securities laws.

Forward-looking statements are those concerning VAALCO's plans, expectations, and objectives for future drilling, completion other operations

and

activities.

All statements included in this document that address activities, events or developments that VAALCO expects, believes or anticipates will or may occur in the future are forward-looking statements.

These statements include future production rates, completion and production timetables and costs to complete well. These statements are based on assumptions made by VAALCO based on its experience perception of historical trends, current conditions, expected future developments and other factors it believes are appropriate in the circumstances. Such statements are subject to a number of assumptions, risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond VAALCO's control. These risks include, but are not limited to inflation, lack of availability of goods, services and capital, environmental risks, drilling risks, foreign operational risks and regulatory changes. Investors are cautioned that forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and that actual results or developments may differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements. These risks are further described in VAALCO's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007 and other reports filed with

companies,
in filings
with the

to disclose only proved reserves that a company has demonstrated by actual production or conclusive formation tests to be economically and

company (E&P)

Exploration activities primarily in

West Africa
offshore Gabon,
onshore Gabon, offshore Angola

Opportunistic minority participations in UK North Sea exploration

Production (100% oil) located
offshore Gabon

26 full-time employees: Houston (9), Gabon (10) and Angola (7)

20-30 contractors worldwide depending on activity level

8

Exceptional West African Opportunity

Africa holds a significant and growing portion of world oil reserves

By 2010, West Africa is expected to account for 1 of 3 new barrels pumped worldwide and by 2015, the U.S. is projected to import 25% of all its oil from Africa, up from 15% in 2007

8% of global proved reserves

High proportion of new field discoveries

Strong reserve growth of discovered fields

Gabon

Long history of energy production under stable contract terms

Former French colony independent since 1960 under French civil law

Population 1.3 MM (about size of Colorado)

Angola

Oil sales and related activities constitute approximately one-half of GDP and 90% of exports

Has emerged as a major African oil producer following the end of the country's civil war in 2002

One of the world's fastest growing economies because of strong production growth

Focused and Disciplined Business Strategy

Seek exploration opportunities in proven hydrocarbon basins where modern technology has the potential to unlock previously hidden reserves

In areas with acceptable political risk where positive market conditions provide niche opportunities

Increase reserves primarily through the drill-bit while continually reviewing potential property and corporate acquisitions at reasonable prices

Focused primarily on West Africa asset base

Maintain financial discipline to support growth

Optimize cash flows from producing assets

Invested Capital (ROIC)

Using John S. Herold, Inc.'s methodology, 5-Year ROIC calculated as the 5-year weighted average of the sum of net income to common plus preferred dividends plus minority interest expense plus adj. net interest expense; over average capital employed (year-end + prior year-end / 2), calculated as the sum of: ST debt plus LT debt plus volumetric production payments plus book value of common plus book value of preferred plus minority Interest

Successful Efforts Accounting, Liftings and the Cost Account 1.
Successful
efforts 1 accounting

is the SEC's
preferred method
of accounting
for exploration

use of the successful efforts convention results in unusually low net income in any period where there are exceptional exploration expenses, such as an unsuccessful well or large payments for the acquisition of seismic data

VAALCO uses the convention as we believe it is a more transparent way to report performance 2.

Irregularity
the timing
crude oil sales (so-called liftings)
results
in unusually low net income in any period that a lifting is missed, and unusually high net income in periods where there are extra liftings
to catch-up
with inventory

VAALCO's
taxes
are recognized based on barrels
of

oil
produced per month
2
but revenues
are
only when
oil
sold (lifted)

At any time VAALCO can have up to 1.1 MM gross barrels in inventory 3.

In
the
Etame
concession, VAALCO
receives a form
of tax deduction
for capital spending (costs)
and can carry-forward amounts not yet deducted
in
cost account

experiences higher taxes, and lower net income, in any period where there is limited capital spending and no balance in the Cost Account

1. Under the successful efforts convention, all exploration costs except those related to successful drilling are expensed in the incurred; under the full cost convention, the cost of both successful and unsuccessful exploration efforts are fully capitalized

2. Under U.S. and Gabonese law and VAALCO's production sharing agreement (PSA) with the government of Gabon

All 3

of These Transitory Factors Impacted VAALCO's Net

Income in the First Quarter of 2008

Nanes Delorme Partners

Arguments

Rest on Incorrect Assertions

Assertion: VAALCO is undervalued on the basis of two ratios: (a) Enterprise Value (EV) / EBITDA and (b) Price / Earnings (P/E)

Nanes
states these ratios
be virtually all relevant comparable valuation metrics ;
however,
Nanes
knows

or should know as
self-described specialist
in
the
oil
and
gas industry

that EV/EBITDA
P/E ratios mean very little in the context of small-cap E&Ps

EV / EBITDA:

EBITDA multiples are less useful for valuing oil and gas reserves, where depletion factors and exploration and development expenditures are difficult to incorporate in
single EBITDA
multiple factor

John
S.
Herold,

Inc.
Valuation Methodology

P/E Ratios:

industry
earnings
are frequently impacted by fluctuations
in commodity prices, the timing of exploration costs, income tax rates that vary with
geographic location
of
operations,
and other
accounting
vagaries associated with capital intensive businesses. As a consequence, reported net income and, hence P/E ratios, are of limited utility in the valuation of an oil company.

Why Even One Nanes Delorme / Pilatus Energy Nominee is Bad for Stockholders Significant Conflicts of Interest

The
most competitive

and important
area
of activity
for E&P
companies
search for prospective drilling acreage and related information (such as whether properties are available and seismic data)

Protecting
this sensitive,
proprietary information
is crucial
to an
company's success and a critical driver of value creation

believe installing any competitor's
paid representatives onto VAALCO's
Board
would inhibit discussion
and create
an untenable situation
that
limits meaningful review
of

opportunities
and prospects

our view,
this would be detrimental to stockholder value and the future of VAALCO

Why Even One Nanes Delorme / Pilatus Energy Nominee is Bad
for Stockholders

True Intentions

Are Unknown

Pilatus acquired ~4.5% of VAALCO (just shy of

Why Even One Nanes Delorme / Pilatus Energy Nominee is
for Stockholders

No
Substantive

Ideas

Nanes other stated ideas for VAALCO make little sense:

Core
asset divestitures

What
assets,
short
sale
the entire company,
does Nanes
Delorme propose to divest?

Nanes Delorme itself states that VAALCO is a company which has first class oil and gas properties, with a balanced portfolio of assets and substantial exploration upside in Angola and Gabon, which generates significant cash flow

Alternative
listings

Nanes
Delorme provides
no
support whatsoever
for its assertion
that share performance would be affected by an alternative listing
