Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On December 16, 2008, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of TigerLogic Corporation (the Company) recommended, and on December 18, 2008, the Board of Directors of the Company approved certain amendments to each of (i) the Change of Control and Severance Agreement between the Company and Carlton H. Baab (the Baab Severance Agreement) and (ii) the Offer Letter between the Company and Thomas G. Lim (the Lim Offer Letter). The amendments to each of the agreements were primarily made to bring such agreements into compliance with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), and the regulations and other guidance promulgated thereunder (Section 409A). Section 409A is the tax law enacted in 2004 governing nonqualified deferred compensation arrangements that imposes an additional tax and penalties on service providers (including employees and directors) if a covered arrangement does not comply with Section 409A. Such agreements were amended to, among other things, reflect new rules governing the timing of certain payments. The Baab Severance Agreement was also amended to clarify Mr. Baab's current health plan arrangements with the Company and to eliminate discretionary better-of provisions for reduction of benefits as provided under Section 280G of the Code. In addition, the amendment to the Lim Offer Letter provided for the removal of certain noncompetition provisions and the elimination of acceleration of equity awards other than in connection with a change of control of the Company. Certain other non-material changes were also made to the above-listed documents.

The descriptions of the amendments to the Baab Severance Agreement and the Lim Offer Letter contained in this Current Report on Form 8-K are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of such agreements, copies of which have been included as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
