Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement Contribution Agreement

On April 25, 2012, Suburban Propane Partners, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (Suburban), entered into a Contribution Agreement (the Contribution Agreement) with Inergy, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (Inergy), Inergy GP, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (Inergy GP), and Inergy Sales & Service, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Inergy Sales) and together with Inergy and Inergy GP, the Contributors). Pursuant to the Contribution Agreement, Inergy has agreed to contribute its retail propane business (the Propane Business) to Suburban in exchange for consideration of approximately $1.8 billion (the Purchase Price). Inergy's contribution of its Propane Business to Suburban consists of certain subsidiaries of Inergy and certain assets of Inergy Sales. As described below, the Purchase Price consists of $600.0 million newly issued Suburban common units and Suburban's Exchange Offers (as defined below) for up to $1.2 billion of certain of Inergy's outstanding senior unsecured notes.

The Contribution Agreement provides that Inergy will contribute to Suburban 100% of the limited liability company interests (the Inergy Propane Interests) in Inergy Propane, LLC (Inergy Propane), a Delaware limited liability company, which at the closing of the transaction will hold only the following interests: (i) 100% of the limited partner interests in Liberty Propane, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (Liberty Propane), which owns 100% of the limited liability company interests in Liberty Propane Operations, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (Liberty Operations); and (ii) 100% of the limited liability company interests in Liberty Propane GP, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (Liberty Propane GP), which owns 100% of the general partner interest in Liberty Propane. Following the closing of the Inergy Propane Acquisition (as defined below), Inergy Propane, Liberty Propane, Liberty Operations and Liberty Propane GP will be wholly-owned subsidiaries of Suburban. Inergy will also contribute certain assets of Inergy Sales related to the Propane Business to Suburban (the Acquired Assets).

The Contribution Agreement further provides that upon contribution of the Inergy Propane Interests and Acquired Assets to Suburban, Suburban will issue and deliver to Inergy and Inergy Sales, as consideration in connection with the Inergy Propane Acquisition, subject to certain adjustments, an aggregate of $600.0 million of newly issued Suburban common units (the Equity Consideration). Pursuant to the Contribution Agreement, Suburban has agreed to file a registration statement on Form S-1 to register Inergy's distribution of substantially all of the Equity Consideration to Inergy's unitholders.

Pursuant to the Contribution Agreement, Suburban will also incur up to $1.0 billion of additional indebtedness in the form of newly issued Suburban senior notes, and pay up to $200.0 million of cash, in connection with exchange offers for up to $1.2 billion of certain of Inergy's outstanding senior unsecured notes (the Exchange Offers).

The transactions described above that are contemplated by the terms of the Contribution Agreement are referred to as the Inergy Propane Acquisition.

The parties have made customary representations and warranties and covenants in the Contribution Agreement, including, without limitation, a covenant regarding the conduct of their businesses prior to the consummation of the Inergy Propane Acquisition. The representations, warranties and covenants of the Contributors, on the one hand, and the representations, warranties and covenants of Suburban, on the other hand, have been made solely for the benefit of the other parties to the Contribution Agreement. In addition, such representations, warranties and covenants: (i) have been made only for purposes of the Contribution Agreement; (ii) have been qualified by confidential disclosures made to the Contributors and Suburban in connection with the Contribution Agreement; (iii) are subject to materiality qualifications contained in the Contribution Agreement which may differ from what may be viewed as material by investors; (iv) were made only as of the date of the Contribution Agreement or such other date as is specified in the Contribution Agreement; and (v) have been included in the Contribution Agreement for the purpose of allocating risk between the contracting parties rather than establishing matters as facts. Accordingly, the foregoing summary is included only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Contribution Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding the Contributors, Suburban or their respective businesses. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Contributors or Suburban or their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Contribution Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures regarding the Contributors or Suburban. The Contribution Agreement also includes indemnification provisions that are typical for transactions of this nature.

Consummation of the Inergy Propane Acquisition is subject to customary conditions, including, without limitation, (i) the expiration or early termination of the waiting period under the Hart Scott Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and (ii) the absence of any law, order or injunction prohibiting the Inergy Propane Acquisition, the Exchange Offers and the related transactions. Moreover, each party's obligation to consummate the Inergy Propane Acquisition is subject to certain other conditions, including without limitation, (A) the accuracy of the other party's representations and warranties (subject to customary materiality qualifiers), and (B) the other party's compliance with its covenants and agreements contained in the Contribution Agreement (subject to customary materiality qualifiers). The consummation of the Exchange Offers is a condition to the closing of the Inergy Propane Acquisition. The Contribution Agreement also contains termination rights for Suburban and Inergy.

The foregoing description of the Contribution Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Contribution Agreement (other than the schedules thereto) that is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1.

In connection with the Inergy Propane Acquisition, Suburban intends to seek equity financing of approximately $250 million for the purposes of paying (i) cash consideration and certain payments in the Exchange Offers and (ii) costs and fees related to the Exchange Offers and the transaction itself. Any net proceeds not so applied will be used for general partnership purposes. If for any reason an equity financing transaction is not consummated by the Settlement Date (as that term is defined below), Suburban will draw down on the committed 364-day term loan facility, as described below, to the extent necessary to make such payments.

Bank Commitment Letter

In connection with the Inergy Propane Acquisition, on April 25, 2012, Suburban Propane, L.P., Suburban's operating subsidiary, entered into a commitment letter (the Bank Commitment Letter) with certain of its lenders who are party to the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement dated as of January 5, 2012 (the Credit Agreement), among Suburban Propane, L.P. (as the borrower), Suburban (as the parent) and the lenders party thereto, pursuant to which such lenders committed to provide (i) in the aggregate, subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions precedent, in a single draw a $250.0 million senior secured 364-day incremental term loan facility (the 364-Day Facility), and (ii) an increase in the aggregate, subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions precedent, of Suburban's existing revolving credit facility under the Credit Agreement from $250.0 million to $400.0 million (the Commitment Increase). The 364-Day Facility will be available at the closing of the Inergy Propane Acquisition (the Settlement Date), if the equity financing described above is not consummated for any reason by the Settlement Date. On April 25, 2012, Suburban Propane, L.P. also received consents from the requisite lenders under the Credit Agreement (Credit Agreement Consents) to enable it on the Settlement Date to incur additional indebtedness, make amendments to the Credit Agreement to adjust certain covenants, and otherwise perform its obligations as contemplated by the Inergy Propane Acquisition.

the cost savings, transaction costs or integration costs that Suburban anticipates to arise from the Inergy Propane Acquisition; revenue, income and operations of the combined company after the Inergy Propane Acquisition is consummated;

future issuances of debt and equity securities and Suburban's ability to achieve financing in connection with the Inergy Propane Acquisition or otherwise; and other objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements that are not historical facts.

These forward-looking statements are subject to a number of factors and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements.

These forward-looking statements are subject to a number of factors and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements. The following factors, among others, including those discussed in the Risk Factors sections of Suburban's filings with the SEC, could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements:

expected cost savings from the Inergy Propane Acquisition may not be fully realized or realized within the expected time frame;

Suburban's revenue following the Inergy Propane Acquisition may be lower than expected; operating, legal and regulatory risks; and whether the transactions described herein will in fact be consummated on these or different terms or at all.

These risks and other factors that may impact Suburban's assumptions are more particularly described under the caption "Risk Factors" in Suburban's filings with the SEC, including under the caption "Risk Factors" in Suburban's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 24, 2011 and Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended December 24, 2011. While Suburban believes that its assumptions are reasonable, it is very difficult to predict the impact of known factors on, and it is impossible to anticipate all factors that could affect, Suburban's actual results. All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements attributable to Suburban or persons acting on its behalf, are expressly qualified in their entirety by these cautionary statements. None of Suburban or any other party undertakes any obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statement as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as otherwise required by law.

In addition to the foregoing factors, the consummation of the Inergy Propane Acquisition is subject to various risks and uncertainties, including uncertainties as to the timing of the Inergy Propane Acquisition, the possibility that the various closing conditions for the Inergy Propane Acquisition may not be satisfied or waived, the possibility that the Exchange Offers will not be consummated, and the possibility that Suburban will be unable to achieve the financing necessary to consummate the Inergy Propane Acquisition.
