On October 24, 2012, the Board of Directors (the Board) of Visa Inc. (the Company) authorized a revised form of indemnification agreement to be entered into with the directors and officers of the Company. The new form of indemnification agreement modifies certain terms of the indemnification agreements previously entered into between the Company and the directors and officers of the Company, including: (i) by extending certain indemnification coverage to the spouse or domestic partner of a covered director or officer of the Company; (ii) by deleting a provision that previously allowed the Company (on a permissive basis) to provide indemnification for any claim relating to foreign corrupt practices or acts of commercial bribery regardless of circumstances, such that now the Company will be required to provide indemnification when the indemnitee acted in good faith and otherwise in accordance with the terms of the indemnification agreement; and (iii) by clarifying that the Company shall not be obligated to indemnify officers or directors for certain incentive compensation clawbacks as required by the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act.

The foregoing is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the form of Indemnification Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
