Fulton Financial Corporation ( Fulton ) is a participant in the Capital Purchase Program ( CPP ), which is a part of the Troubled Assets Relief Program established by the United States Department of Treasury ( Treasury ) pursuant to the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act of 2008 ( EESA ), which was modified by the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 ( ARRA ). To comply with certain EESA and ARRA executive compensation standards applicable to its senior executive officers ( SEO s ), Fulton requested its SEO s to enter into separate letter agreements with Fulton in which each SEO agreed to be subject to all current and future limitations and restrictions on compensation imposed by EESA, ARRA or by any related Treasury regulations until such time as Fulton ceases to be subject to the CPP compensation standards.

To comply with the applicable executive compensation standards under EESA and ARRA, each SEO signed a letter agreement to: (a) be ineligible to receive compensation under any compensation plan that Fulton s Human Resources Committee of the Board of Directors determines includes incentives for a SEO to take unnecessary and excessive risks that threaten the value of Fulton; (b) forego any golden parachute payment in connection with severance from employment; (c) forego any bonus, retention award or incentive compensation, unless specifically permitted by EESA and ARRA; (d) forfeit and pay back to Fulton any bonus, retention award or incentive compensation paid to a SEO during the time Fulton participated in CPP if such bonus, retention award or incentive compensation payment is prohibited by the EESA and ARRA or was based on materially inaccurate financial statements or any other materially inaccurate performance metric criteria; and (e) forego any gross-up payments, payment or reimbursement of any excessive or luxury expenditures and any other compensation or payments prohibited by EESA and ARRA.

On December 22, 2009, Messrs. Smith, Wenger, Nugent, Shreiner and Hill each executed the letter agreement with Fulton, in the form of Exhibit 10.1 to this current report on Form 8-K.
