FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

MAA and Colonial Properties Trust

Why is this merger being done?

MAA and Colonial Properties Trust operate similar communities in similar markets. Both have people focused on taking good care of residents and each other. With these similarities we believe that combining the two companies will benefit our residents as the enhanced scale will support increased abilities and services in technology, a continued commitment to keep our properties in top condition and a well-trained and enthusiastic on site and support staff to exceed their expectations. In addition, we believe the combination will drive expanded opportunities for our associates and a continued commitment to training and professional development. And finally, the larger combined company will generate enhanced competitive advantages for our shareholders, a stronger and well diversified investment, a strong investment-grade balance sheet and ultimately a company providing superior long-term performance and results.

What will be the leadership of the combined company?

The MAA board of directors will be expanded with 5 directors from the Colonial Properties Trust board joining the new combined board. Tom Lowder will be a director on the combined board. Eric Bolton will serve as Chairman and CEO. Al Campbell will serve as Executive VP and CFO and Tom Grimes will serve as Executive VP and COO. Several other members of the executive and senior management team of Colonial Properties Trust will play key senior roles in the new combined company. There is a high level of cooperation, support and incentive from both management teams to support the near term and long term success of the combined company.

What will the combined company be called and where will the headquarters be?

The company will be called MAA and the headquarters will be in Memphis, Tennessee.

What is the History of MAA and its leadership?

MAA has focused exclusively on apartment real estate since it was founded in 1977 as the Cates Company. The company became publicly owned with an Initial Public Offering in January of 1994. The company is led by Eric Bolton who has been with MAA for close to 20 years. A more detailed history and bios of leadership can be found at www.maac.com.

How do the two companies generally compare in terms of fit?

MAA and Colonial Properties Trust have the same focus on the Sunbelt region of the country with a shared vision for creating long-term success. The cultures of the companies are very similar and share a focus on supporting the hard work that takes place at each property. Both companies have investment grade balance sheets and together will be even stronger.

When is this merger expected to be completed and what has to happen?

The merger should formally close in approximately 3 months. The Shareholders of both companies will need to approve the merger agreement. We will file a joint proxy statement with the SEC in the next 30 days or so. Both teams will continue to operate as they always have, with a focus on the fundamentals of our business and resident satisfaction.

What will change at both companies as a result of the merger?

Both companies are leaders in the apartment business and have many similar practices and policies. We will be doing an extensive review of both companies' policies taking the best from both to make an even stronger combined company. We will communicate those changes at the appropriate time. Please continue to follow the policies and practices in your company.

Will we sell any properties as a result of this merger?

MAA, like Colonial Properties Trust, approaches all new acquisitions and new development with an eye towards long term ownership of the property. When we find it necessary to sell a property we commit to do the following:

- Notify the property teams when the decision is finalized. This is well before brokers will be involved or the property is placed on the market
- We will set in place a performance bonus to encourage the team to stay at the property through the sale
- We will work to transfer the team to another MAA community. If that is not feasible we will provide a separation bonus. With the larger company there are more opportunities to transfer.

We do not anticipate any needs or plans to make significant changes to our markets as a result of this combination.

What are the core values of MAA and will they change?

MAA is grounded in a tradition of service. We consider it a privilege to serve not only our residents, but also our shareholders and one another. Our strong company culture and core values reflect Our Brighter View and define the way we handle day to day interactions. We are proud to be people serving people by:

- Appreciating the uniqueness of each individual
- Communicating openly and with integrity
- Embracing opportunities

Doing the right thing at the right time for the right reason
Both companies core values are similar in nature and will easily translate over as a combined company.

I work on a community. Will my position be eliminated as a result of this merger?

No, the staffing models at the communities are not expected to change as a result of this merger. We are counting on each of you to serve our residents with your normal compassion and professionalism during this transition.

What about corporate or multi-site positions?

We have a process underway to define the correct multi-site structure, the right support structure and to identify how the areas and regions should be grouped and who should lead them. These are important decisions that will have thoughtful review. We expect to have this completed and communicated by the close date.

Will my salary change?

We do not expect many changes. As a part of the merger, salaries and benefits will be reviewed. We will define ranges and make adjustments as needed to insure that our pay structure is fair and equitable to all associates at all positions. We will keep you informed as we finalize our review of the compensation structure for the combined company.

Will there be any change to how compensation is processed or paid, or any change in any deductions or taxes, in the next few months as a result of this merger?

No, there will be no short term changes in how compensation or taxes are processed.

Will my bonus or commission opportunity change? Will the Colonial Properties Trust Million Dollar Club continue?

Though they are calculated differently, both companies have very similar multi-site, manager, maintenance and leasing bonuses and/or commissions. At this time, you will be paid under the current bonus or commission structure plan as defined by your company. We will keep you updated as we review all plans.

Will I retain my original hire date?

Your last hire date with MAA or Colonial Properties Trust will continue to be used as your hire date when determining tenure based benefits.

Will I have to re-apply or be rescreened in order to keep my position in the new company?

No, we hope to be able to transition all associates over to the new company using the previous background and screening process.

Will I have to move to keep my job?

The vast majority of our positions will not require a move. As we review the multi-site and corporate positions there may be a few that require a move. We hope to keep those changes to an absolute minimum.

Will I have to change my work schedule and/or work weekends or holidays?

Both companies have similar schedules. We will review both and determine which option is best for the combined company. At this time, you will continue working the same schedule.

I have vacation or personal days planned to take off. Is there any requirement or need to change plans?

No, you have earned your time off and we want you to enjoy it.

Will my health benefits such as medical, prescription drugs, vision and dental change?

Your health plan will run through the end of 2013. Both plans are similar and any changes that are needed as a result of the merger or Affordable Care Act will be adjusted for in the 2014 plan. We do not expect the combined company's health plan to change much but will keep you informed as the renewal nears. Your hire date with MAA or Colonial Properties Trust will continue to be used as your hire date when determining tenure based benefits.

Will my vacation, sick, disability and holiday benefits change?

The packages of both companies are very similar. There will be a few small changes as we blend the two plans but no major changes are anticipated. Your hire date with MAA or Colonial Properties Trust will continue to be used as your hire date when determining tenure based benefits.

Do both companies have an employee apartment discount?

Yes and for both companies the discount is 20%.

How will the 401(K) and Employee Stock Purchase Plan change?

The 401K and ESPP packages of both companies are very similar. There will be a few small changes as we blend the two plans but no major changes are anticipated. Both companies use the Principal as the record-keeper for their 401K plans

Who do I notify if I have an emergency on site?

No changes are necessary as a result of this announcement. Please continue using your current emergency contact process. We will update this process before the merger closes.

What operating system will we use?

Communities on MRI will remain on MRI, Communities on Yardi will remain on Yardi. We will review the options for both groups but it is likely that we will move the MRI communities over to Yardi in 2014.

If a resident asks about the merger what should I tell them?

Please let residents know that there will be very few changes that affect them and that the current high level of service will continue.

I have a major capital improvement project scheduled to begin soon, should I hold off or proceed?

For capital projects please go ahead as planned and follow the current procedures.

When will we learn more and how can I ask a question?

We will have a range of opportunities to ask questions and communicate. It is a big process and we want you fully informed. Please refer any additional questions to MAAQ&A@maac.com. We will post your question on the intranet of both companies and answer it there. We will not post your name when we post the question. If you have a question we want to hear it so please send them in!
