First Quarter Trading results

Our first quarter revenue was $1,073 million, a 1% underlying increase (2013: $1,075 million). There was a -1% currency headwind and a net zero effect from acquisitions and disposals.

In our Established Markets revenue was down -1%. Within this, US revenue was down -2%, reflecting the effect of US surgical procedures being pulled forward into the final months of 2013. Revenue growth in our Other Established Markets was 1%.

The Emerging & International Markets continue to deliver good revenue growth, up 9% in the quarter. China again performed strongly, at over 30% revenue growth, and our 2013 Turkish and Indian acquisitions began to deliver benefits. Performance in Brazil is being disrupted as we transition from a distributor-led to a direct-sales business model.

In-line with expectations, our additional investments behind current and future products, and the slower revenue growth in the period, resulted in a trading profit of $229 million (2013: $241 million) and a trading profit margin of 21.3% (2013: 22.4%).

The net interest charge for the period was $3 million. The tax rate for the quarter, and estimated effective rate for the full year, was 28.9% on profit before acquisition related costs, restructuring and rationalisation costs, amortisation of acquisition intangibles and legal and other items. Adjusted attributable profit of $158 million is before these items and taxation thereon.

Adjusted earnings per share was 17.7¢ (88.5¢ per American Depositary Share, ADS) compared to 18.5¢ last year. Basic earnings per share was 16.8¢ (84.0¢ per ADS) (2013: 15.8¢).

Trading cash flow (defined as cash generated from operating activities less capital expenditure, but before acquisition related costs and restructuring and rationalisation costs) was $78 million in the quarter. The trading profit to cash conversion ratio of 34% partly reflects inventory build, including significant investment in instrument sets to support the launch of the JOURNEY II Total Knee System. We expect to return to higher cash conversion ratios during the year.

Net debt was $216 million, down from $253 million at the end of Q4 2013. In March the Group signed a new $1 billion five-year revolving credit facility. The facility replaced the Group's existing $1 billion revolving credit facility which was due to mature in December 2015.

In February the Group announced its intention to acquire ArthroCare Corporation, a highly complementary sports medicine business - for a cost of approximately $1.7 billion. ArthroCare's technology and products will significantly strengthen our portfolio, and we will use our global presence to drive substantial new growth. We are on-track to complete the acquisition in mid-2014, assuming ArthroCare shareholder approval and satisfaction of other closing conditions.

Optimisation programmes

In-line with the commitment made at the time of our Q4 2013 results, we are today confirming the outcome from our six-month review to optimise our Group structure. The identified activities will support our Strategic Priorities by refining and simplifying our operational platform and delivering at least $120 million of annualised efficiency savings. Our bias is to re-invest the savings to drive further growth.

The activities will be delivered over the next four years for an expected one-off cost of $150 million.

There are four main areas of action:

Aligning and improving our corporate functions for example, we are implementing transformation programmes across Finance, Human Resources and Legal to support the Group more effectively.

Driving procurement savings including enhancing logistics, travel, fleet and facilities to deliver Group-wide efficiency improvements.

Simplifying our operating model for instance, we are streamlining our European business model by moving to a single General Manager for each country under a new Head of Europe.

Optimising our facilities ensuring our facilities plan matches our strategy and future aspirations.

Our on-going $150 million structural efficiency programme to liberate resources through the simplification of back-office support in the Advanced Surgical Devices division and refine our Advanced Wound Management manufacturing footprint has now delivered annualised benefits of more than $135 million. These savings have been used to increase our investment in R&D, the salesforce, marketing and medical education and in building our Emerging & International Markets platform.

Advanced Surgical Devices global (ASD)

ASD delivered revenue of $758 million in the quarter, up 1% underlying (2013: $760 million).

Revenue in the US was down -2%. This was due in part to the pull forward of procedures seen in Q4 2013 ahead of changes in the US health insurance system. In our Other Established Markets, revenue was flat as conditions in Europe remained challenging. Our Emerging & International Markets continue to be strong, as we delivered 13% revenue growth. The like-for-like pricing pressure in the quarter remained unchanged across our markets.

Trading profit for the quarter was $174 million (2013: $184 million), with the trading profit margin of 22.9% (2013: 24.3%) reflecting the increased investment behind our products, including a US TV advertising campaign in the quarter.

In our Knee Implant franchise revenue was flat in the quarter, below the market growth rate of 3%. In the US, knee revenue was down -1%, reflecting the significant slowdown in market growth rate. The JOURNEY II BCS Knee System continues to build momentum, but sales of our core knee range were down sequentially following a strong Q4 2013 performance.

We introduced the JOURNEY II Cruciate Retaining (CR) Knee System at the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons (AAOS) annual meeting during the quarter. This extends the JOURNEY II Total Knee System to procedures that preserve the posterior cruciate ligament (PCL), which accounts for approximately half of all knee replacement procedures. We also announced an agreement with OrthoSensor to provide VERASENSE Sensor Assisted Surgery Technology for improved soft tissue balancing when implanting our knee systems.

Revenue growth from our global Hip Implant franchise was flat, compared to the market growth rate of 2%. Revenue growth was 1% in our core hips, excluding the BIRMINGHAM HIP[®] Resurfacing System.

We announced the US launch of the POLARSTEM[™] cementless stem for total hip replacement during the quarter. This is one of the Group's most popular stems globally and features a unique geometry and surface texture. We also invested more in marketing behind our hip portfolio, starting a TV advertising campaign featuring our VERILAST[™] bearing surface, similar to our successful knee campaigns.

In Sports Medicine, the Sports Medicine Joint Repair franchise delivered 5% revenue growth. The HEALICOIL[™] REGENESORB bio-composite suture anchor, launched last quarter, has been well received by customers. The Arthroscopic Enabling Technologies franchise, which consists primarily of our core resection and visualisation products, saw a -2% decline in revenue, similar to previous quarters. New products introduced in the quarter included the DYONICS[™] PLAN Hip Impingement Planning System, a revolutionary 3D software system that provides a standardised and repeatable way of assessing hip impingement treatment options based on data from low-dose CT scans.

In our Trauma & Extremities franchise revenue was down -1%, not unexpected as the comparable period included the benefit in the US from a competitor nail recall. Where we have added more Extremities sales reps in the US, we delivered double digit revenue growth. We are starting to launch a more comprehensive Hand and Wrist range to complement our ALL28 Foot and Ankle portfolio. We launched the TFCC FAST-FIX[™] Kit during the quarter. This gives wrist surgeons performing triangular fibrocartilage surgery an all-inside repair solution that can minimise recovery time.

Advanced Wound Management global (AWM)

AWM revenue was flat in the first quarter at $315 million (2013: $315 million) against an estimated global market growth rate of 3%.

Revenue fell -4% in the US and grew 3% in our Other Established Markets. Revenue was flat in the Emerging & International Markets against a strong comparator driven by a large tender win last year.

Trading profit was $55 million (2013: $57 million), resulting in a trading profit margin of 17.6% (2013: 17.9%). This partly reflects the slower Q1 revenue growth, as well as the continued investment in the HP-802 phase III trials which are now underway in Europe.

In Advanced Wound Care revenue was down -6%. Our sales channel includes wholesaler distributors and typically stocking and destocking patterns roughly equal out. However, this quarter saw an unusual combination of distributor destocking in multiple countries, notably the US, UK and Japan. Some of this is a structural trend, partly due to distributor consolidation and partly due to distributors holding less stock than in the past.

In Advanced Wound Devices we grew revenue by 13%, as we benefitted from a stronger than normal VERSAJET[™] performance following its launch in China. In Negative Pressure Wound Therapy, our single-use portable system PICO[™] had a good quarter, while the traditional canister-based market remained challenging.

In Advanced Wound Bioactives we grew revenue by 8%, on-track for our full year mid-teens guidance. This reflects a strong comparator quarter as customers stocked SANTYL[™] ahead of a significant price rise in early 2013. Our successful re-launch of REGRANEX[™] Gel continued. Sales of OASIS[™] were, as expected, adversely affected by the change in US re-imburement rates for skin-substitutes.

Outlook

We remain confident in our 2014 outlook as we roll-out our strong pipeline of new products, benefit from recent investments in marketing and the salesforce and see an increasing contribution from acquisitions.

The acquisition is deemed to be a business combination within the scope of IFRS 3 Business Combinations. The acquisition date fair value of the consideration was $31 million and included deferred consideration of $26 million and $5 million in relation to the settlement of working capital commitments.

As at the acquisition date, the estimated value of the net assets acquired was $18 million, which included trade and other receivables of $10 million, identifiable intangible assets of $16 million, inventory of $4 million, property, plant and equipment of $2 million, trade payables of $1 million, provisions of $9 million and deferred tax liabilities of $4 million. As a result, the provisional estimate of goodwill arising on the acquisition is $13 million. This is attributable to the additional economic benefits expected from the acquisition, including the assembled workforce, which has been transferred as part of the acquisition. The goodwill is not expected to be deductible for tax purposes.

The recognised amounts of assets acquired and liabilities assumed have been determined on a provisional basis. If new information is obtained within the measurement period about facts and circumstances that existed at the acquisition date, the acquisition accounting will be revised.

The contribution to revenue and attributable profit from this acquisition during the period was immaterial. If the acquisition had occurred at the beginning of the period its contribution to revenue and attributable profit for the period would have also been immaterial.

On 3 February 2014, the Group announced the execution of a definitive agreement to acquire 100% of the shares of ArthroCare Corporation for approximately $1.7 billion. The acquisition is subject to customary conditions, including a vote of ArthroCare's shareholders and governmental clearances. The acquisition is expected to close mid-2014.

8. Definitions of and reconciliation to measures included within Trading results

These Interim Financial Statements include financial measures that are not prepared in accordance with IFRS. These measures, which include trading profit, trading profit margin, EPSA and underlying growth, exclude the effect of certain cash and non-cash items that Group management believes are not related to the underlying performance of the Group. These non-IFRS financial measures are also used by management to make operating decisions because they facilitate internal comparisons of performance to historical results on both a business segment and a consolidated Group basis.

Non-IFRS financial measures are presented in these Interim Financial Statements as the Group's management believe that they provide investors with a means of evaluating performance of the business segments and the consolidated Group on a consistent basis, similar to the way in which the Group's management evaluates performance, that is not otherwise apparent on an IFRS basis, given that certain non-recurring, infrequent or non-cash items that management does not otherwise believe are indicative of the underlying performance of the consolidated Group may not be excluded when preparing financial measures under IFRS. These non-IFRS measures should not be considered in isolation from, as substitutes for, or superior to financial measures prepared in accordance with IFRS.

Underlying revenue growth

Underlying revenue growth is used to compare the revenue in a given period to the previous period on a like-for-like basis. Underlying revenue growth reconciles to reported revenue growth (see Note 2), the most directly comparable financial measure calculated in accordance with IFRS, by making adjustments for the effect of acquisitions and disposals and the impact of movements in exchange rates (currency impact), as described below.

The effect of acquisitions and disposals measures the impact on revenue from newly acquired material business combinations and recent material business disposals. This is calculated by comparing the current year, constant currency actual revenue (which include acquisitions and exclude disposals from the relevant date of completion) with prior year, constant currency actual revenue, adjusted to include the results of acquisitions and exclude disposals for the commensurate period in the prior year.

Currency impact measures the increase/decrease in revenue resulting from currency movements on non-US Dollar sales and is measured as the difference between the current year revenue translated into US Dollars at the current year average rate and the prior year revenue translated at the prior year average rate, with the increase/decrease being measured by translating current and prior year revenue into US Dollars using the prior year closing rate.

Trading profit & trading profit margin

Trading profit is a trend measure, which presents the long-term profitability of the Group excluding the impact of specific transactions that management considers affects the Group's short-term profitability. The Group has identified the following items, where material, as those to be excluded from operating profit when arriving at trading profit: acquisition and disposal related items including amortisation of acquisition intangible assets and impairments; restructuring events; acquisition and integration costs; gains and losses resulting from legal disputes and uninsured losses. In addition to these items, gains or losses that materially impact the Group's profitability on a short-term or one-off basis are excluded from operating profit when arriving at trading profit.

Underlying growth in trading profit and trading profit margin (trading profit expressed as a percentage of revenue) are measures, which present the growth trend in the long-term profitability of the Group. Underlying growth in trading profit is used to compare the period-on-period growth in trading profit on a like-for-like basis. This is achieved by adjusting for the impact of material business combinations and disposals and for movements in exchange rates in the same manner as underlying revenue growth is determined, as described above.

Adjusted earnings per ordinary share (EPSA)

EPSA is a trend measure, which presents the long-term profitability of the Group excluding the post-tax impact of specific transactions that management considers affects the Group's short-term profitability. The Group presents this measure to assist investors in their understanding of trends. Adjusted attributable profit is the numerator used for this measure and is determined by adjusting attributable profit for the items that are excluded from operating profit when arriving at trading profit and items that are recognised below operating profit that affect the Group's short-term profitability. The most directly comparable financial measure calculated in accordance with IFRS is earnings per ordinary share (EPS).
