Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 26, 2013, Apria Holdings LLC (Holdings), a Delaware limited liability company, Apria Finance Holdings, Inc. (AFH), a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Holdings, and Apria Healthcare Group Inc. (Apria or the Company), a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Holdings, entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (the Purchase Agreement) with Ocean Acquisition Sub, L.L.C. (Purchaser), a Delaware limited liability company and a wholly owned subsidiary of CVS Caremark Corporation, a Delaware corporation (CVS), and CVS. The Purchase Agreement provides, among other things and subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, for Purchaser to acquire the Coram home infusion therapy (including enteral nutrition) business of Apria (the Business) through the purchase of all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of AFH, which consists of 100 shares of AFH s common stock, par value $0.01 per share, owned by Holdings for a purchase price of approximately $2.1 billion (the Purchase Price) on an enterprise value basis (debt-free, cash free and with a target level of working capital) (the Transaction). The Purchase Price is subject to working capital and other post-closing adjustments.

The closing of the Transaction is subject to various customary conditions, including the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, the absence of any governmental order prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement, the completion of certain restructuring steps, including the repayment and discharge of certain existing indebtedness, the accuracy of the representations and warranties contained in the Purchase Agreement (subject to certain qualifications) and compliance with the covenants and agreements in the Purchase Agreement in all material respects.

Holdings and AFH have made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Purchase Agreement, including, among others, covenants to generally conduct the Business in the ordinary course prior to the closing of the Transaction and covenants not to engage in certain types of transactions. Holdings and the Purchaser have each agreed to certain non-competition and non-solicitation restrictions to certain indemnification obligations under the Purchase Agreement.

On November 26, 2013, AFH and Sky Acquisition LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and an affiliate of Apria, entered into a Bridge Loan Credit Agreement with Goldman Sachs Bank USA, as administrative agent and collateral agent, and the lenders party thereto, providing for term loans of up to $1.15 billion (the Bridge Loan). The credit agreement governing the Bridge Loan contains customary representations and warranties, covenants and events of default, as well as a requirement that certain subsidiaries guarantee the Bridge Loan at the time of funding. Sky Acquisition LLC anticipates making a borrowing under the Bridge Loan immediately prior to the closing of the Transaction in order to repay Apria s existing indebtedness under its asset based revolving facility, senior secured term loans and series A-2 senior secured notes at the time of the closing of the Transaction.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

A press release announcing the Transaction was issued by the Company on November 27, 2013, a copy of which is included as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and hereby incorporated by reference.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
