From January 1996 to July 2009, Mr. Ali served in various roles at IBM, including vice president of business and strategy for the information management division from 2005 to 2009. Mr. Ali holds a B.S. in Computer Engineering, a B.A. in History, and a Master of Science in Electrical Engineering from Stanford University.

There are no family relationships between Mr. Ali and any director or other executive officer of the Company, or with any person selected to become an officer or a director of the Company. The Company has had no transactions since the beginning of its last fiscal year, and has no transactions proposed, in which Mr. Ali, or any member of his immediate family, has a direct or indirect material interest.

On December 3, 2014, the Company entered into an executive employment agreement (the Executive Employment Agreement) with Mr. Ali setting forth the terms of his employment as the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer. The Executive Employment Agreement provides for an annual base salary of $375,000, subject to increases and modifications as determined by our board of directors or its compensation committee. The Executive Employment Agreement also provides for a sign-on bonus of $500,000 of which Mr. Ali is obligated to repay a prorated portion in the event that he voluntarily terminates his employment within one year from its commencement. Mr. Ali will be eligible to participate in the Company's management incentive bonus program and in other benefit programs that the Company establishes and makes available to its employees from time to time, to the same extent available to similarly situated employees of the Company.

Pursuant to the Executive Employment Agreement, Mr. Ali has been granted an option to purchase 250,000 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $14.44, equal to the fair market value of the Company's common stock on the date of grant, (the FMV Price) with such option becoming exercisable on the first day after the completion of a trading period, as defined in the Executive Employment Agreement, in which the common stock of the Company has traded at a price per share (each a Target Price) of $15.00 with respect to 25% of the shares, $17.50 with respect to 25% of the shares, $20.00 with respect to 25% of the shares and $22.50 with respect to 25% of the shares. Mr. Ali has also been granted restricted stock units with respect to 450,000 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price equal to the FMV Price, which restricted stock units shall vest and be settled in shares of Common Stock as to (x) 50,000 restricted stock units (the 1 Year RSUs) on December 31, 2015, (y) 400,000 restricted stock units (the 4 Year RSUs), 25% of which shall vest and be settled on the first anniversary of the Start Date (as defined in the Executive Employment Agreement), the balance of which shall vest and settle in equal quarterly installments over the next 36 months. All equity awards to Mr. Ali are contingent upon Mr. Ali's continued employment with the Company. The vesting and settlement schedule for the 1 Year RSUs and the 4 Year RSUs accelerate upon the occurrence of certain change of control and termination events.

If Mr. Ali's employment is terminated by the Company other than for cause, or if Mr. Ali is constructively terminated by the Company, he will be entitled to receive a payment in an amount equal to (i) twelve times his then current monthly base salary plus (ii) twelve times the monthly amount that the Company paid for his participation in the Company's health insurance plan during the month immediately preceding the termination date, in each case subject to Mr. Ali's execution and delivery of a full release in favor of the Company.

The foregoing summary of Mr. Ali's offer letter agreement is summary in nature and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Executive Employment Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
