Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Explanatory Note

On February 2, 2017, Entercom Communications Corp. (the Company), Constitution Merger Sub Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (Merger Sub), CBS Corporation, a Delaware corporation (CBS) and CBS Radio Inc., a Delaware corporation and an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of CBS (CBS Radio) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement), pursuant to which the Company will combine with CBS's radio business (the CBS Radio Business) in a two-step all-stock Reverse Morris Trust transaction that will involve (i) a separation of CBS Radio from CBS followed by (ii) a merger of CBS Radio with Merger Sub (together, the Transactions).

In connection with the Transactions and pursuant to a Master Separation Agreement, dated as of February 2, 2017 among CBS and CBS Radio (the Separation Agreement), CBS will, among other things, transfer the CBS Radio Business to CBS Radio (the Reorganization) and, thereafter, will distribute (the Distribution) to the CBS common shareholders all of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of CBS Radio (the CBS Radio Common Stock), as further described below.

Immediately following the Distribution, in accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into CBS Radio (the Merger), with CBS Radio continuing as the surviving company in the Merger and as a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company.

Upon consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, each share of CBS Radio Common Stock outstanding will automatically be converted into one share of Class A common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (the Company Class A Common Stock) such that former holders of CBS Radio Common Stock will receive approximately 105 million shares of Company Class A Common Stock, representing approximately 72% of the issued and outstanding Company Class A Common Stock on a fully diluted basis following the Merger in the aggregate, and the existing holders of Company Class A Common Stock will own the remaining 28% of the issued and outstanding Company Class A Common Stock on a fully diluted basis following the Merger in the aggregate.

Separation Agreement

The Separation Agreement governs the rights and obligations of CBS and CBS Radio regarding the Reorganization, and provides, among other things, for the transfer by CBS to CBS Radio of certain assets, and the assumption by CBS Radio of certain liabilities, related to the CBS Radio Business. The Separation Agreement also governs the rights and obligations of CBS and CBS Radio regarding the Distribution. The Distribution will be effected through an exchange offer of currently issued and outstanding shares of common stock of CBS for CBS Radio Common Stock, which would be followed by a pro rata, clean-up distribution of any unsubscribed shares.

The Separation Agreement sets forth other agreements between CBS, CBS Radio and the Company related to the Distribution, including provisions concerning the termination and settlement of intercompany accounts and obtaining of necessary governmental approvals and third-party consents. The Separation Agreement also sets forth agreements that govern certain aspects of the relationship between CBS, CBS Radio and the Company after the Distribution, including provisions with respect to release of claims, indemnification, insurance, access to financial and other information and access to and provision of records. The parties have mutual ongoing indemnification obligations following the Distribution with respect to losses related to the CBS Radio Business and CBS business, respectively.

Consummation of the Distribution is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of all conditions under the Merger Agreement.

Agreement and Plan of Merger

The Merger Agreement provides the material terms of the Merger, pursuant to which CBS Radio will become a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company.

The Merger Agreement provides that, immediately following the Distribution, Merger Sub will merge with and into CBS Radio, with CBS Radio surviving the Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. At the effective time of the Merger, each outstanding share of CBS Radio's common stock will be converted into the right to receive an equal number of shares of Company Class A Common Stock, on the terms and subject to the conditions of the Merger Agreement. After the completion of the Merger, former holders of CBS common stock and existing shareholders of the Company will own approximately 72% and 28%, respectively, of the Company's common stock on a fully-diluted basis.

The Merger Agreement provides that, following the consummation of the Merger, the Company's Board of Directors will be comprised of nine members including four CBS selected directors. The Company and the Company's Class A directors will select the remaining five directors. In addition, two of CBS's designees to the Board of Directors will agree to resign upon the earlier of six months following the Closing or the first post-Closing annual meeting of the Company's shareholders.

The Merger Agreement contains customary and generally reciprocal representations and warranties made by each of CBS, the Company and Merger Sub. CBS and the Company have also agreed to various covenants in the Merger Agreement, including, among other things, covenants (i) to conduct their respective material operations in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, (ii) not to take certain actions prior to the closing of the Merger without the prior consent of the other, (iii) for CBS not to compete in certain business operations with the Company for two years following the closing of the Merger, including the over-the-air radio broadcasting business and the distribution of audio programming for broadcasting, in each case subject to customary exceptions and (iv) for CBS not to solicit or hire any CBS Radio employees for at least 18 months from the closing of the Merger, subject to customary exceptions.

In addition, the Company has agreed (i) to cause a shareholder meeting to be held for the purpose of voting upon (a) the amendment of the Company's charter to increase the number of authorized shares of Company Class A Common Stock and the issuance of shares of Company Class A Common Stock pursuant to the Merger (together, the Stock Issuance) and (b) the amendment to the charter of the Company in order to provide that the Company's board of directors be classified, effective as of the closing of the Mergers (together with the Stock Issuance, the Company Shareholder Approvals), (ii) not to solicit other acquisitions proposals and, except under limited circumstances and with respect to unsolicited proposals, not to enter into discussions concerning, or provide information in connection with, alternative transactions, (iii) not to submit any alternative proposal for one year after termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances and (iv) subject to certain exceptions, to recommend that the Company's shareholders vote in favor of the Company Shareholder Approvals.

In addition, on February 2, 2017, Joseph M. Field, who holds a controlling voting interest in the Company through his ownership of Class B common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (the Company Class B Common Stock), entered into a voting agreement with the Company, pursuant to which Mr. Field has committed to vote in favor of the Company Shareholder Approvals and not to tender into or vote for any alternative proposal for one year after termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, subject to the terms and conditions of such voting agreement. The voting agreement is included as Exhibit I to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Merger Agreement also provides that CBS Radio and CBS shall use their respective reasonable best efforts to consummate certain financing transactions in order to repay certain indebtedness of the Company (the CBS Radio Financing) and, if the commitments for the CBS Radio Financing become unavailable on the terms agreed, to obtain alternative financing.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to various conditions, including, among others, (i) the consummation of the Reorganization and the Distribution in accordance with the Separation Agreement; (ii) the effectiveness of the Company's registration statement registering the Company Class A Common Stock to be issued pursuant to the Merger Agreement, and any other required Registration Statement (as defined in the Merger Agreement); (iii) approval of the Company Shareholder Approvals by the requisite vote of the Company's shareholders; (iv) expiration of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended; (v) receipt of all necessary consents from the Federal Communications Commission and certain other state communications authorities for the Transactions; (vi) receipt of opinions of counsel to the effect that the Merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended; (vii) prior to or substantially simultaneously with the effectiveness of the Merger, the receipt by CBS Radio of the CBS Radio Financing; (viii) material compliance by each party with the covenants in the Merger Agreement and (ix) the absence of breaches of representations and warranties that would have a material adverse effect on the Company or CBS Radio. The parties have agreed to use their respective reasonable best efforts to obtain all necessary regulatory approvals for the Merger.

The Merger Agreement provides for certain mutual termination rights of the Company and CBS, including the right of either party to terminate the Merger Agreement: (i) if the Merger is not consummated prior to November 2, 2017, which date may be extended to May 2, 2018, by either party under certain circumstances (the Outside Date); (ii) if a Governmental Authority (as defined in the Merger Agreement) issues an Order (as defined in the Merger Agreement) permanently enjoining the consummation of the Merger or imposing a Burdensome Restriction (as defined in the Merger Agreement); (iii) the U.S. Federal Communications Commission denies the FCC Application with respect to a material license; (iv) if the approval of the Company Shareholder Approvals has not been obtained at a duly convened meeting of the Company's shareholders held therefor; (v) if any law permanently restrains, enjoins or makes illegal the consummation of the Transactions and such law becomes effective; (vi) in the event that the other party breaches any of its representations, warranties, covenants or other agreements in the Merger Agreement (and, in the case of CBS, in the Separation Agreement) such that certain closing conditions are not able to be satisfied, and such breach is not cured within 30 days of notice of such breach by the other party; or (vii) if, prior to approval by the Company's shareholders of the Company Shareholder Approvals, the board of directors of the Company makes a change in recommendation, in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement.

In addition, CBS may terminate the Merger Agreement if the Company's board of directors changes its recommendation that the Company's shareholders approve the Charter Amendments, other than as described above.

If the Merger Agreement is terminated by CBS or the Company under certain circumstances, then the Company is obligated to pay CBS a onetime fee equal to $30 million (the Acquiror Termination Fee). The Company must pay the Acquiror Termination Fee upon or after termination of the Merger Agreement under the following circumstances:

if (a) an alternative acquisition proposal is publicly announced to acquire at least 50% of Company Class A Common Stock, at least 50% of the Company's assets or Company assets that generate at least 50% of the Company's net revenue or net income; (b) thereafter the Merger Agreement is terminated (i) by CBS or the Company if the Company Shareholder Approvals have not been obtained, (ii) by CBS or the Company if the Merger does not close by the Outside Date (if the Company Shareholder Approvals have not theretofore been obtained) or (iii) by CBS if the Company has committed a material and uncured breach of its covenants set forth in the Merger Agreement; and (c) the Company consummates or enters into an agreement to consummate an alternative acquisition transaction within one-year of such termination;

CBS terminates the Merger Agreement because the Company's Board of Directors changes its recommendation to be against voting in favor of the Company Shareholder Approvals;

The Company or CBS terminates the Merger Agreement because the Company Board of Directors changes its recommendation to against voting in favor of the Company Shareholder Approvals in response to an intervening event, as defined in the Merger Agreement;

The Company terminates the Merger Agreement to enter into an acquisition agreement with respect to an acquisition proposal that the Board of Directors determines to be a superior proposal pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement.

In addition, under certain circumstances, the Board of Directors has agreed not to submit alternative acquisition proposals or agreements to the Company's shareholders for approval at a shareholder meeting convened prior to the twelve-month anniversary of the termination of the Merger Agreement.

Other Agreements

The parties to the Merger Agreement have agreed to enter into certain ancillary agreements related to the Transaction in the form attached to the Merger Agreement, as described below.

At or prior to the closing of the Merger, the Company, CBS and CBS Radio will enter into a Tax Matters Agreement, which will govern the Company's, CBS's and CBS Radio's respective rights, responsibilities and obligations with respect to taxes, tax attributes, the preparation and filing of tax returns, tax contests, preservation of tax-free status of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and the Separation Agreement and certain other tax matters. In general, CBS will be responsible for all taxes of CBS Radio for periods before the Distribution, and the Company will be responsible for all taxes of CBS Radio for periods after the Distribution.

Different rules apply to any tax liability arising as a result of the Distribution and certain related transactions. While those transactions are intended to be tax-free, significant tax liability could arise if they are not. The Tax Matters Agreement allocates this tax liability between CBS and the Company. In general, the Company is liable for all or a portion of any resulting taxes if the Distribution is taxable as a result of any action or failure to act by the Company that affects the tax-free status of the Distribution. CBS is liable in all other cases. The form of the Tax Matters Agreement is included as Exhibit D to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, and is incorporated herein by reference.

In addition, at the closing of the Merger, the Company and CBS will enter into a Transition Services Agreement, pursuant to which, after the effectiveness of the Merger, CBS will provide certain services to the Company, and the Company will provide certain services to CBS on a transitional basis to provide for an orderly separation of the CBS Radio Business. At the closing of the Merger, such parties will also enter into a Joint Digital Services Agreement, pursuant to which, after the effectiveness of the Merger, CBS will continue to operate the digital presences for CBS Radio's sports and news radio stations and CBS Radio will provide certain related digital content and services, all on a transitional basis to provide for an orderly separation of the CBS Local Digital Media operations. Both the Transition Services Agreement and the Joint Digital Services Agreement will terminate no later than two years after the Closing. The form of the Transition Services Agreement is included as Exhibit E to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, and is incorporated herein by reference. The form of the Joint Digital Services Agreement, which is incorporated herein by reference, is included as Exhibit C to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

In addition, at the closing of the Merger, the Merger Agreement contemplates that subsidiaries of CBS will also enter into three agreements with CBS Radio and certain subsidiaries of CBS Radio to license the use of certain intellectual property after the closing of the Merger. CBS Broadcasting will license the use of the CBS RADIO name for CBS Radio's use for up to 12 months (the Name License Agreement), subject to the terms of the Name License Agreement. Second, CBS Broadcasting and certain of its subsidiaries will also enter into an agreement to license the use of CBS mark and certain other brands by CBS Radio and certain of its subsidiaries (the Media License Agreement), subject to the term of the Media License Agreement. The rights pursuant to the Media License Agreement will expire with respect to brands containing the CBS letters 20 years after the closing of the Merger and endure perpetually for certain other brands. Third, CBS Broadcasting and certain of its subsidiaries will enter into an agreement to license the use of certain trademarks used in connection with the CBS Radio Sports Network for use by CBS Radio and CBS Radio Sports Network, Inc., a Delaware Corporation, at least through December 31, 2020 (the Sports License Agreement and, together with the Name License Agreement and the Media License Agreement, the License Agreements), subject to the terms and conditions of the Sports License Agreement. Forms of the License Agreements are included as Exhibit B to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, and are incorporated herein by reference.

In addition, on February 2, 2017, Joseph M. Field, Marie Field and David J. Field entered into a side letter with the Company, pursuant to which such shareholders agreed to, immediately prior to the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, convert a specified amount of Company Class B Common Stock into Company Class A Common Stock, and to certain restrictions on the transfer of common stock (with exceptions for certain estate planning transfers) for nine months after closing of the Merger. Such stockholders also agreed to automatically convert certain of their shares of Company Class B Common Stock into shares of Company Class A Common Stock upon the occurrence of certain events, subject to the terms and conditions of the side letter. The form of the side letter is included as Exhibit H to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, and is incorporated herein by reference.
