ITEM 2.06 MATERIAL IMPAIRMENTS

On December 16, 2013, Zions Bancorporation (Zions or the Company) announced that it believes that substantially all of its portfolio of bank and insurance trust preferred collateralized debt obligation (CDO) securities, and certain other asset-backed CDO securities, will be considered disallowed investments under the final rule implementing Section 619 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, commonly referred to as the Volcker Rule, which was released jointly by the Federal Reserve and a number of federal regulatory agencies on December 10, 2013. The final rule requires banking entities to divest disallowed securities by July 21, 2015, unless, upon application, the Federal Reserve grants extensions to July 21, 2017. In connection with the foregoing, as of December 15, 2013, Zions anticipates that in the fourth quarter of 2013 it will reclassify all covered CDOs that currently are classified as Held to Maturity into Available for Sale, and that all covered CDOs, regardless of the accounting classification, will be adjusted to Fair Value through an Other Than Temporary Impairment non-cash charge to earnings. Zions is unable at this time to estimate the amount of such charge. Such charge will not require future cash expenditures by Zions.

On December 16, 2013, Zions Bancorporation issued a press release with respect to these matters, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
