Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On February 20, 2012, the Board of Directors (the Board) of Fossil, Inc. (the Company) elected Diane Neal as a director of the Company, effective immediately, and also appointed her to the Compensation Committee of the Board.

Ms. Neal is not a party to any arrangement or understanding with any person pursuant to which she was appointed as a director, nor is she a party to any transactions required to be disclosed under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

For her service on the Board, Ms. Neal will receive the Company's standard compensation for a non-employee director, which currently consists of an annual retainer of $52,500, a fee of $1,500 for each in-person Board meeting, and a fee of $1,000 for each telephonic Board meeting in excess of one hour. For her service on the Compensation Committee, Ms. Neal will receive a fee of $1,250 for each in-person Compensation Committee meeting and a fee of $1,000 for each telephonic Compensation Committee meeting in excess of one hour.

In addition, pursuant to the Company's 2008 Long-Term Incentive Plan, as amended, Ms. Neal received a grant of restricted stock units on February 20, 2012 equal to the number of shares of the Company's common stock having an aggregate fair market value of $100,000, pro-rated to reflect the number of days between the date of her appointment and the one year anniversary of the Company's 2011 Annual Stockholders Meeting. Ms. Neal will receive additional grants of restricted stock units that are automatically awarded to the Company's outside directors on the date of the Company's annual stockholders meeting equal to the number of shares of the Company's common stock having an aggregate fair market value of $120,000 if she is then serving as a non-employee director. The restricted stock units granted to Ms. Neal vest and are convertible into shares of the Company's common stock (i) upon the first anniversary of the date of grant for the restricted stock units granted to her upon her appointment to the Board; and (ii) upon the earlier of the first anniversary of the date of grant or the first annual stockholders meeting following the date of grant for the restricted stock units granted on the date of the Company's annual stockholders meeting; provided, in each case, that Ms. Neal is providing services to the Company or its subsidiaries on such date.

On February 21, 2012, the Company issued a press release announcing the appointment of Ms. Neal, which is incorporated herein by reference. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.
