. The terms of the stock options may not exceed ten years from the date of grant.

A summary of the status of the Stock Option Plan as of March 31, 2006, and the changes during the first quarter of 2006, is as follows:

	Shares	Weighted Average Exercise Price
Outstanding 12/31/05 (156,551 exercisable)	179,051	$ 7.70
Granted
Exercised	(53,775)	$ 5.14
Forfeited
Outstanding 3/31/06 (116,276 exercisable)	125,276	$ 8.80

The Company received $0.2 million from issuance of new shares for stock options exercised in the first quarter of 2006. Stock options outstanding and exercisable at March 31, 2006 have a weighted-average contractual life of 2.9 years. The following is a summary of the range of exercise prices for stock options that are outstanding and exercisable at March 31, 2006:

Range of Exercise Prices	Outstanding Stock Options	Weighted Average Exercise Price	Number of Stock Options Exercisable	Weighted Average Exercise Price
$4.07 - $5.33	68,849	$ 5.21	59,849	$ 5.21
$7.00	11,250	7.00	11,250	7.00

Note F Commitments and Contingencies

From time to time, the Company is involved in litigation relating to claims arising out of its operations in the normal course of business. The Company maintains insurance coverage against certain types of potential claims in amounts which it believes to be adequate. Management is not aware of any legal proceedings or claims pending against the Company that it believes will have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition or results of operations.

Note G Stock Split

The Company executed a three-for-two split of its common stock effective February 3, 2006 for shareholders of record on January 27, 2006. Pursuant to SFAS No. 128, Earnings Per Share, all applicable share-related disclosures for all periods presented have been adjusted to reflect this stock split.

(referred to herein as Noble, we, our or us), is a full-service provider of Clearcoat Auto Body SolutionsSM, including tailored laser-welded blanks and tubes for the automotive industry. Our laser-welded blanks are manufactured from two or more blanks of varying thickness and sizes welded together utilizing automated laser assemblies, and are used by original equipment manufacturers or their suppliers in automobile body components such as doors, fenders, body side panels, and pillars.

Results of Continuing Operations

The following Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations (MD&A) should be read in conjunction with the MD&A section included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on March 15, 2006. In addition, we executed a three-for-two split of our common stock effective February 3, 2006 for shareholders of record on January 27, 2006. All applicable share-related disclosures for all periods presented in this report have been adjusted to reflect this stock split.

Net Sales. Net sales for the three months ended March 31, 2006 were $100.4 million, an increase of $13.7 million or 15.8% compared to the same period in 2005. This increase is attributable primarily to increased sales on existing programs and new programs launched in the first quarter of 2006, as well as increased steel content as a percentage of total net sales.

Cost of Sales. Cost of sales for the three month period ended March 31, 2006 was $90.5 million, an increase of $13.4 million or 17.4% compared to the same period in 2005. Cost of sales as a percentage of net sales increased to 90.1% for the three month period ended March 31, 2006 from 88.8% in the same period in 2005. This increase is consistent with our increased sales, as well as the additional costs related to the addition and expansion of three of our production facilities, higher freight costs, customer delays in launching some new vehicles, and increased steel content as a percentage of total net sales.

Gross Margin. Gross margin for the three month period ended March 31, 2006 was $9.9 million, an increase of $0.3 million or 2.7% compared to the same period in 2005. Gross margin as a percentage of net sales decreased to 9.9% for the three month period ended March 31, 2006 from 11.2% in the same period in 2005. This decrease in our gross margin as a percentage of net sales was primarily the result of the additional costs related to the addition and expansion of three of our production facilities, higher freight costs, customer delays in launching some new vehicles, and increased steel content as a percentage of total net sales.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses. Selling, general and administrative expense (SG&A) for the three month period ended March 31, 2006 was $4.8 million, an increase of $1.6 million or 51.1% compared to the same period in 2005. SG&A as a percentage of net sales for the three months ended March 31, 2006 was 4.8% compared to 3.7% in the same period of 2005. The increase in SG&A as a percentage of net sales was driven primarily by increased spending to support our growth, including costs to add, expand and staff production facilities. Our SG&A expense was also impacted by compensation costs related to management changes in the first quarter of 2006.

Operating Profit. As a result of the foregoing factors, our operating profit for the three month period ended March 31, 2006 was $5.1 million, a decrease of $1.4 million or 21% compared to the same period in 2005. Operating profit as a percentage of net sales for the three months ended March 31, 2006 was 5.1% compared to 7.5% in the same period in 2005.

Table of Contents

Interest Income. Interest income for the three month period ended March 31, 2006 was $0.3 million, an increase of $0.2 million compared to the same period in 2005. Interest income increased compared to 2005 due to an increase in our cash balances as well as an increase in the rate of return earned on invested cash.

Interest Expense. Interest expense for the three month period ended March 31, 2006 was $0.7 million, which is comparable to the same period in 2005.

Other, net. Other, net for the three month period ended March 31, 2006 was a loss of $0.2 million compared to a gain of $0.3 million for the same quarter in 2005. Other, net expense for the first quarter of 2006 included foreign currency losses of ($0.1 million) and other expense of ($0.1 million). Other, net gain for the first quarter of 2005 included $0.2 million of dividend income and $0.1 million for the recovery of assets previously written off.

Income Tax Expense. Income tax expense for the three month periods ended March 31, 2006 and 2005 were $1.5 million and $2.4 million, respectively. The effective tax rate for the three month period ended March 31, 2006 was 33% compared to 39% for the three month period ended March 31, 2005. The decrease in the effective tax rate is due to tax planning put in place in the fourth quarter of 2005, which effectively reduced the state tax liability at one of our facilities.

Minority Interest. Minority Interest for the three month period ended March 31, 2006 was $0.1 million. The minority interest represents a 49% share in the Mexico operating loss for the first quarter of 2006. We entered into a joint venture with Sumitomo Corporation and its affiliates (Sumitomo) during the fourth quarter of 2005 at our Silao, Mexico facility. Pursuant to the joint venture agreement, we maintain a 51% interest in the Mexico Joint Venture.

Net Earnings. As a result of the foregoing factors our net earnings for the three month period ended March 31, 2006 was $3.1 million, a decrease of $0.7 million or 17.2% compared to the same period in 2005.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our cash requirements have historically been satisfied through a combination of cash flow from operations, equity and debt financings. Working capital needs and capital equipment requirements in our continuing operations have increased as a result of our growth and are expected to continue to increase. Anticipated increases in required working capital and capital equipment expenditures are expected to be met from our cash flow from operations and borrowings under our credit facility. As of March 31, 2006, we had net working capital of $53.2 million. Availability under our revolving credit facility was $35.0 million as of March 31, 2006.

We generated cash from operations of $0.5 million in the three month period ended March 31, 2006. Cash generated from operations was driven by net income ($3.1 million) plus depreciation ($2.4 million) and other non-cash expenses ($0.6 million). This cash generated was offset by increased working capital requirements of $5.6 million driven by cash provided by changes in accounts receivable ($6.9 million), income taxes payable ($0.2 million) and other assets ($1.0 million) offset by cash used from changes in accounts payable ($9.8 million), inventories ($3.3 million), accrued liabilities ($0.2 million) and prepaid expenses ($0.4 million).

We used cash in investing activities of $3.6 million for the three month period ended March 31, 2006. This use of cash was primarily the result of the purchase of fixed assets of $3.8 million offset by the sale of fixed assets of $0.1 million and cash received from notes receivable of $0.1 million.

Table of Contents

We used cash for financing activities of $0.1 million for the three month period ended March 31, 2006. This use of cash was primarily for the payment of dividends of $0.9 million offset by the receipt of cash related to the issuance of common stock ($0.2 million), net borrowings on long-term debt at our Mexico facility ($0.4 million) and a tax benefit from share based-payments ($0.2 million).

In March 2004, we issued $40 million in convertible subordinated notes (the Notes) in a private placement. The Notes have a three year term, maturing on March 31, 2007, and may be extended another three years at the holders option. The Notes are convertible at the holders option anytime prior to maturity into shares of common stock at $21.33 per share (subject to adjustment pursuant to the terms of the Notes). The interest rate on the Notes is 4% and is fixed for the entire term. There is a covenant within the terms of the Notes restricting us from paying dividends or distributions on our common stock in excess of $0.32 per share in any twelve month period until March 2007.

As of March 31, 2006, we maintained a $35.0 million secured credit facility with Comerica Bank with a maturity date of April 2009 (Credit Facility). The Credit Facility consists of a $35.0 million revolving loan with no borrowing base formula. There were no outstanding borrowings on the revolving loan at March 31, 2006 and therefore our availability under the Credit Facility was $35.0 million. The Credit Facility is secured by the assets of Noble and its subsidiaries and provides for the issuance of up to $5.0 million in standby or documentary letters of credit.

At March 31, 2006, we were in compliance with all of our financial debt covenants under the Credit Facility.

The liquidity provided by our existing and anticipated credit facilities, combined with cash flow from continuing operations is expected to be sufficient to meet anticipated working capital and capital expenditure needs and for existing debt service for at least 12 months. There can be no assurance, however, that such funds will not be expended prior thereto due to changes in economic conditions or other unforeseen circumstances, requiring us to obtain additional financing prior to the end of such twelve-month period. In addition, we continue to evaluate our business strategy and may pursue future growth through opportunistic acquisitions of assets or companies which may involve the expenditure of significant funds. Depending upon the nature, size, and timing of future acquisitions, we may be required to obtain additional debt or equity financing. There can be no assurance, however, that additional financing will be available when and if needed, on acceptable terms or at all.

As of March 31, 2006, we guaranteed $3.0 million of SET Enterprises, Inc. (SET) senior debt in connection with our sale of businesses to SET. During the third quarter of 2005, we agreed to extend our guarantee for one year. We would be required to perform under the guarantee if SET was unable to repay or renegotiate its credit facility. The maximum amount we would be required to pay is $3.0 million. As of March 31, 2006, we have not been notified by SET or SET s lender of any default that would require performance under the guarantee; as a result, in conjunction with other factors, we do not currently carry a liability for this guarantee.

Inflation

Inflation generally affects a company by increasing the interest expense of floating rate indebtedness and by increasing the cost of labor, fuel, equipment and raw materials. We do not believe that inflation has had a material effect on our business over the reporting period included in this report.

Item 3: Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

We are exposed to the impact of foreign currency fluctuations. International revenues from our foreign subsidiaries were approximately 33% of net sales for the three month period ended March 31, 2006. Our primary foreign currency exposures are the Canadian Dollar, Mexican Peso, and Australian Dollar. In general, where possible, we manage our exposures to foreign currency assets, liabilities and earnings primarily by funding certain foreign currency denominated assets with liabilities in the same currency and matching revenues with expenses in the same currency, as such, certain exposures are naturally offset. However, at March 31, 2006, our Mexico operations, whose functional currency is the Mexican Peso, had net U.S. Dollar liability exposure of approximately $5.0 million. Based upon this exposure, for every one percent increase (decrease) in the value of the Mexican Peso versus the U.S. Dollar, the Company would recognize a foreign currency transaction gain (loss) of approximately $0.05 million. The Company is currently exploring strategies to mitigate this foreign currency risk in its Mexico operations. For the three month period ended March 31, 2006, we recognized a foreign exchange transaction loss of $0.1 million.

Our financial results are affected by changes in U.S. and foreign interest rates due primarily to our Credit Facility containing a variable interest rate when we borrow under the Credit Facility. We invest our excess cash balances in overnight and other short term investments which may be impacted by changes in interest rates. We do not hold any other financial instruments that are subject to market risk (interest rate risk and foreign exchange rate risk).

Item 4: Controls and Procedures

We maintain disclosure controls and procedures designed to ensure that the information that is required to be disclosed in our filings with the SEC is recorded, processed, summarized and reported on a timely basis. With participation from our Chief Executive Officer and our Chief Financial Officer, we have reviewed and evaluated the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures as defined in the Securities Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) as of March 31, 2006. We have concluded that as of March 31, 2006, our disclosure controls and procedures were adequate and effective and would ensure that material information relating to the company and our subsidiaries required to be disclosed in the reports we file with the SEC under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, would be made known to them by others within the Company, particularly during the period in which this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q was being prepared.

There have been no changes in the internal control over our financial reporting during the quarter ended March 31, 2006 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the internal controls over our financial reporting.

Table of ContentsPART II: OTHER INFORMATION*Item 1: Legal Proceedings

From time to time, the Company is involved in litigation relating to claims arising out of its operations in the normal course of business. We maintain insurance coverage against certain types of potential claims in an amount which we believe to be adequate. Management is not aware of any legal proceedings or claims pending against the Company that it believes will have a material adverse effect on our financial condition or results of operations.

Item 1A: Risk Factors

There were no material changes from the risk factors previously disclosed in Item 1A. Risk Factors, included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Item 2: Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds

Pursuant to the terms of our $40.0 million 4% Convertible Subordinated Notes entered into in November 2004, we are restricted from paying dividends in excess of $0.32 per share in any twelve month period until March 2007.
