PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Altera Corporation (the Company) plans to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2006 (Form 10-Q) as soon as practicable, but does not expect that it will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the required filing date as prescribed in Rule 12b-25.

As described in its current report on Form 8-K dated May 9, 2006, the Company's board of directors has established a special committee comprised of independent directors to conduct an internal review of the Company's historical stock option practices and related accounting treatment. The special committee will be assisted by independent outside legal counsel and accounting experts. At this time, the special committee has neither completed its review, nor reached any preliminary or final conclusions about the Company's stock option practices and the related accounting treatment. Until the special committee's review is complete, the Company will be unable to prepare and file its Form 10-Q. The Company intends to file its Form 10-Q as soon as practicable after the completion of the special committee's review.
