November [], 2008

Dear Stockholder:

Special meetings (together, the Meeting) of the stockholders of each of the investment companies listed above, each a Maryland corporation (each, a Fund and, together, the Funds), will be held at the offices of IQ Investment Advisors LLC, 800 Scudders Mill Road, Plainsboro, New Jersey 08536, on Friday, December 19, 2008, at 9:00 a.m. (Eastern time) to vote on the proposals described in the enclosed joint proxy statement.

Merrill Lynch & Co., Inc. (Merrill Lynch) is the parent company of each Fund s investment adviser, IQ Investment Advisors LLC (IQ Advisors). On September 15, 2008, Merrill Lynch and Bank of America Corporation (Bank of America), both widely-held publicly-traded holding companies, announced that they had entered into an agreement pursuant to which a wholly-owned subsidiary of Bank of America will be merged with and into Merrill Lynch. This transaction will combine Merrill Lynch s global wealth management and worldwide investment banking businesses with Bank of America s consumer and small business banking, consumer and property finance, and global wealth management businesses, to create a diversified global leader in financial services (the Merger). After the Merger, Merrill Lynch will continue its corporate existence as a consolidated subsidiary of Bank of America. The Merger has been approved by the boards of directors of Merrill Lynch and Bank of America and it currently is anticipated that the effective time of the Merger will occur on or after December 31, 2008.

Although Merrill Lynch has informed the Board of Directors of each of the Funds that it does not believe the Merger will result in an assignment of the Funds current investment advisory and management agreements and current investment subadvisory agreements (together, the Current Agreements) under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the 1940 Act), it is possible that the Merger could be determined to result in such an assignment, which would cause the automatic termination of each Current Agreement. To address this uncertainty and to prevent any potential disruption in IQ Advisors and the subadvisers ability to continue to provide services to the Funds after completion of the Merger, each Fund is submitting for approval a new investment advisory and management agreement and investment subadvisory agreement (together, the New Agreements) to its stockholders. The New Agreements will be effective upon completion of the Merger. The fees for services payable under each Current Agreement will remain the same under the respective New Agreement. IQ Advisors does not expect to change its name and no organizational changes are expected that would affect services provided to the Funds. In addition, the portfolio managers of each Fund will not change as a result of the New Agreements. The Board of Directors of the Funds has approved the New Agreements subject to stockholder approval.

The Board of Directors of your Fund recommends that you vote FOR the proposals to approve the New Agreements.

Edgar Filing: Small Cap Premium & Dividend Income Fund, Inc. - Form PRE 14A

The enclosed proxy is being solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of each Fund. You are cordially invited to attend the Meeting for any Fund in which you own shares. Stockholders of record who do not expect to vote in person at the Meeting are requested to complete, date and sign the form of proxy, if received by mail, and return it promptly in the envelope provided for this purpose. If you have been provided with the opportunity on your proxy card or voting instruction form to provide voting instructions via telephone or the Internet, and otherwise authorize the persons named as proxy holders in the enclosed proxy to act on your behalf at the Meeting, please take advantage of these prompt and efficient voting options.

If you have any questions regarding the enclosed proxy material or need assistance in voting your shares, please contact our proxy solicitor, Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc. at 1-866-586-0633.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS FOR STOCKHOLDERS

Although we recommend that you read the complete joint proxy statement for a detailed explanation of the items you are being asked to vote on, for your convenience, we have provided a brief overview of the items to be voted on at the Special Meeting of Stockholders (the Meeting) of Defined Strategy Fund Inc., Dow 30SM Enhanced Premium & Income Fund Inc., Dow 30SM Premium & Dividend Income Fund Inc., Enhanced S&P 500[®] Covered Call Fund Inc., Global Income & Currency Fund Inc., MLP & Strategic Equity Fund Inc., NASDAQ Premium Income & Growth Fund Inc., S&P 500[®] Covered Call Fund Inc., S&P 500[®] GEAREDSM Fund Inc., and Small Cap Premium & Dividend Income Fund Inc. (each, a Fund and together, the Funds).

Q. What am I being asked to vote on in this proxy?

A. You are being asked to vote on proposals to:

1. Approve a new investment advisory and management agreement (each, a New Advisory Agreement and together, the New Advisory Agreements) between your Fund and IQ Investment Advisors LLC (IQ Advisors).
2. Approve a new investment subadvisory agreement (each, a New Subadvisory Agreement and together, the New Subadvisory Agreements) between IQ Advisors and the Fund's current subadviser (each, a Subadviser and together, the Subadvisers).

Q. Why am I being asked to vote on New Advisory and Subadvisory Agreements?

A. Merrill Lynch & Co., Inc. (Merrill Lynch) is the parent company of each Fund's investment adviser, IQ Advisors. On September 15, 2008, Merrill Lynch and Bank of America Corporation (Bank of America), both widely-held publicly-traded holding companies, announced that they had entered into an agreement pursuant to which a wholly-owned subsidiary of Bank of America will be merged with and into Merrill Lynch. This transaction will combine Merrill Lynch's global wealth management and worldwide investment banking businesses with Bank of America's consumer and small business banking, consumer and property finance, and global wealth management businesses, to create a diversified global leader in financial services (the Merger). After the Merger, Merrill Lynch will continue its corporate existence as a consolidated subsidiary of Bank of America. The Merger has been approved by the boards of directors of Merrill Lynch and Bank of America and it currently is anticipated that the effective time of the Merger will occur on or after December 31, 2008.

Although Merrill Lynch has informed the Board of Directors (the Board) of each of the Funds that it does not believe the Merger will result in an assignment of the Funds' current investment advisory and management agreements (each, a Current Advisory Agreement and together, the Current Advisory Agreements) and the Fund's current investment subadvisory agreements (each, a Current Subadvisory Agreement and together, the Current Subadvisory Agreements) under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the 1940 Act), it is possible that the Merger could be determined to result in an assignment, which would cause the automatic termination of the Current Advisory and Subadvisory Agreements (together, the Current Agreements). To address this uncertainty and to prevent any potential disruption in IQ Advisors and the Subadvisers' ability to continue to provide services to the Funds after completion of the Merger, each Fund is submitting for approval New Advisory and Subadvisory Agreements (together, the New Agreements) to its stockholders. The New Agreements will be effective upon completion of the Merger. The fees for services currently payable under the Current Agreements will remain the same under the New Agreements. IQ Advisors does not expect to change its name and no organizational changes are expected that would affect services provided to the Funds. In addition, the portfolio managers of each Fund will not change as a result of the New Agreements. The Board of Directors of the Funds has approved the New Agreements subject to stockholder approval.

Q. How does the Board of Directors suggest I vote in connection with the matters to be considered at the Meeting?

A. The Board of Directors of each Fund, all of whom are not interested persons, as defined in Section 2(a)(19) of the 1940 Act, of the Funds (the Independent Directors), unanimously recommends that you vote For the approval of the New Advisory Agreements and the New Subadvisory Agreements.

Q. How does the proposed New Advisory Agreement differ from my Fund's Current Advisory Agreement?

A. The terms of the New Advisory Agreement are substantially similar to those of the Current Advisory Agreement. The fees payable to IQ Advisors by each Fund under the New Advisory Agreement are identical to those payable under the respective Current Advisory Agreement.

Table of Contents

Q. How does the proposed New Subadvisory Agreement differ from my Fund's Current Subadvisory Agreement?

- A. The terms of the New Subadvisory Agreement are substantially similar to those of the Current Subadvisory Agreement. The fees payable by IQ Advisors to the respective Subadvisers under the New Subadvisory Agreement are identical to those payable under the respective Current Subadvisory Agreement.

Q. Will the advisory and subadvisory fee rates be the same upon the approval of the New Agreements?

- A. Yes, the advisory and subadvisory fee rates will remain the same.

Q. How will the Merger affect me as a Fund stockholder?

- A. Your investment in the Fund will not change as a result of the Merger. You will still own the same number of shares in the Fund. IQ Advisors and the same Subadviser for your Fund will continue to advise and subadvise your Fund, respectively, following the consummation of the Merger. Each New Advisory Agreement, if approved by stockholders, will be between IQ Advisors and the Fund, and each New Subadvisory Agreement, if approved by stockholders, will be between IQ Advisors and the respective Subadviser.

Q. What will happen if stockholders do not approve the New Advisory Agreements?

- A. If the New Agreements are not approved by stockholders of a Fund, that Fund's Board will take such action as it deems to be in the best interest of that Fund and its stockholders.

Q. Will my vote make a difference?

- A. Yes. Your vote is needed to help ensure that the proposals can be acted upon. We encourage all stockholders to participate in the governance of their Fund.

Q. Are the Funds paying for preparation, printing and mailing of these proxy materials?

- A. No, the expenses of preparation, printing and mailing of the enclosed proxy card, the accompanying notice and joint proxy statement will be borne by Merrill Lynch, Bank of America or their respective affiliates whether or not the proposals are successful.

Q. Whom do I call if I have questions?

- A. If you need any assistance, or have any questions regarding the proposals or how to cast your vote, please call our proxy solicitor, Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc. at 1-866-586-0633.

BACKGROUND

Description of the Merger

Merrill Lynch & Co., Inc. (Merrill Lynch) is the parent company of each Fund s investment adviser, IQ Advisors. On September 15, 2008, Merrill Lynch and Bank of America Corporation (Bank of America), both widely-held publicly-traded holding companies, announced that they had entered into an agreement pursuant to which a wholly-owned subsidiary of Bank of America will be merged with and into Merrill Lynch. This transaction will combine Merrill Lynch s global wealth management and worldwide investment banking businesses with Bank of America s consumer and small business banking, consumer and property finance, and global wealth management businesses, to create a diversified global leader in financial services (the Merger). After the Merger, Merrill Lynch will continue its corporate existence as a consolidated subsidiary of Bank of America.

The combined company will offer a full range of equity, fixed income, cash management and alternative investment products with strong representation in both retail and institutional channels, in the U.S. and in non-U.S. markets. The combined company will have leadership positions in retail brokerage and wealth management, including the largest brokerage in the world with more than 20,000 advisors and $2.5 trillion in client assets, as well as a major presence in most key markets, including the United States, the United Kingdom, Asia, Australia, the Middle East and Europe.

Following the Merger, Bank of America will be owned jointly by former Merrill Lynch holders and Bank of America holders, as all currently outstanding voting securities of Merrill Lynch will be converted into voting securities of Bank of America, with no single shareholder owning more than 10% of the combined entity. Furthermore, no contract of any advisory client will be transferred, no investment advisory subsidiary will be merged out of existence, and substantially the same teams of management and investment professionals are expected to be advising the Funds as before. Completion of the Merger is subject to various regulatory approvals, client consents, approval by Bank of America and Merrill Lynch shareholders and customary conditions. The Merger has been approved by the boards of directors of Merrill Lynch and Bank of America and it currently is anticipated that the effective time of the Merger will occur on or after December 31, 2008.

Although Merrill Lynch has informed the Board that it does not believe the Merger will result in an assignment of the Funds current investment advisory and management agreement (each, a Current Advisory Agreement and together, the Current Advisory Agreements) and the Fund s current investment subadvisory agreements (each, a Current Subadvisory Agreement and together, the Current Subadvisory Agreements) under the 1940 Act, it is possible that the Merger could be determined to result in such an assignment, which would cause the automatic termination of each Current Advisory and Subadvisory Agreement (each, a Current Agreement and together, the Current Agreements). To address this uncertainty and to prevent any potential disruption in IQ Advisors and the subadvisers ability to continue to provide services to the Funds after completion of the Merger, the Funds are submitting new investment advisory and management agreements (each, a New Advisory Agreement and together, the New Advisory Agreements) and new investment subadvisory agreements (each, a New Subadvisory Agreement and together, the New Subadvisory Agreements) to its stockholders. The New Advisory and Subadvisory Agreements (each, a New Agreement and together, the New Agreements) will be effective upon completion of the Merger. The fees for services currently payable under the Current Agreements will remain the same under the New Agreements. IQ Advisors does not expect to change its name and no organizational changes are expected that would affect services provided to the Funds. Each Fund s current subadviser (each, a Subadviser and together, the Subadvisers), as set forth in the table below, will continue to serve as that Fund s Subadviser under the New Subadvisory Agreements. In addition, the portfolio managers of each Fund will not change as a result of the New Agreements. The Board of Directors of the Funds has approved the New Agreements subject to stockholder approval.

In anticipation of the Merger, members of the Board of each Fund met in person on November 11, 2008 for purposes of, among other things, considering whether it would be in the best interests of each Fund and its respective stockholders to approve the New Advisory Agreement between each Fund and IQ Advisors and the New Subadvisory Agreement between IQ Advisors and the respective Subadvisers. The 1940 Act requires that each New Agreement be approved by each Fund's stockholders in order for it to become effective. At the Board meeting, and for the reasons discussed below (see Board Considerations in Approving the New Advisory Agreements and Board Considerations in Approving the New Subadvisory Agreements below), the Board, all of whom are not interested persons (as defined in the 1940 Act) of the Funds (the Independent Directors), approved each New Agreement and unanimously recommended its approval by stockholders in order to ensure continuity of investment advisory services to the Funds after the completion Merger. In addition, at the November 11, 2008 meeting, the Board approved interim investment advisory and management agreements and interim investment subadvisory agreements (the Interim Agreements) for the Funds pursuant to Rule 15a-4 under the 1940 Act to take effect upon completion of the Merger in the event that stockholder approval of the New Agreements has not yet been obtained. In reliance on Rule 15a-4, the Interim Agreements will allow IQ Advisors and the Subadvisers to continue advisory and subadvisory arrangements with respect to each of the Funds for a maximum of 150 days, while the Funds continue to seek stockholder approval of the New Agreements. Stockholder approval of the Interim Agreements is not required and is not being sought. In the event stockholders of a Fund do not approve the New Agreements, the Board will take such action as it deems to be in the best interests of the Fund and its stockholders.

Section 15(f) of the 1940 Act

IQ Advisors and its affiliates have agreed to conduct, and use reasonable best efforts to cause their respective affiliates to conduct, their respective businesses in compliance with the conditions of Section 15(f) of the 1940 Act in relation to any funds advised by IQ Advisors and registered under the 1940 Act. Section 15(f) provides in substance that when a sale of a controlling interest in an investment adviser of a registered fund occurs, the investment adviser or any of its affiliated persons may receive any amount or benefit in connection with the sale so long as two conditions are satisfied. The first condition of Section 15(f) is that during the three-year period following the completion of the Merger, at least 75% of the investment company's board of directors must not be interested persons (as defined in the 1940 Act) of the investment adviser or predecessor adviser. Each Fund currently meets this test and expects to meet this test following the completion of the Merger. Second, an unfair burden must not be imposed on the investment company as a result of the transaction relating to the sale of such interest, or any express or implied terms, conditions or understandings applicable thereto. The term unfair burden (as defined in the 1940 Act) includes any arrangement during the two-year period after the transaction whereby the investment adviser (or predecessor or successor adviser), or any interested person (as defined in the 1940 Act) of such an adviser, receives or is entitled to receive any compensation, directly or indirectly, from the investment company or its security holders (other than fees for bona fide investment advisory or other services) or from any person in connection with the purchase or sale of securities or other property to, from or on behalf of the investment company (other than bona fide ordinary compensation as principal underwriter for the investment company).

PROPOSAL 1. TO APPROVE NEW INVESTMENT ADVISORY AND MANAGEMENT AGREEMENTS

At the Meeting, you will be asked to approve a New Advisory Agreement for your Fund. A comparison of the proposed New Advisory Agreement and the Current Advisory Agreement is included below. A form of each New Advisory Agreement is attached hereto as Appendix B. The date of the Current Advisory Agreement applicable to each Fund and the date on which it was last submitted for approval by stockholders and the date on which it was last approved for continuance by the Board are provided in Appendix A.

Comparison of the Current Advisory Agreements to the New Advisory Agreements

The terms of each New Advisory Agreement are substantially similar to those of the respective Current Advisory Agreement. The fees payable to IQ Advisors by each Fund under the New Advisory Agreements are identical to those payable under the respective Current Advisory Agreement. If approved by stockholders of a Fund, the New Advisory Agreement will expire two years from its effective date, unless specifically reapproved in the manner required by the 1940 Act and the rules thereunder. The following discussion provides a comparison of certain material terms of the Current Advisory Agreements to the material terms of the New Advisory Agreements.

Investment Advisory Services. The investment advisory services to be provided by IQ Advisors to the Funds under the New Advisory Agreements will be the same as those services provided by IQ Advisors to the Funds under the Current Advisory Agreements. Both the Current Advisory Agreements and the New Advisory Agreements provide that IQ Advisors will perform or arrange for its affiliates to perform, the management and administrative services necessary for the operation of the Fund, including administering shareholder accounts and handling shareholder relations. Both the Current Advisory Agreements and New Advisory Agreements provide that, subject to the supervision, direction and approval of the Board, IQ Advisors will conduct a continual program of investment, evaluation, sale, and reinvestment of the respective Fund's assets. Both the Current Advisory Agreements and the New Advisory Agreements provide that, in carrying out its responsibilities, IQ Advisors may employ, retain or otherwise avail itself of the services of other persons or entities to manage the assets of the Funds, such as the Subadvisers. In addition, the New and the Current Advisory Agreements provide that IQ Advisors will carry out its duties in a manner consistent with applicable federal and state laws and regulations and exercise its best judgment and act in good faith and use reasonable care in rendering the services it agrees to provide under the New and the Current Advisory Agreements. Each New Advisory Agreement includes a new clause clarifying that IQ Advisors need not take steps to maintain the Fund's status as a regulated investment company (RIC) under Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), if it would not be in the best interests of a Fund to do so. The investment advisory services will be provided by the same IQ Advisors personnel under the New Advisory Agreements as under the Current Advisory Agreements. IQ Advisors does not anticipate that the Merger will have any adverse effect on the performance of its obligations under the New Advisory Agreements.

Fees. The fees payable to IQ Advisors under a Fund's New Advisory Agreement are identical to the fees payable to IQ Advisors under that Fund's Current Advisory Agreement. IQ Advisors does not serve as investment adviser or subadviser to any registered investment companies other than the Funds included in this Joint Proxy Statement.

Payment of Expenses. Under both the Current Advisory Agreements and the New Advisory Agreements, IQ Advisors will (i) provide the staff and personnel necessary to perform its obligations under the Advisory Agreements, assume and pay or cause to be paid all expenses incurred in connection with the maintenance of such staff and personnel, and, at its own expense, provide the office space, facilities, equipment and necessary personnel which it is obligated to provide hereunder; and (ii) pay, or cause its affiliates to pay, compensation of all officers and directors of the Fund who are affiliated persons of IQ Advisors. Under both the Current Advisory Agreements and the New Advisory Agreements each Fund is responsible for all other expenses borne by the Fund as described in the Current and New Advisory Agreements. The expenses to be borne by a Fund under its New Advisory Agreement are the same as in its Current Advisory Agreement.

Continuance. Each Fund's Current Advisory Agreement (other than MLP Fund) was renewed for a one-year period at the June 5, 2008 in-person Board meeting and, unless terminated, could have been continued thereafter for successive one-year periods if such continuance was specifically approved at least annually in the manner required by the 1940 Act and the rules thereunder. MLP Fund's Current Advisory Agreement was effective as of June 26, 2007, for an initial period of two years and, unless terminated, could have been continued thereafter for successive one-year periods if such continuance was specifically approved at least annually in the manner required by the 1940 Act and the rules thereunder. If the stockholders of a Fund approve the New Advisory Agreement for that Fund, the New Advisory Agreement will expire two years from its effective date, unless its continuance is approved in the manner required by the 1940 Act and the rules thereunder. The Current Advisory Agreements and the New Advisory Agreements both contain the same provisions regarding continuance of the agreement, with the exception of the date of effectiveness.

Termination. Each Current Advisory Agreement and New Advisory Agreement provides for termination without penalty, (i) by the Board or by vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Fund upon sixty (60) days written notice to IQ Advisors, or (ii) by IQ Advisors upon sixty (60) days written notice to the Fund. As with the Current Advisory Agreement, the New Advisory Agreement for each Fund also will terminate automatically in the event of assignment.

To become effective, each New Advisory Agreement must be approved by a vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities of the respective Fund. Board Considerations in Approving the New Advisory Agreements

The New Advisory Agreements were approved by the respective Board on behalf of each Fund after consideration of all factors determined to be relevant to their deliberations, including those discussed below. Each Fund's Board authorized the submission of the New Advisory Agreement for consideration by the Fund's stockholders in this Joint Proxy Statement.

At an in-person Board meeting held on November 11, 2008, each Fund's Board, including the Independent Directors, approved that Fund's New Advisory Agreement between IQ Advisors and the respective Fund.

The Approval Process. In considering the approval of the New Advisory Agreement between IQ Advisors and each Fund, the Board received and discussed various materials provided to them in advance of the meeting, which included, among other things, a copy of the form of New Advisory Agreement, the materials the Board had received in connection with their consideration and approval of the continuation of the Current Advisory Agreements (other than for MLP Fund) at the June 5, 2008 Board meeting, additional materials presented at the November 11, 2008 Board meeting in connection with the New Agreements, due diligence materials from IQ Advisors and a report on the Merger and its potential impact on the services provided to the Funds. In addition, the Board considered materials received at previous meetings of the Board regarding the Funds.

In considering whether to approve the New Advisory Agreements, the Board reviewed materials from counsel to the Funds and from IQ Advisors including: (i) information concerning the services rendered to the Funds by IQ Advisors and its affiliates; (ii) information concerning the revenues and expenses incurred by IQ Advisors and its affiliates from the operation of the Funds; (iii) a memorandum outlining the legal duties of the Board under the 1940 Act; and (iv) information from Lipper, Inc. (Lipper) comparing each Fund's fee rate for advisory and administrative services to those of other closed-end funds chosen by Lipper. Each New Advisory Agreement was considered separately by the Board. The Independent Directors were represented by independent legal counsel who assisted them in their deliberations. In voting to approve the each Fund's New Advisory Agreement, the Board considered in particular the following factors:

(a) The nature, extent and quality of services provided by IQ Advisors and its affiliates In connection with their consideration of each New Advisory Agreement, the Board considered representations by IQ Advisors that there would be no diminution in the services to be rendered to the Funds by IQ Advisors as a result of the Merger. The Board noted that representatives of IQ Advisors stated that they did not anticipate any change in their personnel responsible for providing services to the Funds.

In reviewing each New Advisory Agreement, the Board focused on the services that IQ Advisors has provided to each Fund. The Board considered the size and experience of IQ Advisors' staff, its use of technology, and the degree to which IQ Advisors exercises supervision over the actions of each Fund's respective Subadviser. In connection with the investment advisory services provided, the Board took into account detailed discussions they had with officers of IQ Advisors at the November 11, 2008 meeting and at prior Board meetings regarding the management of each Fund's investments in accordance with each Fund's stated investment objective and policies and the types of transactions entered into on behalf of each Fund.

The Board noted the representations of IQ Advisors that the Merger would have no adverse effect on the resources and strengths of IQ Advisors in managing the Funds. The Board then discussed IQ Advisors' and its affiliates' anticipated financial condition following the Merger. The Board noted statements from IQ Advisors' representatives that the financial position of IQ Advisors and its affiliates is not expected to be negatively affected by the Merger. The Board also considered representations from IQ Advisors that the Merger is not expected to have an effect on IQ Advisors' compliance personnel or compliance procedures. Based on the discussions held and the materials presented at the November 11, 2008 meeting, the June 5, 2008 meeting and other prior meetings, the Board determined that the Merger would not likely cause an adverse change in the nature, extent and quality of the services to be provided by IQ Advisors under the New Advisory Agreements and that they expect that the quality of such services will continue to be high.

(b) Investment performance of each Fund and IQ Advisors The Board considered the history, experience, resources and strengths of IQ Advisors and its affiliates in developing and implementing the investment strategies used by each Fund. The Board also considered the innovative nature of each Fund. The Board noted the specialized nature of each Fund's investment strategy and the inherent limitations in comparing a Fund's investment performance to that of another investment company. The Board reviewed each Fund's investment performance and, where applicable, compared such performance to the performance of a relevant reference index. The Board discussed the degree to which each Fund was achieving its investment objective. In particular, the Board noted that the Funds generally performed as expected and met their respective investment objectives. As a result of their discussions and review, the Board concluded that each Fund's performance was satisfactory.

(c) Cost of services provided and profits realized by IQ Advisors and its affiliates from the relationship with each Fund In reviewing the New Advisory Agreements, the Board referred to the materials presented and discussions held in connection with their consideration of the continuation of the Current Advisory Agreement for each respective Fund (other than for MLP Fund) at the June 5, 2008 Board meeting and additional materials presented at the November 11, 2008 Board meeting in connection with the New Agreements for all Funds. At the June 5, 2008 meeting, the Board reviewed and considered a memorandum from IQ Advisors regarding the methodology used by IQ Advisors in allocating its costs regarding the operations of the Funds and calculating each Fund's profitability, including MLP Fund, to IQ Advisors and its affiliates. At the June 5, 2008 meeting, the Directors also reviewed a report detailing IQ Advisors' profitability. After considering their discussion with IQ Advisors at the June 5, 2008 meeting and further discussions at the November 11, 2008 meeting and reviewing IQ Advisors' memorandum and report, the Board concluded that there continued to be a reasonable basis for the allocation of costs and the determination of profitability. The Board considered the cost of the services provided by IQ Advisors to each Fund and the revenue derived by IQ Advisors and its affiliates. The Board took into account discussions that they had with representatives of IQ Advisors at the June 5, 2008 Board meeting regarding its general level of profitability (if any), and the profits derived by its affiliate, BlackRock, Inc. (BlackRock), from operating the Funds. The Directors also considered the direct and indirect benefits derived by other IQ Advisors affiliates, including Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated (MLPF&S), from the establishment of the Funds, including the underwriting arrangements relating to the initial distribution of Fund shares. The Board considered federal court decisions discussing an investment adviser s profitability and profitability levels considered to be reasonable in those decisions. The Directors concluded that any profits made by IQ Advisors and its affiliates (including BlackRock and MLPF&S) are acceptable in relation to the nature, extent and quality of services provided. The Board also concluded that each Fund continued to benefit from such services provided by IQ Advisors affiliates.

(d) The extent to which economies of scale would be realized as a Fund grows and whether fee levels would reflect such economies of scale In considering the extent to which economies of scale might be realized if the assets of a Fund were to increase and whether there should be changes in the advisory fee rate or structure in order to enable a Fund to participate in these economies of scale, the Board referred to the materials presented and discussions held in connection with their considerations at the June 5, 2008 Board meeting and additional materials presented at the November 11, 2008 Board meeting in connection with the New Advisory Agreements. The Board noted that because each Fund is a closed-end fund, any increase in asset levels generally would have to come from appreciation through investment performance. The Board also noted that each Fund, other than Dow 30 Premium, NASDAQ Premium, Dow 30 Enhanced, MLP Fund and S&P 500 Covered, is an interval fund that periodically allows stockholders to tender their shares to the Fund and that such tender offers reduce the amount of Fund assets.

Taking into account the totality of the information and materials provided to them at the November 11, 2008, June 5, 2008 and at other prior meetings, the Board determined that no changes were currently appropriate to each Fund s fee structure.

(e) Comparison of services rendered and fees paid to those under other investment advisory contracts, such as contracts of the same and other investment advisers or other clients The Board considered representations by IQ Advisors that there would be no change in the advisory fee paid by each Fund to IQ Advisors under the New Advisory Agreements as a result of the Merger. In considering the compensation to be paid to IQ Advisors, noting that no changes to such compensation from that payable under the Current Advisory Agreements were proposed, the Board referred to the materials presented and discussions held in connection with their considerations at the June 5, 2008 Board meeting and additional materials presented at the November 11, 2008 Board meeting in connection with the New Advisory Agreements. The Board noted that in connection with such considerations it had received and reviewed a comparison of both the services rendered and the fees paid under the Current Advisory Agreements to the contracts of other investment advisers with respect to other closed-end investment companies. In particular, the Board noted that it evaluated each Fund s contractual fee rate for advisory and administrative services as compared to the contractual fee rate of other closed-end funds chosen by Lipper. The Board noted that each Fund s contractual advisory fee rate at a common asset level was equal to or lower than the median fee rate of its Lipper comparison funds. In connection with its consideration of the New Advisory Agreement for MLP Fund, the Board noted that it had received and reviewed fee comparison data from Lipper at the November 11, 2008 Board meeting.

Taking into account the totality of the information and materials provided to them at the November 11, 2008, June 5, 2008 and at other prior meetings, the Board concluded that the advisory fee rates proposed under each New Advisory Agreement were reasonable for the services being rendered and in comparison to the data reflected in the Lipper materials.

Table of Contents

(f) Conclusion The Board examined the totality of the information they were provided both at the November 11, 2008 and June 5, 2008 Board meetings and did not identify any single factor discussed previously as controlling. After the Independent Directors of each Fund deliberated in executive session, the Board of each Fund, which consists solely of Independent Directors, approved each New Advisory Agreement, concluding that the advisory fee rate was reasonable in relation to the services provided and that the New Advisory Agreement was in the best interests of the stockholders.

At the Meeting, in addition to approving a New Advisory Agreement, you will also be asked to approve a New Subadvisory Agreement between IQ Advisors and, as set forth above, your Fund's current Subadviser. A comparison of the proposed New Subadvisory Agreements and the Current Subadvisory Agreements are included below. A form of each New Subadvisory Agreement is attached hereto as Appendix C. The date of the Current Subadvisory Agreement applicable to each Fund and the date on which it was last submitted for approval by stockholders and the date on which it was last approved for continuance by the Board are provided in Appendix A.

Comparison of the Current Subadvisory Agreements to the New Subadvisory Agreements

The terms of the New Subadvisory Agreements are substantially similar to those of the respective Current Subadvisory Agreements. The fees payable by IQ Advisors to the respective Subadvisers under the New Subadvisory Agreements are identical to those payable under the respective Current Subadvisory Agreements. If approved by stockholders of a Fund, the New Subadvisory Agreement will expire two years from its effective date, unless specifically reapproved in the manner required by the 1940 Act and the rules thereunder. The following discussion provides a comparison of certain terms of the Current Subadvisory Agreements to the terms of the New Subadvisory Agreements.

Investment Advisory Services. The investment advisory services to be provided by the Subadvisers to the Funds under the New Subadvisory Agreements will be the same as those services provided by the Subadvisers to the Funds under the Current Subadvisory Agreements. Both the Current Subadvisory Agreements and New Subadvisory Agreements provide that, subject to the supervision, direction and approval of IQ Advisors and the Board, the Subadvisers will conduct a continual program of investment, evaluation, sale, and reinvestment of the respective Fund's assets. In addition, each Subadvisory Agreement provides that the Subadviser will carry out its duties in a manner consistent with applicable federal and state laws and regulations and exercise its best judgment and act in good faith and use reasonable care in rendering the services it agrees to provide under the Subadvisory Agreement. Each New Subadvisory Agreement includes a new clause clarifying that the Subadviser need not take steps to maintain the Fund's status as a RIC under Subchapter M of the Code, if it would not be in the best interests of a Fund to do so. The investment advisory services will be provided by the same Subadviser personnel under the New Subadvisory Agreement as under the Current Subadvisory Agreement.

Fees. The fees payable to a Subadviser under a Fund's New Subadvisory Agreement are identical to the fees payable to that Subadviser under that Fund's Current Subadvisory Agreement. Specifically, under the Current Subadvisory Agreements and the New Subadvisory Agreements, IQ Advisors has agreed to pay the Subadvisers a monthly fee at the annual rate shown in the table below of the aggregate of the average daily value of the Fund's net assets plus borrowings for any leverage and other investment purposes; however, with respect to Enhanced S&P 500, the Subadviser receives a monthly fee at the annual rate shown in the table below of the aggregate of the average daily value of the Fund's net assets plus borrowings for investment purposes, but excluding any net assets attributable to leveraging transactions. The following table shows the fees paid to the Subadvisers by IQ Advisors for each Fund's most recent fiscal year for services performed under the Current Subadvisory Agreements.

Fund	Fiscal Year End	Subadvisory Fee Rate	Subadvisory Fee Paid
Defined Strategy	September 30	0.35%	$ 275,700
Dow 30 Enhanced	December 31	0.39%	$1,120,994
Dow 30 Premium	December 31	0.39%	$ 915,797
Enhanced S&P 500	December 31	0.40%	$ 543,936
Global Income	December 31	0.40%	$ 545,847
MLP Fund	October 31	0.50%	$1,089,500
NASDAQ Premium	December 31	0.39%	$1,274,885
S&P 500 Covered	December 31	0.40%	$1,220,297
S&P 500 GEARED	December 31	0.35%	$ 276,022
Small Cap	December 31	0.39%	$ 998,215

The table set forth in Appendix F lists other funds registered under the 1940 Act advised by each Subadviser with similar investment objectives to the Fund(s) they subadvise, the net assets of those funds and the advisory/subadvisory fees that the Subadviser received from those funds during the fiscal years ended on the dates noted.

Payment of Expenses. Under both the Current Subadvisory Agreement and the New Subadvisory Agreement, each Subadviser will bear all expenses (excluding expenses to be borne by a Fund as described in the Subadvisory Agreement) in connection with the performance of its services under its respective Subadvisory Agreement. The expenses to be borne by a Fund under its New Subadvisory Agreement are the same as in its Current Subadvisory Agreement.

Table of Contents

Limitation on Liability. The Current Subadvisory Agreements and New Subadvisory Agreements each generally provide that, except as provided in the Subadvisory Agreements and as may otherwise be provided by applicable law, IQ Advisors and the Subadvisers will not be liable to each other, the respective Fund or any stockholder of the respective Fund for any error of judgment, mistake of law, or any loss arising out of any investment or other act or omission in the course of services rendered under the Subadvisory Agreements, except that IQ Advisors and the Subadvisers will be so liable by reason of conduct that constitutes willful misfeasance, bad faith, or gross negligence in the performance of their respective duties or by reason of reckless disregard of their respective obligations and duties under the Subadvisory Agreements.

Continuance. Each Fund's Current Subadvisory Agreement (other than MLP Fund) was renewed for a one-year period at the June 5, 2008 Board meeting and, unless terminated, could have been continued thereafter for successive one-year periods if such continuance was specifically approved at least annually in the manner required by the 1940 Act and the rules thereunder. MLP Fund's Current Subadvisory Agreement was effective as of June 26, 2007, for an initial period of two years and, unless terminated, could have been continued thereafter for successive one-year periods if such continuance was specifically approved at least annually in the manner required by the 1940 Act and the rules thereunder. If the stockholders of a Fund approve the New Subadvisory Agreement for that Fund, the New Subadvisory Agreement will expire two years from its effective date, unless its continuance is approved in the manner required by the 1940 Act and the rules thereunder. The Current Subadvisory Agreements and the New Subadvisory Agreements both contain the same provisions regarding continuance of the Subadvisory Agreement.

Termination. Each Current Subadvisory Agreement and New Subadvisory Agreement provides for termination without penalty, (i) by the Board or by vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Fund upon sixty (60) days' written notice to IQ Advisors and Subadviser, (ii) by the Adviser upon sixty (60) days' written notice to the Fund and Subadviser, or (iii) by the Subadviser upon sixty (60) days' written notice to the Fund and IQ Advisors. As with the Current Subadvisory Agreement, the New Subadvisory Agreement for each Fund also will terminate automatically in the event of assignment or in the event of the assignment or termination of the investment advisory and management agreement between the Adviser and the respective Fund.

Board Considerations in Approving the New Subadvisory Agreements

The New Subadvisory Agreements were approved by the respective Board on behalf of each Fund after consideration of all factors determined to be relevant to their deliberations, including those discussed below. Each Fund's Board authorized the submission of the New Subadvisory Agreement for consideration by the Fund's stockholders in this Joint Proxy Statement. If a New Advisory Agreement is not approved for a Fund, the New Subadvisory Agreement for that Fund will also not take effect.

At an in-person Board meeting held on November 11, 2008, each Fund's Board, including the Independent Directors, approved that Fund's New Subadvisory Agreement between IQ Advisors and the respective Subadviser in respect of each Fund.

The Approval Process. In considering the approval of the New Subadvisory Agreement between IQ Advisors and each Subadviser, the Board received and discussed various materials provided to them in advance of the meetings which included, among other things, a copy of the form of New Subadvisory Agreement, the materials the Board had received in connection with their consideration and approval of the continuation of the Current Subadvisory Agreements (other than for MLP Fund) at the June 5, 2008 Board meeting, additional materials presented at the November 11, 2008 Board meeting in connection with the New Agreements, due diligence materials from IQ Advisors and a report and presentation on the Merger and its potential impact on the services provided to the Funds. In addition, the Board considered materials received at previous meetings of the Board regarding the Funds.

In considering whether to approve the New Subadvisory Agreements, the Board reviewed materials from counsel to the Funds and from IQ Advisors and the Subadvisers including: (i) information concerning the services rendered to the Funds by the Subadvisers; (ii) information concerning the revenues and expenses incurred by the Subadvisers from the operation of the Funds; (iii) a memorandum outlining the legal duties of the Board under the 1940 Act; and (iv) information from Lipper comparing each Fund's fee rate for advisory and administrative services to those of other closed-end funds chosen by Lipper. Each New Subadvisory Agreement was considered separately by the Board. The Independent Directors were represented by independent legal counsel who assisted them in their deliberations. In voting to approve each Fund's New Subadvisory Agreement, the Board considered in particular the following factors:

(a) The nature, extent and quality of services provided by the Subadvisers In reviewing the New Subadvisory Agreements, the Board referred to the materials presented and discussions held in connection with their consideration of the continuation of the Current Subadvisory Agreement for each respective Fund (other than MLP Fund) at the June 5, 2008 Board meeting and additional materials presented at the November 11, 2008 Board meeting in connection with the New Agreements. The Board focused on the experience of the Subadvisers in managing registered funds. The Board considered the reputation and investment experience of the Subadvisers and their investment professionals who have served as portfolio managers and would continue to serve as portfolio managers. The Board noted that it had met with officers of IQ Advisors and members of each Subadviser's portfolio management team to discuss the management of each Fund's investments at recent Board meetings. The Board took into account the annual due diligence investment review of each Subadviser and the report presented at a prior meeting that concluded that each such Subadviser has thus far executed its respective Fund's investment strategies in accordance with the Fund's objectives and general expectations. The Board noted that it had discussed each Fund's investment strategy with representatives from the respective Subadviser, including discussions regarding the premises underlying the Fund's investment strategy, its efficacy and potential risks. The Board also considered the favorable history, reputation and background of each Subadviser and its personnel, and the substantial experience of such Subadviser's portfolio management team. The Board considered the compliance program of each Subadviser and the report of the chief compliance officer of the Funds. Following consideration of this information, and based on management presentations during the November 11, 2008 and

June 5, 2008 Board meetings, the Board concluded that the nature, extent and quality of services provided to each Fund by the applicable Subadviser under the Current Subadvisory Agreement were of a high quality and would continue to benefit the respective Fund. The Board considered that the same services would be provided by the same personnel pursuant to the New Subadvisory Agreements.

(b) Investment performance of each Fund and each Subadviser The Board received and considered information about each Fund's investment performance in light of its stated investment objective at the November 11, 2008 and June 5, 2008 Board meetings and made the determinations discussed above under Board Considerations in Approving the New Advisory Agreements. As a result of their discussions and review, the Board concluded that each Fund's performance was satisfactory.

(c) Cost of services provided and profits realized by each Subadviser from the relationship with each respective Fund The Board considered the profitability to BIM, a subsidiary of BlackRock, by serving as Subadviser to two Funds and from its relationship with IQ Advisors based on the information discussed above under Board Considerations in Approving the New Advisory Agreements. Based on such information, the Board concluded that BIM's profits were acceptable in relation to the nature, extent and quality of services provided. The Board noted that profitability data was not provided with respect to the other Subadvisers of the Funds and concluded that such data was unnecessary because such subadvisory arrangements were entered into at arm's length between IQ Advisors and each such Subadviser (including NAM and HydePark, with which subadvisory arrangements were originally negotiated prior to the investment in their parent company by an affiliate of IQ Advisors). The Board then considered the potential direct and indirect benefits to each Subadviser and its affiliates from their relationship with each of their respective Funds, including the reputational benefits from managing the Funds. The Board concluded that the potential benefits to each Subadviser were consistent with those obtained by other subadvisers in similar types of arrangements.

(d) The extent to which economies of scale would be realized as a Fund grows and whether fee levels would reflect such economies of scale The Board received and considered information about potential economies of scale at the November 11, 2008 and June 5, 2008 Board meetings and made the determinations discussed above under Board Considerations in Approving the New Advisory Agreements.

Taking into account the totality of the information and materials provided to them at the November 11, 2008, June 5, 2008 and at other prior meetings, the Board determined that no changes were currently necessary to each Fund's fee structure.

(e) Comparison of services rendered and fees paid to those under other subadvisory contracts, such as contracts of the same and other investment advisers or other clients The Board considered representations by IQ Advisors that there would be no change in the allocation of the fees between IQ Advisors and Subadvisers in relation to the services provided by a Subadviser, as a result of the Merger. In considering the compensation to be paid to the Subadvisers, noting that no changes to such compensation from that payable under the Current Subadvisory Agreements were proposed, the Board referred to the materials presented and discussions held in connection with their consideration of the continuation of the Current Subadvisory Agreement for the respective Fund (other than for MLP Fund) and additional materials presented at the November 11, 2008 Board meeting in connection with the New Advisory Agreements. The Board noted that, in connection with such considerations, the Board had received and reviewed fee comparison data from Lipper (which included information regarding the fees paid by certain investment advisers to subadvisers of peer funds), and concluded that such information continued to be relevant to their current deliberations. The Board received and reviewed fee comparison data from Lipper for MLP Fund at the November 11, 2008 Board meeting. In reviewing that data, the Board noted that the subadvisory fee with respect to each Fund was at a level that continued to be reasonable and similar to that of comparable funds.

The Board discussed the services rendered by each Subadviser and determined that such services were consistent with those provided by subadvisers generally and sufficient for the management of the Funds. Taking into account the totality of the information and materials provided to them at the November 11, 2008, June 5, 2008 and at other prior meetings, among other things, the fact that the subadvisory fees were negotiated by IQ Advisors on an arm's length basis, the Board concluded that the subadvisory fees proposed under each New Subadvisory Agreement continued to be reasonable for the services being rendered.

(f) Conclusion The Board examined the totality of the information they were provided both at the November 11, 2008 and June 5, 2008 Board meetings and did not identify any single factor discussed previously as controlling. After the Independent Directors of each Fund deliberated in executive session, the Board of each Fund, which consists solely of the Independent Directors, approved each New Subadvisory Agreement, concluding that the subadvisory fee rate was reasonable in relation to the services provided and that the New Subadvisory Agreement was in the best interests of the stockholders.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors

THE BOARD OF EACH FUND UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT STOCKHOLDERS OF THEIR FUND VOTE FOR APPROVAL OF THE NEW SUBADVISORY AGREEMENTS.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Expenses and Methods of Proxy Solicitation. The expenses of preparation, printing and mailing of the enclosed proxy card, the accompanying Notice and this Joint Proxy Statement will be borne by Merrill Lynch, Bank of America or their respective affiliates. Merrill Lynch, Bank of America or their respective affiliates will reimburse banks, brokers and others for their reasonable expenses in forwarding proxy solicitation material to the beneficial owners of the shares of the Funds.

In order to obtain the necessary quorum and vote at the Meeting, supplementary solicitation may be made by mail, telephone, telegraph or personal interview by representatives of the Funds, as well as by financial services firms or their representatives, who will receive no extra compensation for their services. If, by the time scheduled for the Meeting, a quorum of stockholders is not present or if a quorum is present but sufficient votes to allow action on the proposal are not received from the stockholders, the Chairman of the Meeting or, if a stockholder vote is called, the stockholders who are present at the meetings, may adjourn the Meeting to permit further solicitation of proxies from stockholders. Any Meeting convened on the date it was called may be adjourned without further notice other than announcement at the Meeting for up to 120 days after the original record date for that Meeting. The Funds have retained Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc., 51 Mercedes Way, Edgewood, New York 11717, to assist in the solicitation and tabulation of proxies at a cost of approximately $[] per Fund. As stated above, these costs will be borne by Merrill Lynch, Bank of America or their respective affiliates.

Authorizations to execute proxies may be obtained by telephonic transmitted instructions in accordance with procedures designed to authenticate the stockholder's identity. In all cases where a telephonic proxy is solicited, the stockholder will be asked to provide his or her full name, address, social security number or taxpayer identification number and the number of shares owned and to confirm that the stockholder has received the Joint Proxy Statement and proxy card(s) in the mail. Within 72 hours of receiving a stockholder's telephonic transmitted voting instructions, a confirmation will be sent to the stockholder to ensure that the vote has been taken in accordance with the stockholder's instructions and to provide a telephone number to call immediately if the stockholder's instructions are not correctly reflected in the confirmation.

Quorum. The presence in person or by proxy of the holders of shares of stock of a Fund entitled to cast a majority of all of the votes entitled to be cast at the Fund's Meeting shall constitute a quorum with respect to that Fund. The quorum requirements for each Fund must be met separately by each Fund. Because the proposals are separate for each Fund, it is important that stockholders who own shares in more than one Fund complete, sign and return each proxy card they receive. Failure of a quorum to be present at any Meeting will necessitate adjournment. For purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, abstentions and broker non-votes will be treated as shares that are present at the Meeting.

Voting Requirement. All shares represented by properly executed proxies, unless such proxies have previously been revoked, will be voted at the Meeting in accordance with the directions on the proxies; if no direction is indicated, the votes will be cast FOR Proposal 1 and Proposal 2.

Assuming a quorum is present at each Meeting, approval of Proposal 1 and Proposal 2 will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities of the Fund. The vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities is defined in the 1940 Act as the lesser of the vote of (i) 67% or more of the voting securities of the Fund present at the Meeting, if the holders of more than 50% of such outstanding voting securities are present in person or represented by proxy; or (ii) more than 50% of such outstanding voting securities of the Fund.

Broker Non-Votes and Abstentions. Broker-dealer firms, including MLPF&S, holding shares of a Fund in street name for the benefit of their customers and clients, will request the instructions of such customers and clients on how to vote their shares before the Meeting. The Funds understand that, under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE), in certain, non-routine matters, such as the approval of the New Advisory Agreement (Proposal 1) and the New Subadvisory Agreement (Proposal 2), a broker member may not authorize any proxy without instructions from the customer. Votes that, in accordance with the NYSE rules, are not cast by broker-dealer firms on those non-routine matters because the broker did not receive instructions are called broker non-votes. With respect to the proposal to approve the New Advisory Agreements and the New Subadvisory Agreements, broker non-votes and abstentions will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal, although they will be considered present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum at the Meeting.

If, at the Meeting, a validly executed proxy is submitted by a broker-dealer or record holder and no voting instructions are given, the stockholders represented by the proxy will be present for purposes of obtaining a quorum at the Meeting and the persons named as proxy holders will cast all votes entitled to be cast pursuant to that proxy FOR Proposal 1 to approve the New Advisory Agreement and FOR Proposal 2 to approve the New Subadvisory Agreement.

Other Matters. Under Maryland law, the only matters that may be acted on at a special meeting of stockholders are those stated in the notice of the special meeting. Accordingly, other than procedural matters relating to Proposals 1 and 2, no other business may properly come before the Meeting. If any such procedural matter requiring a vote of stockholders should arise, or any question as to an adjournment of the Meeting is submitted to stockholders, the persons named as proxies will vote on such procedural matters in accordance with their judgment of the best interests of the Fund.

Enhanced S&P 500, for which IQ Advisors will pay the Administrator a fee from its investment advisory fee at an annual rate equal to 0.12% of the average daily value of the Fund's net assets plus borrowings for investment purposes, but excluding any net assets attributable to leveraging transactions, for the performance of administrative and other services necessary for the operation of the Fund. There is no increase in the aggregate fees paid by the Funds for these services. The Administrator is an indirect subsidiary of BlackRock.

Report Delivery. Each Fund will furnish, without charge, a copy of its most recent Annual Report or Semi-Annual Report to any stockholder upon request. Such requests should be directed to the attention of the Fund Secretary, P.O. Box 9011, Princeton, NJ 08543-9011, Attention: Colleen R. Rusch, or call 1-877-449-4742. A copy will also be available on www.IQIAFunds.com.

Delivery of Proxy Materials. A single Joint Proxy Statement and Notice of Special Meeting of Stockholders will be delivered to two or more stockholders who share an address, unless the Funds have received contrary instructions from one or more stockholders. The Funds will furnish, without charge, upon request, a separate copy of the Joint Proxy Statement and Notice of Special Meeting of Stockholders to any stockholder at a shared address to which a single copy was delivered. Further, stockholders who share an address and are receiving multiple copies of the Joint Proxy Statement and Notice of Special Meeting of Stockholders may contact the Funds in order to receive a single copy of any future proxy statement or notice. Such requests should be directed to the attention of the Funds' Secretary at: P.O. Box 9011, Princeton, New Jersey, 08543-9011, Attention: Colleen R. Rusch, or call 1-877-449-4742.

Stockholder Proposals. Each Fund's current Bylaws provide that in order for a stockholder to nominate a candidate for election as a Director at an annual meeting of stockholders or propose business for consideration at such meeting, written notice containing the information required by the current Bylaws generally must be delivered to the Secretary of the Fund, not later than 5:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) on the 120th day, and not earlier than the 150th day, prior to the first anniversary of the mailing of the notice for the preceding year's annual meeting. Accordingly, a stockholder nomination or proposal intended to be considered at the 2009 Annual Meeting must have been received by the Secretary of the Fund on or after October 15, 2008 and prior to 5:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) on November 14, 2008. Also, under the rules of the SEC, if a stockholder wishes to submit a proposal for possible inclusion in the Fund's 2009 annual meeting proxy statement pursuant to Rule 14a-8 of the Exchange Act, the Fund must have received it on or before November 14, 2008. All nominations and proposals must be in writing. Written proposals and notices should be sent to Colleen R. Rusch, Secretary of the Fund, P.O. Box 9011, Princeton, NJ 08543-9011.

Please vote promptly by signing and dating each enclosed proxy card, and if received by mail, returning it in the accompanying postage-paid return envelope OR by following the enclosed instructions to provide voting instructions by telephone or over the Internet.

INVESTMENT ADVISORY AND MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT

ENTERED INTO BETWEEN
IQ INVESTMENT ADVISORS LLC

AND

FUND INC.

This Investment Advisory Agreement (the Agreement) is entered into as of _____, by and between the _____ FUND INC. (the Fund), a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Maryland, and IQ INVESTMENT ADVISORS LLC, a limited liability company duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware (the Adviser).

WHEREAS, the Fund is a closed-end management investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the 1940 Act); and

WHEREAS, the Adviser is engaged principally in rendering management and investment advisory services and is registered as an investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (the Advisers Act); and

WHEREAS, the Adviser is willing to provide management and investment advisory services to the Fund on the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements set out in this Agreement, the Fund and the Adviser agree as follows:

1. Investment Description; Appointment

(a) INVESTMENT DESCRIPTION. The Fund will invest and reinvest its assets in accordance with the investment objective(s), policies and limitations specified in the prospectus (the Prospectus) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) as part of the Fund's Registration Statement on Form N-2, as may be periodically amended.

(b) APPOINTMENT OF ADVISER. The Fund hereby employs the Adviser to act as a manager and investment adviser of the Fund and to furnish, or arrange for its affiliates or other subadvisers to furnish, the management and investment advisory services described below, subject to the policies of, review by and overall control of the Board of Directors of the Fund (the Board), for the period and on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement. The Adviser hereby accepts such employment and agrees during such period, at its own expense, to render, or arrange for the rendering of, such services and to assume the obligations herein set for the compensation provided for herein. The Adviser and its affiliates for all purposes herein shall be deemed to be independent contractors and, unless otherwise expressly provided or authorized, shall have no authority to act for or represent the Fund in any way or otherwise be deemed agents of the Fund.

2. Duties of the Investment Adviser attorneys, underwriters, brokers and dealers, corporate fiduciaries, insurers, banks and such other persons in any such other capacity deemed to be necessary or desirable. The Adviser generally shall monitor the Fund's compliance with investment policies and restrictions as set forth in filings made by the Fund under the federal securities laws. The Adviser shall make reports to the Board of its performance of obligations hereunder and furnish advice and recommendations with respect to such other aspects of the business and affairs of the Fund as it shall determine to be desirable.

(b) INVESTMENT ADVISORY SERVICES. Subject to the supervision, direction and approval of the Board, the Adviser will conduct a continual program of investment, evaluation, sale, and reinvestment of the Fund's assets. Subject to paragraph (c) below, the Adviser is authorized, in its sole discretion, to: (a) obtain and evaluate pertinent economic, financial, and other information affecting the economy generally and certain investment assets as such information relates to securities or other financial instruments that are purchased for or considered for purchase by the Fund; (b) make investment decisions for the Fund; (c) place purchase and sale orders for portfolio transactions on behalf of the Fund and manage otherwise uninvested cash assets of the Fund; (d) arrange for the pricing of Fund securities; (e) execute account documentation, agreements, contracts and other documents as may be requested by brokers, dealers, counterparties and other persons in connection with the Adviser's management of the assets of the Fund (in such respect, and only for this limited purpose, the Adviser will act as the Fund's agent and attorney-in-fact); (f) employ professional portfolio managers and securities analysts who provide research services to the Fund; and (g) make decisions with respect to the use by the Fund of borrowing for leverage or other investment purposes. The Adviser will in general take such action as is appropriate to effectively manage the Fund's investment practices. In addition,

(i) The Adviser will maintain and preserve the records specified in Section 15 of this Agreement and any other records related to the Fund's transactions as are required under any applicable state or federal securities law or regulation, including: the 1940 Act, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), and the Advisers Act.

(ii) The Adviser will comply with procedures of the Board (Board Procedures) provided to the Adviser by the Fund. The Adviser will notify the Fund as soon as reasonably practicable upon detection of any material breach of such Board Procedures.

(iii) The Adviser will maintain a written code of ethics (the Code of Ethics) that it reasonably believes complies with the requirements of Rule 17j-1 under the 1940 Act (Rule 17j-1), a copy of which will be provided to the Fund, and will institute procedures reasonably necessary to prevent any Access Person (as defined in Rule 17j-1) from violating its Code of Ethics. The Adviser will follow such Code of Ethics in performing its services under this Agreement. Further, the Adviser represents that it has policies and procedures regarding the detection and prevention of the misuse of material, nonpublic information by the Adviser and its employees as required by the Insider Trading and Securities Fraud Enforcement Act of 1988, a copy of which it will provide to the Fund upon any reasonable request.

(iv) The Adviser will manage the investment and reinvestment of the assets of the Fund in a manner consistent with the requirements of Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), subject to the best interests of the Fund. In addition, the Adviser will manage the Fund's assets in accordance with the Fund's investment objectives and policies as stated in the Prospectus. The Adviser also will manage the investments of the Fund in a manner consistent with any and all applicable investment restrictions (including diversification requirements) contained in the 1940 Act and the rules and regulations under the Act, any SEC no-action letter or order applicable to the Fund, and any applicable state securities law or regulation.

(c) SUBADVISERS. In carrying out its responsibilities hereunder, the Adviser may employ, retain or otherwise avail itself of the services of other persons or entities including without limitation, affiliates of the Adviser, on such terms as the Adviser shall determine to be necessary, desirable or appropriate. However, if the Adviser chooses to retain or avail itself of the services of another person or entity to manage assets of the Fund (a Subadviser), such other person or entity must be (i) registered as an investment adviser under the Advisers Act, (ii) retained at the Adviser s own cost and expense and (iii) retained subject to the requirements of Section 15 of the 1940 Act. Retention of one or more Subadvisers, or the employment or retention of other persons or entities to perform services, shall in no way reduce the responsibilities or obligations of the Adviser under this Agreement and the Adviser shall be responsible for all acts and omissions of such Subadvisers, or other persons or entities, in connection with the performance of the Adviser s duties hereunder.

3. Information and Reports

(a) The Adviser will keep the Fund informed of developments relating to its duties as investment adviser of which the Adviser has, or should have, knowledge that would materially affect the Fund. In this regard, the Adviser will provide the Fund and its officers with such periodic reports concerning the obligations the Adviser has assumed under this Agreement as the Fund may from time to time reasonably request. Additionally, prior to each Board meeting, the Adviser will provide the Board, or cause any Subadviser to provide the Board, with reports regarding the management of the Fund during the most recently completed quarter, to include written certifications that the Fund is in compliance with the Fund s investment objectives and practices, the 1940 Act and applicable rules and regulations under the Act, and the requirements of Subchapter M of the Code, and otherwise in such form as may be mutually agreed upon by the Adviser and the Fund. The Adviser also will certify quarterly to the Fund that it and its Advisory Persons (as defined in Rule 17j-1) have complied materially with the requirements of Rule 17j-1 during the previous quarter or, if not, explain what the Adviser has done to seek to ensure such compliance in the future. Annually, the Adviser will furnish a written report, which complies with the requirements of Rule 17j-1, concerning the Adviser s Code of Ethics to the Fund. Upon written request of the Fund with respect to violations of the Code of Ethics directly affecting the Fund, the Adviser will permit representatives of the Fund to examine reports (or summaries of the reports) required to be made by Rule 17j-1(d)(1) relating to enforcement of the Code of Ethics.

(b) The Adviser also will provide the Fund with any information reasonably requested regarding its management of the Fund required for any shareholder report, amended registration statement, or prospectus supplement to be filed by the Fund with the SEC. The Adviser will promptly inform the Fund if any information in the Prospectus or Statement of Additional Information, as amended from time to time (SAI), is (or will become) inaccurate or incomplete.

4. Standard of Care

The Adviser will exercise its best judgment and will act in good faith and use reasonable care and in a manner consistent with applicable federal and state laws and regulations in rendering the services it agrees to provide under this Agreement. The Adviser shall not be liable for any error of judgment or mistake of law or for any loss arising out of any investment or for any act or omission in the management of the Fund, except for willful misfeasance, bad faith or gross negligence in the performance of its duties, or by reason of reckless disregard of its obligations and duties hereunder. As used in this Section 4, the term Adviser shall include any affiliates of the Adviser performing services for the Fund contemplated hereby, and directors, officers and employees of the Adviser and of such affiliates.

5. Adviser s Duties Regarding Fund Transactions

(a) PLACEMENT OF ORDERS. The Adviser will take all actions that it considers necessary to implement the investment policies of the Fund, and, in particular, to place all orders for the purchase or sale of securities or other investments for the Fund with brokers or dealers the Adviser, in its sole discretion, selects. To that end, the Adviser is authorized as the Fund's agent to give instructions to the Fund's custodian as to deliveries of securities or other investments and payments of cash for the Fund's account. In connection with the selection of brokers or dealers and the placement of purchase and sale orders, the Adviser is subject to the supervision of the Board and is directed at all times to seek to obtain best execution and price within the policy guidelines determined by the Board and set out in the Fund's current Prospectus, subject to provisions (b), (c) and (d) of this Section 5.

(b) SELECTION OF BROKERS AND DEALERS. To the extent permitted by the policy guidelines set out in the Fund's current Prospectus, in the selection of brokers and dealers to execute portfolio transactions, the Adviser is authorized to consider not only the available prices and rates of brokerage commissions, but also other relevant factors, which may include, without limitation: the execution capabilities of the brokers and dealers; the research, custody, and other services provided by the brokers and dealers that the Adviser believes will enhance its general portfolio management capabilities; the size of the transaction; the difficulty of execution; the operational facilities of these brokers and dealers; the risk to a broker or dealer of positioning a block of securities; and the overall quality of brokerage and research services provided by the brokers and dealers. In connection with the foregoing, the Adviser is specifically authorized to pay those brokers and dealers who provide brokerage and research services to the Adviser a higher commission than that charged by other brokers and dealers if the Adviser determines in good faith that the amount of the commission is reasonable in relation to the value of the services in terms of either the particular transaction or in terms of the Adviser's overall responsibilities with respect to the Fund and to any other client accounts or portfolios that the Adviser advises. The execution of such transactions will not be considered to represent an unlawful breach of any duty created by this Agreement or otherwise.

(c) SOFT DOLLAR ARRANGEMENTS. On an ongoing basis, but not less often than annually, the Adviser will identify and provide a written description to the Board of all soft dollar arrangements that the Adviser maintains with respect to the Fund or with brokers or dealers that execute transactions for the Fund, and of all research and other services provided to the Adviser by a broker or dealer (whether prepared by such broker or dealer or by a third party) as a result, in whole or in part, of the direction of Fund transactions to the broker or dealer.

(d) AGGREGATED TRANSACTIONS. On occasions when the Adviser deems the purchase or sale of a security or other financial instrument to be in the best interest of the Fund, as well as other clients, the Adviser is authorized, but not required, to aggregate purchase and sale orders for securities or other financial instruments held (or to be held) by the Fund with similar orders being made on the same day for other client accounts or portfolios that the Adviser manages. When an order is so aggregated, the Adviser may allocate the recommendations or transactions among all accounts and portfolios for whom the recommendation is made or transaction is effected on a basis that the Adviser reasonably considers equitable and consistent with its fiduciary obligations to the Fund and its other clients. The Adviser and the Fund recognize that in some cases this procedure may adversely affect the size of the position obtainable for the Fund.

6. Compensation

For the services rendered, the facilities furnished and the expenses assumed by the Adviser, the Fund shall pay to the Adviser at the end of each calendar month a fee based upon the average daily value of the net assets of the Fund at the annual rate of _____% of an aggregate of (i) the Fund's average daily net assets and (ii) the proceeds of any outstanding borrowings used for leverage (average daily net assets means the average daily value of the total assets of the Fund, including the amount obtained from leverage and any proceeds from the issuance of preferred stock, minus the sum of (i) accrued liabilities of the Fund, (ii) any accrued and unpaid interest on outstanding borrowings and (iii) accumulated dividends on shares of outstanding preferred stock), commencing on the day following effectiveness hereof. For purposes of this calculation, average daily net assets is determined at the end of each month on the basis of the average net assets of the Fund for each day during the month. It is understood that the liquidation preference of any outstanding preferred stock (other than accumulated dividends) is not considered a liability in determining the Fund's average daily net assets. The fee for the period from the Effective Date (defined below) of the Agreement to the end of the month during which the Effective Date occurs will be prorated according to the proportion that such period bears to the full monthly period. Upon any termination of this Agreement before the end of a month, the fee for such part of that month will be prorated according to the proportion that such period bears to the full monthly period and will be payable upon the date of termination of this Agreement. For the purpose of determining fees payable to the Adviser, the value of the Fund's net assets will be computed at the times and in the manner specified in the Prospectus, and on days on which the net assets are not so determined, the net asset value computation to be used will be as determined on the immediately preceding day on which the net assets were determined.

7. Expenses

(a) THE ADVISER. Except as may otherwise be provided in Section 7(b) hereof, the Adviser shall (i) provide the staff and personnel necessary to perform its obligations under this Agreement, assume and pay or cause to be paid all expenses incurred in connection with the maintenance of such staff and personnel, and, at its own expense, provide the office space, facilities, equipment and necessary personnel which it is obligated to provide hereunder; and (ii) pay, or cause its affiliates to pay, compensation of all officers and directors of the Fund who are affiliated persons of the Adviser.

It also is understood that if the Adviser or any of its affiliates provide accounting services to the Fund, the Fund will reimburse the Adviser and its affiliates for their costs in providing such accounting services to the Fund using a methodology for determining costs approved by the Board.

The Fund understands that the Adviser and its affiliates now act, will continue to act and may act in the future as investment manager or adviser to fiduciary and other managed accounts, and as an investment manager or adviser to other investment companies, including any offshore entities or private accounts. The Fund has no objection to the Adviser and its affiliates so acting, provided, that, whenever the Fund and one or more other investment companies or accounts managed or advised by the Adviser and its affiliates have available funds for investment, investments suitable and appropriate for each will be allocated in accordance with a formula reasonably believed to be equitable to each such company and account. The Fund recognizes that in some cases this procedure may adversely affect the size of the position obtainable for the Fund

This Agreement will not in any way limit or restrict the Adviser or any of its directors, officers, employees, or agents from buying, selling or trading any securities or other investment instruments for its or their own account or for the account of others for whom it or they may be acting, provided that such activities will not adversely affect or otherwise impair the performance by the Adviser of its duties and obligations under this Agreement.

4. Standard of Care

The Subadviser will exercise its best judgment and will act in good faith and use reasonable care and in a manner consistent with applicable federal and state laws and regulations in rendering the services it agrees to provide under this Agreement.

5. Subadviser's Duties Regarding Fund Transactions

(a) PLACEMENT OF ORDERS. The Subadviser will take all actions that it considers necessary to implement the investment policies of the Fund, and, in particular, to place all orders for the purchase or sale of securities or other investments for the Fund with brokers or dealers that the Subadviser, in its sole discretion, selects. To that end, the Subadviser is authorized as the Fund's agent to give instructions to the Fund's custodian as to deliveries of securities or other investments and payments of cash for the Fund's account. In connection with the selection of brokers or dealers and the placement of purchase and sale orders, the Subadviser is directed at all times to seek to obtain best execution and price within the policy guidelines determined by the Board and set out in the Fund's current Prospectus, subject to provisions (b), (c) and (d) of this Section 5.

(b) SELECTION OF BROKERS AND DEALERS. To the extent permitted by the policy guidelines set out in the Fund's current Prospectus, in connection with the selection of brokers and dealers to execute portfolio transactions, the Subadviser is authorized to consider not only the available prices and rates of brokerage commissions, but also other relevant factors, which may include, without limitation: the execution capabilities of the brokers and dealers; the research, custody, and other services provided by the brokers and dealers that the Subadviser believes will enhance its general portfolio management capabilities; the size of the transaction; the difficulty of execution; the operational facilities of such brokers and dealers; the risk to a broker or dealer of positioning a block of securities; and the overall quality of brokerage and research services provided by the brokers and dealers. In connection with the foregoing, the Subadviser is specifically authorized to pay those brokers and dealers who provide brokerage and research services to the Subadviser a higher commission than that charged by other brokers and dealers if the Subadviser determines in good faith that the amount of the commission is reasonable in relation to the value of the services in terms of either the particular transaction or in terms of the Subadviser's overall responsibilities with respect to the Fund and to any other client accounts or portfolios that the Subadviser advises. The execution of such transactions will not be considered to represent an unlawful breach of any duty created by this Agreement or otherwise.

(c) SOFT DOLLAR ARRANGEMENTS. On an ongoing basis, but not less often than annually, the Subadviser will identify and provide a written description to the Board and the Adviser of all soft dollar arrangements that the Subadviser maintains with respect to the Fund or with brokers or dealers that execute transactions for the Fund, and of all research and other services provided to the Subadviser by a broker or dealer (whether prepared by such broker or dealer or by a third party) as a result, in whole or in part, of the direction of Fund transactions to the broker or dealer.

(d) AGGREGATED TRANSACTIONS. On occasions when the Subadviser deems the purchase or sale of a security or other financial instrument to be in the best interest of the Fund well as other clients, the Subadviser is authorized, but not required, to aggregate purchase and sale orders for securities or other financial instruments held (or to be held) by the Fund with similar orders being made on the same day for other client accounts or portfolios that the Subadviser manages. When an order is so aggregated, the Subadviser may allocate the recommendations or transactions among all accounts and portfolios for whom the recommendation is made or transaction is effected on a basis that the Subadviser reasonably considers equitable and consistent with its fiduciary obligations to the Fund and its other clients. The Subadviser, the Adviser and the Fund recognize that in some cases this procedure may adversely affect the size of the position obtainable for the Fund.

6. Compensation

For its services, the Adviser shall pay the Subadviser at the end of each calendar month a fee based upon the average daily value of the net assets of the Fund at the annual rate of _____ % of an aggregate of (i) the Fund's average daily net assets and (ii) the proceeds of any outstanding borrowings used for leverage (average daily net assets means the average daily value of the total assets of the Fund, including the amount obtained from leverage and any proceeds from the issuance of preferred stock, minus the sum of (i) accrued liabilities of the Fund, (ii) any accrued and unpaid interest on outstanding borrowings and (iii) accumulated dividends on shares of outstanding preferred stock), commencing on the day following effectiveness hereof. For purposes of this calculation, average daily net assets is determined at the end of each month on the basis of the average net assets of the Fund for each day during the month. It is understood that the liquidation preference of any outstanding preferred stock (other than accumulated dividends) is not considered a liability in determining the Fund's average daily net assets. The Subadviser will have no right to obtain compensation directly from the Fund for services provided under this Agreement and agrees to look solely to the Adviser for payment of fees due. The fee for the period from the Effective Date (defined below) of the Agreement to the end of the month during which the Effective Date occurs will be prorated according to the proportion that such period bears to the full monthly period. Upon any termination of this Agreement before the end of a month, the fee for such part of that month will be prorated according to the proportion that such period bears to the full monthly period and will be payable upon the date of termination of this Agreement. For the purpose of determining fees payable to the Subadviser, the value of the Fund's net assets will be computed at the times and in the manner specified in the Prospectus, and on days on which the net assets are not so determined, the net asset value computation to be used will be as determined on the immediately preceding day on which the net assets were determined.

7. Expenses

The Subadviser will bear all expenses (excluding expenses to be borne by the Fund as described in the following sentence) in connection with the performance of its services under this Agreement. 17. Limitation of Liability; Indemnification

(a) LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. Except as provided in this Agreement and as may otherwise be provided by the 1940 Act or other federal securities laws, the Adviser and its respective officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives or persons controlled by them (collectively, the Related Parties) on the one hand, and the Subadviser and the Subadviser Related Parties on the other hand, will not be liable to each other, the Fund or any shareholder of the Fund for any error or judgment, mistake of law, or any loss arising out of any investment or other act or omission in the course of, connected with, or arising out of any services to be rendered under this Agreement, except that the Adviser, the Subadviser and any respective Related Party will be so liable by reason of conduct that constitutes willful misfeasance, bad faith, or gross negligence in the performance of its duties or by reason of reckless disregard of its obligations and duties under this Agreement.

(b) SUBADVISER INDEMNITY TO THE ADVISER. The Subadviser agrees to indemnify and defend the Adviser, the Adviser's Related Parties, or any affiliate of the Adviser or such affiliate's respective Related Parties, for any loss, liability, cost, damage, or expenses (including reasonable investigation and defense costs and reasonable attorneys fees and costs) arising out of any claim, demand, action, suit, or proceeding arising out of (i) the Subadviser's conduct that constitutes willful misfeasance, bad faith, or gross negligence in the performance of its duties or by reason of reckless disregard of its obligations and duties under this Agreement, or (ii) any actual or alleged material misstatement or omission in the Fund's registration statement, any proxy statement, or communication to current or prospective investors in the Fund relating to disclosure about the Subadviser or the Fund provided to the Adviser or the Fund by the Subadviser.

(c) THE ADVISER INDEMNITY TO SUBADVISER. The Adviser agrees to indemnify and defend the Subadviser, the Subadviser's Related Parties, or any affiliate of the Subadviser or such affiliate's respective Related Parties, for any loss, liability, cost, damage, or expenses (including reasonable investigation and defense costs and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs) arising out of any claim, demand, action, suit, or proceeding arising out of (i) the Adviser's conduct that constitutes willful misfeasance, bad faith, or gross negligence in the performance of its duties or by reason of reckless disregard of its obligations and duties under this Agreement, or (ii) any actual or alleged material misstatement or omission in the Fund's registration statement, any proxy statement, or other communication to current or prospective investors in the Fund (other than a misstatement or omission relating to disclosure about the Subadviser or the Fund provided to the Adviser or the Fund by the Subadviser).

(d) INDEMNIFICATION PROCEDURES. Promptly after receipt of notice of the commencement of any action by a party seeking to be indemnified under this Section 17 (the Indemnified Party), the Indemnified Party will, if a claim in respect thereof is to be made against a party against whom indemnification is sought under this Section 17 (the Indemnifying Party), notify the Indemnifying Party in writing of the commencement thereof; provided, however, that the omission to notify the Indemnifying Party will not relieve the Indemnifying Party from any liability which it may have to any Indemnified Party otherwise than under the provisions of this Agreement, and will relieve it from liability under this Agreement only to the extent that such omission results in the forfeiture by the Indemnifying Party of rights or defenses with respect to such action. In any action or proceeding, following provision of proper notice by the Indemnified Party of the existence of such action, the Indemnifying Party will be entitled to participate in any such action and, to the extent that it will wish, participate jointly with any other Indemnifying Party similarly notified, to assume the defense thereof, with counsel of its choice (unless any conflict of interest requires the appointment of separate counsel), and after notice from the Indemnifying Party to such Indemnified Party of its election to assume the defense of the action, the Indemnifying Party will not be liable to such Indemnified Party under this Agreement for any legal expense of the other counsel subsequently incurred without the Indemnifying Party's consent. The Indemnified Party will cooperate in the defense or settlement of claims so assumed. The Indemnifying Party will not be liable under this Agreement for the settlement by the Indemnified Party for any claim or demand unless the Indemnifying Party has previously approved the settlement or it has been notified of such claim or demand and has failed to provide a defense in accordance with the provisions hereof. In the event that any proceeding involving the Indemnifying Party will be commenced by the Indemnified Party in connection with the Agreement, or the transactions contemplated under this Agreement, and such proceeding will be finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in favor of the Indemnifying Party, the Indemnified Party will be liable to the Indemnifying Party for any reasonable attorney's fees and direct costs relating to such proceedings. The indemnifications provided in this Section 17 will survive the termination of this Agreement.

18. Survival

All representations and warranties made by the Subadviser and the Adviser in this Agreement will survive for the duration of this Agreement and the parties to this Agreement will notify each other in writing immediately upon becoming aware, but in no event later than five (5) days after becoming aware, that any of the foregoing representations and warranties are no longer true.
