Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On February 6, 2013, McKesson Corporation (the Company) announced in a Form 8-K furnished to the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Form 8-K) that its Board of Directors (the Board) had adopted amendments to the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines to provide for a lead independent director in place of a presiding director. Additional information about the amended Corporate Governance Guidelines, including the responsibilities of the lead independent director specified therein, is available in the Form 8-K. This corporate governance initiative was undertaken by the Board based on feedback from the Company's stockholders and the Company's commitment to continuous monitoring of sound and effective governance practices.

On May 22, 2013, the Board elected Edward A. Mueller to serve a two-year term as the Board's first lead independent director, effective July 31, 2013, subject to his continuing re-election as a director. Mr. Mueller has been a director of the Company since April 2008 and is a member of the Committee on Directors and Corporate Governance and the Compensation Committee. He served as the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Qwest Communications International Inc., a provider of voice, data and video services, from August 2007 until his retirement in April 2011. He held the position of Chief Executive Officer at Williams-Sonoma, Inc., a provider of specialty products for cooking, from January 2003 until July 2006, and at Ameritech Corporation, a subsidiary of SBC Communications, Inc., from 2000 to 2002. Mr. Mueller is also a director of The Clorox Company.
