Item 8.01. Other Events

On July 23, 2007, United Rentals, Inc. (the Company) announced that it had signed a definitive merger agreement (the Merger Agreement) to be acquired by affiliates of Cerberus Capital Management, L.P. (Cerberus), pursuant to which each share of United Rentals common stock will be converted into the right to receive $34.50 in cash (the Merger). On or about September 20, 2007, the Company began mailing the definitive proxy statement (the Proxy Statement) relating to a special meeting of stockholders of the Company, which is scheduled for October 19, 2007 at 10:00 a.m., local time, at the Stamford Marriott, Two Stamford Forum, Stamford, Connecticut.

On September 28, 2007, a complaint, Nathan Brundridge vs. Wayland R. Hicks et al., was filed in the Superior Court of the State of Connecticut, Judicial District of Stamford Norwalk (the Brundridge action). The lawsuit names the Company's current directors as defendants. The complaint alleges, among other things, that the Company's board of directors failed to disclose all the material facts that the Company's stockholders require in order to cast an informed vote for or against the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement. The complaint seeks, among other things, to enjoin the vote at the special meeting on the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement and to enjoin consummation of the Merger. A copy of the complaint is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

The plaintiff in the Brundridge action is also the plaintiff in one of the previously disclosed on-going shareholder derivative lawsuits against certain current and former Company officers and directors (the Shareholder Derivative Actions). The Shareholder Derivative Actions arose out of an SEC inquiry into the Company's accounting practices, which was initiated in August 2004, and are more fully described in the Company's annual and quarterly reports.

If the Merger is consummated, the Company believes that the plaintiffs in the Shareholder Derivative Actions will lack standing to continue to assert their claims. In addition, as previously disclosed in the Proxy Statement, attorneys for the parties in another putative class action complaint filed shortly following the announcement of the Merger Agreement, Donald Lefari vs. United Rentals, Inc. et al., executed a memorandum of understanding pursuant to which, if approved by the court in which the Lefari litigation is pending, such litigation will be dismissed with prejudice and thereby release claims being put forth by the plaintiff in the Brundridge action.

The defendants believe the lawsuit in the Brundridge action is without merit and intend to defend vigorously against it.

Separately, during the week of October 1, 2007, each of Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS) and Glass Lewis, two leading independent proxy advisory firms, recommended that United Rentals' stockholders vote FOR the adoption of the Merger Agreement. Stockholders of record as of the close of business on September 10, 2007 will be entitled to vote at the special meeting.
