Item 8.01. Other Events.

Manitex International, Inc. announced on June 30, 2010, that its newly formed Italian subsidiary, CVS Ferrari, srl, had entered into an agreement to operate, on an exclusive rental basis, during the Italian bankruptcy process (concordato preventivo) the business of CVS SpA. CVS SpA is located near Milan, Italy and designs and manufactures a range of reach stackers and associated lifting equipment for the global container handling market, sold through a broad dealer network.

Subsequent to June 30, 2010, CVS Ferrari, srl commenced operations. Under the rental agreement, CVS Ferrari, srl is required to give the Italian Court a standby letter of credit for 1.0 million Euros to secure its commitments under the rental agreement. Items being guaranteed by the standby letter of credit include the payment of the monthly fee to rent the CVS SpA business and the purchase of inventory (purchased as needed).

On September 24, 2010, Comerica Bank issued a 1.0 million Euro standby letter as required by the rental agreement. The standby letter of credit expires on July 31, 2012. Although Comerica has a security interest in substantially all the assets of the Company to support the standby letter of credit issued by Comerica, the issuance of the standby letter of credit does not impact Company's availability under its revolving credit facilities it has with Comerica.
