Item 8.01 Other Events

On August 2, 2012, the United States District Court for the District of Delaware (the District Court ) denied plaintiff s motion for preliminary injunction in Neology, Inc. v. Federal Signal Corporation, et al., Case No. 1;11-CV-00672. The plaintiff, Neology, Inc., had filed the motion for preliminary injunction seeking to enjoin Federal Signal Corporation (the Company ) from making and selling certain radio frequency identification products that operate in accordance with the ISO 18000-6C Standard used for intelligent transportation and electronic tolling systems. The District Court found that the plaintiff had not met its burden to show it was entitled to a preliminary injunction.

On August 3, 2012, the Company issued a press release announcing the District Court s denial of plaintiff s motion for preliminary injunction. A copy of the press release is furnished herewith as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
