Table of ContentsNomura Reports Third Quarter Financial Results

Highest quarterly revenues since September 2009, despite challenging market conditions

All three divisions posted higher net revenue and income before income taxes

Retail client assets increased to 72.3 trillion yen

Assets under management rose to 24.1 trillion yen

Diversified revenue mix in Global Markets and significantly increased international revenues in Investment Banking

Strong balance sheet: Tier 1 ratio of 17.3 percent and gross leverage of just 16.2 times

Tokyo, February 2, 2011 Nomura Holdings, Inc. today announced its consolidated financial results for the third quarter of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2011.

Third quarter net revenue was 295.9 billion yen (US$3.62 billion)¹, an increase of 7 percent over the second quarter and 8 percent over the same quarter last year. Income before income taxes was 27.8 billion yen (US$340 million), up 29 percent from the prior quarter and 55 percent year on year. Net income attributable to Nomura Holdings shareholders increased 13 times quarter on quarter and 31 percent year on year to 13.4 billion yen (US$164 million).

Nomura had another solid quarter with all divisions delivering stronger results despite continuing market challenges, said Kenichi Watanabe, Nomura's President and Chief Executive Officer.

Our Retail division increased client assets, while Asset Management generated higher revenues on a rise in assets under management. Wholesale gained further momentum with robust client activities in Global Markets and an increasingly diverse revenue mix as our US franchise gained traction. Cross-divisional partnership between Investment Banking and Global Markets led to a number of high-profile deals.

Our capital ratios remain among the highest in the industry. Looking ahead, we are well positioned to deliver on our client-focused strategy and generate long-term value for shareholders.

Table of ContentsDivisional Performance*Retail

Net revenue in Retail increased 11 percent quarter on quarter to 97.5 billion yen and income before income taxes gained 1 percent to 23 billion yen. Retail client assets increased from 68.1 trillion yen to 72.3 trillion yen during the quarter on net asset inflows of 2.1 trillion yen and improved market conditions. Nomura's consulting based approach continued to meet the needs of retail investors and the company expanded its Retail franchise across core products. There was robust demand from retail investors for domestic and international equities and strong inflows of funds from large primary offerings. High yield and equity products led an expansion in Nomura's investment trust business during the quarter.

Asset Management

Asset Management third quarter net revenue was 21.4 billion yen, an increase of 11 percent over the prior quarter, while income before income taxes was 7 billion yen, up 34 percent. Assets under management grew to 24.1 trillion yen on fund inflows into publicly offered stock investment trusts. Performance-linked fees outside Japan also helped increase revenues. Nomura Asset Management's share of Japan's publicly offered stock investment trust market rose to 21.7 percent and the firm maintained its market leading position. Nomura enhanced its lineup of Asia-focused funds and won mandates from international investors for Japanese and Asian products in its investment advisory business.

	Q3	QoQ	YoY
Net revenue	21.4	+11%	+24%
Income before income taxes	7.0	+34%	+71%

Wholesale

Wholesale reported a 5 percent increase in net revenue to 172.2 billion yen and income before income taxes of 10.8 billion yen, up 41 percent sequentially. The business environment in investment banking improved during the quarter, especially in equity capital markets. The fixed income market turned challenging in November when Europe's sovereign crisis resurfaced in Ireland and US market rates started rising in December. Although volumes improved in emerging markets, turnover in the equities market in developed countries remained subdued, creating a difficult trading environment. Despite these headwinds, Nomura continued to expand its Wholesale business during the third quarter and increased both revenues and net income.

Table of Contents

Net revenue in Global Markets was 141 billion yen and income before income taxes was 13.2 billion yen. Revenues were resilient amid the challenging market conditions, declining only 2 percent from the prior quarter as Nomura expanded its client flow businesses and maintained its measured approach to risk management.

Investment Banking gross revenues were 61.9 billion yen up 56 percent quarter on quarter. This very strong performance was driven by Nomura's market leading domestic business and an increased contribution from international businesses, particularly in M&A, equity capital markets and debt capital markets. In Japan, Nomura maintained its commanding share of the ECM league tables working on large deals for TEPCO and Otsuka Holdings. In Asia, Nomura acted as joint global coordinator on the listing of Chongqing Rural Commercial Bank, the third largest Hong Kong IPO by a Chinese company last year. Nomura also acted as joint bookrunner on a rights issue by Spanish bank BBVA, the second largest rights issue in Europe in 2010.

Nomura retained the number nine spot in the 2010 global ECM league table, despite a 10 percent decline in fundraising in its home market. In the 2010 global M&A rankings, Nomura moved up four places to number 12.

Financial Position

Nomura maintains a robust financial position and a healthy balance sheet. As of the end of December, 2010, Nomura's total capital ratio was 24.9 percent and its Tier 1 ratio was 17.3 percent. Nomura had total assets of 33.3 trillion yen and shareholders' equity of 2.1 trillion yen. Gross leverage was 16.2 times and net leverage was 10 times. All figures are shown on a preliminary basis.
