Item 8.01. Other Events

Standard and Poor's rating actions. On May 23, 2007, Standard & Poor's (S&P) lowered the long-term corporate credit and unsecured debt ratings on HECO and its two subsidiaries, Hawaii Electric Light Company, Inc. and Maui Electric Company, Limited, to BBB from BBB+. HECO's commercial paper rating was affirmed at A-2. S&P stated that the downgrade of HECO is the result of sustained weak bondholder protection parameters compounded by the financial pressure that continuous need for regulatory relief, driven by heightened capital expenditure requirements, is creating for the next few years.

S&P also affirmed HEI's corporate credit and unsecured debt rating of BBB and commercial paper rating of A-2.

The ratings are not recommendations to buy, sell or hold any securities; such ratings may be subject to revision or withdrawal at any time by S&P; and each rating should be evaluated independently of any other rating.

S&P ranks business profiles from 1 (excellent) to 10 (vulnerable). S&P changed HEI's business profile rank from 6 to 5 and left HECO's business profile rank of 5 unchanged. S&P stated HEI and HECO have satisfactory business profiles of 5 . . . and somewhat weak financial measures. S&P lifted the outlook on both HEI and HECO from negative to stable.

See Item 9.01, Financial Statements and Exhibits, for the S&P Research Update further describing its rating actions.
