Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On November 9, 2015, United Bankshares, Inc. (United), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization (the Agreement) with Bank of Georgetown (BOG), a privately-held community bank headquartered in Washington, D.C. In accordance with the Agreement, BOG shall merge with and into United Bank, an indirectly wholly-owned subsidiary of United (the Merger). At which time, BOG shall cease and United Bank shall survive and continue to exist as a Virginia banking corporation.

The Agreement provides that upon consummation of the Merger, each outstanding share of common stock of BOG will be converted into the right to receive 0.9313 shares of United common stock, par value $2.50 per share.

Pursuant to the Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger, BOG s outstanding stock options will be exchanged for United s stock options.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to approval of the shareholders of BOG, the receipt of all required regulatory approvals, as well as other customary conditions.

The foregoing description of the Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K (Report) and is incorporated herein by reference. The Agreement has been attached as an exhibit to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other financial information about United or its subsidiaries or affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Agreement were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates, are solely for the benefit of the parties to the Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties, or covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of United or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties, and covenants may change after the date of the Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by United.

Item 8.01 Other Events

On November 9, 2015, United issued a press release as well as provided an investor presentation to interested parties concerning the acquisition of BOG. A copy of the press release and investor presentation is attached hereto as Exhibits 99.1 and 99.2 and are being furnished to the Securities and Exchange Commission and shall not be deemed filed for any purpose.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits

(d) Exhibits

2.1 Agreement and Plan of Reorganization, dated as of November 9, 2015, by and between United Bankshares, Inc. and Bank of Georgetown. (listed disclosure schedules have been omitted pursuant to Regulation S-K Item 601(b)(2). United agrees to furnish a supplemental copy of such schedule upon request of the SEC).

99.1 Press Release, dated November 9, 2015 issued by United Bankshares, Inc.

99.2 Investor Presentation, dated November 9, 2015 issued by United Bankshares, Inc.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Form 8-K, the press release and investor presentation contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These forward-looking statements are intended to be covered by the safe harbor provisions for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements about (i) the benefits of a merger (the Merger) between Bank of Georgetown. (BOG) and United Bankshares, Inc. (United), including future financial and operating results, cost savings enhancements to revenue and accretion to reported earnings that may be realized from the Merger; (ii) United's and BOG's plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements contained in this press release that are not historical facts; and (iii) other statements identified by words such as expects, anticipates, intends, plans, believes, seeks, targets, projects, or words of similar meaning generally intended to identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of the respective managements of United and BOG and are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond the control of United and BOG. In addition, these forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions with respect to future business strategies and decisions that are subject to change. Actual results may differ materially from the anticipated results discussed in these forward-looking statements because of possible uncertainties.

The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from the anticipated results or other expectations expressed in the forward-looking statements: (1) the businesses of United and BOG may not be combined successfully, or such combination may take longer, be more difficult, time-consuming or costly to accomplish than expected; (2) the expected growth opportunities or cost savings from the Merger may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; (3) deposit attrition, operating costs, customer losses and business disruption following the Merger, including adverse effects on relationships with employees, may be greater than expected; (4) the regulatory approvals required for the Merger may not be obtained on the proposed terms or on the anticipated schedule; (5) the stockholders of BOG may fail to approve the Merger; (6) legislative or regulatory changes, including changes in accounting standards, may adversely affect the businesses in which United and BOG are engaged; (7) changes in the interest rate environment may adversely affect net interest income; (8) results may be adversely affected by continued diversification of assets and adverse changes to credit quality; (9) competition from other financial services companies in United's and BOG's markets could adversely affect operations; and (10) any economic slowdown could adversely affect credit quality and loan originations. Additional factors, that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements are discussed in United's reports

(such as Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and available on the SEC's Internet site (<http://www.sec.gov>).

United and BOG caution that the foregoing list of factors is not exclusive. All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the proposed transaction or other matters attributable to United or BOG or any person acting on their behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements above. United and BOG do not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect circumstances or events that occur after the date the forward-looking statements are made.

Additional Information About the Merger and Where to Find It

Shareholders of BOG and other investors are urged to read the proxy statement/prospectus that will be included in the registration statement on Form S-4 that United will file with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with the proposed merger because it will contain important information about United, BOG, the merger, the persons soliciting proxies in the merger and their interests in the merger and related matters. Investors will be able to obtain all documents filed with the SEC by United free of charge at the SEC's Internet site (<http://www.sec.gov>). In addition, documents filed with the SEC by United will be available free of charge from the Corporate Secretary of United Bankshares, Inc., 514 Market Street, Parkersburg, West Virginia 26101 telephone (304) 424-8800. The proxy statement/prospectus (when it is available) and the other documents may also be obtained for free by accessing United's website at www.ubsi-inc.com under the tab Investor Relations and then under the heading SEC Filings or by accessing BOG's website at www://bankofgeorgetown.com under the tab About and then under the heading Corporate Profile. You are urged to read the proxy statement/prospectus carefully before making a decision concerning the merger. You are urged to read the proxy statement/prospectus carefully before making a decision concerning the merger.

Participants in the Transactions

United, BOG and their respective directors, executive officers and certain other members of management and employees may be deemed participants in the solicitation of proxies from BOG's shareholders in favor of the merger with United. Information regarding the persons who may, under the rules of the SEC, be considered participants in the solicitation of the BOG shareholders in connection with the proposed merger will be set forth in the proxy statement/prospectus when it is filed with the SEC.

You can find information about the executive officers and directors of United in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 and in its definitive proxy statement filed with the SEC on April 3, 2015.
