Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 29, 2011, BSQUARE Corporation (the "Company") announced that it has extended for an additional year the term of the Microsoft OEM Distribution Agreement for Software Products for Embedded Systems (the "Distribution Agreement") between the Company and Microsoft Licensing, GP ( "MS"), an affiliate of Microsoft Corporation. Under the Distribution Agreement, the Company distributes certain Microsoft Windows Embedded operating systems (the "Licensed Products") on a non-exclusive basis to original equipment manufacturers ("OEMs") within the United States, Canada, the Caribbean (excluding Cuba) and Mexico. In addition to this territory, the Company has rights to distribute Microsoft Windows Embedded operating systems to OEMs within the European Union and the European Free Trade Association under a separate agreement signed in March 2011. The Company also has agreements with Microsoft affiliates for worldwide distribution to OEMs of Microsoft Windows Mobile products.

The initial one-year term of the Distribution Agreement began on July 1, 2010, upon expiration of a prior agreement with MS that granted substantially similar rights to the Company. The new renewal term begins on July 1, 2011 and ends on June 30, 2012.

Each OEM is subject to MS's approval under the terms of the Distribution Agreement, and is required to execute an OEM customer license agreement in the form provided by MS and comply with distribution restrictions imposed by MS. The Company is required to provide support to OEMs for the Licensed Products. For each unit of Licensed Product distributed by the Company, the Company pays MS certain royalties set forth in a royalty rate list posted by MS on a monthly basis. The Company may be required to pay additional royalties if it distributes Licensed Products in violation of the terms of the Distribution Agreement. The Distribution Agreement allows for the audit of the Company's internal records and processes by MS and its representatives.

The Distribution Agreement includes a limitation of liability in favor of MS, its suppliers and certain other parties according to which the aggregate liability of those parties to the Company for each Licensed Product will not exceed a specified percentage of the amounts actually paid by the Company to MS for that Licensed Product during the term of the Distribution Agreement. This limitation does not apply to attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by MS in connection with certain indemnification obligations it has under the Distribution Agreement.

In addition to certain rights of each party to terminate the Distribution Agreement for cause, either party may terminate the Distribution Agreement without cause by giving notice a specified number of days in advance.

A copy of the Company's press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by this reference.
