Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

(a) On September 2, 2014, Calavo Growers, Inc. (Calavo) and FreshRealm, LLC (FreshRealm) launched a new cloud-based on-demand food preparation and delivery platform, which brings freshly made meals and snacks directly to consumers. Nutrisystem, Inc. is the first food merchant to implement the platform and is conducting an exclusive test in the weight loss category beginning this week in the state of California.

Wholly-owned Calavo subsidiary Renaissance Food Group will be the first food maker for FreshRealm brand partners seeking to customize fresh prepared snacks and meals for delivery to their customers' doorstep and/or offices.

FreshRealm plans to rollout in new regions and with additional food merchants in the coming quarters.

Fresh food ordered through the FreshRealm platform will arrive to consumers in its proprietary Vessel – an innovative, temperature controlled shipping container that keeps food cold at refrigerated levels using no electricity or disposable cold sources. The Vessel is reusable and refurbish-able, designed to protect its contents and includes a barcode to allow for full-circle tracking.

Calavo is a shareholder of FreshRealm, holding 50% ownership of the company.
