Item 5.02(e): Material Compensatory Plan

At a meeting of the board of directors of The Middlefield Banking Company held on April 14, 2014 the nonemployee directors ratified and adopted the recommendation of the Compensation Committee for 2014 award levels for executive officers, including CEO Thomas G. Caldwell, Chief Operating Officer James R. Heslop II, and Chief Financial Officer Donald L. Stacy.

The Annual Incentive Plan is a short-term cash incentive plan that rewards bank employees with additional cash compensation if specified objectives are achieved. For achievement of the 2014 plan performance goals, distributions under the plan would be made in cash to the executives in the first quarter of 2015. For 2014 the bank-wide performance measures have to do with net income, classified loans (that is, reduction of classified loans as a percentage of the sum of Tier 1 capital and the allowance for loan and lease losses), and a third goal having to do with the bank's regulatory status. For this purpose the bank's regulatory status means the bank's exposure to serious regulatory criticism of banking practices or vulnerability to other adverse regulatory conditions, such as formal or informal enforcement actions or inability to obtain approval of regulatory applications. Regulatory status is a subjective judgement made by the compensation committee. The Annual Incentive Plan may be terminated by the board of directors at any time.

The precise 2014 performance goals are confidential. Relying on SEC rules and guidance, Middlefield is therefore withholding from the copy of the plan award summary included as an exhibit with this Form 8-K Current Report the precise 2014 goals.
