Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets

On October 29, 2010, Spot Mobile Corp., our wholly-owned subsidiary (Spot Mobile), acquired certain technology assets (the Technology Assets) from Yak America Inc. The Technology Assets are to be used in connection with Spot Mobile Corp.'s offering of mobile virtual network services. The Technology Assets include a telecommunications switching platform and all related hardware and software including assets and systems Spot Mobile will use for switching, routing, billing, payment systems, fraud monitoring, database management, customer service, web-based services, e-mail servers, accounting systems, network management, interactive voice response systems and any additional hardware and software enhancements to these systems.

Yak America Inc. is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Blackbird Corporation (Blackbird), formerly a principal shareholder of the Company. Our officers and directors are also officers and directors of Blackbird. In consideration for the acquisition of the Technology Assets, Spot Mobile agreed to assume certain secured indebtedness of Blackbird in the amount of $1,175,000. Spot Mobile has agreed to conduct a third party valuation of the Technology Assets and in the event it is determined that the value of such Technology Assets exceeds $1,175,000, then Spot Mobile and Yak America Inc. will mutually agree on the applicable adjustment to the purchase price for the Technology Assets and the payment terms thereof.

Item 8.01 Other Events

On November 4, 2010, we issued a press release announcing the acquisition of the Technology Assets. A copy of the press release is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report and is incorporated by reference herein.
